Hilltop Schools To Close Next Week

The Spectator
By C.C. Hartley

YMCA Has a Birthday

One hundred four years ago in London the YMCA was first organized. The date was June 6, 1844.

And 104 years later the Hilltop branch of the "Y" is ready to open up with a youth program for youngsters of this community.

Work is nearly completed on the decorating of the old Weber home at Burgess-av and Broadst and Averille Thorn, secretary, states he has several activities lined up and that within a few weeks the program will be going full blast.

The opening of the "Y" program comes just at the conclusion of school and it is hoped that youngsters of the Hilltop will avail themselves of the new activity. It should become more and more interesting from week to week.

The YMCA is solidly rooted in the lives of thousands of communities around the world and in the 104 years has kept young by a continuous inflow of new generations and has worn its burden of years lightly and promises to add many more decades of increasingly fruitful service.

Local Pastor Breaks With Church, Starts New Group

Rev. James F. Lorenz, pastor and organizer of Westgate Methodist Church, this week disavowed Methodism and announced plans for the formation of a new church on the Hilltop.

His decision to break with the church was announced to the conference relations committee at the annual conference of Methodist

Rev. Schreiber Is Assigned To Westgate Methodist Church

Rev. Norman Schreiber, pastor of the University Methodist Church in Columbus for the past five years, was assigned to Westgate Methodist Church this week. He is married and the father of one child.

A spokesman for the church said that services would be held as usual on Sunday with the new pastor in charge.

Churches of this area Tuesday morning. He cited church hierarchy and interference with preaching the Gospel as he was ons.

"I do not believe in the hierarchy of the church where a minister is compelled to move without a request from the church because the bishop and the cabinet feel that the hour has come for a change," Rev. Lorenz told The Hilltop Record.

He explained that he was scheduled for reassignment to another church (not of his choosing) in spite of the fact that the pastor relations committee of Westgate Church asked for his return. He indicated that pressure had been brought to bear from other members of the church who were not satisfied with his stand ut preaching against "some of the social evils of the day."

At the same time that he announced that he had broken with the church, Rev. Lorenz announced plans for the organization of a new Hilltop church to be known as the Christian Church. Plans are being made for holding Sunday School services in West High School Auditorium this Sunday. Morning worship will follow at 10:30 a. m., he said. The new church will have no affiliation with churches of any denomination.

The pastor said that he was born a Methodist and had been brought up in the ways of Methodism. He has been preaching since 1936. He helped to organize and became the first pastor of Westgate Methodist Church, 345 S. Brinker-av. First services were held in the West High Auditorium on Pearl Harbor Day, Dec. 7, 1941.

From that beginning the church has grown to a membership of 600. It now occupies the basement part of a new stone church structure that was built little more than a year ago. According to Lorenz the church property and equipment is valued at $100,000. He said that it is indebted to the extent of $24,000.

Edgewood Chapel Protests Granting Of D-5 Permit

Members and officials of the Edgewood Chapel United Brethren Church, 496 S. Wheatland-av, are expected to appear at a public hearing Friday to protest the issuing of a D-5 night club permit to the 920 Club at 2330 Sullivant-av.

The application for a liquor permit is one of several from the Hilltop area on file with the Department of Liquor Control. The hearing is set for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning at the department's hearing room. The church is within a 500-foot radius of the applicant and thus comes under the law in having an opportunity to protest the granting of the permit. A formal protest has been filed by the church, it is understood.

The Record was unable to find out whether or not the Wheatland Avenue Methodist Church had filed a protest against the application. The pastor, Rev. Thomas Linsley, was out of town and could not be reached for a statement. The Wheatland Avenue church also comes under the 500-foot radius of the applicant.

Hilltop YMCA To Have Opening Here June 19

June 19 has been set as the date for the "open house" at headquarters of the Hilltop YMCA.

An office was opened in the Teen Club building at the corner of W. Broad-st and Burgess-av. Work of cleaning up and decorating the premises is continuing this week.

Averille Thorn, executive secretary of the new branch "Y", said that volunteer help could be used to good advantage in the clean-up campaign any time Saturday. West High School students interested in the center are invited to come and help with the work.

Members of the Hilltop YMCA Board are expected to be in attendance on the evening of June 19 when the place is thrown open to public inspection for the first time.

Baseball Team Feted By Kiwanis Club Last Night

Members of the West High School baseball team and Coach George Williams were to have been guests of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club at a dinner meeting at Schmidzer's Restaurant last night.

Floyd Stahl, baseball coach at Ohio State University, was scheduled to bring the address of the evening. Dale Rose, football coach at Capital University and a member of the Kiwanis Club, was toastmaster.

Next Thursday's luncheon meeting will feature a Kiwanis education program to be presented by Roger Strauss.

Photo Contest Voting To Be Next Week

The climax to The Hilltop Record – J. Curtis Allen baby photo contest is rapidly approaching. Next week a special coupon will be printed in the Record to be used in voting for grand prize winners in the two age groups.

All votes must be at the Record office not later than 12 o'clock noon on Monday, June 14. Ballots may be mailed or left at the Record office during office hours or deposited in the mail slot at the office, located at 2465 W. Broad-st.

The first group is the children under one year. The second is comprised of those one year through six years of age. Prizes totaling $250 will be awarded the winning contestants, who will be chosen from a group of 36 winners, to be reprinted in next week's Record.

Color enlargements of all the weekly winners are on display in the window of Seiler's Department Store, 2404-12 W. Broad-st.

These winners, whose pictures were carried in The Hilltop Record during the past six weeks, were chosen from a field of several hundred children, all of whose pictures were taken by J. Curtis Allen, photographer at 221 N. Ogden-av.

Judges in the photo contest were Allen; Miss Bess Sperry, Alhambra Apartments, a teacher at West Broad Street School; and C. O. Rawlings, 621 Chestershire-rd, president of the Hilltop Community Council. These judges will supervise tabulation of the coupons at the close of the voting.

Remember, the coupon for voting will appear only once, June 10, and in The Hilltop Record exclusively. The final winners' names will be disclosed in the Record of June 17.

1st Playgrounds To Open June 14

The Hilltop's three park playgrounds — Glenwood, Westgate and Holton — will be officially opened on June 14, with the two school playgrounds — John Burroughs and West Broad — opening one week later, on June 21. Supervisors will be announced during the coming week.

The Hilltop Community Council, in conjunction with both the City Recreation Department and the Board of Education, will again be in charge of the opening day ceremonies.

Mrs. Roy Hastilow, 907 Mudland-av, the general chairman, stated this week that plans have been completed for the openings, with Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and the Bluebird organizations participating.

Prizes for the many field and athletic events will be donated by the Hilltop Kiwanis and Hilltop Business Associations.

Little Judy Wolfe Now "Doing Nicely" After Month's Coma

Little six-year-old Judy Wolfe, who lay in a coma at Mt. Carmel Hospital for 30 days after being struck by an auto, regained consciousness Friday when her little brother, Bruce, three and one-half, patted her on the cheek and asked, "Are you alright, Judy?"

Although still unable to speak Judy smiled and nodded her head. Again Saturday when her father spoke to her the little girl smiled up at him.

The child is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Wolfe, 336 N. Sylvan-av.

At Record press time, hospital attaches said Judy was "doing nicely now."

Wandering Bees Return Home For The Second Time

G. W. Hayslip, 3577 Plainview-dr, has come to the conclusion that either his bees are affected by the housing shortage too, or else they have new radar control sets.

For about four years Mr. Hayslip has been a keeper of bees. But a year ago last fall his swarm left him, supposedly for greener pastures. Much to his surprise his "little buzzing friends" returned last spring and hunted for their hives which he had placed up near the barn.

One day last fall the local bee-keeper was inspecting his hives (bee, that is) and he found that the troop had died out or left him again, and not a bee was in sight.

The other afternoon a member of the family heard a swarm of bees heading for the Hayslip household and reported the incident to "G. W." Later that day Mr. Hayslip went out to the barn where he had stored the bee hives, found that the bees had again returned and sought out their former homes.

"Some people probably won't believe that they did come back," he said, "but they're there now, and anyone who wants to come out and see for himself is welcome."

2 More War Dead Being Returned

While the Hilltop honored its dead from all wars Monday, two more local boys were being brought home for burial. They are Pvt. Roy Jaynes and Pfc. Robert M. (Dick) Tresenrider.

They were returned from the Pacific Area aboard the transport Lt. George W. Boyce.

Roy Jaynes

Pvt. Roy Jaynes, 36, son of Mr. and Mrs. Estyn Jaynes, 1573 Thomas-av, lost his life while with a cavalry unit Christmas Day, 1943, in the Southwest Pacific. He entered the service from Oak Hill, May 10, 1942, where the family lived. He is also survived by three sisters, Georgia and Nada Jaynes, and Mrs. Audrey Frazy, all of Columbus; and three brothers, Roger and Stewart Jaynes both of Columbus, and Cpl. Jaynes, San Jose, Cal.

Another brother, Howard Jaynes, lost his life in an auto accident at Canal Winchester last year.

Robert M. Tresenrider

Pfc. Robert M. (Dick) Tresenrider, son of Mrs. Frances Tresenrider, 97 N. Powell-av, lost his life June 29, 1944, while with the infantry unit on New Guinea. He had been in the service about two years. He was an alumnus of West High School. He is also survived by his former wife, Mrs. Miriam Tresenrider Curtis; a son, Michael Tresenrider, 4, both of Dayton; and two brothers, Pvt. R. Tresenrider and Louis A. Tresenrider, both of Columbus.

Ellis A. Jones, 87, Noted Dairy Farmer, Succumbs Thursday

Ellis A. Jones, 87, prominent Columbus dairy farmer, died on Thursday at the home of a daughter, Esther Jones, 3779 Sullivant-av.

Mr. Jones, whose death was due to a heart attack, received a bronze plaque from Gov. Thomas J. Herbert at last year's Ohio State Fair in recognition of more than 60 years of outstanding work in the Ohio dairy industry.

A native of Wales, he came to the United States at the age of 21 and lived on the Hilltop most of his life. He was president of the Briggsdale Farmers Union and a former member of the Franklin Township Board of Education.

Ellis A. Jones

Young people of all denominations throughout the city became acquainted with Mr. Jones at hayrides and wiener roasts which he sponsored for them at his country home.

In addition to his daughter, Esther, he is survived by three other daughters and two sons, Minnie Jones, 1391 W. Town-st; a teacher at John Burroughs School; Mrs. Mary Demurest of Briggs-rd; Mrs. Lydia Shrum, 71 N. Burgess-av; Ellis W. Jones, 745 Wilson-rd; and John L. Jones, 237 N. Harris-av. He also leaves four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services were held Sunday at 3 p. m. by Jerry Speaks. Burial was in the Alton Cemetery.

Hawthorne To Head Glenwood Council

Robert Hawthorne has been elected president of the Glenwood Men's Council for the coming year following the final meeting of the season. The group is made up of men of Glenwood Methodist Church.

Other officers named were Clyde Morse, vice-president; A. S. Brown, secretary; H. F. Remington, treasurer, and Clarence Smith, delegate-at-large.

Legion Meets Tomorrow Night

Camp Chase Post, American Legion will hold nomination and election of members for the nominating committee and for delegates to the district and department conventions at the next regular meeting of the group Friday evening, June 4, at post headquarters.

GET FELLOWSHIPS

James W. Raab, Jr., 58 N. Burgess-av, and Paul M. Smith, Jr., 1827 Cambridge-blvd, have been awarded S. S. Huebner Foundation for Insurance Education Fellowships, the University of Pennsylvania announced Tuesday.

WITTENBERG GRAD

James Mullaney, 611 Larcomb-av, will be graduated by Wittenberg College in commencement exercises Monday.

HILLTOP WAR DEAD HONORED — The memory of West High School students of former years who gave their lives in World War II was fittingly honored Friday by the presentation and dedication of this bronze plaque. The memorial was purchased by the Hilltop Kiwanis Club and presented to the school at a special assembly held Friday morning.

Youthful, Energetic Bill Gibbon

Heads Wallace-for-President Committee In Franklin Co.

By Paul Wichterman

Franklin County's number one booster in the Wallace-for-president movement is Hilltopper William (Bill) Gibbon.

Only 24 years of age and a veteran of four years in World War II, Gibbon is serving as president of the county-wide organization promoting the Wallace-Taylor independent candidacy. Although not a candidate at the present time, he admits that he is politically ambitious and will more than like be an independent candidate for some state office in the November election. As a matter of fact it is not too remote to consider the possibility of his seeking the office of congressman from this district.

"That all depends on whom we may be able to get to become candidates for the various offices," Gibbon says.

He points out that a congressman can be seated in the national assembly when he is 25 years of age. That is not too far away in his case.

Just why has he jumped aboard the Wallace bandwagon?

Bill explains it this way:

"I spent four years in service. During that time I had an opportunity to see some of the things war can do to people . . . I have dedicated myself to endeavor to help maintain peace throughout the world . . . Wallace offers the only program for peace today. That's why I'm supporting him."

How strong is the Wallace-for-president movement in Franklin County?

"We have already obtained the signatures of 2,000 persons on petitions to have his name put on the ballot . . . Many would not sign the petitions because of fear of losing their jobs if it became known but they are with us."

Predicts 30,000 Votes

The Wallace-for-president chairman predicts a vote of at least 30,000 in Franklin County.

Hilltop Business Association Firms To Start Issuing Scrip On June 11

In these days of inflation it is a strange thing indeed to be able to make a purchase and get money back in change. But starting June 11 when you make a purchase with members of the Hilltop Business Association they are going to give you back a dollar for every dollar you spend with them.

It's true. No strings attached . . . when you spend a dollar or make a payment on account you will receive that amount back in Hilltop Scrip money.

Thousands of dollars of scrip have been printed up and are now being delivered to Hilltop business firms for distribution starting next Friday, June 11.

Next week's Hilltop Record will carry a full list of those firms which will give the scrip away with purchases.

This is number one feature on a full program for the Hilltop Bean Dinner to be given by the association at Westgate Park on Wednesday afternoon and evening, July 28.

So start saving your scrip next week, and hold on to it because it will have some real value for you at the bean dinner. That afternoon and evening a big auction will be held, at which time $1000 in merchandise will go on the block to the highest bidder — with only scrip to be accepted in payment.

The more scrip you have the more you can bid on merchandise at the bean dinner. It will be a lot of fun for everyone and it doesn't cost a cent.

Both the bean dinner and scrip auction are being revived this year after several years lapse during the war. It is anticipated that more than 100 members of the Hilltop Business Association will participate by giving out scrip with purchases. It is being issued in denominations of 50c, $1 and $5. Only members of the association will be privileged to give out the scrip.

Numerous carnival attractions, pony rides, etc., have been lined up for the afternoon and evening.

249 West Seniors To Receive Diplomas In Commencement Exercises Thursday

The close of another year of school next week will be welcomed by several thousand school children of the Hilltop area. For 249 seniors at West High School it will be the end of their secondary education.

The West graduates will get their diplomas at commencement exercises to be held in the school auditorium at 10 a. m. Thursday. Baccalaureate services will be held on Sunday at 3 p. m.

West Junior High will graduate 206 in commencement exercises on Wednesday evening.

Starling Junior High will hold graduation ceremonies for 180 on Tuesday evening. Class speakers will be Shirley Shell and Vernon Feen.

Closing exercises for the eighth grade graduates of St. Aloysius School will be held in church on Sunday afternoon, June 6, at 4 o'clock. Twenty-nine students will receive their certificates.

Jimmie Thompson Is Honored Here By Fellow Scouts

Jimmie Thompson, 13, was honored by fellow Boy Scouts and parents of his troop Tuesday night when a special letter of commendation from Mayor James A. Rhodes was presented to him. Still other honors await him for on July 23 a citation for Meritorious Service will be presented at the Eagle Court of Honor to be held at Camp Lazarus.

Jimmie became a hero last Dec. 19 when he extinguished flames that threatened to engulf eight-year-old Martha Petrosio. The incident happened when an open candle ignited the dressing gown of the little girl as she was appearing in a Christmas program at school. Jimmie, who was standing in the wings, rushed out on the stage and put out the blaze. Martha continued on with her lines and sang her song, oblivious to the danger from which she had been rescued.

The young Boy Scout is a member of Troop 250 at St. Aloysius Church. He is also a den chief of Den 4 of Cub Pack 250. He is a second class scout. His mother, Mrs. Paul N. Thompson, 23 Volney-av, will celebrate her birthday on the same day that her son receives the coveted Meritorious Service Award.

Playground Equipment Is Installed

Workmen started to install playground equipment Tuesday morning in the controversial Columbian-av city-owned park site.

N. J. Barack, director of recreation for the city, told The Hilltop Record Tuesday that the play equipment would be installed near the southwest corner of the tract and a fence put up along Columbian-av to protect children from the dangers of traffic.

The equipment will not be put to use until a temporary protecting fence is erected, he said. The playground will be ready for use when other parks are opened to the public next week.

Some of the residents of Columbian-av stopped workmen when they first appeared on the scene to install the equipment two weeks ago. Last week members of the Mound Street PTA insisted that the project go ahead.

Robert L. Burke, 501 Columbian-av, told the Record this week that he wanted it made clear that he and a group of his neighbors were not opposed to the location of the playground but wanted to be sure that it would be protected by a fence so that small children would not be subject to the traffic hazards of Columbian-av.

Meanwhile Mrs. James Mooney, 489 Columbian-av, one of those who originally opposed the location of the play center, was still not reconciled to its installation as planned by the Recreation Department. She contacted Barack again on Tuesday asking that the plans be changed so that the play site could be moved out into another area. Barack said this would interfere with later plans for creation of two softball diamonds.

HBA To Have Picnic Meeting

Because of the close of schools and graduation activities the Hilltop Business Association will meet June 15 instead of next Tuesday, C. H. (Doc) Campbell, secretary of the organization, said this week.

The June meeting will be a picnic supper at Westgate Park for members and their wives or husbands. The entire dinner will be provided by the Association, so there will be nothing to bring.

It will be the last meeting until fall.

Goewey Heads Ministerial Group

Rev. J. Herbert Goewey, pastor of the Hillcrest Baptist Church, has been elected president of the Hilltop Ministerial Association. He succeeds Rev. Chester Stanley, pastor of the Highland Avenue Friends Church.

Other officers for the new year are Rev. J. L. Dean, vice-president, and Rev. James Lorenz, secretary-treasurer.

The association will not meet again until September.

Civil War Dead To Be Honored Here Sunday

The spirit of the "Old South" will engulf the Confederate Cemetery on Sullivant-av next Sunday, and if you listen closely the tramping of marching feet might barely be distinguished. For on June 6 the Daughters of the Confederacy will return to the site of the old Camp Chase of Civil War days, to place flowers on the 2260 graves of their ancestors.

Each year the Robert E. Lee chapter of the United Daughters has a special Memorial Day program in honor of the South's warriors. Mrs. W. M. Pryor, 463 S. Parkview-av, is the chairman of this year's program.

Col. Frederick Kirker, who served as chaplain of the 37th Division in the recent war, will be the guest speaker. The Franklin Post Band will furnish the music, and John Martindale, commander of the Camp Chase Post 98, American Legion, will be in charge of the program. The time of service is set for 2:30 p. m.

Funds for the decoration of the graves (an American and a Confederate flag will also grace the head of each grave) are raised by southern units of the women's organization.

The public is invited to attend this annual affair.

Jones-Shears Vows Exchanged April 11

Mr. and Mrs. George Shears, 440 Townsend-av, announce the marriage of their daughter, Billie Gene, to Mr. John F. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jones, 217 S. Princeton-av.

The double-ring ceremony was performed April 11 in the Bethlehem Lutheran Church with Rev. Elmer Klamfoth officiating. Miss Marion Martin presented a program of nuptial music preceding the service.

Jane Halverson, cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor. Brides matrons were Mrs. Mary Ellen Hamilton and Mrs. Ruth Charles.

Mr. Richard Jones attended his brother as best man, while Mr. James Myer and Mr. William Rutherford, seated the guests.

A church reception immediately followed the ceremony, with Mrs. Virginia Ware, Mrs. Dorothy Jones, Mrs. Donno Casto and Betty Reutty as assisting hostesses.

After a short wedding trip, the new Mr. and Mrs. Jones reside at 440 Townsend-av.

Semper Fidelis Circle Plans Annual Picnic

The Semper Fidelis Circle of Robert Morris Chapter will meet in the home of Mrs. Nora Hummell, 121 S. Westgate-av, Monday, evening, June 14, for its annual picnic.

Those attending are asked to bring covered dish and table service. Serving will begin promptly at 6:15 p. m.

West Graduates Exchange Vows Here On May 28

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Batteiger, 253 N. Burgess-av, announce the marriage of their daughter, Jean, to Mr. John Jesster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jester, 303 N. Warren-av. The marriage was solemnized in St. John's Lutheran Church, on May 28, at 4 o'clock. Rev. C. W. Langholz was the officiating pastor.

Attending the bride was Mrs. Jerry Geisler. Mr. Richard Jester, of Granville, attended his cousin as best man.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of West High School. She is now with the Ohio Bell Telephone Company and after serving 30 months with the Marine Corp in the South Pacific her husband is associated with the Culbertson-Henderson Company.

The couple will reside temporarily at 303 N. Warren-av.

Mound PTA Plans Annual School Picnic

West Mound Elementary PTA will hold its annual picnic on Wednesday, June 9, at 5:30 at the school. Games for the children and entertainment for the adults are being planned by the committee in charge.

A paper drive will be held on Monday, June 7. Residents of the community are asked to place all their old newspapers, magazines, etc., on their front porches or at the curb on that day.

The following officers for the next year have been elected:

Mrs. Harold Beard, president; Mrs. Madeira Crispin, first vice president; E. B. Graham, second vice-president; Mrs. Robert Bottman, secretary; Mrs. Victor Fippin, treasurer. Councillors are Mrs. John Hyer, Mrs. Paul Campbell, and Mrs. Charles Vagnier. Alternates are Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Winfield Shields, and Mrs. Orville Suver.

Advertising in The Hilltop Record, we believe, is a sound business investment for a sound business enterprise. It is not a substitute for essential requisites of business success.

Watts-Coffman Vows Exchanged April 16 At Hillcrest Church

Before an altar lighted with traditional seven branch candelabra and beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and large baskets of white stock and snapdragons, Miss Barbara Coffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Coffman, 105 Eldon-av, exchanged wedding vows in a double ring ceremony with Mr. William Albert Watts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Watts, 208 Demorest-av, on April 16 at 8 p. m. The open church ceremony was in Hillcrest Baptist Church with Rev. J. H. Goewey officiating.

The bride, dressed in a tailored gown of gleaming white slipper satin, the peplum forming her wide cathedral train, was escorted down the aisle on the arm of her father. Her finger-tip veil of bridal illusion edged with chantilly lace was held in place by a tiara of crystal and seed pearls. She carried a large arm bouquet of white carnations centered with a corsage made up of two carnations the color of each bridesmaid's bouquet.

The bridesmaids' dresses of heavy crepe were styled on the same lines as that of the bride with long matching gloves of the same material and self covered tiaras.

The maid of honor, Miss Wanda Coffman, sister of the bride was dressed in royal blue, carrying an arm bouquet of yellow carnations.

Miss Gilberta Coffman served as junior bridesmaid for her sister. She carried an arm bouquet of royal blue carnations; her dress was lime yellow.

The two bridesmaids, Miss Joan Fondaw, and Miss Marjorie Jackson, were dressed in wine and pink respectively, each carrying arm bouquets of carnations.

Mr. Carol Trabue served as best man for Mr. Watts. The ushers were Mr. Charles Shaw, Mr. Martin Theil, and Mr. James Scott.

A half hour of music preceded the ceremony. Miss Joan Huschman as soloist, with Mrs. Paul Crosier at the organ.

Immediately following the wedding, 190 guests were served refreshments at a reception in the fellowship room of the church. Hostesses were Mrs. Graham Prior, Mrs. R. M. Milstead, Misses Pauline Miller, Janet Moran, Rowena Self and Betsy Ann Sparks.

For traveling the bride changed to a suit of middy blue with accessories to match. Her jewelry, a gold choker and earrings, was a gift of the groom. She wore the corsage from the center of her bridal bouquet.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Coffman chose a dinner gown of grey crepe trimmed with silver beads and carried a silver bag. She wore a corsage of pink carnations.

Banquet Completes John Burroughs PTA

An appreciative crowd attended the annual spring banquet of the John Burroughs PTA last Friday evening in Glenwood Church. Mrs. Edward Bradfute, 330 S. Ogden-av, the retiring president (for past two years), was presented with a pin and earring set by the executive board and a past president's pin.

The dinner was attended by many teachers of the school. The speaker was Dr. Floyd Faust, pastor of the Broad Street Church of Christ. Rev. Carl Driscoll, pastor-elect of Grace Lutheran Church, Dover, was the toastmaster.

The Burroughs' PTA showed a grand profit on the money-making projects of the school year. The annual Christmas bazaar and ham dinner held last fall netted $394.28; cookie sales showed a profit of $430.41; an original play realized $207.14; an amateur variety show added $187.53. Membership for the year totaled 672.

Money spent during the year purchased blacktop courts, swings, books for each room, milk cooler, milk bar, hot plate, drip-olator, coffee servers and trays, equipped PTA room for all organizations to meet in.

An extended program of Cub Scouts, Brownie and Girl Scouts was carried out during the year. In order to provide a meeting place for some of the groups the PTA group paid for the use of the school building.

A BRIDE OF MAY 7—Mrs. Raymond E. Grassle is the former Suzanne Walker of 331 S. Roys-av. (Citizen Photo)

Suzanne Walker And Raymond E. Grassle Married On May 7

In a double ring ceremony on May 7, Miss Suzanne Walker became the bride of Mr. Raymond E. Grassle in the Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church. Rev. C. F. Lutz read the 8:30 o'clock service before an altar decorated with white gladioli, fernery and seven-branch candelabra.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Walker, 331 S. Roys-av, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lucille Grassle, 3090 Steele-av, and Mr. Raymond A. Grassle of West Jefferson.

The bride's wedding gown of white satin featured a bertha collar of lace, and a low waistline. The long sleeves came to points over the hands, and she wore a short train. A tiara of orange blossoms held her fingertip veil of bridal illusion. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses, centered with an orchid.

Mrs. William Lawless served her sister as matron of honor. Her gown was of blue marquisette, and her arm bouquet was of pink roses.

Preceding the ceremony, a half hour of music was presented by Miss Kitty Lou Cline, soloist, and Mrs. Richard Grant, organist.

Mr. Jack Mayhew acted as best man, and seating the guests were Mr. William Lawless and Mr. Paul Haughn.

A reception was held immediately following the wedding at the bride's home with Mrs. Paul Haughn and Miss Faye Grassle as the assisting hostesses. Mrs. Walker chose a black and white print dress for the occasion, and accented her costume with a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Grassle wore a dress of aqua print with a red rose corsage.

For her wedding trip to Cleveland, the bride wore a green print dress with accessories of brown and white. She wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet at her shoulder.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Grassle were graduated from West High School. She is now with the Columbus Board of Education and her husband is an employee of the New York Central Railroad.

They are residents of N. Harris-av.

What's In A Name? Kay Or Cave—Boys Get Dictionaries

Not only do the names "Kay" and "Cave" sound very similar over a telephone, but it happens that the voices of Mrs. Harold Kay, 91 Schultz-av, and Mrs. Ray Cave, 3122 Wicklow-rd, sound surprisingly alike.

It is on that similarity of voice that we will place the blame for an error in last week's Record.

Mrs. Kay called in to report that she was scheduled to present dictionaries to the Agonis winners at the dinner held May 24. All the while we thought we were talking to Mrs. Cave and consequently gave her credit for the presentation. Both ladies are prominent in school and other civic affairs. Both are past presidents of the West High School PTA.

We have talked with both ladies in person and via phone many times but that's the first time we didn't know to whom we were talking. Mrs. Kay gave the dictionaries for the Fartea Club of which she is president.

Incidentally, it isn't the first time the two have been mistaken for each other, they report. They frequently work on the same committees for Red Cross and other projects and often confuse fellow workers by similarity of name and voice.

DEATHS

Sgt. James W. Fryman

Funeral services for 1st Sgt. James Woodrow Fryman, 28, who was killed March 6, 1945, in Calcutta, India, were held at 1 p. m. Saturday at Born Funeral Home. Burial was in Green Lawn Cemetery.

While in Columbus, Sgt. Fryman made his home at 324 N. Burgess-av. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Fryman, Millersport, he was graduated from the Millersport High School. Prior to entering the service he was employed by the General Office Equipment Co. He went overseas with the Army Signal Corps in January, 1944.

Besides his parents, he is survived by his wife, Betty Lou; three brothers, Virgil Fryman, Granville; Carl Fryman, Toledo, and Victor Fryman, Thurston, O.; two sisters, Mrs. Wilma Shell of Akron and Mrs. Eva Suphen of Columbus.

Mrs. Mary Hartman

Funeral service for Mrs. Mary Hartman, 77, of 614 Nashoba-av, will be held at 2:30 p. m. Thursday in the Jerry Spears Funeral Home. Burial will be in Union Cemetery.

Mrs. Hartman, a resident of Columbus for 26 years, died Monday at her home following a six-month illness. She was a member of Second Ave. Methodist Church.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Thelma E. Stalnaker, and a son, Burleigh R. Hartman, both of the home; another son, Tally B. Hartman, 393 W. Second-av, and two grandchildren.

Robert Burns Brown

Robert Burns Brown, 62, of 1258 W. Town-st, died Monday in Dayton Veterans' Hospital. A veteran of World War I, he served as Fireman 2/c on the USS Massachusetts and the USS Camden. He was a native of Shawnee, Ohio.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Kathryn Brown; a daughter, Jessie Dow; two sons, Kenneth H. and Charles N. Brown; two sisters, Mrs. Paul Noon and Mrs. Albert Link, and four grandchildren, all of Columbus.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday at the home of Mrs. Link, 1344 W. Town-st, with Rev. William M. George of the West Park Methodist Church officiating. Burial will be in Green Lawn Cemetery by Shroyer Funeral Home.

Edith M. Cook

Mrs. Cock, 2508 Parkwood-av, died at her home Monday at the age of 86 years. She leaves a sister, Mrs. L. O. Linville, 325 Eldon-av.

She is also survived by a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Sells, with whom she made her home; three sons, Richard H. of Cleveland, Oscar P. of Newark and F. Howard of Youngstown; three brothers, Lyman of 247 S. Ogden-av, Harlan and William Hoffman of 209 S. Ogden-av; 12 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

She was one of the oldest members of Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church.

Funeral services were held Wednesday with interment in Greenlawn Cemetery.

Otto B. Davis

Mr. Davis, 76, died Tuesday at his home, 66 N. Terrace-av. He was a woodworker by trade.

He is survived by his wife, Carrie, a grandson, Richard Waters, 158 S. Hague-av, and a great-granddaughter.

Friends may call at the Born Funeral Home until time of service at 2 p. m. Friday. Interment will be in Greenlawn Cemetery.

Gilbert

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Gilbert, 769 S. Eureka-av, died last Wednesday in Children's Hospital.

Mrs. Gilbert is the former Marie Erlewein of Middleport.

Young Gibbon has always been a colorful and aggressive individual. At the age of 14 (before graduating from West Junior High School), he and Karl Dawson, also 14 at the time, started the Hill Tribune, a weekly newspaper competing with The Hilltop Record. This they continued to publish, along with their school work, for almost a year.

Edited Occident

This desire to help mold public opinion has cropped out in many of his activities since that time. The first printer's ink on his fingers was not easy to wash off. After discontinuing the Hill Tribune, Bill had his next try at journalism as editor of the Occident, West High School paper.

Following his graduation, he worked that summer as a copy boy on the Columbus Citizen. He enrolled at Miami University and after one semester enlisted in the Marine Corps. At Quantico, Va., he studied combat photography, later enrolling in a similar course put on by Life Magazine.

He was in the thick of things during the Normandy Invasion, working as a combat photographer on the battleship USS Texas. One of his shots of the first wounded Rangers being evacuated made the front pages of Columbus and other papers throughout the country and was reprinted in Saturday Evening Post. Later Gibbon was assigned to photographic work in the invasion of Southern France.

Honorably discharged from service in March, 1946, he worked for a few months as photographer and advertising salesman for The Hilltop Record and then accepted a job as editor of the state publication of the American Veterans Committee. At various times he has served as representative from the Columbus Chapter to the state council, chairman of the Columbus Chapter AVC and legislative representative for the state council.

He has been active in a drive to obtain temporary housing for veterans and for the maintenance of OPA and rent control as originally set up. He has campaigned to get a fair employment practices bill before the State General Assembly, a program he will renew when the state body reconvenes in January, 1949. After serving as vice chairman of Citizens Committee of Franklin County for more than a year under Henry Worley, Gibbon was made president of the club upon Worley's retirement.

In addition to his many activities, he has been enrolled at Ohio State University during the past two years. His major study has been political science. He dropped out during the spring quarter due to the press of political work. Bill lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William, at 124 S. Southampton-av.

"FIRST THING I EVER WON"

Mrs. C. S. Mundy, 101 N. Warren-av, received the "surprise of my life" last Wednesday evening, when a pot of flowers which she had won arrived at her home.

Mrs. Mundy said that they always buy their flowers from the Westlake Nursery, 1417 Brown-rd. This company, in turn, awards a sample of its product to some lucky customer each month.

"The reason the gift surprised me so," said the Hilltop lady, "was because it's the first thing I ever won!"

CARD OF THANKS

WORTHEN — We wish to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks to relatives, friends and neighbors for their acts of kindness and sympathy, and the beautiful floral offerings received at the funeral and burial of our dear son and brother, Pfc. Robert D. Worthen.

Special thanks to Rev. Joseph Shellhaas for his comforting message, to Howard Moore, soloist, and Mrs. Clyde Moore, organist. Gratitude is also extended to Mr. Minnameyer, chaplain of American Legion Post 98, and the Floyd Born Funeral Home.

Mrs. Ethel Titus Worthen and family.

CARD OF THANKS

We are sincerely grateful to our friends and neighbors for their expressions of sympathy and the beautiful floral tributes at the passing of our husband and father, William C. Krull. Especially do we thank the Rev. J. Herbert Goewey, the Dennison Engineering Co., the Hilltop Garage and the Ray O. Wones Funeral Home. All have our everlasting gratitude.

Mrs. Eva Malberger, 1815 Harrisburg-pk, spent last Tuesday in Lancaster.

Memorial Rites Honor Deceased Veterans Here

Appropriate memorial services were held Sunday by Camp Chase Post No. 98, American Legion, at the Alton and Sunset Cemeteries.

C. W. (Chet) Wagner, chairman of the memorial activities, expressed his appreciation to all who had any part in the services, particularly to Rev. James F. Lorenz and Rev. C. F. Lutz for their addresses and to the school children who brought flowers.

A survey revealed that 302 veterans have been buried at Sunset Cemetery. This number includes the following: Civil War veterans, 7; Spanish-American, 114; World War I, 142; Spanish-American and World War I, 2; World War II, 33; sailors (no war designated), 3; Canadian World War I, 1.

The number included 19 World War I veterans who were members of Camp Chase Post. Seven World War II veterans buried there were only recently brought back from countries abroad.

Horse Show Planned At River Ridge Club

The River Ridge Riding Club, 3115 Henderson-rd, will hold its first club horse show on Sunday, June 6, at 1:30 p. m.

Russ Carter, 128 N. Huron-av, and Amor Bogen, 1177 Ashland-pl, are co-chairmen of the affair. They said they expect it to be one of the most outstanding club shows of the season.

Only club riders and horses may compete for the trophies and ribbons. The public is invited to the show, for which there is no admission charge.

Tom McCray will act as judge, with Tom Justice as announcer.

SCHOOL NEWS

John Burroughs

The PTA banquet was held on May 28, at the Glenwood Methodist Church. Community Helpers was the activity unit for the 2B Class of Miss Neustadt's room. The culmination of activities was held in the form of a program on Thursday afternoon. Parents and friends of the children were invited. Mrs. Lucille Campbell, OSU student, directed the activities.

Miss Cuttell, who is from London, England, who now belongs to the International Club of the YWCA, gave the Girl Scout troop 102 a very nice talk on Girl Guides of England. Miss Cuttell has seen Queen Mary and King George in person.

Audrey Wise of 319 S. Ogden-av, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wise of the same address, broke her wrist in gym Thursday. It is now in a cast.

Our Miss Minnie Jones lost her father, Ellis A. Jones, 3779 Sullivant-av, May 27.

Do you remember the little one who was hit on Broad Street? Well, don't let it happen at John Burroughs. Please watch at noon and evening when driving by the school.

Summer Reading Plan Is Outlined By Hilltop Library

The Hilltop Branch of the Public Library at 21 N. Hague-av, has planned a reading club for the summer months called the "Quest of the Golden Apples."

The club, open to readers of any age, will begin on June 7, and continue through August 28. A little green tree will be posted at the library during these dates, and for the first four books a reader completes a leaf will be placed on the tree for him. For the second four books a red apple will be posted, and for the third series of four books completed a golden apple will adorn the tree.

"The object of the club," said Mildred Phalor, local librarian, "is to see how many golden apples one person might receive."

The library will operate on summer hours beginning June 14. These hours are 9 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. daily and on Saturday the hours remain the same, 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Cowboys Drop 6-5 Contest To Linden-McKinley Tuesday

By Dave Miller

The Linden McKinley Panthers, who last week took an upset loss from Aquinas, beat the league-leaders, West, 6 to 5, at Magly Field Tuesday afternoon.

The Panthers shot way out in front in the opening frame, but the Cowboys tied it up and then went in the lead in the fourth with five markers. However, the ultimate winners tied it all up again and then went ahead in their half of the fifth.

Jack Pickens, West shortstop, Pat Collins, Hilltopper gardener, and Bob Parker, Linden catcher, each had two hits for four turns, with the exception of Collins, who was at bat three appearances, led their respective teams.

West had eight hits to Linden's six, but seven West miscues ruined the picture for the Cowboys. On Tuesday Central was a 4 to 1 victor over Aquinas going into a virtual tie for first. The Cowboys, however, have one more win than the district champions.

The Cowboys, now, will have to play that called game with North because of the championship bearing. They will also play Central a postponed contest.

The Linden-West line score:

Linden	400	020	0	6	6	3
West	000	500	0	5	8	7

Hayes and Parker; Theisen and Andrews.

West High Students Receive Awards For Good Work

By Ronnie Burgoon

What is perhaps the longest list of special awards and scholarships in the history of a West High School graduating class was handed out in a special awards assembly held Tuesday morning.

Don Young qualified for The Hilltop Record $100 scholarship, given to the student who is outstanding in the field of journalism.

Virginia Casey merited the Ohio State University coveted $120.00 Mortar Board scholarship awarded to the senior girl of Columbus High School whose extra-curricular service to the school is superior. Miss Casey was also the author of the best feature on tuberculosis, sponsored by the National Tuberculosis Society at Christmas time.

Reasons Cited Why Pay Roll Tax Should Pass

"The pay roll tax must be approved by the Columbus voters if the city is to continue the progress made during the present year," George S. Hoster, chairman of the Civic Progress Committee, said this week.

Mr. Hoster said, "Without this revenue Columbus will have fewer policemen, fewer firemen, pocrer health safeguards and reduced garbage and rubbish collections." "In fact," he said, "the activities of every city department must be curtailed if the needed revenue is not continued.

"The City of Columbus can no more live within the income of the 1920's than can the individual voter. Costs of materials and labor have skyrocketed for the city, just as they have for everyone else.

"No other first rate American city in the same population class has been operating on such a meager income. Even with the income tax, Columbus will still have only $18 per resident for general city operation. Compare this with $43 for Jersey City, N. J.; $31 for Rochester, N. Y.; $35 for Toledo, Ohio; $29 for Denver, Colo.; $30 for Oakland, Cal.; $26 for Portland, Ore., and $24 for Atlanta, Ga.," the chairman continued.

Hoster ponted out that the pay roll tax is the only kind of tax available to the city which requires that every citizen pay something toward the services he receives. Police, fire and health services are maintained for the benefit of everyone, regardless of real estate ownership.

The tax is limited to one-half of one per cent and cannot be increased during the five-year period without the approval of the voters. The cost of the tax is low because everyone must pay his share. The person earning $1000 a year pays 9.6 cents a week, one making $2000 pays 19.2 cents and a person making $4000 will pay only a little over 38 cents a week.

More than 30,000 persons now working in Columbus live outside the city limits, thus avoiding city taxes. They pay nothing for the services the taxpayers of Columbus provide, Hoster concluded.

First Showing of Addition To Hilltop Lutheran Is June 11

A congregational party and "housewarming" on the evening of June 11 will mark the opening of the newly constructed $55,000 addition to the Hilltop Evangelical Lutheran Church at the corner of Terrace-av and W. Broad-st.

Started in May of 1947, the basement part of the new structure is almost completed. Formal dedication with a series of outstanding events is being planned for early September.

In charge of the "housewarming" party is Michael Marcia, serving as general chairman. The Married Couples' Class of the church school will have charge of the registration; the Semper Fidelis Class, refreshments; the Men's Bible Class, seating arrangements. The Luther League will present a stage show called "The Hilltop Follies."

Members received into the congregation during the past 12 months will be honored at the party. Immediately following the party, the finance committee, headed by Paul Ebert, will launch a financial drive to raise funds to complete the few small items remaining to be done.

B. L. Emrich has served as general chairman of the planning and construction committee. The contractors were Harly Conrad and Earl Pfaltzgraf.

Hilltop Parents Assn. Completes First Year

William Boyd, of the Council of Social Agencies, guest speaker at the First Annual Tea of The Hilltop Parents Association, lauded the many accomplishments, and pointed out methods for improvement and coordination with existing social agencies.

The three-act play, "The Stroke of Twelve," presented by the dramatics group Friday, May 21 at John Burroughs School was a hit and well attended.

The cast and their guests were entertained with a party Tuesday, May 25 at the home of Mrs. Kathleen Bell, 251 S. Clarendon-av.

The members present were Thomas Beatty, Nellie Cook, Joanne Tolley, Earl (Wimpy) Potts, Norma Jeanne Nickens, Rowita Shaw, Hugh Cliff, Carl Jones, Joe Barkey, Roland Green, Ernestine Gibson, Albert Pinckney, Beverly Bell, Flint Smith, Virginia Goolsby, and Dorothy Newsome.

The hostesses were Mrs. Irean Madden, Rose A. Brown, Kathleen Bell, and Elizabeth Shaw.

The evening was spent with games and dancing.

Mrs. Clark Injured In Auto Crash

Mrs. Elizabeth Clark, 319 S. Roys-av, was injured Friday when the auto in which she was a passenger, crashed into a parked car on Sullivant-av.

Attendants at Grant Hospital, where Mrs. Clark is a telephone operator, said she received leg and back injuries. They described her condition as fairly good.

Charity Newsie Motorcycle Races Set For June 6

Some of the top motorcycle race riders in the country have filed their entries with Earl C. Smith, head of the American Motorcycle Association in Columbus, and the 5th annual Charity Newsies motorcycle races June 6 at the Ohio State Fairgrounds promise to be the most action-packed event ever presented by the Newsies.

Co-operating with the Newsies in presenting the races are the five Columbus motorcycle clubs, which will furnish timers, pit workers and other officials.

General chairman of the races is Howard F. Foley, a veteran of 28 years with the Newsies, who is serving his second year as director of the event. Foley was also manager of the Newsies "store" in Memorial Hall last year, which each year give away loads of clothing, coal, and other essentials to needy families.

The motorcycle races, along with the annual paper sale, provide income for the "store." Last year, according to Newsies officials, the store unloaded more than $40,000 worth of merchandise.

The race program gets underway at 2:30 p. m. with warmups on June 5.

500 Senior Scouts Expected Here For Sky Meet

Advance reports indicate that 500 young men from Ohio, Kentucky and West Virginia will participate in the Regional Sky Meet to be held at Sullivant Avenue Airport Aug. 20, 21 and 22.

Gomer Jones, operator of the Hilltop's aviation center, has thrown open the entire facility for this three-day senior scout affair. Included in the program are the following:

Tour of the Curtiss-Wright plant; dinner and tour aboard the Naval Air Station at Port Columbus; a full day of model flying competition under AMA rules, with awards and trophies for winners; gliders, light power planes and possibly a Goodyear blimp to take all comers for rides.

The Wing and Mariner Senior Girl Scouts will be there in force and especially at the dance in the hangar Saturday night. The Army Air Forces and Naval Air Forces will provide static and flying demonstrations and displays.

Applicants Are Wanted For Police And Firemen

The Civil Service Commission and Safety Director C. C. Cole last week launched another appeal for applicants for 123 jobs of firemen and 90 jobs as policemen.

Application filing for the positions began Tuesday, June 1. The deadline is noon Saturday, June 19.

Examination for patrolmen will be held at 9 a. m. Saturday, June 28, at Central High School, and the test for firefighters will be held at 9 a. m. Friday, July 2, also at Central High School.

Cole announced recently 90 additional police were being sought so that 70 could be added to district duty at night. He declared the patrolmen assigned to walk beats at night in recent months had produced a remarkable record of catching burglars "on the job" and reducing attacks on pedestrians.

Civil service rolls disclosed that 82 patrolman vacancies exist in the Police Department, with 21 of them being filled by temporary appointees. The Fire Department has 123 vacancies with 15 filled by temporary firemen. The provisionals must take the selective tests announced yesterday.

The vacancies were created mainly by the recent reorganization of both departments. The division of fire was revamped to meet the 40-hour week requirements and the police division overhauled by Chief Charles M. Berry to combat a wave of crime and vandalism that had reached serious proportions.

Police applicants must be between 21 and 29 years, inclusive; at least five feet, nine inches tall, and 150 pounds in weight. Fire Department applicants must be between 21 and 29, inclusive; at least five feet, seven inches tall and 140 pounds in weight.

9A's Plan Prom For June 4

Many 9A's will be swaying to the music of Jimmy Hill's orchestra on Friday, June 4 from 8:00 P. M. to 11:00 P. M. The program will be called "The June 1948 Review." The people performing will be Sandra Ross, Bonnie Barber, Wilma Vawters, Mona Sue Gary, Nancy Uhl, Doris Thomas, Mary Stoed, Yvonne Clover, Jack Galloway, and Dick Briggs.

IN LITTLE THEATRE PRESENTATION—These local thespians will be seen here June 10 in the initial offering of the Hilltop Little Theatre group. The play, "The Youngest," a three-act comedy, will be presented at the West Broad Street School.

The Hilltop Record can be mailed anywhere in Franklin County for $1.50 per year.

Boy Drowns In McKinley Quarry

It was comparatively quiet on the Hilltop over the Memorial Day holiday. Hundreds of families visited relatives in various parts of the state, attended local sports events or went to the 500-mile speed classic at Indianapolis.

The weekend was not without mishap, however.

Nine-year-old Charles Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harris, 653 Henrietta-st, was drowned Sunday when the sand ledge on which he was standing gave way, plunging him into the McKinley-av quarry. He and two companions had ridden their bikes to the Hilltop and were exploring the quarries when the tragedy occurred.

He was pronounced dead after being pulled from the water 15 minutes after the mishap.

Persons injured in traffic included the following:

Charles Abbott, 19, of 449 S. Huron-av, and two passengers, Stanford Evans, 28, of 315 Midland-av, and Mill Lottie Thompwere terated at Mt. Carmel Hosson, 32, of 6 N. Princeton-av, pital Friday night after their car collided with another auto on W. Town-st near West Park-av.

Attempting to cross W. Broad-st at [illegible] Carry Hart, 8, of 153 Midland-av, was struck by an auto Saturday evening. He was treated at Mt. Carmel Hospital for brusises about the head, legs and back. Police said Donald Harper, 186 N. Terrace-av, was driver of the car.

A. R. Page, 65 N. Powell-av, has been elected president of the Hilltop Male Chorus, effective with the start of the next season. He will replace James Shields in that office.

Other officers named were Norman Diehl, vice-president, and Charles Rousch, secretary and treasurer.

The chorus was scheduled to present a concert in the auditorium of West High School last night. The affair was sponsored by the West District Campfire Leaders Association. Proceeds were to go toward building a swimming pool at the summer camp.

War Memorial Is Dedicated At West High

There were tears in many eyes at the special West High School assembly Friday morning as a bronze memorial plaque was dedicated to the 67 former students of West who gave their lives in World War II.

The plaque was the gift of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club and was formally presented by Dr. R. J Miller, president of the club. Edgar Pisnck, chairman of the memorial committee, unveiled the plaque and Principal Irvin F Young accepted it in the name of the school and all former West students who served in the armed forces.

"We must remember that it is our job to make this country worth every sacrifice that has been made by these and others," Lt. Gov. Paul M. Herbert, speaker for the occasion, told the senior high assembly. "You ycung men and women can' make America just what you want it to be," he continued.

Then he asked this challenging question:

"What have you done to keep faith with these 67 war dead?"

Col. Taylor from Ft. Hayes was scheduled to address the junior high assembly that followed the early morning program.

Appropriate music added meaning to the occasion as the school choir, directed by Mrs. Colleen Welde, sang the stirring "Sky Anchors," and a special arrangement of "Battle Hymn of the Republic." Charles W. Bennett directed the school band in the "National Anthem" and "America the Beautiful," as the student body joined in singing.

Marilyn Ring sang the "Ninety-First Psalm" and Richard Bowles did "I Had a Little Talk With the Lord."

Girls Appointed For Y-Teen Conference

By Wolfendale

Two West High School girls were recently appointed to responsible positions in the 1948 Wildwood Conference for Y-Teens to be held June 13-20 at Camp Wildwood, near Westerville, Ohio. They are Frances Smith, a member of the program committee, and Rita Konkler, a member of the recreation committee.

These girls are working with Y-Teens from all over the city to plan the annual Y-Teen Conference which is open to all Y-Teens now in High School, including graduating seniors, and to 9A's who will enter High School in the fall.

The Program Committee plans to carry out the theme of "Personal Problems" through a series of talks, panels, discussions and skits, on such topics as personal appearance, manners, personality problems, job careers, boy-girl relations, community responsibility, and religion.

The Recreation Committee has planned a series of special events including a "Daisy Mae-Lil Abner Party", a "Hit Parade Nite", a Hay-ride, a Kid Party, a hike and picnic, and a Talent Show, in addition to sports and interest groups dealing with crafts, music and dramatics.

Additional information and registration blanks may be obtained from West High Y-Teen officers, or from Miss Peg Calbeck, Director for Teen-Age Program, at the Y. W. C. A., 65 South 4th Street, AD. 9121.

Byerly To Manage New Better Home Center West Side Store

E. B. Byerly

Ed Witherspoon, proprietor of Better Home Center, 2775 W. Broad-st, announced this week that he is opening a new West Side appliance store. The new store will also be known as Better Home Center and is located just off the Hilltop at 1284 W. Broad-st.

The full line of Hot Point appliances will be featured as well as General Electric, RCA and Zenith radios. Many other nationally advertised lines of appliances will be carried and the policy of selling only top-line merchandise will be followed in the operation of this second store.

The new store will be under the management of E. B. Byerly, 42 S. Hague-av. Mr. Byerly is an experienced appliance man.

Two Red Feather organizations, Y-Teens and Columbus Association for the Blind, are cooperating in a program for children of sightless parents Saturdays from 2 to 4:30 p. m. at Monett House, 221 E. Mound-st.

West Graduate Opens Medical Offices

Dr. Edwin H. Ellison, a graduate of West High School, has opened offices for the general practice of surgery in the Medical Science Building at 9 Buttles-av.

Dr. Ellison was chief resident surgeon at University Hospital following graduation from the College of Medicine at Ohio State University. He later served two years as chief of the general surgery section in the Fort 3rd Regional Station Hospital in California during World War II.

He lives at 1614 Grandview-av.

YOUNG DANCER — Nancy Cooper, one of the more advanced youngsters, will have a solo spot in Jack Sherick's tap show "Youth On Parade" to be given Friday and Saturday (June 4 and 5) nights at the West High School Auditorium. Curtain time is 8:15 sharp.

Sixty-four Hilltop pupils will [illegible] in the annual dance revue.

There are many pupils in the revue in addition to the Hilltop's 64 participants. The show will be divided into two parts, for the two performances. Adult admission is 50c and children's 25c, tax included.

Griggs Joins Staff Of Community Church

Mel Griggs, who has headed up the Teen Club activity at Burgess-av and W. Broad-st for the past two years, has accepted the position of assistant to the business manager of the First Community Church in Grandview. He assumed his new duties on June 1.

A veteran of one-and one-half years naval service in the Pacific, Griggs has been active in youth work and has attended Ohio State University since his discharge. He has recently engaged in freelance photography, a sideline he will continue to pursue.

Mr. and Mrs. Griggs have purchased a home in Colonial Hills and plan to leave the Hilltop in about a month.

Griggs has also been active in Boy Scout work here for the past five years. At present he is scoutmaster of Explorer Post No. 1, sponsored by Hilltop Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Barber Given New Maytag For Oldest Washer

Mrs. Frank Barber, 717 S. Warren-av, was the proud owner of a brand new Maytag washer last week, the gift of Norris Appliance Co., 2388 W. Broad-st. She received the gift for having the oldest washer, made by the company, in this area.

Merrill Norris, owner of the firm that distributes the Maytag line of appliances, said that as a result of this contest, conducted through The Hilltop Record during the month of April, he had received 754 calls from Maytag owners listing the serial numbers of their machines. Mr. Norris expressed his appreciation to all who cooperated in this plan to establish the oldest washer in this area.

The new washer replaced a machine that was manufactured in October of 1922, factory records revealed. It had been handed down to Mrs. Barber from her mother. It had been repaired only once during the 26 years that it had been in use.

PRE-SCHOOL PIANO PUPIL MAKES GOOD

Donald Jay Hessler, age seven, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Hessler, 257 South Eureka Avenue, was the first pupil to enroll in the Pre-School Piano Course, when he was five. He is now completing his second year and is the youngest pupil in the present Two-Year Promotion Class. Donald is a winner for two consecutive years in the National Piano Playing Auditions, held at the Columbus Gallery of Fine Arts. Since he was four he has entertained on both stage and radio with his ukelele and cowboy songs. His father and mother taught him the ukelele and singing informally as wholesome companionship with the boys.

DAARUD PIANO STUDIO
404 South Eureka Avenue — RA. 8545

CERTIFICATE WINNERS—This group of piano students have earned the two-year promotion certificate given by Mrs. Bertha Daarud, 404 S. Eureka-av, for faithful study and foundation work. They recently played a promotion day program at the Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church where they were awarded the certificates. They are now working toward the four-year master-student certificate.

Summer Music Clinic Available To Pupils Without Own Piano

Mrs. Bertha Daarud, 404 S. Eureka-av, has a unique plan of instruction in piano fundamentals. The Summer Music Clinic is intended for children who do not have a piano in their home. They study class-wise, three supervised practices a week for terms of three, six or nine months, when Mrs. Daarud recommends to the parent that the child's practice habits are sufficiently established to warrant the purchase of piano for the home. After the class work the pupil may transfer to the private teacher of his choice for further study.

Perhaps the most unique plan of music study is the private lesson and the one club or class per month for all private pupils. There is a club each Friday at 3:30 p. m. for each pupil enrolled. Pupils, ages 5, 6 and 7 meet the first Friday of each month. Pupils, ages 8, 9 and 10 meet the other three Fridays of the month and the juniors meet the first Tuesday evening of each month.

This music club plan has been in progress for the three years that Mrs. Daarud has conducted her music studio here. At each club the pupils do 40-minute theory class work and then retire to the music room where they play a program of selections from the month's assignment of study. The plan is wholly an honor plan. At the first club meeting in September the honor pin is awarded each pupil who plays his number from memory. Out of 60 pupils during this term 55 pupils have been able to hold their honor pin for the whole club year.

The following pupils are enrolled: (Pupils whose names are followed by * are winners in the recent National Piano Playing Auditions, May 12, at the Columbus Gallery of Fine Arts . . . and were awarded the certificate and frat pin as members of the National Federation of Student Musicians).

Carol Lewis, Meredith Chambers, Frances Hurley*, Bonnie Gernet, Price Stiffler*, Martha and Rose Ruth, Janice Butterbaugh*, Gail Wills*, Barbara Upperman*, Patricia Snider*, Dale* and Roberta Wilson*, Raymond Fenner, George Brintlinger, Donald Johnson*, Charlotte* and Lois Ann Hunter*, Donna Jean Burgstaller, Myrna and Marvin Ruhlen*, Lois Ann Moran, Patty Barnes*, Nancy Steckman*, Bowser Berry, Judith Keckley*, Donaldna Jean Burgstaller, Barbara Koch*, Nancy Arnold*, Janet Moran, Daniel Boltz*, Joyce Moore*, Barbara Brady, Edith Fisk*, Harriet Herron*, Tommy and Charles Lewis, Nancy Borror*, Carolyn*, Margaret and Barbara Gordon, Phillip Momburg*, Lynnette Ripley*, Gary Swisher*, Sherry Pendelton, Stanley Huff*, Merrillyn Thompson, Nancy Miller, Ronald Dixon*, Charles* and Dicky Trott, Paul Cochran, Rosemary Stewart, Rose Marie Pinkerton, Ann Manley, and Donald Hessler. WIN BOWLING OSCARS—Proudly holding the trophies that go with the honor of being the outstanding teen-age bowlers of the Hilltop this year are Barbara Vlna and Willie Frankenberg (right). The two were named by fellow bowlers in the two teen-age leagues sponsored by Seiller's, 2404 W. Broad-st. Paul Leighninger, a member of the Seiller firm, is pictured with the winners following the big bowling party held at Riverview on May 23.

West Wins As Phil Young Shuts Out East High Tigers

By Dave Miller

Phil Young, West High sophomore, pitched a shut-out contest as he won his first City League game by tossing a three-hitter at the East Tigers, at Harley Field Friday afternoon, 5 to 0.

The 15-year-old right-hander had a no-hit bid on its way for five innings until Bill Agnew, East's third-sacker, socked a clean one-baser to direct center-field. Also in this frame, a passed ball and another single, this one a drag hit down the third-base line, by catcher George Powers, started what may be called a "rally". However, Young's fine battery mate, Al Andrews, pegged perfectly to Don Skipper at second, who easily got Powers trying to steal.

Meanwhile the Cowboys were getting Young some runs. The Cowboys socked all three East hurlers, Tom Fallon, the starter, Jim Black, who pitched to four men in the sixth, and Jim Linhart who finished up the chore, for eight hits.

Fallon, who started the game with an ailing arm, wasn't touched until the third frame. Pat Collins slammed a long double to right, and went on to third when right fielder, Thomas, threw the ball wide to third. Jack Pickens sent a nice one-baser to left-center, plating Collins.

Again the Cowboys pulled farther ahead when they tallied once more in the following frame, the fourth. Singles by Dick Culbertson and Dick Kirk, and an error in the infield plating this marker.

Fallon, however, set the visiting Hilltoppers down without a bingle in the fifth. Young and Pickens both popped out and Don Little grounded out to second.

West's big inning was the sixth. Culbertson lined a double to the left-field corner to lead the inning off, and Dick Kirk was hit-by-a-pitched-ball sending Fallon to the bench. Jim Black, who pitched against the Cowboys in the first round meeting at West, then came in. Al Andrews singled home Culbertson, and Kirk went to third. However, the East center-fielder let the ball go through his legs, plating Kirk, and Andrews went to second.

Dave Dupler sent a timely hit to left, but a nice peg held Andrews at third. Pat Collins attempted a squeeze play, but Andrews was out by only a hair, Pitcher Black to his catcher, Powers. Don Skipper walked to load the bases, but the would-be run-makers were eliminated when Young and Pickens made outs.

The Hilltoppers tallied their fifth, and final marker in their last turn at bat. With two away, Dick Kirk walked, and went to third on a wild pitch. A double to left by Al Andrews plated this final tally.

The Cowboys will probably wind up their City League campaign this week. They were to meet Linden on Tuesday and are to meet Central at a date to be determined. If either Linden or Central defeat West, the Cowboys will have to play that postponed game at North. However, if West wins both games, the Cowboys will be crowned City League champions. Central has its entire second round to play, as a result of the tournaments.

Since the Pirates are still in the City League running, they will no doubt have to play all of the schedule, because they lost in the semi-finals to Warren Harding, last Friday.

West Thinclads Finish Third In City Meet

The West High School track team ended up in third place in the city track meet held at Ohio Stadium last week. Coach R. C. (Rufe) Glass' boys won only three first places but scored in all except three of the 14 events.

Walter Hicks took honors in the broad jump event with a leap of 21 feet, 4¼ inches, Janes ran the 220-yard low hurdles in 25.8 seconds, while the relay team, composed of Stout, Evans, Dennis and Hicks, ran the mile event in 3 minutes 37.3 seconds to cop first place.

Don Eitle finished second in the 100-yard dash behind Zobovich of South. The other events in which the Hilltoppers scored were:

880-yard relay—second place.
440-yard dash—Dennis in third place.
880-yard run—Ham, fifth place.
220-yard dash — Eitle, third place.
High jump — Lannigan, fourth place.
Shot put—Weeks, fifth place.
Discus—Schmidt, fifth place.

Keller's 561 High In Summer Leagues

Charles Keller was the week's leading bowler this week in the summer leagues as he put together games of 172-220-169 for a grand 561 total.

Keller bowls for the Bethlehem No. 4 team on Thursday evening. His 561 total helped his team to a three game victory over Bethlehem No. 7 thus giving them undisputed third place. Bethlehem No. 3 currently leading the league suffered its first setback at the hands of Bethlehem No. 6 last week 675 to 601. Besides Keller's 220-561, Diane Smith had 165-377 to lead the women and Bethlehem No. 1 888-2498 to take top team honors.

Ardle

The complete standings are as follows:

Bethlehem No. 3	8—1
Bethlehem No. 1	6—3
Bethlehem No. 4	5—4
Bethlehem No. 2	4—5
Bethlehem No. 6	4—5
Bethlehem No. 5	3—6
Bethlehem No. 7	3—6
Bethlehem No. 8	3—7

N-9 of the Veteran finally succeeded in upsetting the high-flying Collectors. It was the Collectors' first loss of the infant season as against eight victories.

The final score of the game was 842 to 840 but the Collectors came right back to take the other two 903 to 733 and 984 to 834. Their 984 game was high in team games and also their 2727. Al Stine's 234 and Bob Entingue's 544 were the high individual scores.

Standings in this league are as follows:

Collectors	8—1
V-1	5—4
N-3-1	5—4
V-2	4—5

Frank Andrews and Ronnie Bryant shared top honors in the Tuesday summer league with 523 apiece. Frank had the high single game in the league with 201. Blanche Ramsey led the women with 183-522 while the Pin Spotters took team honors with 834-2283.

On Wednesday night in the Lutheran League it was Howard Bruckelmeyer pacing the pack with 190-536 while the Hurricanes had the top team honors with 888-2485.

Doubleheaders will be the order of the day Monday evening as the West Church Softball Leagues resume play following the holiday layoff. It will be the start of the second round of play, with twin bills scheduled to make up the postponed games on the season's openers.

Westgate EUB is currently leading League No. 1 with two wins and no losses. Salvation Army and West Park Methodist are undefeated in two starts in the No. 2 loop.

This is the way the teams will pair off for Monday's play:

League No. 1

Hilltop C of C vs. Glenwood, Westgate No. 1.
Westgate EUB vs. St. Aloysius, Westgate No. 2.
Hoge Memorial vs. Burgess EUB, Westgate No. 3.

League No. 2

Salvation Army vs. Avondale EUB, Sunshine No. 1.
Chicago C of C vs. West Park, Sunshine No. 2.
St. John vs. Hilicrest, Westgate No. 4.

Hilltop Van Drops Game To Morticians

Hilltop Van & Storage softballers dropped an 8 to 4 nine-inning game to Whittaker Morticians in a Columbus Night League game Friday night at State Hospital Field. J. Hairston's home run with the bases loaded in the top of the ninth was the winning blow for the Morticians. Tom Arnold of Hilltop homered in the last of the seventh with one on to send the game into extra innings.

Hilltop Van plays the Ohio Pen Hurricanes Tuesday in a Columbus Independent League game on O'Henry Field at 6 p. m. Wednesday night they meet 740 AC in a Columbus Night League game at 7:30 at State Hospital. Sunday, June 6, Hilltop meets Wyandotte AC at Westgate Park.

An Important Decision

One of life's most important decisions for 249 West High School graduates lies ahead or may have already been made by these students. It is one of the first important decisions in which they, for the most part, will be on their own. Up until graduation most pupils are governed pretty largely by the wishes of their parents. Now they have become adults.

How they meet this decision will have a strong influence on their success in future life. Many of them have already decided on college. Few of these will ever regret that decision. Others less fortunate may have to content themselves with accepting some kind of a job, hoping that eventually they too may have the advantage of a higher education.

The graduate of today is stepping out into a competitive business world. As a result of the GI Bill, a high percentage of young people have or soon will have a college degree. Today's graduates must soon compete for jobs against this higher educational qualification. A few years ago, a local department store already boasted that only college graduates were considered for sales positions on their staff.

The battle of life cannot be won by flashing a college diploma but it makes a nice calling card when you introduce yourself to the average personnel manager today. It will be doubly important tomorrow.

GIRL SCOUTS

Troop 104
by Judy Schuls

On April 22, we had an investiture for our newest member, Anita DeMattio.

On May 20, our troop began working for the First Aid Merit Badge. We are instructed by Mrs. Helen Kenestrick, R. N. of St. Luke's Hospital, Cleveland.

On Sunday, May 23, our troop, under the leadership of Mrs. Paul Stilwell, chartered a bus for a trip to Old Man's Cave and The Rock House. The bus was operated by C. Jones, a West Sider and a very cautious and competent driver.

This trip should be a "must" for all scouts. It is educational. The scenic wonders of nature are gorgeous.

After eating from our picnic lunches, we had Sunday School services conducted by Mrs. Lowell Hardacre. Then we were paired to an adult and started on the trail. The steep climb and wonders are breath-taking in more ways than one as our parents found. After completing the trail, the bus took us to The Rock House. This is a huge cave enclosed in the hill. The climb is steep but worth it. Our State Museum says that years ago Indians held their pow-wows here. There are a lot of inscriptions in the rocks, dating back over a hundred years. We proceeded up a beautiful wooded trail to The Fire Tower. Here is where the Forestry Department maintains watch for fires. There are several flights of steps up to the glass tower. To view the hills from this tower is most beautiful.

We hope to go again and stay longer. It had taken our troop a long time to save enough money to sponsor this trip. We girls have been together for five years. We sold Christmas cards, cookies, etc. We all have worked hard, but it was worth everything.

Those having the times of their lives were: Troop 104—Eleanor Jo Beck, Linda Bryant, Phyllis Cropper, Carolyn and Margaret Gordon, Linda Hardacre, Judith Harvey, Marilyn Howard, Mary Jo McNamee, Mary Jo Miller, Sue Raike, Nancy Roley, Judy Schulz, Carolyn Stilwell, Marcia Weber. Troop 113 — Mary Lou Manson, Sandra Willis. Troop 146 —Helen Ann Hart, Nancy Steckman.

Sponsored guests: Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Schulz, Mrs. Albert Weber, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Roley, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stilwell, Mrs. John Cropper, Mrs. Lowell Hardacre, Ronald Stilwell, Jimmie Miller, Maxine Stilwell, Ruth Ann Hardacre, Susie Harvey, Suzanne Hoover and Mary Sylvia Reinhard.

Our troop has been sponsored by the PTA of John Burroughs School these five years. Thanks PTA.

BOY SCOUTS

Troop No. 214

Boy Scout Troop No. 214 of St. Mary Magdalene had an overnight hike the week-end of May 22 and 23 during which the scouts and scouters inspected several sites for use as a permanent camp to be built at a later date. Complete information regarding the camp was passed to all members of the troop at their regular weekly meeting, which was held Tuesday, May 25, at Westgate Park and the report met with the approval of the entire group.

It is the practice of Troop No. 214 to hold one meeting outdoors each month and this last meeting was very enjoyable for after the business sessions were completed, climbing of trees with ropes was demonstrated by a scouter with lengthy experience topping trees. An outdoor game with a song session following, was highlighted by each boy receiving a ticket to Red Bird Stadium for the game Thursday evening. Other activities of Troop No. 214 included a baseball game between the scouts and their fathers on Wednesday evening, at 6:30 p. m. on the school diamond. After this a wiener roast was followed by the regular weekly meeting.

Cubs of Pack 214 held their monthly meeting May 28 at St. Mary Magdalene School. A long list of awards was made, including one year pins, which were also awarded to committee members, scoutmaster and assistant scoutmasters.

For the first time in American history a generation is arising which has no God and what is more feels no need of one.

The blame lies squarely in the laps of the American parent who owes his child a knowledge of God whose light always shines for those who seek it.

Let us never forget a civilization survives or perishes on the basis of its religious belief.

Insure the preservation of American ideals by taking—not sending—your child to Sunday School.

"Take The Bum Out"

This could only happen to someone who works around the Record.

Jerry Bancroft, recently of the United States Navy, now photographer and ad salesman for this sheet, along with Joe Agee, was taking in the second Red Bird-Kansas City ball game last week. It was on Wednesday night when Bird starting pitcher, Kurt Krieger was having his troubles with the Battling Blues.

It being his first Red Bird game, Jerry entered into the spirit of the evening in true sportsman style by heckling the pitcher.

"Take the bum out! Send him to the showers!" those and other similar remarks Jerry voiced while other less outspoken fans nearby frowned and otherwise expressed their disapproval.

Came the seventh inning and Manager Hal Anderson did send his young hurler to the showers.

Several minutes later a personable young man joined a party in the box immediately behind Jerry and Joe.

"Meet Mr. Krieger," was one of the introductions plainly heard by the vociferous Record fans. It was a party of friends of the young pitcher.

Bethlehem Ladies Meet

The Ladies' Guild of Bethlehem Lutheran Church met June 3 at the church. A casserole luncheon was served at noon. Mrs. Robert Mercer and Mrs. Glenn Miesse were hostesses and Miss Staley led the topic.

Mrs. Howells' Den 6 won the achievement award for the most original among a variety of Indian dances.

Mrs. Mulragen's Den 5 won the monthly attendance award.

Cubs and their fathers are to have an outing Sunday, June 6, at Camp St. Joseph's.

To Ye Olde Editor

This poetic masterpiece was found sticking in my typewriter one morning last week. It was signed by someone named Shakespeare. I quote:

"Ode to Paul

There was a famous editor
His policy could not be beat
But he fell into a printing press
And came out a printed sheet.

Slightly Confused

In answer to an ad for subscription salesman, Charles Maus, Record circulation manager, received the following reply:

"I'm answering your advertisement . . . regarding a belt sander. I consider myself a thoroughly experienced spindle sander . . ."

Could this be what is known as a "polished" sales approach?

Embarrassing Moments

Dr. R. J. Miller, local chiropractor and president of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club, recalls this "embarrassing moment" in his college sports career.

As a member of the OSU track team, Doc was running one of the dash events. Rounding the short curve at old Ohio Field, the sprinter was putting everything he had into the finish when, without warning, the elastic in his trunks broke, allowing them to drop to the ground without his missing a stride. So he crossed the finish line in fourth place garbed in jersey, blushes and little else.

For years St. John had a picture hanging in his athletic office of that momentous occasion.

IT ISN'T FAIR!

Why should workers — office workers, white collar workers and factory workers — be saddled with the unfair and inequitable Columbus payroll tax? Why . . . when there are other fairer and less harsh ways of raising money for Columbus.

For instance:

1. Honest appraisal of industrial and business properties would mean a million and a half dollars in additional revenue to Columbus. Present appraisals of industrial and commercial properties are shockingly low in Columbus. The Columbus City Council refuses to insist that industrial and commercial properties be honestly appraised.

We don't need the payroll tax!

2. The Columbus City Council can pass a true income tax which provides exemptions and deductions as in the federal income tax law. Exemptions for dependent children. Deductions for unusual medical expenses. Deductions for charitable and church contributions. But the Columbus City Council says No.

We don't need the payroll tax?

3. The Columbus City Council can insist that the state make a fairer distribution of sales tax money. An all-out fight by the city administration, together with the other cities of the state, could obtain for Columbus its fair share of sales tax funds. This would mean almost $1,500,000 per year in new revenue for Columbus. The Columbus City Council refuses to make such an effort.

We don't need the payroll tax!

EL RANCHO WELCOMES WILD BILL—When Wild Bill Elliott brought his rodeo show to the Fair Grounds Coliseum recently, word got round to Walter Poenisch, operator of the El Rancho Bakery, 1847 S. High-st, that the showman was fond of fudge cake. Walter got busy and whipped up the fancy pastry that his wife, Kathryn, is shown presenting to the cowboy star in the above picture.

Bill later presented another fudge cake (also baked at the El Rancho) to Linda Sue Pancake and her friends at Children's Hospital. Poenisch, who lives at 1232 Hart-rd, specializes in all types of fancy cakes for weddings, anniversaries, birthdays and showers.

News of Rome

By Mrs. E. C. Sheets

Miss Juanita Weber of Hilliards and Mrs. Alva Sampson (Ladonna Coulter) entertained at her mother's home, Pasadena-av, with a bridal shower for Miss Dorothy Stauch, W. Broad-st, who is being married the first part of June. The guests were former school mates of the three girls as well as associates of the Fisher Body-Ternstedt.

Mrs. Henry Warner entertained the Ladies' Class of the Columbia Heights Church. After the business session, delicious refreshments were served and a very enjoyable evening was had. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. I. A. Thompson, Lawrence av.

Kathleen Evans, 3423 Fisher-rd, was the week-end guest of Diane Kasler, Pasadena-av.

Mrs. W. G. Lamb, Buena Vista, teacher of piano, had a recital for her students Friday evening. Several could not be present on account of sickness. Those who were on the program, that was enjoyed by their parents and friends, were Eva Scott, Diane Kasler, Jean Toy and her youngest pupil, Arthur Siebert.

After choir practice last Wednesday night, the committee composed of the men of the choir entertained the ladies. The relay race on the principle of heel to toe was really enjoyed. Those who were on hand to enjoy the refreshments were Georgeann Terry, Marilyn Snyder, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Calland, Mrs. Harvey Rose, Mrs. Schroeder, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Lamb, Martha Suver and the committee: David Warner, Mr. Thompson, Jim Snyder and Rev. Elwood Rose.

We are sorry to lose the Snyder family from Maple-dr, although they are not going too far from our immediate neighborhood. They are now located at "Hollywood-Inn" W. Broad-st.

Rev. T. M. Patterson occupied the pulpit of Crestview Presbyterian Church Sunday.

Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Stormont, Mary Patterson and T. M. Patterson were those from this community who attended the annual dinner and inspection of the West Jefferson Chapter, OES held at West Jefferson Friday night.

Mrs. Booth of Montana and her daughter, Mrs. Cline of Middletown, were afternoon guests at the Patterson home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Barnecut spent Saturday in Zanesville.

Mrs. Irving Kasler and daughter, 261 Pasadena-av, visited Memorial Day week-end with Diane's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Kasler, Trimble, O.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Craigie of Detroit, parents of G. T. English, Pasadena-av, are visiting their son and family. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Craigie, Mr. and Mrs. English and son, Tommy, made a trip to Parkersburg, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Breckenridge attended services at Concord Church. It has been her family's church for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Richey and family of Detroit were week-end guests of his brother, Kent Richey, and family, of Pasadena-av.

The Hilltop friends of Mr. Warren, formerly of S. Roys-av, may be interested in knowing he is now located in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sheets.

A family pot-luck was held at the home of Mrs. W. G. Lamb, Buena Vista-av, Sunday night for their week-end house guests, who were Lt. (jg) Fred R. Nordengren, U. S. Naval Ammunition Depot, Crane, Ind., and his wife and daughter, Carol Sue, and the guests of Mrs. H. G. Barnecut, Maple-dr, who were Mrs. Dana Chase, Elmhurst, Ill., and Mrs. Halford McNaughton, Muncie, Ind. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sheets, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Noie and children, Cherylynn, and son, Dennis; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sheets and sons, David William and Richard Howard; Mr. and Mrs. Elton Kaderly and children, Caroline, Robert and Rebecca; Mr. and Mrs. Allan Adams and son, James, and Violet Salzgaber, Rev. T. M. Patterson and daughter, Mary; the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb, and sons, Tom, Jim, Bill, Tim, Rex and Tad.

Capt. Regan has returned to his station, Langley Field, Va., after spending the week-end with his wife (Betty Kidwell) at Beacon Light Golf Course.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Common Pleas Court, Franklin County, Ohio.

No. 124874 Grace Patterson, Plaintiff, vs. Hazel D. Prince, et al, Defendants.

Hazel D. Prince, if living, the unknown heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors and assigns of Hazel D. Prince, and the unknown spouses of unknown heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors and assigns of Hazel D. Prince, if living, and Richard H. Prince, if living, the unknown heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors and assigns of Richard H. Prince and the unknown spouses of unknown heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors and assigns of Richard H. Prince, all whose addresses are unknown to plaintiff and cannot with reasonable diligence be ascertained, are hereby notified that on May 12, 1948, Grace Patterson filed a petition in the above entitled cause against them as defendants alleging that she is the owner in fee simple and in possession of the following described real estate, situated in the County of Franklin, in the State of Ohio, and in the City of Columbus, bounded and described as follows:

Being the westerly portion of Lot No. Thirty five (35) of the Hill Crest Park Addition, to the City of Columbus, Ohio as the same is numbered and delineated in Plat Book 13, page 36, Recorder's Office, Franklin County, Ohio, the eastern boundary of said westerly portion of said Lot No. 35 being a straight line joining a point in north boundary of said lot and located 113.55 feet east of the northwest corner of said lot and located 115 feet west of the southwest corner of said Lot No. 36. Together with an easement on the easterly portion of said Lot No. 35 above described, as said easement is set out in Deed Book 813, page 165, Recorder's Office, Franklin County, Ohio; that plaintiff was conveyed title to said real estate by deed from Mildred I. Wren; that defendants may claim an interest therein adverse to the plaintiff, the nature of which is unknown to the plaintiff, and the plaintiff asks that they be compelled to declare the same or be forever barred.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays that an alleged claim or claims of defendants in and to said premises be adjudged null and void; that the plaintiffs' title be quieted against the same, and for such other relief as is proper.

Said defendants are further notified that they are required to answer said petition on or before July 15, 1948, or judgment may be rendered as prayed for therein.

BIBLE COMMENT

'But If Not' Holds Inspiring Keynote To Faith in God

THE late Dr. Cyrus Townsend Brady, a Protestant Episcopal minister, was probably most widely known for his many books, and especially for his stirring adventure stories. But he was also a very brilliant and powerful preacher. About 30 years ago I heard him preach a sermon in Norfolk, Va., which has remained in my mind as marking the highest point in the Book of Daniel.

The sermon was on the three words in Daniel 3:18, "But if not." The words occur in the answer of Daniel's three companions, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, to King Nebuchadnezzar, who told them they would be cast into the burning fiery furance if they would not fall down and worship the image he had set up.

Their God, said the three, was able to deliver them, and would deliver them; "but if not," they were nevertheless ready to die for their faith.

The dramatic highlights are, of course, the story of the deliverance of the three from the fire, and the deliverance of Daniel from the lions' den. But the highest spiritual point is in that declaration that no matter what happened to them they were determined to be true to their God.

The Book of Daniel was written to encourage just that "but-if-not" attitude in faithful Jews, who were suffering the most intense and terrible persecution.

As in the story of Daniel and his companions, these faithful Jews were faced with the purpose of powerful rulers to corrupt and contaminate Jewish worship with pagan elements. The purity and safety of religion was assailed. And the Jews who protested and fought this paganization of their religion did not have the miraculous deliverance that came to Daniel and his companions. Thousands of them died for their faith.

It is a false interpretation of the Book of Daniel to say that God always brings physical safety to the faithful. Many, faithful to God, have suffered and died under persecution.

But, "precious in the sight of God is the death of His saints." Here is a great mystery, but Paul throws light upon it in the closing verses of Romans 8.

Burgess Ave. Children To Give Program Sun.

The annual children's day program will be presented by the Sunday School of Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church Sunday evening, June 6.

An added feature this year will be open house of Sunday School facilities following the children's program. At that time parents of the boys and girls will be invited to visit the various classes, meet the teaching staff and see the type of work being done in each department.

Because of the open house the program will start at 7:15 o'clock.

The Sunday School is headed by Ray Anderson as general superintendent. In charge of children's work are Mrs. Russell Rymon, junior superintendent; Mrs. Paul Kuder, primary superintendent, and Mrs. Paul Dorr, in charge of the beginners' department.

Hilltop Lutheran To Entertain Luther League Federation

The Luther League of the Hilltop Lutheran Church will entertain the newly organized Columbus-Lancaster Federation of the Southern Conference Luther League. At this meeting, on Sunday afternoon, June 13, a constitution will be adopted and officers will be elected. Rev. James Keyser, the newly elected director of Christian education and young people's work for the Synod of Ohio, will speak. He is taking the place formerly served by Rev. Carl Driscoll who has left to assume a pastorate at Dover, Ohio.

Richard Cosgray, the president of the local league, is provisional chairman of this new federation and is in charge of all the arrangements. The meeting will begin at 3:30 p. m. and will close in the evening with a vesper service and candlelight installation of the new officers under the direction of another Hilltopper, James Hiland, the president of the Southern Conference Luther League.

Community Suffers Loss In Tragic Accident

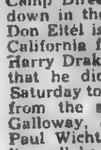
One of the most tragic events to visit this community in many years was experienced last Friday morning with news of the deaths of three West High seniors in the auto accident in the Scioto River.

The entire community extends its heartfelt sympathy to the families of these youngsters. It has indeed made the graduation ceremony of the 1948 West High class a sad one.

Tragedy has a way of visiting communities like ours just like the rain that falls on both the rich and poor alike. One never knows when it will strike or whom it will take.

To talk of what might have been done to avoid this event is perhaps futile at this point. At most it can but serve as a lesson to all who drive cars to point out again that accidents can be avoided only by very careful driving. To youngsters who sometimes feel they have the world by the collar and are able to handle all situations which arise it should serve to point out that even in the case of youth there should be no hurry in growing up and imitating the less desirable of adult characteristics.

Many are the joys and heartaches that go with being parents yet there are those parents who, rather than take away from the immediate joys of their youngsters by administering a sterner policy of discipline, risk the chance of heartaches for themselves and their loved ones later on.



It is hoped that our community has had its quota of heartaches . . . but hoping will not make it so.

Something To Think About: Generally speaking, a Communist is a person who has given up hope of becoming a capitalist. —From Hilltop Business Assn. bulletin. So good we pass it on!

Former Police Officer Is Buried Here Sat.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon for Amos S. Ross, 71, retired assistant chief of police of Fort Thomas, Ky. Mr. Ross died last Wednesday at his home, 25 N. Wayne-av, following a three-months illness. Interment was in Union Cemetery.

Mr. Ross retired from the Fort Thomas Police Department Aug. 5, 1946, after serving for 25 years. At that time he was honored by the city council and Mayor L. L. Ross for his long service. He came to Columbus 20 months ago. He was a member of the Baptist Church, Masonic Lodge No. 808 and Fraternal Order of Police No. 4, all of Fort Thomas. He was a native of Kenton County, Ky.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Susan Ross; two brothers, William Ross, Covington, Ky., and Thomas Ross, Jr., Cold Springs, Ky.

Leighninger Wins Golf Trophy In Cincy

Paul Leighninger brought back a trophy last week for his golfing ability in Cincinnati.

Attending the Retail Division of Shoe Travelers Association on May 19 he turned in the low net of 70. His actual score was 84.

Work Is Started On Huge Drive-in Shopping Center

Work was started recently on a new $270,000 shopping center at the northeast corner of Sullivant-av and Huron-av.

Known as the Greater Hilltop Drive-in Shopping Center, the development will house six separate business concerns with two parking lots adjoining. The building will be the largest business building west of the Scioto River, it is said.

Developer of this huge shopping center is Don M. Casto, realtor and developer with offices at 145 N. High-st. He is also developing similar centers in other outlying communities of Columbus.

Mr. Casto said that work was temporarily halted because of a shortage in construction steel. Grading has been done and work is expected to move rapidly once the materials arrive. The building will be of brick and terra cotta construction. It will have a 75 by 130-foot parking lot on the Huron-av side and another 50 by 140-foot parking area on the extreme left side of the tract. The main building will have a frontage of 205 feet on the north side of Sullivant-av.

A Rexall drug store will occupy a 30 by 130-foot room on the extreme west side of the building. To the east of it will be an Albers super market with floor space 70 by 130 feet. Miracle 5c to $1 Stores and Lang Dry Cleaners will continue east. The other two rooms wil be occupied by Holiday Sweets Bakery and Moores of Ohio auto accessories store. The latter will have the east side of the building with 45 by 125 feet of floor space.

Another D-5 Application Is Being Considered

Another Hilltop liquor permit applicant is in the news this week.

A spokesman for the State Liquor Department said this week that a D-5 application is being studied for Eddie's, 2329 W. Broad-st. The business, operated by Eddie Anverse, now sells beer by the glass.

The liquor department spokesman said that as yet there had been no indication of a protest against issuing the permit. Since it is not in the immediate vicinity of a school or church, there is no official notification sent out and no public hearing is planned.

An application for a D-5 permit at 2330 Sullivant-av was heard by state officials Friday morning. Eight or ten members of the Edgewood Chapel United Brethren Church were present to voice protests against this application.

Members of the Wheatland Avenue Methodist Church, also in the 500-foot radius of the applicant, are not opposing the granting of the permit, the pastor, Rev. Thomas L. Tinsley, told the Record this week. A decision on this application is expected in a few days.

Himebrook Services Held Here Monday

Funeral services for John C. Himebrook, 71, of 294 Midland-av, were held Monday at the Born Funeral Home. The service was performed by Rev. J. B. Shellhaas and burial was in Greenlawn Cemetery.

He was born near Switz City, Ind., and came to Columbus in 1908.

Mr. Himebrook had resided at the Hilltop address for 36 years. He was retired from the Pennsylvania Railroad where he had been employed for 40 years. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge at Lyons, Ind., and of the Scottish Rite Consistery at Columbus.

He is survived by his wife, Caroline Williams Himebrook, of the above address, one son, Frank S. Himebrook, and two grandchildren, Virginia and Richard Himebrook, all of Dayton; three brothers, Bert of Swits City, Ind., Frank of Indianapolis, Ind., and Benjamin of Frazeysburg, O.; two sisters Maude Himebrook of Switz City, Ind., and Mrs. Frances Martin of Olive View, Calif.; two nieces and three nephews.

Picnic Dinner Is Last HBA Meeting Until In September

The final spring meeting of the Hilltop Business Association will be held at Westgate Park Tuesday evening, June 15, starting at 7 o'clock. This picnic of members and their wives or sweethearts is to be the last regular meeting until September.

A free picnic dinner will be served to all members who make their reservations in advance. All reservations should be made with C. H. (Doc) Campbell, secretary, not later than Saturday.

Hilltop Supports Payroll Tax

The Hilltop added its emphatic endorsement to the city's one half of one percent payroll tax at the polls Tuesday with a favorable vote for the tax of 63.6 percent. The withholding tax, in effect since the first of the year, pulled a 58.8 percent majority on a city-wide basis.

In the 11th Ward a favorable vote of better than two to one was reported as 2906 votes were cast for the tax as against 1425 against. The 10th Ward was less emphatic as the tax carried 1859 to 1302.

Only two precincts, both in the 10th Ward, failed to support the tax measure. They were Precincts C and F. In the former it lost by only three votes and trailed by only six votes in F.

The unofficial vote by precincts in the two Hilltop wards is as follows:

	10th Ward		11th Ward

Mayor James A. Rhodes was elated at the favorable vote on the Hilltop.

"The residents of the 10th and 11th Wards have asked for better city services. They are entitled to and will get those improved services," the Mayor said.

Two D-3 Applicants Are Turned Down

Two Franklin Township applicants for D-3 tavern permits were turned down by the State Liquor Department last week on the grounds that the legal quota has been filled.

Applicants turned down in the township were Frank Wiefel, Broadway Restaurant, 3770 W. Broad-st, and John Carsilli, Johnny's Tavern, 3503 Trabue-rd.

The state department said that 444 by-the-drink whisky permit applicants had been turned down since April 1 in taxing districts where the department has ruled legal quotas are filled.

Warden Opens Office For Law Practice

Lewis C. Warden, 45 Eldon-av, has opened offices for the practice of law in the Atlas Building, he announced this week.

He had law offices from 1938 to 1942 and than served three years in the Field Artillery. From 1945 to 1948 he was judge of Common Pleas Court in Gallia County.

A graduate of Ohio State University, he received his law degree from Harvard University.

CAR IS STOLEN

A 1939 Chevrolet belonging to Robert Rose, 2465½ W. Broad-st, was stolen from the rear of The Hilltop Record Building one night last week. The car was discovered parked down the alley a half block away with a half a tank of gas missing.

Wires had been pulled loose from the dash, apparently when the car was started without benefit of ignition keys.

MONEY! MONEY! MONEY! It looks as if this group of local business men had struck it rich, judging from the many smiles shown above. The money they are admiring isn't the genuine article, however. It's part of the scrip money that will be handed out by business firms which are members of the Hilltop Business Association.

Hilltop Merchants To Start Issuing Scrip Money To Customers Tomorrow

Hilltop merchants, members of the Hilltop Business Association, will start issuing scrip money tomorrow. Approximately 100 firms are taking part in this interesting promotion. Scrip will be given dollar for dollar on all purchases of 50 cents or more and on payment of accounts.

This scrip money will be used for bidding on and the purchase of merchandise at a giant auction to be held in conjunction with the Hilltop Bean Dinner to be held at Westgate Park on the afternoon and evening of July 28. More than $1,000 worth of merchandise will be sold in this way.

The more scrip accumulated by Hilltop housewives, the more merchandise they can buy. Thousands of dollars of the scrip money has been printed and distributed to the 100 or more cooperating firms. It is being issued in denominations of 50c, $1 and $5.

The bean dinner is a revival of a custom started before the war by the HBA. It will include numerous carnival attractions, pony rides, and other features, details of which are now being worked out.

Beans, coffee, crackers, soft drinks, etc., will be sold on the grounds throughout the afternoon and evening. The bean dinners of other years attracted upwards of 50,000 persons to Westgate Park.

Farewell Luncheon Yesterday Honors Two West Teachers

Miss Louise Cherry, and Miss Valeria Bostwick, both junior high teachers at West High School, were honored with a farewell luncheon at Schmelzer's Restaurant yesterday by the other women teachers of the junior high department.

Miss Cherry, a teacher in the commercial department, and Miss Bostwick, a math teacher, will both retire at the end of this school year.

Miss Cherry came to the local school in 1929 from Highland Avenue School. She said although her home is not on the Hilltop other members of her family have lived here and she feels as if she "belongs here."

Miss Bostwick came to the Hilltop school from Linden McKinley in 1937. She was recently elected to an office of the DAR, and will devote much of her time to that work.

Each was presented a gift at the Wednesday luncheon.

Concordia Lutheran Holds Graduation

Concordia Lutheran School held its closing day program on Thursday evening, June 3. The Rhythm Band made up of pupils of the kindergarten and first grade, played two numbers, and a playlet, "A Day In Birthday Land" was given by the pupils in grades 1 through 7.

Refreshments of cake and ice cream were served to more than 100 persons.

HURT BY AUTO

Robert Smith, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Smith, 2184 Safford-av, suffered minor back and head injuries Sunday afternoon when he was struck by an auto driven by Jesse King, 85 Redbud-av, at Sullivant and Terrace-avs, police said. He was taken to Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Coach Williams To Be At Pool This Summer

George Williams, basketball and baseball coach at West High School, will again be at the Hilltop Pool in a managerial capacity during the day, it was learned this week.

Robert Case, operator of the pool, said that swim classes will get under way for children at 9 a. m. Monday. The classes will be held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Adult classes will be formed later, if was announced.

Reported In "Fair" Condition Following Accidental Shooting

David Fluke, 8, was reported in "fair" condition in Children's Hospital Wednesday noon after being shot through the chest by a .32-caliber revolver by a neighbor boy Tuesday evening.

The gun, belonging to Police Sergeant Walter E. Nice, 607 Woodbury-av, step-father of the boy, was laying on a table in the Nice home. The boy entered, picked up the revolver from the table and discharged it, apparently mistaking it for a toy. David was rushed to Children's Hospital by firemen.

Every Hilltop Record reader has a chance to help select the two grand prize winners in the Record-J. Curtis Allen Baby Photo Contest. Complete details and official voting coupon will be found on pages 2C and 3C of this issue.

Instructions for voting are quite simple. Clip the coupon printed. Vote for one grand prize winner from the pictures of 12 grouped in the Baby Class. Vote for one grand prize winner in the Child Class (1 year through 6 years). Mail or bring the coupon to the Record office, 2465 W. Broad-st, before 12 o'clock noon on Monday, June 14.

The winners in each of the two classes will divide a total of $250 in prizes. Among the many useful gifts will be oil tint enlargements of the two winners presented by J. Curtis Allen. 221 N. Ogden-av, the photographer in the contest. Color enlargements of all 36 of the weekly winners may be seen in the display window at Seiller's, 2404 W. Broad-st.

Three-alarm Fire Sweeps Kirwin Grill

A three-alarm fire early Friday morning drove nine families from their apartments in a blaze that swept Kirwin's Grill, 2447 W. Broad-st, and six apartments above it. Three firemen were injured as the department fought the blaze for more than an hour before it was brought under control.

Fireman Joe Martin, 21, of 1345 Nell-av, was struck in the eye by a flying particle, while Firemen Lewis Arms, 26, of 524 W. Broad-st, and William Peterfly, 24, of 186 Nashoba-av, were overcome by smoke.

The extent of the damage was unestimated, although it is known to have run into the thousands of dollars. Carl Lucas, one of the owners of the building, said that damage to the building alone would run to $15,000 or more. Frank M. Kirwin, 1930 Coventry-rd, owner of the grill, refused to give an estimate on the extent of damage to his equipment. Property damage was extensive in all six of the apartments overhead and smoke damaged furniture and personal belongings of three additional apartment residents over Distelhorst Market, immediately to the east of Kirwin's.

Fire Started In Flue

Chief Caldwell of the Columbus Fire Prevention Bureau said that the fire probably started from a faulty flue into which an incinerator had been connected only recently. He explained that smoke and gases from burning trash had apparently accumulated in the ceiling above the grill and that it was possible that the fire had smouldered there for several hours before breaking out into the open in the early morning hours.

Occupants of the apartments above the grill had smelled smoke in the late afternoon but thought it originated on the outside from burning trash, Chief Caldwell said.

Lucas said that work on remodeling the building would be started as soon as a settlement was made with the insurance company. The apartment section of the building will require extensive rebuilding, he said.

Kirwin announced that his place would re-open as soon as needed repairs could be made to the business room and fixtures could be replaced.

Routed by the blaze were William Wood and guests from Gallia County; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Gunning; Walter Cook and William Crayton, who shared an apartment; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gregory; Loren R. Davis and W. L. Burnette.

The fire was discovered by Maurice Slater, 224 N. Washington-av, janitor and night watchman, at 4:53 a. m. Within the next 45 minutes two calls for additional equipment were sounded.

Also located over the grocery store is the office of Dr. Walter Glennon, dentist. Only minor smoke damage was suffered.

Wilson Heights Civic Group To Hear Plan For School Expansion

The June meeting of the Wilson Heights Civic Association will be held at Wilson School Monday night, June 14, starting at 8 o'clock. All residents of the community are invited to this special meeting.

Elbert Becker, president of the Franklin Township School Board, is to explain plans for the school building program at this meeting.

Council To Meet Tonight

The Hilltop Community Council will hold its regular monthly meeting tonight at 8 o'clock at the newly decorated Teen Canteen and YMCA quarters, 2585 W. Broad-st. Cyrus Rawlings, president, stated that several items of community interest will be discussed, and that final plans for the opening of the playgrounds next week will be announced.

Sorrow Marks Graduation At West Today

Playgrounds Set To Open On Monday

The three parks' city recreation playgrounds will officially open Monday at 2 o'clock, when members of the Hilltop Community Council will cooperate with the playground supervisors in the ceremonies. The three parks to open are Westgate, Holton and Glenwood.

The board of education's two playgrounds, John Burroughs and West Broad Street Schools, will not open until the following Monday, when suitable ceremonies will be held.

The program at all playgrounds will follow the same pattern—flag raising, salute to the colors, singing of "Star Spangled Banner," parade, and an athletic and field games program. Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, and Bluebirds will assist. Prizes are to be awarded for the many events by the Hilltop Business Association and the Hilltop Kiwanis Club.

The Council's committees in charge of the various ceremonies include:

Westgate Park (West High PTA members)—Mrs. C. C. Saylor, 1963 Floral-av; Mrs. L. S. Will, 611 S. Warren-av; Mrs. Paul Benton, 65 S. Westgate-av; Mrs. C. A. Minor, 277 S. Westgate-av.

Glenwood Park (Highland Avenue PTA members)—Mrs. R. W. Hastilow, 197 Midland-av; Mrs. J. E. Bond, 89 Midland-av; Mrs. E. Rice, 277 Belvidere-av; Mrs. T. L. Campbell, 80 Midland-av. St. Aloysius Parent-Teacher group—Mrs. S. Bricker, 212 Schulze; Mrs. R. Haldeman, 125 N. Stevens; Mrs. J. Ryan, 35 Schulze.

Holton — Mrs. Edward F. Thompson, 220 N. Oakley-av; Mrs. Paul Faistl, 31 N. Wayne-av; Mrs. Edward Coe, 475 N. Eureka-av; Mrs. Guy Boots, 86 N. Wayne-av.

West Broad School—Mrs. Earl Abram, 100 N. Huron-av; Mrs. P. M. Walton, 63 N. Terrace-av; Mrs. L. M. Rausch, 3008 Olive-st; Mrs. K. W. Sharodin, 105 S. Brinker-av.

John Burroughs—Mrs. Edward Bradfute, 333 S. Ogden-av; Mrs. H. C. Booth, 646 S. Richardson-av; Mrs. J. W. Bower, 323 S. Ogden-av; Mrs. Donald Hessler, 257 S. Eureka-av; Mrs. W. G. Noltemeyer, 575 Wrexham-av; Mrs. William Coon, 350 S. Ogden-av.

A complete list of the playground supervisors was not available at press time, but the board of education and City Recreation Department expect to make the announcements shortly.

Columbian-av Play Area To Be Opened Officially Monday

Plans were announced Wednesday for the official opening of the new Columbian-av playground by N. J. Barack, recreation director. He said that a supervisor would be assigned to the play area Monday morning.

Meanwhile, residents of the neighborhood were said to be planning to circulate a petition to have the equipment moved from the Columbian-av side to a spot farther from the street. In spite of a section of fence erected Monday in front of the play equipment, some of the people of that area feared for the safety of youngsters playing so near the street.

Services Monday For Three Seniors

One of the saddest graduation ceremonies in the history of West High School will take place at the schol auditorium at 10 o'clock this morning as 245 seniors step forward to accept their diplomas.

One of the community's worst tragedies in the history of the school will leave four vacant seats. For just one week ago tomorrow three seniors were killed and a fourth member of the class injured following the senior banquet and prom. Drowned when their car plunged into backwaters of the Scioto River two miles north of the Columbus Zoo on Route 257 were:

Sue Elleman, 17, of 2213½ W. Broad-st.

Rose (Billie) Lombard, 17, of 235 S. Hague-av.

Gordon Welker, 17, of 123 N. Burgess-av.

James Rose, 18, of 66 Powhatan-av, driver of the car, is confined to his home following the accident. The three were drowned early Friday morning when the car in which they were riding plunged through a guard rail and into the river. James R. Elleman, 20, a brother of Sue, and Keitha Thompson, 18, of 38 Jones-av, escaped from the car.

Sue Elleman

Rose Lombard

The young people in company with three other carloads of seniors were enroute to Delaware to eat their breakfast following an all-night celebration on the occasion of their graduation. The party followed the class banquet and senior prom held at the school Thursday night.

Class members attended the three separate funeral services as a group on Monday. At 9 a. m. services were conducted in St. Aloysius Church for Welker. At 10:30 a. m. services were held in St. Mary Magdalene for Miss Lombard. Services for Miss Elleman were conducted at the Spears Funeral Home at 1 p. m.

Honor Student

Welker was president of the National Honor Society, vice-president and secretary of the Hi-Y; a member of the literary society and student council, and ranked 23rd scholastically in the class. Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl F. Welker; a sister, Mrs. Howard Fosnaugh, and five brothers, James, Vincent, Robert, Richard and Earl Patrick.

Miss Elleman was a member of Girls Athletic Association and ranked high in scholarship. She was the daughter of W. H. Elleman of the W. Broad-st address, and Mrs. Elleman of Tippecanoe City, O. She is survived by

Baccalaureate Service Reflects Tragedy Of Missing Classmates

"Not even a sparrow falleth to the ground, unless it is your Father's will." These words of God were emphasized by Rev. A. J. Wold in an inspiring and consoling baccalaureate address before a grief-stricken West High School audience, Sunday afternoon.

The program also served as a memorial service to the three seniors who lost their lives, just one week ago today.

Funeral services for Sue Elleman, Rose Lombard and Gordon Welker, all victims of an auto accident following the senior banquet and prom last Thursday night, were held Monday. Jimmie Rose, driver of the auto in which the three were drowned after it ran into the Scioto River, was also absent from the service Sunday. He is recovering from shock following the fatal crash.

The president of the senior class, Donald Hutchison, presided over the assembly. The invocation was given by Rev. A. W. Witherspoon, pastor of the Apostolic Gospel Church, and the benediction by Capt. A. C. Williams, chaplain of Lockbourne Army Air Base. Patricia Wolfendale read from the Scripture, and the school choir presented two numbers.

Rev. Wold pointed out to the graduates. "Life is a privilege. The clouds are only momentary."

"Remember, he said, "the world never defeats anyone. It is what is inside a person that defeats him. Very often a person's handicap may be a blessing in disguise. The world is never finished; constantly something new begins, then changes; there is never an end to anything! And as a friend of mine said, 'If life hands you a lemon, make lemonade out of it.'"

The class and the audience concluded the program singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

The day's program will include baseball, horseshoe pitching, golf and dancing.

Jean Elaine Ett Is Married Here To Solon Gilmore

On May 14, in the Hilltop Evangelical Lutheran Church, Miss Jean Elaine Ett and Mr. Solon Browning Gilmore, were united in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Ett of Worthington. Mr. Gilmore's parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Gilmore of Overbrook, Kansas.

Rev. Carveth P. Mitchell of Mansfield, and Rev. Russell J. Olson, officiated at the 8:30 p. m. ceremony, before an altar lit by seven branch candelabra and decorated with white flowers.

A half hour of vocal and organ music preceded the service. It was furnished by Mr. Samuel S. Loyer and Mr. Robert Nash.

The bride's gown was of antique ivory faille, and featured a basque bodice and deep yoke of silk marquisette. Her finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a halo of chantilly lace. Her arm bouquet was of white roses and white stephanotis.

Mrs. Barney J. Magerlein, in pink nylon sheer over taffeta, served as matron of honor for her sister. Miss Phyllis Ett, the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids, Miss Eleanor K. Hamilton, and Miss Nancy Ett, wore pastel gowns styled identically to that of the matron of honor. The attendants carried arm bouquets. Their necklaces were gifts of the bride. Miss Kathryn Ann Mitchell, the flower girl, wore pale green organdy and carried a colonial bouquet.

Mr. Harold Gilmore acted as best man for the bridegroom. Ushers were Mr. Harold Moffatt, of Cleveland, Mr. Montague Gilmore, of Cincinnati, and Mr. Allen Ett.

The bride's mother chose a sheer madonna blue crepe dress with white accessories, and a corsage of pink roses for her daughter's wedding.

Mrs. H. M. Gilmore, Mrs. Thomas B. Plummer and Mrs. Newton A. Thatcher, were assistant hostesses at the church reception for 150 guests which followed the ceremony.

For their wedding trip, the bride chose a dress of powder blue crepe, and wore white accessories.

Auxiliary Birthday To Be Held Saturday

Everything that it takes to make a good birthday party will await Camp Chase Auxiliary members, their families and friends Saturday, June 12, at the post headquarters. Although the committee plans a party similar to the very successful birthday party recently had by Camp Chase Post, early predictions have it that the women really know how to plan parties.

This party will mark the 19th birthday of the American Legion Auxiliary unit and it is expected that many members will make this a reunion. The evening will begin at 6:30 with a dinner and this will be followed by entertainment and dancing with Jimmy Carl's Orchestra. For reservations members are asked to call Edna Johnson at RA. 8561.

Job's Daughters To Meet Thursday

Bethel No. 3, International Order of Job's Daughters will hold its regular bi-monthly meeting Thursday evening at Schmelzer's Hall, 3178 W. Broad-st, at 8 p. m.

Donna Cramer is finishing her six-month term of office and is asking all girls who have become members during her term to attend this meeting. Rev. Roscoe Parr, pastor of the Hilltonia Evangelical United Brethren Church, will give a talk on the Book of Job during the regular meeting. Following the meeting a program has been arranged and refreshments will be served.

On Sunday afternoon, June 6, Miss Cramer entertained the members of the Bethel Choir following their practice, at Schmelzer's, in appreciation of their cooperation during her term of office.

Miss Cramer is the youngest girl to have served the Bethel as Honored Queen and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cramer, 570 Wiltshire-rd.

Cloves are the dried flower buds of a species of myrtle grown principaly in the East Indies.

Overhead Wires In Use For Past Half Century Removed Along W. Broad St.

Just recently the old overhead telephone wires along W. Broad-st, which had been used in the inter-communication system for about 48 years, were removed. Their passing from the scene recalls some of the development in communications during the past half century.

In the early 1900's toll circuits, or long distance telephone lines, extended through underground cable from the Columbus Central Office to a point just west of the Scioto River. Shortly thereafter cable pairs were established on [illegible] poles, from this point through West Jefferson, London, Springfield and Dayton.

Then in 1928 improvements were made in developing the cable, making possible an underground cable owned jointly by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and Ohio Bell Telephone. This cable, which made the old aerial cables obsolete, runs in West Broad to Georgesville-rd, over to Sullivant-av, thence aerially to its destination.

We who take the telephone as a commonplace household item, seldom stop to think about the inconvenience of the phone-less days. Alexander Graham Bell came to the fore in 1876, when he invented this time and labor-saving device.

One of the most important additions to Bell's mechanism is the cable, which can be used both underground and under water as well as aerially. The cable has come into extended use in recent years, cutting down the required number of overhead wires.

A merger of Postal Telegraph with Western Union in 1945 made possible many line eliminations. After the merger, three companies, American Telephone and Telegraph, Ohio Bell and Western Union, combined the use of the poles on the south side of U. S. Route 40 (W. Broad-st).

With the installation of several new cables between Columbus and other points west, more lines were removed, leaving at present only one aerial cable on the W. Broad-st line. At present all telephone circuits on W. Broad to West Jefferson are in cable. As soon as possible the poles, which had to be quite high to accommodate all the overhead wires, will be shortened or replaced.

The cable is a very intricate device. It consists of a lead pipe through which the wires run. The wires are individually wrapped for insulation, and are arranged in pairs, since it takes two to form a circuit. These cables vary in size from two pairs to 2828 pairs, depending upon the circuit requirement.

The cables are pumped full of gas until a pressure of 6-9 pounds is reached. If a hole appears in the cable sheath (the lead pipe), moisture enters the cable and causes noisy circuits, impairs the transmission or causes total cable failure. However, when an opening in the sheath does occur, the gas leaks out very slowly, causing the pressure to drop. When the pressure has dropped to a certain level, an alarm is set off in the testing center. In this center the leak may be traced and the hole found.

This system is especially effective on underwater cables because even if there is a break in the sheath, as long as there is a leakage of gas, the water cannot enter the cable until there is no pressure left.

The open wire lines, predecessors of the cable, were quite a hazard, especially during the winter weather. They were heavy and presented a broad surface to high winds. During snow and sleet storms, the surface became even broader. The weight of ice on them caused the wires and poles to break, resulting in loss of service, not to mention total line failures.

Cable connections may be made from Columbus east to Cambridge, north to Big Island, and south to Chillicothe. The Columbus-Dayton cable is a part of the Bell System's east to west network.

Many of these toll cables carry radio programs of national networks. Telephone officials say that actually only about five per cent of a radio broadcast is wireless, and that the other 95 per cent involves the use of telephone facilities.

Keep Feet Cool In Hot Weather

Keep your feet cool and comfortable this summer. There are four quick, easy ways to do it, according to the June issue of McCall's Magazine:

"Wash in a lather of warm water. Clean feet are cooler, bathing relaxes weary muscles. Add a granulated foot soap to loosen dirt. Splash with cold water.

"Be fussy about drying. Don't miss an inch, especially between your toes. Moist spots are danger points. Your towel's brisk friction rubs away bits of skin scurf.

"Smooth on foot cream. Menthol makes a cream that's icy cool. Then grasp your foot with both hands, slide them down toward toes in deep massage movement.

"Sprinkle on foot powder. After you've wiped off foot cream, dust powder all over your feet, into your shoes, too. This absorbs perspiration, prevents chafing."

SONG FOR THE SOUND OF WINGS

At half-past four
He was half as tall
As the hollyhocks
By the garden wall.

Almost too soon
Time struck half-past eight—
He was just as tall
As the garden gate.

We cut a notch
On the plum tree when
In that swift lost spring
He was half-past ten.

The other marks—
Somehow I forget
Where we made them all,
But remember yet

One by the door . . .
It can still be seen—
How he stood tall there
At half-past sixteen.

The sound of wings!
Now our hearts mark high
Half-past twenty—
Against the sky.

ANCHORS AWEIGH!

The fair-haired lass who captains this vessel won't have any trouble rounding up a crew (and maybe even a few stowaways) in such an attractive outfit. She's wearing a sunback dress designed by Junior Miss of California. MARRIED MAY 1—A double-ring ceremony united Martha Bailey and Charles Gallagher. (Citizen Photo)

The altar of the Hilltop Church of Christ, decorated with white gladioli, fern and seven-branch candelabra, provided the background for the marriage of Miss Martha Bailey and Charles F. Gallagher, C. M. M., on Saturday, May 1. Rev. Enoch Smith officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Voltairine Bailey, 196 N. Warren-av, and Mr. A. J. Bailey, 2649 W. Broad-st. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. John E. Gallagher, Hartford, Conn.

A half hour of organ music preceded the ceremony with Mrs. Alberta England as soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin, with a fitted bodice and long sleeves, coming to points over the hands. The full skirt ended in a circular train. Her veil of silk Spanish lace was brought from Gibraltar by the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley on a white prayer book. Her single strand of pearls were a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Jeanne Bailey and Miss Shirley Bailey, sisters of the bride, acted as maid of honor and bridesmaid, respectively. Little Martha Dungee was flower girl. The maid of honor wore aqua taffeta. The bridesmaid chose a peach taffeta gown similarly styled, and both carried colonial bouquets and wore matching tiaras. The flower girl wore white taffeta with a band of flowers in her hair, and carried a basket of rose petals. All wore pearls, a gift of the bride.

Mr. Albert Knee of New York City was best man. Seating the guests were Mr. Robert Gurley and Mr. Jack Carothers.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Seneca Hotel.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Albert Knee and Mr. William Gallagher of New York City, Mrs. Lewis Maurer, Mrs. Mary Aust and daughter, Edna, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harpel of Sandusky, O., and Mrs. Charles Welch and sons, Tommy and Stephen, of China Lake, Calif.

For traveling the bride chose a print dress with beige accessories. She wore the white rose corsage from her bridal bouquet, at her shoulder.

The couple is now at home at 505 Nelson-st, Portsmouth, Va.

"Big Clock" at Ohio

Loew's Ohio this week is showing the suspenseful manhunt, "The Big Clock," starring Ray Milland and Charles Laughton, with Maureen O'Sullivan. Co-feature is the Cinecolor comedy, "Who Killed Doc Robbin?" with the Our Gang kids, Virginia Grey and Don Castle.

"Homecoming" In Second Week

Loew's Broad has a second and final week now of the Clark Gable-Lana Turner romance, "Homecoming," with Anne Baxter and John Hodiak in supporting roles. The Broad is showing "Homecoming" as a single feature with a Metro color cartoon and the musical short, "Martin Block's Musical Merry-Go-Round," featuring Tex Beneke and his orchestra.

TO BE JUNE BRIDE—Donna Jean Murray and Robert R. Grove, will be united in marriage June 20.

Thermometers Cut Errors In Cooking

Cook with thermometers if you want to be sure of good results. They take the guesswork out of frying, roasting and baking, says Eleanor Heckman. And incidentally they make following ... book instruction much easier. She describes four kinds of useful, kitchen thermometer:

"With a thermometer for roasting meats you eliminate any guesswork in roasting. It's clearly marked in Fahrenheit degrees to indicate 'doneness' for pork, lamb, veal, beef or ham, and on the opposite side tells you when meat is rare, medium and well done. Accompanying directions give a handy table for judging cooking time and recommended oven temperatures for various meats.

"Clip a thermometer for deep fat frying on the edge of your fryer and it will tell you exactly when your fat is the correct temperature for browning foods, such as croquettes, or frying doughnuts, French fried potatoes, etc. Correct temperature of fat prevents foods from absorbing excess fat and you know how important that is.

"A candy thermometer looks just like the deep fat frying kind, except it has a lower range of temperatures for this sugar cookery. In addition it's marked with these terms: hard crack, soft crack, hard ball, soft ball.

"If you haven't a heat-controlled oven, you simply must have an oven thermometer. Besides the degrees, it's marked in terms of very hot, moderate and slow. For accurate reading, place thermometer on same level as food."

Pinned Roses Make June Frocks Smart

June is the month of roses, and what makes a better costume accent than a rose worn in a flattering and unusual way? Pauline Trigere, famed fashion designer, gives you hints on how to use roses smartly:

"Worn attached to a pearl choker, a rose sheds warm, pink lights upwards onto your face. For a touch that brings you a second look: roses clipped to the back of a low neckline.

"Again, at the back of the waistline, pin a long-stemmed beauty, real or fabricated. Combine a rose with violets, tuck corsage into one corner of the low neckline of a black dress. Have a big bow or sash? Push a cabbage rose dramatically into the knot."

Seven-letter Winner

Walter Hicks Gets Diploma

By Paul Wichterman

Another fine athlete graduates from West High School today.

He is Walter Hicks, 19, a seven-letter man in three sports. While most Cowboy sports fans will always remember him as the fleet halfback that skirted the ends on the 1947 championship football team, his greatest accomplishments came in the cinder track sport.

This year he hung up a new "West best" and Huntington Relays record in the broad jump when he leaped 21 feet, 10.5 inches in the West Virginia track event. Other honors piled up by the sprint and broad jump star include breaking the Hilltop Relays broad jump mark; winning the Noble L. Allen Award (given to the most outstanding sophomore track prospect), and the winning of two individual trophies for rome of the achievements listed above.

Oddly enough he places track third in his personal preference of the three sports. Football and basketball are just about even in his choice of the No. 1 sport. At present he is planning to enroll at Findlay College next fall where he will go out for all three sports events. He plans to study physical education. He turned down an offer to attend A & T College, down in North Carolina, where Howard (Tubby) Gentry, another former West High star, is now serving as assistant football coach.

Played With Colts AC

Walter got his first taste of football as a member of the Colts A. C. eleven on the sand lots of Columbus. He didn't go out for football in his sophomore year but did play enough to win his letter during the junior year. With the 1947 championship eleven he played every game, accounting for several long runs and a total of 11 touchdowns. His work earned all-city recognition in two of the local sports polls and an honorable mention on the Associated Press all-state.

He earned letters in basketball during the past two seasons and was the city's eleventh highest individual scorer with a total of 117 points during the past season. He rated the second team in the all-city selections in the cage sport. His best scoring game was against East last winter when he racked up 20 tallies.

He also has a reserve letter for his first year's work on the hardwood.

In track he runs the 100-yard dash in 10.3 seconds, has been a member of the 880-yard relay team that won district honors last year and the mile-relay team that also garnered district laurels last season. He has been a consistent scorer in the broad jump event and earned three track letters.

Recently he started playing softball and is currently playing right field with one of the Jeffrey's nines.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hicks, 434 S. Oakley-av. A brother, Carl, is an eighth grade student at West this year.

Miss Lombard leaves her parents, Lts and Mrs. Ralph Lombard. (The parents are divorced.) She also leaves a brother Paul, 12, and two sisters, Margaret Ann, 20, and Joan, 19.

Mrs. Lombard visited the Record office Tuesday afternoon to ask that the Record express her deep appreciation to the hundreds who called and brought food to her home or otherwise offered their assistance during her bereavement.

"This is the last time we will be together as a group," Don Hutchinson, president of the graduating class, told his classmates at the banquet Thursday night.

Little did he realize the accuracy of this bit of prophecy for before morning three members of that class had drowned. He was referring to the fact that it was the last time the class would be together as a group.

"Members of this class had been especially cooperative in our program to try to emphasize the hazards of graduation celebration," Irvin F. Young, principal of the school, told The Hilltop Record.

Just before the banquet group broke up, Principal Young had cautioned the graduates to be careful.

"Be sure that nothing happens to mar the good time we are having here tonight," he told the 249 seniors.

West Drops Heartbreaker To Central Pirates 2 To 1

By Dave Miller

West's Cowboys missed a chance to take full possession of the City League championship last Wednesday afternoon by losing a heart-breaker to second-place Central, 2 to 1, in eight innings, at the latter's field.

However, the Cowboys went into a good spot for at least a tie as Central lost to North at Central last Monday, 11 to 0. The scheduled game for the next day between the Polar Bears and West was rained out and was rescheduled for Wednesday.

This game is the replay of the tie, 2-2 game, at North, on April 16. If the Cowboys are the victors they will tie for the championship and if they lose they will tie with North for second place.

In the Central contest, two all-star batteries of the City League were pitted against each other. They were Tom Jones and Bobby Logan for Central and Charlie Weeks and Al Andrews of West. Weeks lost a heartbreaker by suffering his second setback this year. The other loss came at the hands of a hard-hitting St. Charles nine.

Both runs that scored for Central were unearned markers because each runner who tallied was sent to base as a result of a base on balls.

After setting Central down in the first two innings in regulation order, Weeks gave free passes to the first two men up in the third. Bobby Logan attempted a sacrifice, but forced Bob Emilhentz, the first man to walk, at third, for the initial out.

Then Central had a very lucky break. Tom Jones, the pitcher, next man up in this round, hit an easy roller down between second and first, which either baseman could have fielded easily. However, first baseman Dick Culbertson and second-sacker Don Skipper bumped into each other and Bill Towler, who was the other walk given up by Weeks, scored all the way from second base as the ball rolled slowly between the pitcher's mound and first base.

This gave Central a 1-0 lead on no hits in that one inning. Weeks was touched for only two hits in the remaining five rounds.

West tied it all up in the sixth inning and made everyone happier. Jack Pickens, fiery West shortstop, led off by getting the first hit of the day off Jones with a single to direct center. After two unsuccessful tries to sacrifice, Don Little struck out for the first out. Dick Culbertson then socked a long double to deep left field, plating Pickens, with the tying marker.

Central went down easily in the seventh, West the same way in the overtime eighth round. Then the Pirates won the game in the bottom of the eighth. With one away, pitcher Tom Jones drew Weeks' fifth walk of the game and Gen Morgan, who had struck out twice in the earlier part of the game, hit a beautiful single through the box which plated Jones, who had moved to second on a passed ball.

Score:

Central	001 000 01—2	3	0

Weeks and Andrews; Jones and Logan

Hilltop Van Wins 2 From Wilmers

The Hilltop Van & Storage softball team took both ends of a double header Tuesday night by defeating Wilmers Restaurant 3 to 2 and 3 to 0 in the Columbus Independent League.

Grove and Bolin pitched good ball in both contests and received perfect support afield. Morris Reese, who did the hurling for Wilmers, homered in the first game to drive in one and make the only tallies of the evening for the losers.

The Hilltoppers are scheduled for a game with Mercurio-Deluco Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock on Westgate Diamond No. 3. On Tuesday night the team tangles with Hanford AC at King Avenue.

Volunteer Fire Department Is Well Organized In Prairie Township

By Paul Wichterman

Volunteer fire departments in Franklin County are not the "hit and miss" type of organization one might expect. Quite the contrary, some of them are well organized and highly efficient considering the large territories they are called upon to service.

I visited the new Prairie Township Fire House recently and Lawrence Karns proudly explained its operation in the absence of Chief Lamb who had "gone into town" that morning.

The new fire house was just completed a few months ago in Rome, a central point for covering the entire township. The equipment now consists of a Dodge truck with tank, ladders, a large pump for connecting on to hydrants in town and a booster pump to pump from a well, creek or other body of water that might be handy. Another truck is on order for delivery this summer.

The truck is kept in a heated building and is ready to go at a moment's notice. Calls for fire service go into three different homes so that some one is always sure to be home to accept them. The truck is equipped with two-way radio communication with the sheriff's office. As the truck is pulling out of the house, one of the men is in touch with the sheriff's office announcing the location of the fire. This is to alert other volunteer companies in West Jefferson, Grove City and Hilliard to stand by in the event of a second fire. It also serves as a link to call for extra equipment from neighboring companies in the event a fire is too large for one truck to handle. Clearance is made with the central station upon the return of the equipment to the fire house.

Men Are Trained

The Prairie Township Fire Department is made up of 23 men, all of whom have taken special training in the use of fire fighting equipment. Each man attended 20 night classes and was issued a card by the extension service of Kent State University showing his fitness to serve in that capacity.

"We thought we knew all about fighting fires until that man came here from the University," Karns said.

"It wasn't long until we began to realize that we knew little or nothing."

Of the 23 men subject to call, eight live in Rome. Others are scattered at strategic points throughout the township. Only men in the area in which the fire has been reported will be called on duty. For instance if a fire is reported in the southern end of the township, only enough men to man the truck will leave Rome. Others in that area will be alerted immediately on receipt of the call. They will then go directly to the scene of the fire, possibly arriving before the truck itself.

The truck never waits for men when a call is turned in. The chief or one of the men will take the wheel and pull out immediately. Other men in or around Rome who may be called out will make an effort to catch the truck before it leaves the station. If they are unable to do this, they follow the truck to the fire.

"We feel that every second counts," Karns said.

"Five minutes lost in waiting for a crew to assemble may mean the difference in saving or losing a building."

Started Four Years Ago

Organized about four years ago as a volunteer unit, the organization has been expanded as money permits. A couple of years ago, $20,000 was voted for the erection of a fire house. This is now almost complete. There are just a few little things to be added. This building will house two large fire trucks with additional room for the possible addition of an inhalator car at some future time.

A 750-gallon truck is expected to be delivered to the department some time this summer. This will take the place of the smaller truck now in use. This will be kept for standby equipment to be used in emergency.

Although a tax levy provides money for principal operating expenses, many things are added by the firemen themselves. For instance, when money ran out in the construction of the fire house, the members saved up their quarter per month dues and bought the covering for the floor in the recreation room. The men get together once a month for a little recreation and they are getting their quarters fixed up in nice shape. When completed there will be provision for taking a shower. The men also put on a banquet each year and use any profits for the cause of the department. Proceeds from a benefit ball game at Red Bird Stadium made possible the purchase of the radio equipment now in use in the county.

While the men are paid for fire runs, what they actually make is only on a nominal basis. Each man is allowed $1 for answering the alarm plus $1 per hour for the time required to complete the run.

During the past year 48 fire runs were made by the Prairie Township Department. That means that almost one fire per week can be expected in the township. While there may be a period of two or three weeks without a run, it usually equals itself out for the period of a year's time.

Already several buildings have been saved as a result of the efficiency of the fire department. Every building saved cuts down on the rate farmers and villagers will have to pay on their insurance. Everyone is proud of the progress being made in the field of reducing fire losses in Prairie Township.

Improper Bicycle Operation Is Growing Columbus Traffic Hazard

The growing menace of improper bicycle operation in Columbus has been overshadowed by the seriousness of the motor vehicle and pedestrian traffic factors, according to D. K. Finley, 733 S. Hague-av, manager of the Safety Council of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce.

The records of the Safety Council show that during the past 15 years, 1933 through 1947, there have been 1653 bicycle-motor vehicle accidents reported. In these accidents 14 persons have been killed and 1093 others have been more or less severely injured. Of the persons killed, one was 79 years of age and 13 were less than 18 years old; of the persons injured, 474 were under 14 years of age, 548 between 14 and 24, 56 between 65 and 44, and 16 were 45 years of age or older.

This survey covers only the reported accidents involving accidents with motor vehicles, and does not take into account those that have not been reported or other types of bicycle accidents, of which there undoubtedly have been many.

Columbus has one of the best bicycle ordinances of any city in the country, according to Mr. Finley, under which any bicycle operated in violation of its provisions can be impounded for a period of not more than 10 days and shall be released to the parent or guardian of the minor violator only upon order of the chief of police, after full explanation for the reason of such impounding and after the expiration of the impounding period.

Such violations as clinging on to moving vehicles, carrying passengers on the handlebars or frame, riding at night without required lights, are a distinct traffic hazard, and any effort to improve the traffic accident record of Columbus must take into account the operation of bicycles as well as that of motor vehicles and the movement of pedestrians.

Traffic Safety Demands That "New Look"

There is a "new look" in traffic safety, according to the Safety Council of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce and D. Knight Finley, 733 S. Hague-av, manager, who reminds us that "safe conditions and habits are always in style."

For operators of motor vehicles, look out for children playing in the roadway; look for and obey the various signs erected to regulate the movement of your vehicle; look for pedestrians to appear in the most unexpected places; look at cocktails and highballs if you are so inclined, but do not drink if you intend to drive, and look over your car frequently to see that it is in good mechanical condition, especially the brakes.

Pedestrians too should look for and obey traffic signs and signals; look carefully to the left and then to the right before stepping off the curb; look for reckless operators of cars at all times; look for a "space to come by" before attempting to cross a street, even if a few seconds are lost.

And bicyclists, who are becoming more and more involved in traffic accidents, should look for the unsafe conditions and practices that cause mishaps, such as riding two on a bicycle, operating at night without a light, riding on the wrong side of the road, disregarding traffic signs and signals, neglecting to keep the bicycle in perfect mechanical condition at all times, hitching on to moving vehicles, and "stunting."

1. What did the Roman "thumbs down" really mean? Contrary to what most people believe, "thumbs down" did not mean death. Quite the opposite — proof that "thumbs down" meant life for the Roman Gladiators exists in studies by Rev. Dr. Brewer, P. 253, Guide To Roman History. Also see C. E. Clarke, P. 118, More Mistakes We Make.
2. Can love be "heartfelt"? No—as the heart is NOT the seat of our affections! (The heart is a physical pump which forces blood through our circulatory system. The seat of our affections is the brain, where all likes and dislikes are determined.—Manual of First-Aid Instruction. United States Department of the Interior, 1940, pp 68-70)
3. When is Washington's real birthday? (Washington was born, according to records, on February 11, 1732. The present-day, new-tyle calendar adds eleven days to the old-tyle calendar.—The World Book Encyclopedia. Vol. 18, p. 7647.)

Bill Sherker To Captain Westgate Tennis Team; Play Starts Sunday

Announcement was made this week that Bill Sherker will captain the Westgate tennis team in the forthcoming Columbus Tennis League season. Bob Rinehart is chairman of league play, with Hoover Young and Walter Rau serving on the committee. League play starts June 13 and continues each Sunday thereafter into August.

Teams already entered besides Westgate are Southwood, Olentangy Village, Columbus Tennis Club, Bexley, Beatty Park, Upper Arlington and Grandview. Playing times, places and full schedules will be released later.

Last year's Westgate team finished in a third place tie in the final league standings. The championship was copped by University, a team composed of Ohio State varsity performers. This year in match play there will again be three singles events and two doubles.

Any Hilltop players interested in becoming members of the Westgate club are requested to contact Bill Sherker at Seiller's, 2404 W. Broad, RA. 8413. Trophies will be awarded each member of the championship team at the season's end.

Most of the tennis stars of Columbus, past, present and future, performed in the league last year, including Dick Slager, George Phillips, Sherker, Eddie Farmer, W. Becker, Bob Rinehart, Arnie Levenstein, Chuck Atherton, Bill Mackey, Bud Tracey, Carl Purtz, Gordon Conklin, Tom Mitchell, district champion, Dick Paugh, Rodney Kolb, Maceo Hill, Bill Campbell, Ben Hudiey, O. J. Wilkinson, Norm Wagner, Howie Kempton, Chuck Thackera and many others.

More than 50 players were active in league competition last year, and more are expected for the 1948 season.

Baseball Players Are Feted By Kiwanis Club

Members of the 1948 West High School baseball team were guests of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club at a dinner held at Schmelzer's Restaurant, 3178 W. Broad-st, last Wednesday night. A motion picture, "Mr. Jones — Kiwanian," will be shown at today's luncheon meeting of the club. Roger Strauss, chairman of Kiwanis education, will be in charge of the program.

Floyd Stahl, baseball coach at Ohio State University, was the speaker at the baseball appreciation meeting last week. He drew a comparison between baseball and the activities of life. In baseball, you give your best, that's all that can be asked of a player, he said.

He stressed the need for hard work as a requisite to success in sports or in the game of life. He pointed out the quality of sportsmanship as a mark of character on or off the athletic field.

Some of the highlights in the colorful life of Aaron Burr will be discussed at next week's meeting of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club by Forrest Smith, a Columbus attorney. Mr. Smith has made quite an exhaustive study of the life history of this historical personage who came to an infamous end.

Softball Leagues Are Organized By Parents Club

A teen-age boys' and girls' recreation softball league has been established by the Hilltop Parents' Association. Three teams have entered each league. Any other teams or sponsors may receive full information on the project by calling RA. 05832.

The kindergarten closes today with a commencement-tea program at 1:30 p. m. The movies of the children and their mothers taken at the Columbus Zoo will be shown. The public is invited. Graduates are Muriel Jordon, Michael Rater and John Bennett.

Newly elected officers of the association were installed at the monthly meeting, May 27, by Rev. T. L. Tinsley. The next regular meeting will be held June 30 at the Wheatland Avenue Methodist Church.

West Park Tops Church Loop By Defeating Chicago Ave.

By Dave Miller

West Park Methodist strengthened its lead in the West Church League No. 2 by defeating Chicago Avenue Church of God in both ends of a twin bill, 6 to 4 and 9 to 4.

Both games were tight from the start but West Park managed to pull ahead for both wins. The twin set of victories put the winners two full games ahead of also-undefeated Salvation Army.

In other games reported in League No. 1, St. Aloysius beat first place Westgate, 5 to 4, in a tight 13 inning ball game. The win for St. Aloysius coupled with Westgate's loss gave the two teams a tie for the loop leadership.

Other games in this league saw Hilltop Church of God down a stubborn Glenwood nine, 6 to 1, and in the consolation game, Glenwood shut out Church of God, 6 to 0.

A scheduled game between Avondale and Salvation Army at Sunshine was postponed because of wet grounds.

The standings after three sets of games are as follows:

League No. 1

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Westgate	2	1	.667
St. Aloysius	2	1	.667
Glenwood	2	2	.500
Hilltop C. of G.	2	2	.500
*Burgess EUB	1	1	.500
*Hoge Memorial	0	2	.000

League No. 2

	Won	Lost	Pct.
West Park	3	0	1.000
*Salvation Army	2	0	1.000
Avondale EUB	1	1	.500
St. John	1	2	.333
Chicago C. of C.	1	3	.250
Hillcrest	0	3	.000

*Scheduled double-header between these four teams.

St. John defeated Hillcrest Baptist in a free-scoring contest that ended in a 16 to 15 count. Darkness put an end to the second game just two outs short of the five-inning requirement. At the time, St. John was leading, 4 to 0.

West Junior And Senior Athletes Win Track And Baseball Letters

By Dave Miller

Letter awards were presented to the players of West High's spring athletic program as school came to a close this week.

In the Junior High department nine varsity letters were awarded to the boys participating in the City Junior High Baseball League. These letter winners include Harry Bradley and Ron Farley, catchers; Jerry Johnson, Russ Friend, Chuck Leipensperger and Morris Dobbs, infielders; Ted Fladt, pitcher; and Ron McElwee, Al Shade and Bill South, outfielders.

Coach Red Lehman of the Junior baseballers reported that a few other boys would receive reserve letters as soon as the reserve team completes its schedule. Members of this squad include Eddie Gleibs, Walter Meredith, Roger Meyers, Russell Gardner, Dick Hutchinson, Dick Orr and Jerry Trabue. Assistant Coach Tom Conley is serving as director of this team.

Meanwhile, Coach George Williams of the West Senior baseball team reports that later on he will announce his letter winners.

Coach Rufe Glass of the West Senior and West Junior track teams announced this past week his letter winners in both reserve and varsity divisions.

In the Senior High, awards went to Dick Borror, Wilbur Ehlers, Kenneth Evans, Bob Smith, Jim Dennis, Bob Brown, Dick Ham, Bob Janes, Kenny Mahan, Walter Hicks, William Stevenson, Roland Stout, Jack Kelley, Dick Lanigan, Glen Schroeder, Charles Miller, Bob Cochran, Robin Schmidt, Don Eitle, Sam Ellis, Bill Van Atta, Dave Cockfield, Frank Carson, and managers Dick Holycross, Gregory Burke, Steve Howison. Reserve letters went to Donn Elsele, Ken Sharp, Jim Palmer and Ray Bostic.

Junior High varsity letters were awarded to Douglas Clark, Wilbert Werling, Gene Rigsby, Dave Weber, Bill Markel, Dick Briggs, Warren Stephans, Ronnie Coup, Roland Carver and Johnny Current. Reserve awards went to Irvin Denune, Jim Hall, Jim Cochran, Wesley Edstrom, Bill Guyton and Bill Wallace.

Mibs Champion To Get 2 Weeks Of Free Camping

A two-week free camping period at Camp Wilson will go to the marble champion of the Hilltop, to be determined next week.

Averille Thorn, secretary of the new Hilltop YMCA, said that registrations are now being received at "Y" headquarters from boys 10 through 13 years of age. All registrations must be in by 4:30 o'clock Monday with first games to be rolled Tuesday. Approximately one week will be required to eliminate the contestants and establish the mibs champ.

Contestants will be required to furnish their own marbles.

Thorn said that letters went out to the pastors of local churches this week to determine interest in two softball leagues for boys in two age groups. The first league would include boys 16 and under while the second loop would be for boys 14 and under.

It is hoped that play can be started during the week of June 21.

Former members of the Hilltop Teen Club this week received invitations to attend a reorganization meeting of that group to be held at the YMCA Friday at 7 p. m. All former Teen Clubbers and all other young people interested in this program are invited. Plans for the summer will be discussed.

The new YMCA center, Broadst and Burgess-av, will hold open house Saturday, June 19, starting at 7:30 p. m. All Hilltoppers interested in this new community project are invited to the opening, Thorn said. Refreshments will be served and ping pong and pool will be available.

YMCA workers who have not yet made final reports are asked to turn in their cards at the "Y" office at once, the new secretary said. The board is to meet tonight and the campaign will be officially closed at that time.

Rain Bowlers Tie Friendly Five For League Lead

The Rain Bowlers team in the Tuesday Night League did what every other team in the league has been trying to do all year. They defeated the Friendly Five team three games, thus enabling them to tie the Friendly Five team for the league lead win, 11 victories and 4 defeats.

Ardle

High scoring honors went to Ronnie Bryant with 212-543, which helped his Bryant Glazers to go into a tie with Reeves Bros. Hardware for third place and leaving both teams' other two games out of first. Team honors went to Bryant Glazers with 862-2395.

The league standings are as follows:

Friendly Five	11	4
Rain Bowlers	11	4
Reeves Bros.	9	6
Bryant Glazers	8	6
Pin Spotters	8	9
Detricks	4	11
State Hospital	4	11
Mixups	2	13

St. John's two teams, the Poodlers and Bears, remained in a tie for first place along with the Hurricanes with 8 wins and 4 losses. The Hurricanes came up to the league leaders by winning three from the Wolves while the Poodlers and Bears were winning only two of their three games. Howard Bruckelmeyer's 248-596 was the best single effort while Jean Hedges' 445 led the women.

Team honors went to the Poodlers with 865 and the Hurricanes with 2507.

Standings

Poodlers	8	4
Bears	8	4
Hurricanes	8	4
Go-Getters	6	6
Mudhens	6	6
Cubs	6	6
Wolves	4	8
Wonders	2	10

It was still Bethlehem No. 3 leading the Bethlehem Lutheran League by virtue of their two-game victory over Bethlehem No. 4, while Bethlehem Nos. 1, 2, 5, 6 and 8 were all battling it out for second place, each owning a 6 and 6 record.

Diane Smith topped the women again this week with 147-398 while Charles Cash led the men with 185-506. Bethlehem No. 8 took team honors with 874-2561.

Standings

Bethlehem No. 3	10	2
Bethlehem No. 1	6	6
Bethlehem No. 4	6	6
Bethlehem No. 2	6	6
Bethlehem No. 6	6	6
Bethlehem No. 5	6	6
Bethlehem No. 8	4	8
Bethlehem No. 7	4	8

Because of the Memorial Day holiday no games were rolled Monday in the Veterans' League, thus leaving the standings as they were last week.

Three Hilltop Boys To Enter 12th Buckeye Boys' State

More than 850 high school juniors from throughout Ohio will arrive Saturday at Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, to become citizens in the 12th Buckeye Boys' State, the Ohio American Legion's annual school of practical government.

Representing the Hilltop will be three West High students, chosen recently to represent Camp Chase Post No. 91, American Legion, the Hilltop Business Association and the Hilltop Kiwanis Club.

Those attending from the Hilltop are William Clarkin, 135 N. Chase-av, Jack Helman, 239 S. Westgate-av, and William McCrady, 178 S. Roys-av. Harry Hallern, 1212 Cleveland-av, a student at Holy Family, was selected as an alternate.

Each boy will promptly become a member of one of two mythical political parties, be assigned to one of 17 cities and of three counties, and will be intensively exposed to both the theory and practice of self-government in a democracy—U. S. A. style.

This will be the largest Buckeye Boys' State on record by at least 40 citizens, says W. L. (Pete) DeWeese of Legion state headquarters in Columbus, who has been the administrative head of the school since its beginning in 1936. When it closes on June 22, the Ohio total of Boys' State graduates will exceed 8100.

Almost every boy will be a candidate for public office, and by Sunday the B. B. S. section of the campus will be plastered with home-made political signs. General elections will come Monday. The 12th governor will be inaugurated, and his cabinet and supreme court sworn in, at colorful ceremonies that night in Gray chapel. Governor Thomas J. Herbert will speak, and Justice Charles B. Zimmerman of the Ohio Supreme Court will administer the oath to the new governor.

Thereafter, the boys will settle into their various offices, bolstered by special books on their duties and coached by a volunteer staff of Legionnaires and a crew of 30 counsellors who are undergraduates at Ohio State and Ohio Wesleyan Universities. Those who fail of election may land appointive jobs, become lawyers, or join the Boys' State Highway Patrol or National Guard.

Each day at Boys' State is reckoned as the equivalent of three months in regular state, county or city government.

Some 28 Legionnaires will assist the young officials, and other expert help will come from the state, county and city offices in Columbus and Delaware. President Floyd R. Hartpence of the B. B. S. board, who is superintendent of the Ohio Soldiers and Sailors Orphans' Home at Xenia, will be there for the duration.

Jack Thrush Hits .333 For Wilmington, N. C.

Jack Thrush, a mid-year graduate at West High School and an outstanding Hilltop athlete, is currently "doing alright" in his first season of organized baseball. As of last week he was carrying a batting average of .333 and has been playing regularly for Wilmington, N. C., in the Tobacco State League.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Thrush, and brother, Bill, of 172 S. Westgate-av, left Monday to spend a week visiting Jack. The young first baseman was a three-sport competitor at West, being proficient in football, basketball and baseball.

Tiny Loud Speaker Smaller Than Dime Is New Hearing Aid

The smallest reproducer of sound ever built—a tiny "loud speaker" that can be hidden by a dime—was unveiled today in Columbus, bringing closer to reality the day of the "wrist watch" radio.

The tiny device is being shown at the Telex Hearing Center, 318 Beggs Bldg. It is a part of a revolutionary one-piece hearing aid, the Telex "99", which incorporates among its features a major electronics miracle of World War II secret research, an entire electrical system "printed" on a plastic wafer scarcely larger than two postage stamps.

The sound reproducer is a receiver so small it can be inserted inside of the ear opening. Previously, it had been necessary for the hard of hearing to wear their receivers outside of the ear.

Total weight of the new hearing instrument, batteries included, is five ounces, the lightest ever manufactured.

The printed circuit is a peacetime development of the principle that made possible the deadly proximity fuse of World War II, regarded as the war's "number two" secret.

Telex Distributor R. A. Fuller said that these two completely new and different hearing aids will mean more natural hearing and freedom from self-consciousness for many of America's 7,000,000 people who already are or should be wearing hearing aids.

Girl Scouts of Columbus and Franklin County, one of several Red Feather youth organizations, have 4000 members and more than 200 troops.

Featured With Dance Revue

Keith Miller

Miss Keith Lovewell, of Keith School of Dancing, will present her pupils in her eighth annual revue, "Out of This World," Tuesday, June 15, 8 p. m., at West High School Auditorium.

The theme of the two-act revue is built around imaginary trips through space to the various planets and their satellites. "Rocket ships" and "flying saucers" are among the many surprises, not forgetting the "Maids from Mars."

Unique stage settings enhance the beauty of such numbers as the "Aurora Borealis," "Fireball" and "Dawn of a New Day." Keith's precision line, "The Novelteers" and "Baton Patrol," will have prominent spots in the evening's entertainment.

Guest soloists this year will be Keith Miller, the surprise "hit" of the recent Hilltop Minstrel Show, and Cola Soteriades, well known vocalist.

Everyone will enjoy the antics of the group of "Milky Way" starlets.

The usual custom for the past eight years has been to present perfect attendance awards for the semester. Some 50 pupils will take part in the presentation this year.

Mrs. Harold B. Gillivan and Mrs. Ruby Walker will accompany the dancers.

His mother is Mrs. Adam Reaver, 1596 Reaver-ln.

Jim Morris, Hart-rd, George Goodrich, Jackson-av, Bill Hawkins, Geneva-av, Lloyd Elliott, Rosemont-av, Paul Wichterman, Reaver-ln, and Jack Stamer, Reaver-ln, received certificates of award for having completed the scoutmasters' training course. The men spent the week-end at Camp Lazarus, where the awards were made. The course was given during the month of May at West Park Methodist Church. Jack Stamer is scoutmaster of the troop in the Wilson district.

The Brown Road Community Church bus carried members of the Junior Sunday School to the Columbus Zoo Tuesday for an all-day picnic. The children were accompanied by several teachers and mothers.

Donald Reaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reaver, 1604 Reaver-ln, is a member of the Central High graduating class. Jimmy Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wood, 1031 Geneva-av, is graduating from West High today.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman A. Koehler, Somerset, Ohio, have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Marie, to Walter Thompson, son of William P. and the late Mrs. Thompson of Columbus. Miss Koehler is a graduate of Bethesda Hospital, Zanesville, and was employed in the office of the late Dr. J. C. Sommer of Grove City. The open church ceremony will take place Saturday, June 19, at 2:30 p. m., in the Grove City Methodist Church. Rev. Paul H. Basset will officiate. The only attendants will be Mrs. Lowell Shafer, sister of the bride, and Ralph Thompson, brother of the groom.

20 Finish Course For Scoutmasters At Camp Lazarus

Twenty scouters from the Southwest District Boy Scouts of America received certificates at Camp Lazarus Sunday following completion of a scoutmasters' basic training course. The work was completed with an overnight camp Saturday and Sunday.

Those completing the course from this district included Arthur Beard, Troop 33; Fred Braithwaite, 173; V. A. Barbee, neighborhood commissioner; R. E. DeVore, neighborhood commissioner; Ralph Duncan, neighborhood commissioner; Joseph Fleming, 86; George Goodrich, 49; Jack Galloway, 16; William F. Hawkins, 49; Dave Haines, 79; Willard Meyer, 219; Dick McFadden, 79; Wellman Moore, 86; Ralph Morrison, neighborhood commissioner; John Ricker, 212; John Stamer, 49; Paul Wichterman, 79, and Harry Underhill, 219.

George Adams, scoutmaster of Troop 163, Southeast District, and Cubmaster C. D. Cook of Pack 21, Dana Avenue PTA, also completed the course and received certificates.

The following scouters served as course instructors: Cy Rawlings, scoutmaster; Harry Drake, patrol leader; James (Mac) McCready, patrol leader; Wellman Moore, patrol leader; Robert (Bob) Miller, first aid instructor; V. A. Barbee, quartermaster; Harry Crawford, acting scoutmaster in charge of outdoor session, and Cliff Mathews, field scout executive.

Local Jingle Winner Wins New York Trip

Would you like a week's free trip to New York City?

That is what Mrs. Earl Porter, 57 S. Eureka-av, receives as a result of adding a last line to a jingle, on a WHKC radio program.

The "Housewives I. Q." program in cooperation with the Kauder Travel Service, awarded the trip to the Hilltopper who appeared on the program with the Martha Circle group of Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church, on May 18.

Mrs. Porter may choose any week between now and Sept. 1 for her vacation. She will be a member of one of the Kauder Company's tours, and will have co-travelers from Columbus.

Among the things on schedule during the plan-packed week are a 10 course meal in China Town, a trip to Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe, broadcasts of both Fred Waring and Perry Como, being a member of the audience at the Rockette Show, and a boat trip to Hyde Park.

The Porters are the parents of three children, not nine as Mrs. Porter led WHKC officials to believe. The jingle which was on the subject of a Kauder tour, ended with Mrs. Porter's "let's inquire about rates for our family of nine." When the studio officials called the local lady to tell her she had won, the first thing they asked was "do you really have nine children?"

Their children are Michael, three; Susan, five, and Diane, nine. Mr. Porter is associated with the New York Central Railroad.

Bids Are Opened On Street Repairs

Bids were opened last week for a contract to resurface Hague Avenue from Broad-st to Sullivant-av.

A spokesman in the city engineer's office said that contracts would likely be let for that and several other city street improvements by about the middle of June.

The Hague Avenue project is expected to be completed this summer. It will consist of an asphaltic covering over the present street surface.

Water Safety To Be Stressed Again In Pool Programs

Again this year Radio Station WBNS and the Franklin County Chapter of the American Red Cross are sponsoring an educational water safety program in most of the city and county swimming pools.

This season's program, however, will go much further than the "Learn To Swim" campaigns of the past two years, during which more than two thousand youngsters learned to swim. This year's campaign will include both junior and senior life saving instruction and competition. Classes will get under way soon.

Boys and girls, or their parents, are asked to contact the manager of the pool in which they will have membership to get the details concerning the starting time of the various classes.

Instruction in swimming and life saving will be given by Red Cross trained instructors at the pools and at no extra cost to the membership ticket. Instruction is for pool members and their guests. As most of the pools are membership pools, the WBNS-Red Cross program will be carried on in each pool on an individual basis.

The Hilltop Swimming Pool is cooperating in this program.

James Chaffin Will Head DeMolay Group

James E. Chaffin, 1303 W. Broad-st, will be installed as master councilor of the Columbus chapter, order of De Molay, on Saturday evening at the ballroom of the YWCA.

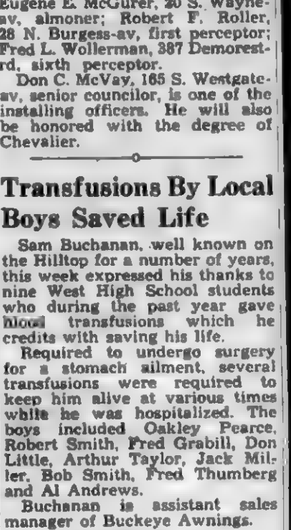
Other West Side boys elected are Stephen E. DeVoe, 827 Bellows-av, junior councilor; Donald E. Fell, 41 S. Huron-av, senior deacon; Donald W. Bennett, junior deacon; John W. Helman, 239 S. Westgate-av, senior steward; Eugene E. McGurer, 20 S. Wayne-av, almoner; Robert F. Roller, 28 N. Burgess-av, first perceptor; Fred L. Wollerman, 387 Demorest-rd, sixth perceptor.

Don C. McVay, 165 S. Westgate-av, senior councilor, is one of the installing officers. He will also be honored with the degree of Chevalier.

Transfusions By Local Boys Saved Life

Sam Buchanan, well known on the Hilltop for a number of years, this week expressed his thanks to nine West High School students who during the past year gave blood transfusions which he credits with saving his life.

Required to undergo surgery for a stomach ailment, several transfusions were required to keep him alive at various times while he was hospitalized. The boys included Oakley Pearce, Robert Smith, Fred Grabill, Don Little, Arthur Taylor, Jack Miller, Bob Smith, Fred Thumberg and Al Andrews.



Buchanan is assistant sales manager of Buckeye Awnings.

BROTHERS INJURED

Kenneth Morris, 4, and his brother, Jerry, 2, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Morris, 1061 Whitethorne-av, were injured Sunday afternoon when an auto driven by their father was in collision with a truck driven by Clem E. Lawler, 1111 Say-av, in Cleveland-av, near 11th-av, police said.

The brothers were taken to Children's Hospital by police and treated for head injuries.

West Graduate To Work In Forestry Service This Summer

Dick Wells, a '47 graduate of West High School, who has been a student in New Mexico A & M College for the past year, wrote home this week that he will be working in the National Forest in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, this summer.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. Wells, 135 S. Southampton-av, he began his forestry work yesterday. He is one of a crew of about four men who practice blister rust control.

The rust is a fungus which first attacks bushes and later moves to the trees to make its home. Dick and his assigned crew work on removing the bushes so that the fungus may be controlled.

Before returning to college in the fall, Wells will visit his parents on the Hilltop.

Have Wiener Roast

The Rea-Bow Rangerettes had their first wiener roast on May 3 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wolfe. Those present were: Patricia Brokamp, Dolores Brokamp, Faye Chapman, Mildred Chapman, Barbara Williams, Coletta Randall, Helen Adkins and Florence Conkey.

Hilltopper Helps In Flood District

Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Ameine, 180 Binns-blvd, received word from their son, Bill, this week, saying that he was helping take supplies to flood victims near Vanport, Ore.

Bill, who is with the army at McChord Field in Washington, is a member of the crew of a C-82, the army transport often called the "Flying Boxcar."

His letter read in part, "We flew over the flood area, and it was a terrible sight, even worse than pictures that you see. The houses were upside down, and all household items went with the snarling river. Besides all the damage that has been caused, it will take a long time to rebuild."

His assigned plane shuttles back and forth between Tacoma and Portland. The worst area was around the dike which broke a few days ago in the Columbia River, he said.

220 ATTEND PICNIC

The West High School Class of 1938 held its first reunion and picnic Sunday at Mack Park, on Morse-rd.

There were 220 persons present, 40 of them children. Jack Worrel was general chairman of the get-together.

State School Has Music Festival

The chorus and band of the Columbus State School, 1601 W. Broad-st, performed for pupils of the school and guests at two showings of its fourth annual summer music festival. The first was presented Monday at 2 p. m. and the second Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.

Mrs. Robert Muncie, 82 S. Richardson-av, is the choral director, and Fred Dubois, 1601 W. Broad-st, is the instrumental instructor. Included in the program were piano duets by Mrs. Muncie and Mrs. John McGuire, 1601 W. Broad-st, the pianist.

Almost 50 pupils participated in the all-girl performance.

Reflected Glory

The movie comedian, Joe E. Brown, relates that in the course of his tours in the Pacific theater of war during the late conflict he was one day thrilled by the prospect of being photographed with General Douglas MacArthur.

When the two men had finally been brought together for the picture, Brown could not help but exclaim, "What an honor!"

Whereupon the general explained: "This picture is for my little son, Joe. He wants his dad photographed with a celebrity."

News of Rome

By Mrs. E. C. Sheets

The Nimble Fingers 4-H Club of Rome will hold a bake sale at Harrison's Market, W. Broad-st, Saturday at 2 p. m. They have about 25 members under the leadership of Mrs. Phillips, W. Broad-st.

Rev. W. Dr Kuenzli, who has been pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Galloway for some time, is leaving soon. He has accepted a position with Findlay College, as teacher of music and religious education. While overseas he started a church that he keeps in touch with. He wants to thank his many friends of this community who have been so helpful to him in sending clothing and necessities to this location. The church is still active and Rev. Kuenzli often hears from them regarding the work.

Mrs. R. G. Barnecut and Mrs. E. C. Sheets attended the Agonis Club Baby Show held in Columbus last week. Mrs. Sheets' grandson, Danny Eugene Haworth, received a prize on points of health.

The American Legion of Hilliards is sponsoring a baseball team. The members from Rome are Bob Shaner, Jim Lamb, Paul Armstrong and Wayne Montague.

Marshall Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Hall, Buena Vista accompanied his uncle, Rev. Harry Hadley, to his home in Bradley Beach, N. J., where he is rector of St. James Episcopal Church. Before returning home they expect to spend several days in New York sight-seeing.

Mrs. Robert South (Virginia Clements) and daughter, Pamala, spent several days at the home of her mother, while Mr. Clements attended the races in Indianapolis. Jim Miller, Sullivant-av, and William Green, South Hampton-av, were also in the party.

Harold Hart's Class of Columbia Heights Church had its annual outing at Zane's Caverns. As this picnic is held after graduation, the prospective students are invited guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Simonson and children, Mary Sue, Jeanne and Russel, Jr., formerly of Detroit, now of Columbus, were Saturday evening guests of the English family, Pasadena-av.

Tommy English, Pasadena-av, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. English, fell from his velocipede while playing in the garage Saturday afternoon and cut his chin to the extent that it was necessary to take him to Mt. Carmel Hospital and have four stitches taken in his chin.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Butin, Doren-av, entertained the Rome Card Club Saturday night. The guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Kent Richey.

Several weeks ago Jack Elliott, Amity-rd, struck his hand while working on his farm and thought he had sprained his finger. A trip to the doctor resulted in an X-ray that showed two broken knuckles. He is leaving the splints off for the first time today.

Homer Busick, son, David, and Ed Busick, Joe Lamb, Tom Lamb and Homer Lee Busick spent Sunday at Indian Lake on a fishing trip, at the Busick cottage.

Mary Patterson, Maple-dr, was in Crestline Monday attending the annual OES inspection. She was the guest of Mrs. Tallmadge Nelson.

Rev. T. M. Patterson, Maple-dr, will occupy the pulpit of Galloway during the months of July and August.

Irene Phillips of Mt. Gilead was luncheon guest of Mary Patterson Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. H. C. Brown and Mrs. Ellis Hoffman, Rome-Hilliards-rd, attended the home council meeting in the Columbus office.

The state home council is holding a convention on the campus of Ohio State University the week of June 15. One of the features planned will be a campus tour. All home-makers are invited to attend.

Mrs. Ellis Hoffman drove several boys to the Goodale Playground Saturday to attend the Luther Junior League baseball game. The team from the Lutheran Church (Rome) played.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnecut spent Sunday afternoon visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones and family, S. Burgess-av.

A very beautiful wedding, with a quiet and sacred atmosphere, took place Sunday afternoon at Lutheran Church, Rome, when Dorothy Stauch became the bride of Robert Glenn Arnold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Arnold, Washington, D. C. The bride was gowned in simple pink street length dress and her only attendant was her sister, Patricia. The bridegroom's best man was Winthrop Shaw, Washington, D. C. There was a reception in the church parlors. After a wedding trip through the Smoky Mountains they will be at home at 72 W. Main-st, Hilliards.

The Junior Ybuth Group from the Farm Bureau will have an evening of round and square dancing June 18 from 9 to 12, at the Brown Township School. Rush Thomas will be the caller with Al Boettinger's orchestra providing the music.

The 4-H Nimble Fingers met at the home of Mrs. C. H. Brown, Rome-Hilliards-rd. Safety council was the subject for discussion. Doris Snook, home demonstration agent, was a guest.

Special interest classes at the YWCA., a Red Feather agency, this spring have a total enrollment of more than 100 women and girls.

Lucky Kid

In the park, the other day, we saw an elderly gentleman smiling over the sight of a giddy middle-aged woman acting silly over a pet poodle.

"Can it be," we ventured, "that you actually find pleasure in that disgusting spectacle?"

"It can be," he replied. "It shows what a bad bringing up some lucky baby escaped."

BIBLE COMMENT

FOR JUNE 13

It Takes Courage, Mercy and Love To Stand for God

WHAT does it mean to stand for God?

We may find the answer in asking for what God Himself stands. Consider the revelation of God as it is recorded in the scriptures of the Old and New Testaments.

The revelation of God was first as Creator. Jesus summed it up and gave to it, richer and fuller meaning when He said, "My Father worketh hitherto, and I work." To stand for God is to be a worker and not a slacker.

God, the Creator, is righteous. What does it mean to be righteous? What does it mean in building to have sound and honest foundations, to have things plumb and true, according to the square and the plumb-line?

That's what it means to be righteous in character and actions. And God is the embodiment, the true and complete pattern of righteousness. To stand for God is to be upright and true, with no crookedness, falseness or dishonesty in one's life or thought.

But righeousness is not enough. A just man may be harsh and cruel, if he acts from justice alone, with no pity or compassion for human weakness and error. God is merciful and "full of compassion." So, the man who stands for God will be merciful as well as just.

But if justice must be tempered with mercy, mercy must likewise be tempered with justice. Otherwise it might become weak and compromising with evil. Mercy is not enough. It is only love, which rebukes evil, that can be enough.

So, the God, who is Creator, righteous, and merciful, is revealed in His highest character as a God of Love, with His purpose concerning man not condemnation, but redemption. The man who stands for God will be a man of love.

All this it means to stand for God. There are times of crisis when it does require daring and courage to stand for God. When unrighteousness, violence and hatred have the upper hand, it requires courage to be true to one's self and to one's God.

Rev. Norman L. Schreiber Takes Up Westgate Methodist Pastorate

Rev. Schreiber

Rev. Norman L. Schreiber, the new pastor of Westgate Methodist Church, preached his first sermon before his new charge Sunday morning. He was assigned to the local church last week by the district conference.

He comes to the Hilltop from a five-year pastorate at University Methodist Indianola and 12th-av. He succeeds Rev. James F. Lorenz.

Rev Schreiber is the son of a Methodist minister, Rev. L. A. Schreiber, pastor of the Gates-Fourth Methodist Church in Columbus, now pastor of Central-Trinity Methodist Church in Zanesville. The new Hilltop minister graduated from South High School and attended Baldwin Wallace College at Berea and was graduated from Garrett Biblical Institute at Evanston, Ill. He started his ministry by serving a three-church charge in Delaware County for two years. He was pastor of Radnor, Warrensburg and Hyatts churches.

Rev. Schreiber is married and has a two-year-old son, Loyal. Temporarily the family is living at 665 N. Nelson-rd. He will conduct a full schedule of services Sunday with Sunday School starting at 9:30 a. m. and morning worship at 10:30. His sermon subject will be: "By Their Fruits Ye Shall Know Them."

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Gildersleeve, 238 N. Ogden-av, and Mrs. Fay Smith, accompanied the group on the trip.

Members of the fellowship who spent the week-end in Lancaster were Ruth Gildersleeve, Keith Smith, Martha Smith, LeRoy Wise, Janie Prior, Johnny Fauth, Barbara Harper, David Ely, Delores Shrum, Margaret Huston, Dan Donny, Ann Herbert, Stanton Prior, Bob Walker, Charlotte Cranston, Dawn Dennison, Wanda Archer, Gloria Brockington, Mirlnm Ater, Bob Smith and Kenny Evans.

Westgate Evangelical Bible School To Open

Daily Vacation Bible School will open at Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Church June 14 and continue through June 27. Classes will convene at 9 a. m. daily except Saturday. All boys and girls of the community from 4 to 15 years are invited. Registration will start Monday at 8:30 a. m.

Superintendent of the school will be Mrs. Edna Howard. Other workers include George Miller, [illegible], Mrs. Mae Armstrong, Mrs. Martin Hegele, Mrs. Wayne DeLong, Mrs. Richard Krueger, Mrs. Edna Crist, Mrs. Charles Meedles, Mrs. Merle Dutt and Miss Ellen Page will serve as teachers. Jack Six will be the coach. Rev. Harold Dutt is pastor of the church.

Children's Day Program Is Sunday

"Summers Festival of Praise" is the title of the Children's Day pageant to be presented in Motter Hall at Glenwood Methodist Church Sunday evening at 7:30. Seventy children from the intermediate, junior, primary and beginners' departments will take part in the presentation.

Peggy Jhensen has the leading role in the pageant, which is being directed by Glenna Oestrle and Mrs. Cecil Cassill.

The members of the Junior Choir of the church will also participate in the program. They recently were presented with new robes by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Garrison.

Oakley Avenue Bible School To Open Mon.

The Daily Vacation Bible School of Oakley Avenue Baptist Church will open June 14 and continue for two weeks. It has a set of well prepared workers. Nearly 200 are expected in attendance this year. Joseph Gentry is superintendent of the Sunday School.

Hillcrest To Hold Vacation School

A Daily Vacation Church School will be held at the Hillcrest Baptist Church from June 21 to July 2. The school will be open for all children from beginner through junior grades, 4 to 12 years of age. The school will be in session Mondays through Fridays from 9:30 a. m. to 11:30 a. m., and is open to all children. The pastor of the church, Rev. J. Herbert Goewey, will act as dean of the school.

Children's Day Will Be Observed Sunday

Sunday will be observed as Children's Day at the Hillcrest Baptist Church. This program will be combined with the morning worship and will include promotion of members of the church school.

"The Greatest Thing In The World," a playlet featuring the various departments of the church school, will be presented at this time. For this one Sunday the hour of service has been moved to 10:15 a. m.

Highland Bible School To Open On Monday

Daily Vacation Bible School will be held at Highland Avenue Friends Church starting Monday, and ending Friday, June 25. The Bible School this year is under the direction of a committee composed of Rev. Chester Stanley, Mrs. Paul Langdon and Mrs. Floyd Clark.

The theme of the Beginners' Department will be "How Bible Children Lived" and "How Bible Children Learned." Interesting handwork carrying out this theme has been planned. Teacher of this department is Mrs. Harry Clark, with Dorothy Watkins assisting her.

The primary department will study "Bible Boats." The Bible stories of Noah and the Ark, Jonah and the Whale, Jesus on the Sea of Galilee and several others will be studied. The children in this department will make Noah's ark and the animals, a model of the boat in which Paul was shipwrecked and several other things pertaining to the sea. This department will be taught by Mrs. Paul Langdon with Mrs. Joseph Hobson and Mrs. Arthur Fippin assisting her.

The junior department will have as its theme "The Christian's Walk and Talk," a very practical study for this age group. The teaching will be done by Elnor Ieraph. Children in this department will make a picture that glows at night, as well as noodle motto cards. The teacher of this department is Mrs. Jim Bond, with Mrs. Russell Barnett and Mrs. Don R. Falkenberg assisting her.

Woodworking has been planned for the intermediate boys under the direction of Rev. Chester G. Stanley. They will have a class project in addition to some article made from wood to take home with them. The theme for this department will be "Some Parables that Jesus Told."

Music for the Bible School will be under the direction of Mrs. Chester G., Stanley. Additional attractions will be a temperance movie, slides and missionary records.

All children between the ages of four and 15 are cordially invited to this Daily Vacation Bible School.

Missionaries To Speak Here On Sunday

Next Sunday, June 13, in the Hilltop Community Church, 179 N. Huron-av, Dr. and Mrs. David Rigby of Birmingham, England, will be the special missionary speakers for a three-service missionary day. They will speak in the Sunday School, morning and evening services.

Dr. and Mrs. Rigby are medical missionaries under appointment to Columbia, South America, by the Oriental and Inter-American Missionary Society. The Rigbys will be furnished with a river launch with living accommodations and a complete dispensary for work among the jungle Indians along the Magdalena River. The public is invited. Rev. J. L. Dean is the pastor.

Vacation School To Open On June 28

The daily vacation Bible school at Wheatland Avenue Methodist Church will begin June 28, with the closing commencement on Sunday, July 11.

Mrs. Elizabeth Shaw is the dean of the school, while Rev. Thomas L. Tinsley is the assistant dean. Mrs. Geneva French is also on the executive committee. Registrations are now being accepted for the school.

DON MATTHEWS TO SPEAK AT HOGE SUNDAY

Senior and Junior High School graduates will participate in the worship service at Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning at 10:30.

Don Mathews, who has recently returned after completing his first year's work in the Union Theological Seminary in New York, will speak.

BIBLE SCHOOL SCHEDULED

A Daily Vacation Bible School will be held in the Westgate Methodist Church starting June 21 and continuing through July 2.

Modern Poetry

PRIME

Count another's sighs, lass,
Learn the easy way.
Be a cautious, wise lass—
Women always pay.

Would you hold to laughter?
Let your heart deny
Entertainment after Day has drifted by.

If you find it dull, kid,
Keeping love in check,
You must learn as I did—
By sticking out your neck.

LEGAL NOTICES

PUBLIC NOTICE
Common Pleas Court, Franklin County, Ohio.
No. 174874—Grace Patterson, Plaintiff, vs. Hazel D. Prince, et al., Defendants.
Hazel D. Prince, if living, the unknown heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors and assigns of Hazel D. Prince, and the unknown spouses of unknown heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors and assigns of Hazel D. Prince, and Richard B. Prince, if living, the unknown heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors and assigns of Richard B. Prince and the unknown spouses of unknown heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors and assigns of Richard B. Prince, all whose addresses are unknown to plaintiff and cannot with reasonable diligence be ascertained, are hereby notified that on May 12, 1948, Grace Patterson filed a petition in the above entitled cause against them as defendants alleging that she is the owner in fee simple and in possession of the following described real estate, situated in the County of Franklin, in the State of Ohio, and in the City of Columbus, bounded and described as follows:
Being the westerly portion of Lot No. Thirty-five (35) of the Hill Crest Park Addition, to the City of Columbus, Ohio as the same is numbered and delineated in Plat Book 12, page 24, Recorder's Office, Franklin County, Ohio, the eastern boundary of said westerly portion of said Lot No. 35 being a straight line joining a point in north boundary of said lot and located 113.55 feet east of the northwest corner of said lot and located 115 feet east of the southwest corner of said Lot No. 35. Together with an easement on the easterly portion of said Lot No. 35 above described, as said easement is set out in Deed Book 813, page 185, Recorder's Office, Franklin County, Ohio; that plaintiff was conveyed title to said real estate by deed from Mildred I. Wren; that defendants may claim an interest therein adverse to the plaintiff, the nature of which is unknown to the plaintiff, and the plaintiff asks that they be compelled to declare the same or be forever barred.
WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays that an alleged claim or claims of defendants in and to said premises be adjudged null and void; that the plaintiffs' title be quieted against the same, and for such other relief as is proper.
Said defendants are further notified that they are required to answer said petition on or before July 15, 1948, or judgment may be rendered as prayed for therein.

"that's a fine home you're building!"

YES, I think I'm going to like it.

I wish I had a home of my own.

Well, why not?

My wife has the idea that it would be a great worry if anything happened to me.

Nothing to it, my boy. The arrangements I've made with the SUN LIFE OF CANADA will clear the mortgage in the event of my untimely death.

I never thought of that. What about the cost?

Insignificant! In fact, it adds very little to the carrying charge of the mortgage.

IF you are a home-owner, make your investment safe for posterity. A SUN LIFE man will be glad to talk it over with you.

BOY SCOUTS IN THE Southwest District

Cub Pack 250

The Cub Scouts Pack 250 held the monthly meeting on May 27. They had as their guests the Boy Scouts of Troop 250 and their scout master and assistant scout master, Jim and Eugene Jacquay.

The project for the past month was for the cubs to make bird houses. These were judged at the pack meeting and the award went to Robert Davis of Den 4.

The Christian Mothers of St. Aloysius voted to sponsor Pack 250 and presented them with $20.

The second Sunday of each month the cub scouts will attend Mass and receive Holy Communion with the Holy Name Society of St. Aloysius Church.

The membership pennant was won by Dens 2 and 4 respectfully who will share their honor for the next month.

On June 3, Den 3 was divided due to the large number of boys in this area, and a new den was organized at the home of Mrs. F. L. Courtade, 190 N. Ogden-av. The boys who will form this den are Marty Richards, Michael Scheskey, John Guzzo, William Lee, and Robert Lee. It will be known as Den 6.

The Boy Scouts of Troop 250 who are den chiefs were presented shoulder cords that are to be worn until such time as they resign their duties as leaders in the cub dens.

CUB PACK MEETS

A meeting of Cub Pack No. 21 was held at Dana Avenue School May 26. The meeting was highlighted by the advancement of Dean Parker, Dick Farrel and Dick Dodge from Cub to Boy Scouts. These boys have completed all cubbing achievements and are 12 years old.

The following boys also received achievements of advancements in cubbing: Dick Cook, Charles Deyo, Bill Diest, Charles Hale and Larry Miller. Two new cubs, Herbert Scott and Richard Fugitt, were introduced to the pack.

Mrs. Paul Brodt, president of Dana PTA, the pack sponsor, presented the group with a pack flag. The meeting was in charge of Art Sibbalds, committee chairman, and Clayton Cook, cub master.

Cub Pack 63

The fathers and Cub Scouts of Cub Pack 63 enjoyed a cook-out Saturday, May 22, at the Zoo Park. Twenty fathers and 40 Cubs attended the cook-out.

Fathers and Cubs played baseball together, also went to the zoo. Some of them went fishing, catching a few small ones.

The Pack had a cookie sale, proceeds from same went to purchase food for the cook-out.

The Pack will have their annual picnic, June 18 at Maple Shade Park, at which time they will wind up their work for the year. Further information will be given later regarding it.

Keys Offer 75 Prizes For Best Letters

A total of 75 prizes is being offered patrons of Key's 5c & 10c Stores for a 50-word statement on "I buy at Key's Stores because . . . . ."

Some Sobering Facts

Residents of the State of Ohio in 1947 rated fifth among the 48 states in the consumption of liquor. This in spite of the fact that approximately 70 per cent of the geographical area does not permit the sale of liquor by the glass.

These and other sobering facts about the rapidly expanding liquor industry in the Buckeye state are contained in the 13th annual analysis of Ohio Liquor sales released by the Cleveland Press recently.

Liquor sales in the state for 1947 totaled $137,500,000, the report reveals. The consumption for the state was $20.14 for every man, woman and child. The Columbus area averaged $16.17 per person, approximately $4 per person under the state average. The Cleveland area led all the rest with a per capita liquor consumption of $29.56. Cuyahoga County (greater Cleveland area) alone consumed more liquor than any one of 24 entire states.

In terms of gallons, Chioans drank 8,545,245 gallons of intoxicants during the past year. In dollar sales volume 89.7 per cent went for whiskey. Franklin County alone had 91 D-5 (night club—liquor by the glass) permits in force last year. There will be several more in the 1948 survey.

Since the first of January, 1948, four additional D-5 permits have been issued in the Hilltop area alone. To our knowledge there are five other applications that have not yet been acted upon officially. Two of these probably will not be granted. The outcome of the other three is still in doubt.

Sobering facts, these, in a time when the average wage earner is having difficulty stretching his paycheck far enough to buy all of the essentials of life for his family. Just how many additional liquor spots do Hilltoppers want in their community this year? We'll get our share and more at the rate D-5's are being issued.

10 Years Ago Today

West High's 27th graduating class, the largest in the school's 30 year history, officially closed the school year on June 8, at the State Fair Grounds Coliseum, when 290 seniors received their diplomas.

William Yauck, Sr., 66, and his son, William, 19, were killed last Sunday afternoon when a Big Four flyer ploughed into their coupe at a private driveway crossing, just east of N. Eureka-av.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Drake, 490 Cypress-av, announce the marriage of their daughter, Virginia Mae, to Marvin Southworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Southworth, 1510 Sullivant-av, on June 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Roberts, 520 Whitethorne-av, have purchased the Yost Florist, at 303 Belvidere-av. Both had been employees of the firm for about eight years.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Spears, 2693 W. Broad-st, left for New York last Wednesday to attend the graduation of their daughter, Martha, from the Katherine Gibbs School for Girls.

Five Years Ago Today

Edgar House, principal of West Junior High School, was sworn in as a Lieutenant (J.G.) in the U. S. Naval Reserves on Tuesday morning. He will report for training on June 28.

Noble L. Allen has purchased the Kohn Funeral Home from Mrs. Mary Kohn, 2456 W. Broad-st. He will occupy the building about July 1. Mrs. Kohn and her husband the late C. J. "Cliff" Kohn operated the funeral home from 1919 until the time of his death in 1940.

Rev. J. L. Dean, pastor of the Hilltop Community Church, announces that members of the church and their friends will gather at the church's new parsonage, tomorrow night, at 8 o'clock for a special dedication service. The home is located at 194 N. Roys-av.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Capretta, 247 Midland-av, announce the marriage of their son, Pfc. Harold Capretta, to Miss Catherine Donohue, 370 Whitethorne-av. They were married June 6.

Rev. Victor Pennekamp has resigned as pastor of Concordia Lutheran Church and Mt. Vernon Lutheran Church where he has served since 1935. He will be a chaplain in the U. S. Army.

Modern Poetry

By Esther Weakley

FROM ALL ANGLES
No other confidence is ever
As complete, I firmly think,
As that displayed by those who endeavor
To do a crossword puzzle in ink.
S. H. Dewhurst,
in ADVENTURES IN POETRY.

DAWN PATROL
He whistled as he faced the dawn
Quite pleased, this strong-arm sheik,
With lipstick smudged upon his chin,
Mascara on his cheek.
Jo Birt, in her book,
MARY GETS FLOWERS.

FOR MAY
The years pile up like breakers on a shore
To overwhelm me. Yet, sometimes aware
Of life's resurgence, I can feel once more
Youth's vibrant pulse; see star-gems in my hair.
Then all seems new again, while far away
Horizons show green isles of Avalon Above a shining sea. O magic May
That comes but once, you are not wholly gone!
For I am young and will be to the end,
When I can capture beauty, win a friend.
Genoa Morris,
in THE PEN WOMAN.

DESERT NEIGHBORS
The peace of silence pads the purple range
And desert valley scorching in the sun,
Where five white clustered headstones form a strange
Companionship for five lone people done
With loneliness upon the arid plain.
They never will be neighborless again.
Helen Field Watson,
in WINGS.

HILL TOPICS By PW

Close At Home

News has a way of happening at the oddest times and in the strangest places. Last week much of it happened almost on the doorstep of The Record office.

Here's a run down on what happened in a 48-hour period within this immediate block. On Wednesday morning Robert Rose, who lives in the Record apartments, discovered his car stolen from in back of the Record building. Thursday afternoon David McClain, a paper carrier, was knocked from his bike into the path of a car almost in front of The Record office. Fortunately he escaped with only minor bruises.

Then on Friday morning when I came to work there were fire trucks all around the block, having just put out the three-alarm blaze at Kirwins. Incidentally, a few more minutes delay in calling the Fire Department might have resulted in the entire block going up in smoke.

Of course the most tragic news to hit the Hilltop in many a day was the death of three West High seniors Friday morning following the class banquet and prom. Today's graduation was no doubt the saddest in the history of the school as the impact of the tragedy continues to hang over the closing activities of this school year.

The Open Door Policy

Being raised on a farm in Monroe County it is still a little hard to get onto the habit of locking doors every time you step out of the house.

As a kid I can remember only a few times when the doors of our house were ever locked. Few people in the country at that time did lock their door at night. The only time we ever turned a key was when we were going some distance from home to spend at least a day.

Dropping in to spend the night after the family had retired was almost a regular custom among friends of the family. There was a guest room open to any one of a half dozen of our friends who might drop in unannounced. We never knew for sure just how many places to set at the breakfast table until some one had checked the spare bed room.

Burglars might have carried away half of the furniture without any member of the family thinking it important enough to investigate. In the 16 years that I was at home, I don't ever remember of having an uninvited guest. The same thing held true for the smoke house where the year's supply of meat was always kept. Only a few times to my knowledge was a lock put on the door and then only when there had been rumors that someone's smoke house had been entered.

But those were the days before good roads and there wasn't a stranger within miles of our home. I suppose that times have changed now.

Letters To The Editor

Editor Hilltop Record:

As the school year draws to a close we want to take this opportunity to thank you and your staff for the assistance given in publishing our PTA notices.

Your help and cooperation has meant much to the Highland Avenue PTA publicity program and we want you to know how much we appreciate it.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. Ernest Henry
Publicity Chairman
Mrs. Roy W. Hastilow
PTA President
Frank D. Mason
Principal

Dear Editor:

Our class is very grateful to you and your staff for letting us visit you. It was very educational as well as interesting. Before this many of us had no idea of how a newspaper was printed.

Thank you again for your kindness.

Your truly,
8-B General Language Class

Mistaken

He was sitting in the suburban train reading his evening paper. The man beside him got up and left. As he turned the pages he noticed on the vacated seat a new pair of gloves.

There wasn't a moment to lose; he snatched them up, dashed to the exit, threw the gloves onto the platform.

Then he returned to his seat. But his look of faint self-satisfaction vanished when the man on the other side of the vacant seat leaned across and said:

"I say, old man—would you be good enough to tell me just why you threw my gloves out?"

Letters to the editor on any subject, are always welcome. If your communication is not too long and does not involve the libel law, we'll be glad to print it.

Sure Sign Of Summer

A number of new business firms sprang up in the community this week with the close of school, and progressive merchants they are too.

We have reference to the many lemonade and pop stands that are now operating on many corners to offer you the opportunity to quench your thirst for a small fee. The annual advent of these stands is a sure sign of summer.

The Other Side Of It

Averille Thorn, secretary of the Hilltop "Y", had an opportunity to provide several youngsters of the community with a look at the expense side of the ledger in providing a youth program for them one day this past week.

While some of the boys were congregated at the building a furnace man called to make an estimate on necessary repairs for the boiler in the building to be able to provide sufficient heat for next winter's program.

When the man reported the job would cost in the vicinity of $650 the lads were somewhat amazed and couldn't help but observe that it takes a lot of careful planning to make the dollars go as far as they must go in giving them a "Y" program.

The Woman Pays

Down at Helen's Sandwich Shop Duke Reynolds has installed a scale. If you guess your weight it is free, otherwise it costs a penny. Day after day our observation has been that practically every man who steps on the scale has his penny returned and so we inquired how Duke expects to make any money that way.

"It's the woman who pays," he reports. "No woman wants to believe she weighs as much as she actually does and she always guesses what she wants it to be rather than what it actually is."

The two youngsters will share a prize list totalling $350 in value.

Kathy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Brown, 148 S. Harris-av. She was just five months of age when her photograph was entered in the local contest, which included hundreds of local youngsters.

Johnny's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vail, 178 Whitethorne-av.

Perhaps the most treasured of the many prizes to be collected by these two grand prize winners will be the 16 by 20-inch oil portrait photos of the two presented by Mr. Allen, 221 N. Ogden-av, who sponsored the contest jointly with the Record. The pictures are valued at $50 each and can be seen in the display window at Seiller's, 2404 W. Broad-st.

Kathy will collect the following prizes from local merchants:

Horse tester-totter from Gearhart's Hardware, 2387 Sullivant-av; Hanscraft baby bottle sterilizer, Westgate Pharmacy, 3089 W. Broad-st; deluxe taylor-tot, Seiller's, 2404 W. Broad-st; dozen cans of baby powder, Key's, 2368 W. Broad-st; bottle warmer, Westgate Hardware, 3109 W. Broad-st; set baby scales, Goodwin's Pharmacy, 2772 Sullivant-av, and a play pen pad, West Hill Furniture Co., 2364 W. Broad-st.

Johnny will be eligible for the following prizes:

Nursery kit, Wilson's Pharmacy, 2469 W. Broad-st; kiddie-car, Economy Variety, 2402 W. Broad-st; $5 grocery order, Haas Market, 2787 Sullivant-av; pair roller skates, Hilltop Sporting Goods, 2463 W. Broad-st; box of bubble gum and $5 grocery order, Fox Food Shop, 2422 W. Broad-st; five gallons laundry bleach, BOS Products Co., 3274 W. Broad-st; set of silverware, Mead Jewelers, 2814 W. Broad-st; flowers, West Florist, 308 Belvidere-av; gold baby ring, Hilltop Jewelers, 2461 W. Broad-st; 30 quarts of milk, Superior Drug, 2109 W. Broad-st; and an electric poaching set, Kirk's Appliance, 2345 W. Broad-st.

John Fry Completes High School While In Navy; Gets West Diploma

John Fry

John Roscoe Fry, Jr., who joined the navy in October, 1945, while still in West High School, received his diploma with the June, 1948, graduating class.

While in the service he completed his high school course with the United States Armed Forces Institute, entitling him to his high school "sheepskin."

Fry received his training at Great Lakes and was then stationed in Pearl Harbor until April of this year. After returning to the United States he was sent to Arlington, Va., where he still [illegible].

During his high school years he became a member of the West High Glee Club and Choir. His sister, Faith Fry, a junior at the local school, accepted his diploma last week when Fry was unable to attend the graduation exercises.

He is the son of Mrs. Hattie M. Fry, 640 Hilltonia-av, and the late John R. Fry, a conductor with the New York Central Railroad.

Sensenbrenner To Head Group Planning Paper

M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner, 335 Guernsey-av, has been named chairman of the Kiwanis Christmas edition newspaper. He is at present attending the national convention of Kiwanis at Los Angeles.

Others named on the committee with Sensenbrenner are Ray McVay, Larry Scales, C. C. Hartley, Leo McComb, John Miles, John Apel, Elmer Hegenberger and Noble Allen.

Roger Strauss was in charge of last week's Kiwanis education program. A motion picture, "Mr. Jones—Kiwanian," was shown.

Today's luncheon meeting at Schmelzer's Restaurant, 3178 W. Broad-st, will feature an address by Forrest Smith, an attorney. He will talk on the life of Aaron Burr.

1500 GM Employees To Report Back To Jobs Here Monday

Approximately 1500 production department workers are expected to report back to their jobs at the Fisher Body-Ternstedt plant Monday morning after a lay-off of one week.

The plant shut-down was necessary because of material shortages in General Motors plants, it was reported. It was the second such temporary lay-off since the recent soft coal walk-out.

James L. Conlon, resident manager of the local plant, told The Hilltop Record this week:

"We expect all workers to be back at their jobs Monday morning."

Three Local Amvets Attend Convention

Ray Anderson, 650 S. Hague-av, Roy Krouse, 260 S. Westgate-av, and Joe Hague, 44 Binns-blvd, were among those from Columbus attending the state convention of Amvets at Cincinnati Friday through Sunday.

Hague is a state legislative officer for Amvets. The Cheviot Post was host to the meeting.

OFFICE TO BE CLOSED

Dr. E. E. McNamee, chiropractor with offices at 3543 Sullivant-av, said this week that his office will be closed from June 21 to June 28 while he takes a short vacation.

SUMMER HOURS FOLLOWED

The Hilltop Branch Library, 21 N. Hague-av, is now on its summer schedule. Hours are from 9:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. daily. On Saturday it is open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Keys Lost In Billings Back On Hilltop! Who Is The Owner?

Some Hilltopper or former Hilltopper who lost keys to his car recently in Billings, Mont., may be glad to know they are back on the Hilltop and can be had for the asking.

Last week O. H. Craft, real estate broker at 2661 W. Broad-st, received the key holder, containing three keys and a nickel, by mail from the western city. The holder was attached to a large shipping tag.

The holder was one given out by Craft to his customers. It has his name and address printed on the outside. Now if the owner will only come forward and claim the keys every one will be happy for O. H. is satisfied that his souvenir gift has served its purpose.

Warren Ave. Church Starts Parsonage

The building program of the Warren Avenue Church of the Nazarene, 648 S. Warren-av, is now under way. A contract has just been let by the church board to Fuller V. Spurr for the construction of a 1½-story brick veneer parsonage and 2-car cement block garage at 675 S. Harris-av.

Upon completion of the parsonage, it is planned to proceed with the erection of the new church building on the site of the present parsonage and church.

To Attend Girls' State Opening Sun.

Margaret Fisher, 310 N. Ogden-av, is one of the Franklin County representatives who will enroll in Buckeye Girls' State scheduled to open at Capital University Sunday.

She is being sponsored by the Auxiliary to Camp Chase Post No. 98, American Legion.

Georgia Williams, 154 West Park-av, proprietor of Wilson's Cleaners, 1116 W. Broad-st, reported to police that her purse, containing $202 in cash, was stolen from the store Tuesday.

Delegates Named To Convention Of American Legion

John E. Martindale, commander of Camp Chase Post No. 98, American Legion, Michael Austin, Elmer Young, D. Clark Finneran and Vernon C. Fiscus were elected last week to serve as delegates to the state and 12th district conventions this summer. The district convention will be held June 27 at Southway Post while the state convention will be held here in Columbus on Aug. 7, 8 and 9.

Alternates selected at the meeting were Chester W. Wagner, Donald A. Novak, George M. Ward, Vincent D. Welker and E. B. Ward.

A nominating committee composed of Chester W. Wagner, Jack Alkire, Ray McVay, Ernest Brown and Edgar Planck was also named at last week's meeting.

West Class Of '46 To Picnic Sunday

Members of the '46 West High School graduating class will hold their annual picnic on Sunday, at Mack Park, on E. Morse-rd, across from the Northway Airport.

A group will leave the rear of West High at 11:30 a. m. Anyone without transportation may find a ride there. The dinner will be served at 1:30 p. m.

ROADS BEING OILED

Gravel roads in Franklin Township were being coated with oil this week to alleviate the summer dust menace.

Firehouse Site May Be Bought In Next 10 Days

There was good indication this week that title would be taken to the site for the Hilltop's second fire house within a matter of days.

Baxter Evans of the city attorney's office said that negotiations were now under way for the city to take title to three lots located at the northeast corner of Sullivant-av and Brinker-av. Evans said that prices for the three lots, owned by two different owners, had been agreed upon and that he expected the city to take title to them within a week or ten days.

Once title is taken to the property, City Council will then employ an architect to design the new fire house according to the needs of the Fire Department.

"Y" Open House Is Postponed Until June 26

Formal opening of the Hilltop YMCA has been postponed one week, it was announced this week.

The headquarters in the Teen Club, W. Broad-st and Burgess-av, will be open to the public the evening of June 26 instead of June 19 as previously planned. Doors will be open at 7 p. m.

Members of the Hilltop YMCA Board will be on hand to greet the visitors. Ping-pong, pool and other recreation will be available for the boys and girls.

Delays in painting and cleaning up the premises made necessary the delay.

Conservation Club To Meet

The June meeting of the Hilltop Conservation Club will be held at the Hilltop Sporting Goods Store, 2461 W. Broad-st, Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

HOW NEW HILLTONIA CHURCH WILL LOOK — This is an architect's version of how the new Hilltonia Evangelical United Brethren Church will look when completed. Excavation for the basement of the building was completed last week.

Liquor Control Dept. Rejects Three Hilltop Applications

HEADS K OF C GROUP—Earl W. Patton, 2968 Fremont-st, was elected grand knight of Santa Maria Council No. 2886, Knights of Columbus, at the annual election held on June 8.

The local council, organized four years ago, now has a membership of 600. Headquarters are at 2508½ W. Broad-st.

Other officers elected were deputy grand knight, Donald W. Bowen; chancellor, Al J. DeMers; warden, John J. Hickey; recording secretary, Robert D. Dawson; treasurer, William P. Finneran; advocate, Charles L. Cooke; inside guard, Theodore Masdes; outside guard, Frank C. Redel; trustee, Anthony T. Corrigan; delegate, Dan Sheehan; alternates, Francis P. Sifferlin and Dave E. Brown.

The Council this year has received the highest honors for membership and other work that can be bestowed by the Supreme Council. The council has earned, since organization, approximately $100,000 for charity by working at various charitable festivals, such as St. Vincent's Orphanage, etc.

The applications for night club permits for three Hilltop businesses were rejected this week by the Department of Liquor Control, it was learned by The Hilltop Record Wednesday noon.

W. R. Morris, assistant director of the department, said that Dale Dunifon, state liquor director, was turning down the liquor permit applications of Biltmore Restaurant, operated by James Phillips at 2414 W. Broad-st.

Cotillion Restaurant, operated by James Apostolou, 2776 W. Broad-st.

Eddie's, operated by Eddie Anverse, at 2329 W. Broad-st.

Morris said that this action was taken on the basis of public sentiment on the Hilltop against the issuance of more liquor permits.

"The people in that area have voiced the feeling that they want no more liquor spots," he said.

Churches Opposed

He explained that in the case of the Biltmore and Cotillion Restaurants, the objections of church groups had been considered along with other general objections of residents of the Hilltop area.

"The concensus of opinion after considerable time and study is that the Hilltop area is adequately served with liquor places and no more are needed at this time," Morris explained.

Four D-5 liquor permits have been issued in the Hilltop area since Jan. 1. They include Dildine's, 207 N. Central-av; Robert A. Moyer, 917 Sullivant-av; Schmelzer's Restaurant, 3178 W. Broad-st; and West Mecca, Inc., 2453 Sullivant-av.

An application is still pending for the 920 Club, 2330 Sullivant-av, but it is not expected that action will be taken on this one for some time since the building is not yet complete, Morris said.

Masons Elect Torr Excellent High Priest

Albert B. Torr, 936 S. Hague-av, was elected excellent high priest of the West Gate Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, at the annual election of the group held last Thursday.

Also elected were Charles Goodall, king; John Herron, scribe; John Nuber, treasurer; Kenneth Sharadan, secretary; Karl I. Swisher, captain of host; William Green, principal sojourner; Fletcher Wright, Royal Arch captain; Arnold Curbin, master of the third veil.

Stephen Nemes, master of the second veil; Paul Sheets, master of the first veil; Harry Albright, guard, and Harry E. Fell, trustee.

Cranston Williams was appointed senior steward and Ernest Gresh, junior steward. Lewis I. Rowe was elected honorary guard for life.

Edgar L. Ott, 3245 Parkside-dr, was elected high priest of Community Chapter, No. 227, Royal Arch Masons, Monday night at the Community Masonic Temple.

TAKES STATE POST—Carl R. Turner, 3039 Crescent-dr, son of Supreme Court Judge Edward C. Turner, last week was named administrative executive for the Ohio Public Utilities Commission, effective yesterday.

Turner, an attorney, is a graduate of DePauw University, Harvard school of business administration and Franklin University Law School. Salary for the post is $7500 a year.

Summer Program Is Under Way

Yearbook Available At West Next Week

West High School students who failed to get their copy of the Occident, school yearbook, may do so next week, H. L. Zulauf, business manager, said this week.

They will be available at the senior high office every day next week except Saturday. Sixty extra copies are still available for sale to those who failed to order. The annuals were not delivered until the last day of school thus making it difficult for all students to get their copies.

The 1948 Occident contains over 600 separate photographs, nearly 100 more than ever used before. Special features include individual pictures of the members of the championship football team, a series of aerial views of the school and football field, as well as night views of the dedication crowd.

Playgrounds Are Opened This Week

The opening of the vacation period for hundreds of Hilltop boys and girls was highlighted Monday by the opening of Glenwood, Westgate and Holton Playgrounds.

West Broad Street and John Burroughs public school playgrounds, and the new Columbian Avenue City Recreation Department playground will hold official opening ceremonies Monday at two o'clock.

Members of the PTA groups of West Broad, John Burroughs and West Mound Street Schools are representing the Hilltop Community Council, which is assisting in the ceremonies.

The new Columbian Avenue playground supervisor, Clarence Baker, 54 N. Chase-av, will be assisted by Mrs. Harold Beard, 635 Woodbury-av, Mrs. Robert Rothman, 588 Butler-av, Mrs. Joe Smith, 591 Townsend-av, Mrs. Robert Harper, 522 Hilltonia-av, Mrs. Harold Howe, 592 Columbian-av, Mrs. Charles Bachman, 572 Woodbury-av, Mrs. L. G. Seba, 572 Larcomb-av, Mrs. James Hamilton, 489 Nashoba-av, and Rev. R. S. Parr, pastor of Hilltonia EUB Church.

All of the opening programs were arranged by the Hilltop Community Council. Prizes for the contests and games were donated by the Hilltop Business Association.

Westgate

Mack Pemberton, 176 S. Brinker-av, supervisor at Westgate Park, reported a good turnout for the opening ceremonies there.

The flag raising and Pledge of Allegiance were led by girls of Scout Troop 103, West Junior High School. Mrs. C. F. Diechle, 3516 Eakin-rd, and Mrs. M. Griffith, 629 S. Hague-av, were in charge. Richard Neff was the bugler.

The following girls and boys were first and second place winners in the contests:

Girls under six years — Betty Bernard, 3300 Wicklow-rd, and Mary Lynne Pemberton, 176 S. Brinker-av; six to seven years—Bobbie Baesman, 68 S. Westgate-av, Judy Hall, 629 Hilltonia-av; eight to nine—Audrey Jean Hartger and Janet Marlene Hartger, 656 S. Roys-av; 10 to 11—Patsy Waggle, 856 S. Roys-av, and Barbara O'Brien, 319 Algonquin-av; 12 to 13—Ann Cockfield, 489 S. Harris-av, and Shirley Deitchle, 2516 Eakin-rd.

Boys under six—David Rodgers, 63 S. Southampton-av, and David Durler, 385 S. Roys-av; six to seven—Jimmy Halter, 3123 Ellispl, and David Bunner, 3232 Wicklow-rd; eight to nine — Frank Fortkamp, 168 S. Roys-av, and Paul Maxwell, 463 S. Hague-av; 10 to 11—Bill Greene, 228 S. Southampton-av, and Joe Brenot, 66 S. Richardson-av; 12 years —Jimmy Cobb, 147 S. Richardson-av.

Those who helped with the games and contests were Mrs. C. C. Saylor, 1963 Floral-av, chairman, Mrs. Paul Benton, 65 S. Westgate-av, Mrs. S. S. Will, 611 S. Warren-av, Mrs. C. A. Minor, 270 S. Westgate-av, and W. F. Faller, 337 S. Westgate-av.

Glenwood

Den 6 of Cub Pack 63, under the direction of Mrs. W. S. Waltman, 238 Wrexham-av, had charge of the flag raising. Boys participating were Sherwood Waltman, Russell Hite, Walter Ritter and Charles Haworth.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Snow White Blue Bird group with Mrs. C. Siegfried, 175 Belvidere-av, in charge. Dotty Myers, 479 Hilltonia-av, assistant leader, led the Blue Birds. "Star Spangled Banner" was led by Glenwood Camp Fire Group with Mrs. L. Seibert, 181 Lechner-av, in charge. Nyla Grabill, Ruth Wise, Jane Lloyd and Ruth Wesley took part. Blue Birds who took part were Zo Ann Stanfield, Carolyn Cooper, Shirley Olsen, Carla Siegfried, Peggy Ann Hastilow, Marilyn Cathell and Patty Burke.

Decorated bike prizes went to Tommy Wright, 106 Highland-av; Carla Siegfried, 175 Belvi-

Excavation Work Is Completed For New EUB Church

Excavation work was completed last week on the new Hilltonia Evangelical United Brethren Church. The footers are expected to be poured in the very near future and work of laying up the walls started.

The overall cost of completing the new stone church is expected to reach $80,000. It is hoped that the basement part can be completed in time for use this fall, Rev. R. S. Parr, pastor of the church, reported last week.

Roger Rickenbacher, 267 Algonquin-av, has been named building superintendent. He will sub-contract all phases of the work. Ralph Orr is the architect.

H. L. Pennell heads the special building committee. Other members are George Roberts, D. H. Blake, Roger Rickenbacher and Otto Mithoff.

The new building is to be located on the corner lot, immediately to the north of the present church, 522 Columbian-av. It will face on Columbian-av. It will be built on a foundation 86 by 50 feet and is being designed to seat approximately 200 in the main worship auditorium. Adjacent class rooms and a small balcony will provide seats for an additional 200.

The building will be heated by a radiant heating system. It is expected that approximately $30,000 will be required to complete the basement part of the building and make it ready for use. The second phase of the building program is expected to follow shortly.

Petitions Will Seek To Move Play Center

Petitions asking for the moving of play equipment to a point near the center of the Columbian-av Playground are expected to be circulated in the neighborhood soon, a resident of the community told The Hilltop Record this week.

"The sentiment of the neighborhood is that the playground is in the wrong place," R. L. Burke, 501 Columbian-av, said Tuesday.

He said that petitions were being prepared and would be circulated in the neighborhood. He admitted he did not know how [illegible].

Children's play equipment was installed in the city-owned tract of more than five acres last week. The area used for this purpose borders the east side of Columbian-av. Neighbors point out that this constitutes a hazard to the safety of children playing there because of traffic on that street. A fence has been erected along the play area and this week a bulldozer has been leveling off other areas of the play center.

Plans have been completed for the formal opening of the playground Monday. Clarence Baker, 54 N. Chase-av, was assigned to the playground as supervisor this week.

Josephine-av Sewer In Planning Stage

Plans for the Josephine-av sanitary sewer project are now in the hands of engineers, it was reported by the Franklin County Commissioner's office.

Upon completion of the plans, notes for financing the project can be sold in about 15 days and following another 15 days, bids for the work can be let.

The sewer will provide sanitary facilities for residents of Josephine-av and will eliminate pollution into the lake at Westgate Park, county officials say. It will connect into the main trunk sewer running along Sullivant-av.

PLANS JULY 4TH WEDDING — Miss Maudie Isabella Huston this week announced plans to marry Mr. Robert J. Clack in a church ceremony to be performed in the Warren Avenue Church of the Nazarene on July 4.

To Exchange Vows In Church Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Ulric F. Huston of Junction City, Ohio, announce the coming marriage of their daughter, Maudie Isabella, on Sunday, July 4, to Mr. Robert J. Clack of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

The open church wedding will take place at 2:30 p. m. at the Warren Avenue Church of the Nazarene, 648 S. Warren-av, with Rev. Harris B. Anthony officiating. Immediately following the ceremony a reception will be held at 2140 Cambridge-blvd.

Miss Huston is an honor graduate of the Junction City Jackson High School, the Cardi Beauty School of Cosmetology of Columbus, and on May 25, 1948, received her bachelor of theology degree from Olivet Nazarene College, Kankakee, Ill.

Mr. Clack, son of Mrs. Frances Clack of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., is a senior at Olivet Nazarene College, where he is studying for the ministry. After graduating in 1949, he plans to take post-graduate work at the Nazarene Theological Seminary, Kansas City, Mo.

Miss Huston has chosen for her matron of honor, Mrs. Newman Sheldon, and for bridesmaids, the Misses Norma and Mercelia Huston, her sisters, and the Misses Marilyn and Della Anthony. Mr. Riley Layman will be best man for Mr. Clack, and Mr. Newman Sheldon, Mr. Leo Baugus, Mr. Clifford Bryant and Mr. John Jones will serve as ushers.

Music for the wedding will be furnished by Miss Jewell Flaugher, violinist, Miss Carol Keeler, soloist, and Mrs. Gordon F. Keeler, pianist.

Miss Huston has made her home for the past eight years at 642 S. Warren-av.

Mrs. J. J. Mooney To Entertain Alpha Gamma Breakfast

The annual breakfast of the Alpha Gamma Chapter of Omega Sigma Sorority will be held Sunday, June 13, at the home of Mrs. J. J. Mooney, 469 Columbian-av.

The party will honor Mrs. A. C. Grooms, 313 Demorest-av, the former Miss Madge Edler, who was married recently.

The initiation of Mrs. A. J. Gross, 3072 Indianola-av, will take place on this occasion also.

At the national convention held in Columbus recently, two members of the local chapter were honored by being placed on the national board of governors. Katherine Roy was named national scribe and Mrs. J. J. Mooney, chairman of the music committee.

Officers of the local chapter for the coming year include Mrs. Starling Williamson, president; Louise Washburn, vice-president; Mrs. Stanley Ward, secretary; Dorritt Bennett, treasurer; Mrs. Allyn Laird, educational director; Elizabeth Pugh, social chairman, and Mrs. J. J. Mooney, editor.

Mrs. Allen Is Hostess To Highland Club

The Highland Garden Club will hold its annual covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Andrew C. Allen, 3021 Crescentdr, Monday, June 21, at 12 o'clock noon.

Each member is asked to bring a floral arrangement to be judged by Mrs. Heier, who will be the guest of honor.

Judge McClelland To Address Parents

Judge Cloys McClelland of the Probate Court will be guest speaker at the June meeting of the Chosen Parents League which will be held on Monday, June 21, at the Southern Hotel at 8 p. m.

This group of people, vitally interested in matters of child welfare in this county, is composed mostly of those having adopted children. However, many with children of their own have inquired as to membership requirements, of this organization. They recognize the seriousness of the child welfare situation here in the county and are eager to help in such a worthwhile undertaking. Membership in this league is not restricted to those having adopted children, but is extended to all those who wish to blend their efforts with those already functioning and working toward accord and definite steps forward in the interests of the backbone of this great country—the younger generation.

GIRL SCOUT
News Notes - Activities

Mrs. Anne Andes, 2029 Fremont st, cookie chairman of the Girl Scout Cookie Sale this year, entertained the following ladies at a luncheon at her home May 11: Mrs. Frank Moffett, collections; Mrs. George Gallager and Mrs. Clarence Deitchle, publis relations; Mrs. S. L. Trumbell, assistant chairman; and Miss Kay Kaufman, director of the Girl Scouts. More than 27,000 boxes of Girl Scout cookies were sold by the Columbus and Franklin County Girl Scouts during their sale.

Mrs. H. Booth and her Girl Scout Troop No. 146 presented two folk dance numbers on the Kay's Kiddie Club program over WCOL Saturday, May 15, at 12 o'clock. Folk dances were "Sandy Land" and "Little Red Handkerchief." Troop 146 meets at John Burroughs School.

Girl Scout Troop 103, West Junior High, has just completed its sewing and clothing badges, also badges for group music and hostess.

Girl Scout Troop 103 appeared on the Housewives IQ Wednesday, June 16, at 1:30 o'clock over WHKC, with Bud Sweeney of that station.

Girl Scout Troop 103 entered its friendship tablecloth in the Lazarus Needlework Fair last week. This cloth won first prize at Ohio State Fair in 1947.

Girl Scout Troop 103 assisted with the Westgate playground opening Monday, June 14.

Girl Scout Council dinner for adult members was held May 24 at the Seneca Hotel. Leaders and members of the Girl Scout board from District 8 of the Hilltop District were Mrs. Ed. Bradfute, No. 107 and district chairman No. 8; Mrs. C. F. Deitchle, No. 103, public relations (radio); Mrs. Charles Andes, finance and cookie committee member; Mrs. H. Boothe, No. 146, and folk dance committee member; Mrs. David Caton, No. 117, Mrs. W. Kelly, No. 203; Mrs. Ray Eyerman, No. 208; Mrs. E. Grady, No. 202; Mrs. L. Lannon, No. 200, and Mrs. F. Burgstaller, No. 201.

Girl Scouts' Day Camp will be at Clime Farm Aug. 18 19, 20, 23, 24 and 25. Thanks to the Hilltop Kiwanis, the Hilltop Business Association and John Burroughs PTA, transportation costs have already been met.

Mrs. Ed. Bradfute, district chairman No. 8, of the Hilltop Girl Scouts, Mrs. Naomi Field and Mrs. Lois Swack, field directors of the Columbus and Franklin County Girl Scouts, conducted a two-day camp instruction course for leaders at John Burroughs School the latter part of May.

At the May John Burroughs Girl Scout Neighborhood Association meeting, Mrs. Carl Driscoll resigned as neighborhood chairman. She will leave with her family for Dover, Ohio, where they will reside. Her husband will assume the pastorate of Grace Lutheran Church of that city.

West Mound Picnic Fun For 350 Kids

The West Mound Elementary PTA picnic was held at the school on Wednesday, June 9, with approximately 350 in attendance. Mrs. Leonard Dyer and Mrs. Madeira Crispin were the co-chairmen in charge of the food, assisted by Mrs. Victor Fippin, Mrs. James Rea, Mrs. John Wilson, Mrs. Louise Hoover, Mrs. B. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Marks, and Mrs. Karl Neimeister, in serving. After the picnic supper, free ice cream was served to all.

A community sing of some of the old-time favorites was led by Mrs. L. G. Seba with Mrs. John Hyer at the piano. Special entertainment by some of the school pupils was arranged by Mrs. Leyland Chatfield. Those participating were Dianne Robinson, Joyce McClintock, Marvine Smith and a quartet of four boys, Larry Hale, Eddie Markel, Ronnie Hale and Bob Smith.

Mrs. Harold Beard, the PTA president, introduced the teachers, Mrs. Gladys Schake, Mrs. Ruth Neiswander and Mrs. Franchon Grier, as well as the principal, E. B. Graham, and Mr. Nader, the janitor.

Games for the children were planned by Mrs. Joe Smith, assisted by Charles Vagnier, Allen Fausnaugh, Arthur Robinson and Leyland Chatfield. Prizes were arranged for by Mrs. Charles Bachman. Free balloons and bubble gum were given the children.

Thirteen children will be going on to John Burroughs next fall. They are Donnie Griffin, Carole Chatfield, Ronnie Hill, Margaret Krems, Barbara Moore, Larry Hale, Eddie Markel, Dixie Mefford, John Giannikos, Rosalie Constans, Judy Dyer, Larry Frygogle and Bob Smith. Roger Suver is going to the Boys' Choir School.

Scholarship Winners Named At Graduation

Three scholarship winners were announced in the graduating class of St. Mary Magdalene School during graduation exercises held at the church Sunday, June 6.

Ronald Eifert received a one-year scholarship as a result of competitive exams held at the school. Wolf Vieth won a one-year scholarship at Aquinas while Mary Margaret Van Hoose received a one-year scholarship to Holy Family High School given by the alumni association of that school. She ranked highest of the girls in her class with a term average of 95 and a yearly average of 94.

An athletic scholarship was also offered by the Holy Family Alumni Association to one of the boys. This selection has not yet been made.

Oddi, Carper Share Medalist Honors At Beacon This Week

Leo Oddi and Earl Carper were co-medalists at Beacon Light Golf Course this week with 75's. They were closely followed by Toni Oddi and Beryl Taylor with 76's.

The 76 was Taylor's "best ever" score. Carl Grabill also turned in his "best ever" tally— a 78.

Jack Kidwell, operator of Beacon, said that the club ladder had been posted this week and was creating quite a bit of interest among Hilltop golfers.

Joe Case and Ray Grabill visited Ray's brother, Jerry Grabill, at Fort Bragg, N. C. While there they played the world-famous Pinehurst Country Club course. Joe chalked up a 79.

Doctor's orders will keep Eddie Whitlow off the golf courses for a year.

2 Hospitalized After Accidents

David Henry, 22, of 215 N. Harris-av, had a narrow escape Friday when the truck he was driving was forced off the highway and turned over twice, pinning him in the cab.

The local man was treated in Lancaster City Hospital for lacerations and head injuries after State Highway Patrolmen freed him from the damaged truck.

The accident occurred on Route 33, three miles north of Lancaster.

William F. Bierly, 9, was treated in Mt. Carmel Hospital for lacerations and head injuries suffered Friday when his bicycle collided with a car at Demorest-av and W. Broad-st.

Police said the auto was driven by James A. Clemmons, 3526 Alberta-av. The boy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Bierly, 3833 W. Broad-st.

Westgate Bible School To Be Held June 21 To July 2

Daily Vacation Bible School will be held at Westgate Methodist Church June 21 through July 2. Classes will be held daily, Monday through Friday, from 9 to 11:45 a. m.

All boys and girls of the community from four to 15 years are invited. There will be Bible study, memory work, hand work and supervised play each morning.

Due to the absence of Rev. Norman Schreiber, pastor of the church, who will be teaching at Lakeside the first week, Mrs. Walter Cochran and Mrs. George W. Pruden will be in charge. Rev. Schreiber will be in charge the second week.

The teachers and helpers for the school will include Mrs. Thomas Scholl, Patty Hollycross, Virginia Cochrell, Mrs. William McCullough, Mrs. James D. Arnold, Mrs. Carl Spohn, Mrs. W. F. Watts, Mrs. C. C. Wilson, Mrs. Pruden, Jean Recob, Mrs. Earl Fenner and Mrs. Charles Moody.

The school will come to a close on July 2 with a pot-luck dinner at noon. All parents of the children who attend the school are invited to the dinner.

Smith Scholarship Is Awarded Sun.

Miss Mary Joan McMahon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. McMahon, was awarded the Frederick G. Smith Memorial Scholarship at the twenty-fifth annual commencement of Franklin University on Sunday, June 6. This scholarship was established by Mr. and Mrs. Don F. Smith in memory of the father of Mr. Smith and is to be known as the Frederick G. Smith Scholarship. It is awarded to that student in the Columbus College of Law who, while a member of the second year class, most clearly evidences qualities of leadership in classroom work, student activities, and in general cooperation with the aims and purposes of the college.

The award to Miss McMahon was made personally by Mr. Donald F. Smith, attorney-at-law, at 2405½ W. Broad-st, and an alumnus of the Columbus College of Law. He stated that he had fond memories of his days in law school and that he desired to establish this scholarship in memory of his father, Frederick G. Smith. The scholarship covers the full year's tuition to the recipient for her junior year in school and shall commence with the fall semester of 1948. Miss McMahon is an active participant in student activities at Franklin University and is secretary of the Franklin University Student Bar Association.

Judy Wolfe Is Home!

Six-year-old Judy Wolfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Wolfe, 336 N. Sylvan-av, who was critically injured when struck by an automobile while on her way to school on April 28, has been released from Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Judy was taken to her home Saturday, where she must spend many more weeks in bed, although recovering satisfactorily.

HELP WANTED

Does retirement irk you? Is the shelf to which you climbed—or were boosted—too narrow for one of your ability? Is the fixed income that once looked so good, too tight a fit in these high priced times?
For a man of ability and adaptability General Insulation Company has the answer. Home insulation the Celotex way is a fascinating business. Commissions are generous, quality is supreme, earnings are measured by your ability. Your independence is not sacrificed, merely increased. Write or phone

Volunteers Visit Shut-ins, Aged

Mushrooming from a calling list of some dozen names of shut-ins, the Volunteers of America Sunset Club recently counted up more than 200 active members in less than a year of organization.

The club, organized under the auspices of the local commander of the Volunteers of America, Lt. Colonel Susan Thom, is made up of elderly people, shut-ins and old age pensioners who are unable to participate in any active social life. Through the visits of the Volunteers of America staff member, Mrs. P. T. Gillie, Sunset members are contacted and encouraged to talk of themselves and their interests, thus brightening a long convalescence, or the quiet existence of an elderly shut-in.

Mrs. Gillie, well known Columbus civic worker and widow of Dr. P. T. Gillie of the State Department of Agriculture, makes a monthly call on each member, visiting individual homes as well as rest homes and institutions for the aged. Birthday cards, small gifts of flowers or candy, matching crochet thread, or saving magazine stories for the members are all part of the Volunteers of America program for Sunset Club participants. Not all Sunset Clubbers are indigents, and many elderly members have contributed to help expand the number of visits or to help out a less fortunate member.

The revolutionary new Ford four-door sedan for 1949 is lower, wider, roomier and provides nearly 25 per cent more visibility.

Beasley-Grove Co. To Show New Ford Here

The much talked about new '49 Ford will be presented to the public Friday and Saturday at the sales rooms of the Beasley-Grove Co., 747 W. Broad-st. At the same time an invitation is extended to visit the new parts and service department being opened by the company.

The introduction of the new Ford is said to be one of the biggest new-model presentations in the automotive industry in recent years. New body features and new auto engineering are said to make the new Ford distinctive.

Neil Grove of Beasley-Grove Company is extending a personal invitation to all residents of the Hilltop community to visit the showroom and to enjoy the Ford 49er Caravan show. This entertainment, featuring Irwin Johnson, Sally Flowers, Russ Canter and the Buzz Saws Barbershop Quartet, plus the music of Dick Heine and the WBNS staff orchestra, will be presented at 9 p. m. Saturday.

News of Rome

By Mrs. E. C. Sheets

There will be a social evening at the Columbia Heights Church Friday evening for the parents and friends of the children who have been attending the summer school. They will have on display the work they have done. Light refreshments will be served.

Regarding the Indianapolis racing jaunt Decoration Day, Robert South of Fisher-rd planned the trip and really made it a success.

Harold Hart took his Alton Advancers 4-H Club along Big Darby for an all night fishing trip. About 14 were in the party. Asked about the catch, he said, "Lots of fun, not much fish."

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schroeder and family were out of town for several days to attend the wedding of her sister, Elva Mae Jackson, and Palmer Liechty. They were married in the United Brethren Church in Decatur, Ind.

Over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Russel Broyles had as guests her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McComis, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Wallace (her sister) and son, Lawrence Plyler. Her brother, Ovel McGomis, and his fiancee flew down in his plane. They were all from Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Courtwright, Mr. and Mrs. Brucks Cartright and children, Joan, John and Terry, made a short visit at the home of Mrs. Warner, Pasadena-av. They are Mrs. Warner's parents from Peoria, Ill., and her brother from Sheldon, Ill.

The Monitors (Young Married Class of Columbia Heights Church) held their annual outing at Tar Hollow Sunday afternoon. They left about 2:00. The weather was in their favor. The out-door games were enjoyed by all as well as the picnic supper. Those in the party were the teacher, Albert Caris, and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Caris, Rev. Elwood Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gardner and sons, Harold and David, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Smith and children, Marion and Martha, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Elliott and sons, Dickie and Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. English and son, Tommy, Mr. and Mrs. Kent Richy and daughter, Linda, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Miller and children, Bobby and Beth, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Denman and children, Patty, Linda and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schroeder and children, Larry and Clara Jane, and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb and sons, Billjean, Tim, Rex, and Tad.

Jeanne Wyker is home from Otterbein College and vacationing for the summer at Ted Hilton's Camp in Moodus, Conn.. Clyde is also home from Otterbein and plans to stay on the farm for the summer.

Priscilla Warner, Pasadena-av, is home from Otterbein and will spend the summer in her father's labcratory doing clerical work.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Ison, Gregg-av and Maple-dr, entertained with a family dinner Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Sinsabaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Messing and children, Linda and Bobby, Mrs. Nora Messing, Martha Suver and Marjorie Krohn.

Mrs. Harold Rings is under the doctor's care due to a neuritis and heart condition.

Phyllis, Virginia and Judy Rings are spending several days with their grandmother, Mrs. McCormick, in Columbus.

St. Aloysius, Westgate Top West Church No. 1 League

By Dave Miller

St. Aloysius and Westgate Evangelical are still in a deadlock for first place in the West Church No. 1 League following victories Monday evening.

Meanwhile, West Park Methodist is holding its own in the League No. 2 with three wins in as many cutings. The Methodists won an easy victory Monday.

The League No. 1, Westgate, kept up its pace by setting down Hilltop Church of God, 3 to 0, in a well played game, St. Aloysius took an easy win from Burgess Avenue EUB, 7 to 1, and Glenwood turned in another shutout win by goose-egging Hoge Memorial, 4 to 0.

In League No. 2 play, West Park took its fifth victory by downing Hillcrest Baptist easily, 8 to 0. In other games Salvation Army remained undefeated in league play by easily trouncing Chicago Avenue Church of Christ, 16 to 0, and Avondale took a nip and tuck eighth inning free-scoring affair from St. John A. C., 13 to 12.

An indication of good pitching in this league is shown in the games played Monday. A third of them were shutouts. The League No. 1 leadership looks like a wide open race because of the fact that all the teams in the loop have tasted defeat. Westgate and St. Aloysius, the two leaders, have dropped one decision.

The schedule for next Monday is as follows:

League No. 1
St. Aloysius vs. Hoge Memorial
Hilltop C of C vs. Burgess EUB
Glenwood Methodist vs. Westgate

League No. 2
West Park vs. St. John A. C.
Salvation Army vs. Hillcrest

Swim Classes Are Still Open

Children of the Hilltop who desire to learn to swim have a good opportunity to accomplish this during the next few weeks at little or no extra cost.

Jim Seagle is conducting classes for all children at the Hilltop Pool on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings, starting at 9 o'clock. There is still time to get in a class, Seagle said this week.

All children holding season memberships will be admitted to the class without charge. Those without memberships will be admitted to the class by paying 15c for the use of the pool. The classes are not restricted to those holding memberships, he pointed out.

Assisting with the instruction is Tom Elliott, a member of the Ohio State University swimming team, and Jack Dale, another OSU student, who helped with the work at the Hilltop Pool last year. Both men are serving as guards at the pool this season.

Hilltop Van Wins From Hanford AC

Hilltop Van and Storage softballers continued their winning ways Tuesday evening by defeating Hanford AC by a score of 7 to 2 on the King-av diamond.

Frank Groves gave up only two hits, both coming in the seventh inning while striking out 13.

Family Care Is New Program At State Hospital

A program of family care for mental patients is being started at the Columbus State Hospital. Under this program, selected patients are placed on a trial basis in private homes which have been evaluated by the hospital staff and found to meet certain requirements necessary to participate in the program.

Family care programs for mental patients have been tried successfully in several states, among them Massachusetts, New York and Michigan, but is a new venture in Ohio, only having been used previously for mentally deficient patients.

This type of care provides an opportunity for patients to live and participate in family and community life under conditions of understanding supervision. Patients selected for this type of care have received maximum treatment offered by the hospital. However, many have no homes of their own to which they can return and others need family care as a stepping-stone between the protective environment of the institution and their own homes. In a sense, family care is an extension of the hospital into a community. The hospital will continue to fulfill its responsibility for the patient's care and treatment.

Securing of adequate homes is a difficult task and should be a challenge to the individuals having space in their homes and the interest and time to devote to such a service, hospital officials said. The weekly rate to be paid to the person in charge of the family care home for each individual may vary from $9.00 to $12.00. Persons interested in obtaining more specific information about the program and perhaps participating in it should make inquiry through the Social Service Department of the Columbus State Hospital.

Many Summer Job Applicants Available

Already over 100 university, college and high school students have been given the opportunity of earning money for the summer in jobs secured through the Columbus Ohio State Employment Service, 435 Cleveland-av.

The local OSES, a division of the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, so far has filled stock and shipping clerk jobs in manufacturing, wholesale and retail establishments — posts for typists—openings in nurseries, factories, car hops, waitresses, chauffeurs, truck drivers, car washers, fountain help and cooks have been supplied to meet summer needs.

Earle C. Duncan, manager of the Cleveland Avenue office, reports that a wealth of capable and alert young men and women are still available for summer work. Employers who can use any of these young people during the vacation season are urged to phone the Employment Service.

Jack Kirkpatrick To Be Assistant To Dean Of Men At Ohio University

Kirkpatrick

John Howard Kirkpatrick, who graduated from Ohio University on June 6, will begin his duties as assistant to the dean of men at the university today.

'Jack, as he is known to his friends majored in educational administration and was a member of the University Glee Club. He was also director of youth in the Christ Church of Athens. He rated in the top ten per cent of his class, received honorable mention in the university scholarship awards, was a member of Phi Mu Alpha Synphonia, honorary musical fraternity; and Kappa Delta Pi, honorary educational fraternity.

While a student at West High, he enlisted in the 37th Division, and was sent to Camp Shelby, Miss., in October of 1940. There he was married before leaving for overseas.

Being sent through England, Scotland, France, Belgium, and Germany, with the 1000 Engineers Treadway Bridge Company, he was in Germany at the time of the battle of the Bulge.

When he returned to Columbus, he completed his school work and graduated from North High. He entered Ohio U. in January of 1946.

The son of J. H. Kirkpatrick, Sr., 29 N. Huron-av and Mrs. Helen L. Kirkpatrick, 478 S. 22nd-st, he plans to work for his doctor's degree.

More Reserves Earn Letters At West High

Several reserve trackmen at West High School received letters in addition to those mentioned in last week's Hilltop Record. The complete list of track awards is as follows:

Seniors receiving varsity track letters included Dick Borror, Wilbur Ehlers, Kenneth Evans, Bob J. Smith, Jim Dennis, Bob Brown, Dick Ham, Kenneth Mahan, Walter Hicks, William Stevenson, Roland Stout, Jack Kelly, Dick Lanigan, Glenn Schroeder and Charles Miller. A captain's letter went to Bob Jancs.

Juniors deserving of the letters were Bob Cochran, Robin Schmidt, Don Eitle, Sam Ellis and Bill Van Atta. Two sophomores, David Cockfield and Frank Carson, also were awarded varsity letters.

Reserve letters went to Donn Eisele, Kenneth Sharp, Jim Palmer, Ray Bostic, Gregory Burke, Steve Howison, Herbert Carpenter, Bob Epps, Joe Janes, Clare Ashton, Carmine De Matteo, Bob Cunningham, Tom Frasure, Bill Henkel, Ronald James, Jim Miller, Clifford Voss, Bob Wood, Dick Kruczynski, Jack Leubering, Malcolm McCoy, Bob B. Smith and Bob Tewell.

The managers, Dick Holycross, Wesley Edstrom, Ronald Guyton and Joe Wallace, also received their letters.

This speedy one-third mile banked dirt track is located three miles southeast of Columbus on Williams-rd at Valley crossing.

Hilltopper Frank McIlyar Says

Always Plenty To Do In "Front Office"

By Paul Wichterman

What does the "front office" staff of a baseball team do while the team is on the road or during the off season?

Frank McIlyar, business manager of the Columbus Red Birds since 1942, will tell you that there's plenty to be done to maintain and operate the popular West Side sports center, which last year had a total attendance of more than half a million persons. Frank recently became a full fledged Hilltopper when he moved his family to 298 Columbian-av on March 1.

Few people realize that Red Bird Stadium attracts more paid admissions during the year than any other central Ohio amusement. This year the total attendance is expected to top the 700,000 mark. President Al Bannister predicts that some day it may go to a million.

Of course not all of these admissions are to Red Bird ball games although they account for the most of them. The stadium is in almost constant demand for everything from a rodeo to religious memorial services. As a matter of fact it was the Holy Name Society Holy Hour conducted in the stadium last Oct. 26 that attracted the largest crowd ever to attend the ball park since it was built. It was estimated that more than 20,000 persons jammed the field for that service.

Frank McIlyar

Two new all-time attendance records have already been set since the start of the 1948 baseball season. The 14,623 persons who attended the opening of the ball season was by far the largest opening crowd ever attracted here. Then the 15,048 paid admissions to the Shrine Night set a new high for that annual event.

Many and varied are the problems of a ball club operation, McIlyar will explain. There is everything from answering the "potato calls" to figuring out how much change to have on hand for ticket sellers for any given game.

The "potato calls" are jokingly referred to in the stadium office as the house wife who calls on Sunday afternoon to see what time the game will be over so she can tell when to have supper for hubby. They seldom ask what the score is or who is in the lead, it's just "how soon will the game be over."

"You can put the potatoes on any time now, the game should be over in a few minutes," is the stock reply.

Then there are a few calls to find out what time the night game ended so that wifey can figure out what hubby had been up to before coming home.

"We usually tell them the game was over 'about five minutes ago'," he laughs.

Came Here In 1940

McIlyar came to Columbus in 1940 after joining the Cardinal organization in Portsmouth, Ohio, in 1938. Prior to that he had been business manager of the telephone company there. The flood of 1937 ruined a lot of their telephone equipment so he turned to organized baseball.

Estimating how many tickets it will take to accommodate any given crowd is only one of the many problems of the local baseball executive. Sunday crowds are the biggest problem, he explained, since there are general admission, reserved seat, children's, box seats and bleacher tickets to handle.

Providing change for all of the 11 ticket booths is another problem.

"You never know what denominations of bills are going to be shoved through the ticket windows," McIlyar pointed out. "We have never run out of change in the eight years I have been here, but we have come awful close."

Change provided for the ticket sellers is always in one dollar bills and silver. Larger bills that are broken will be handed out again in changing other bills but they are not stocked as change. The local business manager handles ticket sales for most of the other groups who use Red Bird Stadium while the Birds are on the road. It's quite an item to organize if you're not used to doing it. Then too, handling the amusement tax is a bit tricky. Most groups prefer to turn it all over to the "front office" rather than worry with it.

The bulk of any crowd must be handled in a 45-minute period just prior to game time. This problem has been expedited somewhat this year by installation of another ticket gate over on the right field side of the park. This makes it convenient for patrons who use the parking lot. The new Perey turnstiles installed last year makes possible the handling of 16,000 to 18,000 persons without difficulty. Strangely enough the largest crowds are not the most difficult to handle. In the case of opening night and Shrine night most of the tickets are in the hands of patrons in advance. Few buy tickets at the gate so it's simply a problem of getting the crowd in and out of the stadium in order.

The "front office" handles a payroll of around 150, not including players, during the playing season. Ground crews, concessions men, ticket sellers, gate keepers, etc., constitute this large staff. Frank's office also checks all invoices before being sent into the St. Louis office for payment; handles the printing and sale of score cards; looks after advertising contracts for both bill boards and score cards; operates the concessions and a dozen and one other details.

An example of the demand for the stadium by outside groups is seen at a glance at the schedule. Starting tonight, when the Red Birds open their third home stand, there are only two open dates until Aug. 12. The Roller Derby will use the stadium a total of 18 nights during July. Other frequent uses for the ball park are for circuses, rodeos, football games, civic and religious groups.

Both the American and National Negro Leagues use Red Bird Stadium for games as often as schedules permit. Teams of both leagues travel constantly and play many games here during a season.

There's little rest around the Red Bird office either during or between home stands of the Flock.

Frank was born and raised in Cambridge, Ohio. He and Mrs. McIlyar have two daughters, Mary Ann, 10, and Martha Jane, 7.

3 West Players Rate All-City Baseball Spots

Three members of the West High baseball team, City League co-champions with Central, rated places on the Dispatch all-city team announced Sunday.

Placed on the mythical all-city team were Shortstop Jack Pickens, Outfielder Dick Kirk and Chuck Weeks, a pitcher.

Paul Theisen, another West pitcher, Dick Culbertson, Al Andrews and Don Skipper rated honorable mention.

Night Racing Is On At Hilliards

Night racing got under way at the Hilliard Raceway last Saturday, in the start of a 19-night stand at the nearby track. The Columbus Trotting Association is back of the new venture being held under the floodlights. Some of the best trotters and pacers are stabled there for this event. The Hilliards meeting will run through Saturday night, July 3.

Some of the leading reinsmen of the country have brought their stables here for Columbus' first night meeting.

Included among the top-flight drivers is the local veteran tall man, C. I. (Slim) Shilling, who wound up his initial campaign of the season as the leading race winner at Lebanon Raceway.

Others who have checked in at Hilliard Raceway are Johnny Caton, Walter (Peewee) Welch, Scotty Welch, Murel Walters, Fred Sifert, John Taylor, Dinty Moore, Eddie Taylor, O. C. Silvey, Bill Roush, Jimmy France, Jim and Earl Carriveau, Mac McQuarrie, Rodney Bidwell, Bob Taylor, Walt Douglas, Lou Huber, Sr., and Jr., Fred Seitz, Fritz and Ray Newhart, Jim Edwards, Arlo Edwards, Bus Edwards, Stan Edwards, Roy Seeley, Walt Dispanette, Charles Buel, Ray (Happy) Buel, Bob Mason, Ed Shuster, Leon Chambers, Mack Carr, Lyle Briggs, Dorsey Greeno.

Birds Open Home Stay Here Tonite

The Columbus Red Birds will pass the half-way mark of the 1948 American Association season during the home stay which starts today and will carry high hopes for a contending berth as they face six league foes before they leave town again. Only Toledo will be missing from the list of opponents during the next 16 days.

Louisville will oppose the local club in single games tonight and Friday night. Indianapolis brings its league leaders to town Saturday for three games, a single afternoon game Saturday and the orthodox double-header Sunday.

The Birds will take a breather for two days as far as league competition is concerned but will make a side trip to Springfield, Ohio, to meet the strong Giants of the Ohio-Indiana League next Monday. Tuesday will be a day of calm preceding the invasion of the four western clubs Wednesday, June 23. The Kaws play three single games at the West Mound Street lot.

The Minneapolis Millers play the week-end engagement of three games, with a Saturday afternoon game and the double bill Sunday. Milwaukee plays the Birds in three single contests on June 28, 29 and 30. St. Paul completing the home stay with two contests on succeeding nights.

Special nights include Father's Night tomorrow night and Foremen's Club Night on June 24. Knot Hole Gang Days are slated for June 19 and June 26.

Victory Over North Puts West In

By Dave Miller

West emerged victors over North High, Wednesday afternoon, to earn a share of the pennant with their neighbors Central's Pirates. The score was 5 to 0.

After Central had bowed to North High on June 7, it made it necessary to play the tie North-West game to decide the championship. The day it was played, April 16, the coaches, George Williams of West and Mike Hagely of North decided that the replay wouldn't take place unless it had a bearing on the championship. Well, that's just what it did, and our Cowboys were the victors, 5 to 0, behind pitcher Charlie Weeks' fine twirling.

The loss by North gave them a tie with Linden McKinley for second place in the final standings.

In the big North affair, which was played at North, West was at its best in hitting with men on base. The ultimate winners socked lefty Skip Barker and right-hander Lafe Dodds for a total of eight hits, five between Dave Dupler and Pat Collins.

North was just the opposite of West with men on base. In the second and fourth frames, they loaded the sacks and both times with slugging second baseman Jack Wilson at the plate. However, this was the good part of Weeks. Almost all season Weeks would seem to be in trouble but "dependable Charlie" got himself out of the holes every time.

The first pitch to Jack Pickens, first batter up, was a called-strike. Pickens didn't like that so he promptly sent a double to short-right center. Don Little and Dick Culbertson popped out but clean up hitter Dick Kirk did his stuff by driving a clean one-base knock to center, plating Pickens with the opening run.

The Bears got two men on in their part of the opening round, but Weeks fanned Barker for a typical Weeks-finish.

West strengthened its slim lead in the second round with a run. Pat Collins hit a high popper to Don Miller at third, who, in turn, threw it over first baseman Dick Eaton's head for a two-base error. Don Skipper hit a roller to second, but was just out by a hair at first, advancing Collins to third. Dave Dupler then stepped into Barker's first offering for a single to center, plating Collins, but Weeks fanned and Dupler was out stealing on the same play to end the inning.

The first two Cowboys in the third went down in regular order, but Dick Culberston singled and the throw to first was wild, and Culbertson tried for second, but was cut, Eaton to second-sacker Wilson. Another scoreless round followed the latter inning and West was still ahead, 2-0.

Meanwhile, big Weeks was setting the North sluggers down in rare form Weeks walked lead-off man Miller three times and outfielder Ivan "Tommy" Thomas twice, and these five passes were the only ones given up by the West hurler. Also, Weeks was pitching very-low-hit-ball by allowing a second inning double by shortstop Bob Blanchard, the only hit in five innings. In the sixth, Don Davis, North catcher, who had fanned twice, hit a high bouncer to Dave Dupler at third which was called a hit by the official scorer. In the seventh frame, the last, Eddie Mayer, Polar Bear gardener, who earlier had grounded out in the infield three times, hit a line single to center for the third hit off Weeks.

The Cowboys went back to the art of scoring some more runs in the fifth. Dave Dupler led off by getting his second straight hit by doubling to rightfield. The latter advanced to third when shortstop Blanchard muffed Weeks' grounder. Pickens was out through a pop up, and Dupler advanced home on an error by left fielder Dick Long.

The Cowboys put themselves out in front, 5-0, with two markers in the sixth. Dick Kirk led off the inning on reliefer Lafe Dodds by being hit by one of his wild throws. Al Andrews sacrificed the former to second to scoring position. Pat Collins singled home Kirk with run No. 4, and Don Skipper was safe through the fielder's choice when the keystone part of North's infield was trying to get Collins out, finally ending up in an error by second-sacker Wilson. Dave Dupler got his third hit of the day by singling home Collins. Their catcher Davis tried to get Dupler, going for second, but threw the ball wild.

Two outs then followed to end the big uprising. Dodds walked Little in the seventh, and Culbertson sacrificed, but Kirk and Andrews made outs to end any more North opposing runs.

The line score:

West	110	012	0	5	8	1
North	000	000	0	0	3	7

Weeks and Andrews; Barker, Dodds (6) and D. Davis, Mittendorf (7).

Westgate Tennis Club To Meet U. Arlington

The opening match of the City Tennis League was postponed for Westgate and Beatty Park last Sunday as a result of wet grounds. The Westgate Club is scheduled for a match with Upper Arlington this Sunday afternoon at Westgate Park.

In matches played last Sunday Upper Arlington defeated Southwood 5-0; Grandview downed Bexley 3-2 and Olentangy bested Columbus Tennis Club 3-2.

Jim Slager reports that night play on the lighted courts at Westgate Park is on the increase. It is not unusual to find all six courts in use and players waiting.

The courts are open from morning until 10 p. m. daily.

Bears Take Over Undisputed First Place

The Bears in the St. John Lutheran League took over undisputed first place with a three-game victory over the Hurricanes, who were previously tied with them. The Poodlers, the other first place team, dropped to second place since they dropped one of their games to the Wolves.

Ardle

A new scorer broke loose as Al Faust hit 536 to top the individual honors for the evening. Al opened with a lowly 146, climbed to a 183 game and ended with 203, which was the high single game of the day. E. Bruckelmeyer led the women with a 154-476, while the Poodlers had the high team game of 863 and the Go-Getters high series, 2393.

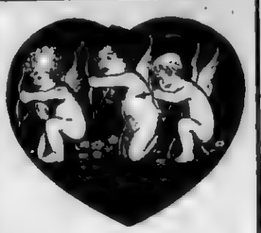
Andrews Named Baseball Captain; Letters Awarded



Al Andrews was named honorary captain of the 1948 West High baseball co-champs following the North game last week. Coach George Williams also announced the letter winners as follows:

Al Andrews, catcher; Jack Pickens, Don Skipper, Dick Lamprecht, Dick Culbertson, Dave Dupler, infielders; Curt Westerman, Don Little John Cherup, Dick Kirk, Pat Collins, outfielders; Charlie Weeks, Paul Theisen and Phil Young, pitchers.

Reserve letters went to Don Nafzger, Bill Thrush and Jack Fleischer. Dick Husch and Leo Peoples received managers' varsity letters while Bob Brooks, Jack Corbett, Don Trimmer and Byron Ridenour each received numerals.

Coach Williams also would like to express his appreciation for the fine gift the players presented him with last week, after being put in the showers following the North game.

When the players are to receive their gold baseballs the notice will appear in The Hilltop Record.

BOY SCOUTS IN THE Southwest District

Cub Pack 63

Cub Pack 63 will have its monthly meeting and also a picnic Friday evening, June 18, at Maple Shades.

Theme will be an Indian powwow. Each den will represent an Indian tribe, doing an Indian dance around a campfire.

Awards will be given. There will also be a graduation ceremony.

Cub Pack 43

Cub Scout Pack 43 held its monthly meeting at John Burroughs School on May 27.

After the invocation was given by Rev. E. J. Klamfoth of Bethlehem Lutheran Church, a short business meeting was held.

The following boys were accepted into the pack and were awarded their Bobcat pins: Den No. 1 welcomed as a new cub, Paul Zavatsky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Zavatsky, 698 S. Wayne-av. Paul attends the Columbus School for the Blind and is a very accomplished pianist. Mrs. Paul Early received into Den No. 4, Jack Kamer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kamer, 458 S. Wayne-av.

David Hubbard graduated from Pack 43, Den No. 4, into Boy Scout Troop No. 79 and was presented with a scout manual as a parting gift from the pack.

Awards were presented to the following cubs: Terry Horn, Lion Pin and Gold and Silver Arrow; George Lamneck, Bear Pin and Gold Arrow; Ronald Knipp, Silver Arrow, Denner Stripe; Daniel Donaldson, Buckskinners Stripe; Lee Lyon, Silver Arrow; James Haney, Wolf, Gold and Silver Arrows; Donald Keller, Silver Arrow; Jerry Osborne, 2 Year Pin and Gold Arrow; Clair Bailey, Wolf Pin; George Watkins, Wolf, Gold Arrow, Buckskin Stripe; Curt Grashel, 2 Year Pin; Larry Steece, Wolf, Gold Arrow, Buckskin Stripe; Richard Thomas, Wolf Pin and Denner Stripe; Fred Gunther, 2 Year Pin, Buckskinner; Donald Bostic, Denner Stripe; Robert Ryerson, 2 Year Pin; Richard Poor, Silver Arrow and Denner Stripe; Ralph Early, Gold and Silver Arrow, 2 Year Pin, Buckskinner; Dana Deshler, Gold Arrow, 2 Year Pin; Thomas Lewis, Bobcat Pin and Buckskinner; Frank Betsch, Wolf and Denner Stripe; Billy Coon, Bear Certificate.

The highlight of the evening consisted of several skits and musical solos presented by the cubs. Announcements for the June 24 picnic, "weather permitting," will be mailed in the near future.

Troop 79

Members of Troop 79, sponsored by Burgess Evangelical United Brethren Church, entertained the boys from Pack 43 and the den mothers on June 7.

An investiture service for five boys entering the tenderfoot class was held and a demonstration troop meeting was put on. At the close light refreshments were served to about 75 boys and parents of troop members. Richard McFadden is scoutmaster of Troop 79. Dave Haines and William Thomas are his assistants.

Playground Is Opened Saturday

The community playground, owned and operated by the Rea-Bow Improvement Assn. for the children of the Rainbow and Rea Additions, was opened Saturday afternoon.

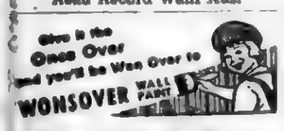
Buy On The Hilltop

Once again the importance of patronizing Hilltop merchants wherever possible comes to the fore. Starting on Friday of last week, most of the members of the Hilltop Business Association started issuing scrip money in the amount of purchases made. This money will buy real merchandise. It will be used at the Hilltop Bean Dinner on July 28 in a giant auction. More than $1,000 worth of real merchandise can be purchased with this scrip but of course the abundance of scrip will make the selling price of each item auctioned go "sky" high.

While this is largely a promotional stunt to direct attention to the Hilltop Bean Dinner it should help Hilltoppers to see the advantage of supporting the local business man. It is because of the aggressive spirit of your local merchant that many of the good things in the way of community life have come to the Hilltop.



The local merchant is interested not only in his own welfare but in the welfare of the community as a whole. The start of the Hilltop YMCA is only one example of what can be done in a community where business people and residents alike join forces to add to the betterment of the entire area.

During the next several weeks you will save money by accumulating the scrip. There will be many items of merchandise sold so that there will be not one but many winners at the Bean Dinner auction. You will be surprised, too, if you have not already learned that the prices charged in Hilltop stores are no higher and in many cases lower than you will pay by going down town.

TO FATHER

My father had the knack of bending over
And finding keys, as one finds four-leaved clover.
He kept them in a dove-tailed wooden box
Thinking, perhaps, he would discover locks
The keys belonged to, or that they might fit
In other locks, by being filed a bit.
There was key of iron that we guessed
Had once been used to close a seaman's chest,
And little silver watch-keys on a ring,
And common ones that we would count and string;
On stormy mornings Mother let us play
With Father's keys. We put the box away
Before he came. I think of Father still
As one who opened doors for us, at will.

HILL TOPICS —By PW—

School's Out

There's an unexplainable emptiness about a school building after its occupants have been dismissed for the summer vacation. I've never sensed the same feeling in any other building.

I walked through the corridors of West High School last week following the close of school. Gone was the hustle and bustle of youth and the customary sound of activity. The music rooms were silent. The big auditorium was as quiet as a tomb. Only silence reigned in the machine and woodworking rooms. The chemistry lab was not emitting the usual assortment of odors usually detected in the corridor. The cafeteria was strangely quiet.

I met one of the custodians in the hall. He was leisurely finishing up odd jobs about the building. We talked about the strange emptiness of the place. He, too, felt the absence of the hundreds of pupils who had made the building hum with activity during the school year. Most of the time of the janitorial force during the summer months will be spent on the grounds outside the building keeping them presentable.

There were still a few teachers in the building catching up on odds and ends before leaving on well-earned vacations. Here and there you could hear farewells being exchanged as the daily associations of faculty members came to an end.

I looked out the window to the south. A handful of kids were loitering about Magly Field. A few sat in the stadium surveying the beautiful gridiron and baseball field. They, too, seemed to feel the emptiness that gripped the premises. I left the building feeling about as cheerful as if I had walked through a cemetery. It makes one philosophical though. You sort of wonder what our society would be like without this great institution—our public school.

Yes, school is out but only for three short months. I'm already looking forward to next September.

Scouting Can Be Fun

It's a bit hard to understand why it's always hard to find enough men to fill all the jobs in scouting. It can be a game for the adults as well as the boys.

Approximately 30 men from the Southwest District attended the overnight camp at Camp Lazarus on June 5 and 6 along with approximately 60 other scouters from the Central Ohio Area. Most of the men were scoutmasters or troop committeemen. Most of them were in camp for the first time.

It was interesting to see the enjoyment they all seemed to be getting out of the experience. I never saw a group of men enjoy anything more than the singing of scout songs around the dinner table Saturday night. Most of them were the silly little ditties the scouts enjoy singing most. The men really went for them in a big way.

The men were made up as troops and patrols and went through all the program the boys themselves do when they go to camp. (Incidentally, the summer camping season opened at Camp Lazarus Sunday of this week and will continue for eight periods of seven days each.) Following the dinner hour the men played scouting games out on the parade grounds. The evening ended up with a "coffee cluch" in the main dining hall.

On Sunday a brief church service followed breakfast, then following a general camp clean-up period, we went into a series of round table discussions and demonstrations on various scouting skills. Rain prevented any outdoor demonstration work but the big Exchange Lodge served well for the sessions.

If more men from this area would visit Camp Lazarus occasionally and see or take part in this youth work, I don't believe we would have to go out and coax men to work in scouting. It's a lot of fun and ought to be looked upon as a privilege rather than a task.

MY FATHER AND I

In those days Sabbath mornings
Meant a long, long ride to town,
Something to learn for Sunday School,
Going up the hills and down.
Whenever I say "Our Father . . ."
I better understand,
For the memory of a morning
With Father by the hand . . .
That prayer seemed such a heavy chore
For one small girl; but I
Leaned against Father's shoulder
As the little hills leaned on the sky.
I thought the words more lovely
On the long, long road to town,
Watching the far horizon,
Going up the hills and down . . .
And I think I said it better
And trusted it more, when I
Leaned against Father's shoulder
As the little hills leaned on the sky.

Briggsdale And Brown Road

By Mrs. Harry Downing

Children's Day exercises will be held Sunday morning at 10:30 in the Brown Road Community Church. At 7:30 in the evening, Father's Day will be observed by a special program. Rev. E. C. Anderson is the pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bricker of Marysville were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spanabel and family, 1288 Hartrd, last Friday.

Announcement has been made of the marriage on May 28 of Eva Stewart and Richard M. Hardin. The ceremony was performed in the Third Avenue Methodist Church, with the Rev. Stanley Jeffrey officiating at the double ring service. Mrs. Hardin is the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy C. Stewart, 2042 Eakin-rd and Fred E. Stewart, 1614½ N. High-st. The bride formerly was a pupil in the Briggsdale School and is a graduate of the Ashley High School. Mr. Hardin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dorence Hardin of Marengo and is employed at Nestle's in Sunbury, Ohio.

The Brotherhood of the Brown Road Community Church met on Tuesday evening of last week and elected new officers for the coming year. Charles Larkin was named president; R. C. Watson, treasurer, and Guy Atkinson, secretary.

The Weed Fighters met at the home of Gene Johnson, 1634 Ransburg-av, June 8. Twelve members were present. Gardens were reported to be doing well. Bill Becker and John Spanable will attend Camp Ohio, June 21 to 26. Anyone in the community having old newspapers to donate to the 4-H Club is asked to call Mr. Becker at GA. 5441 and they will be called for. During the social hour Mrs. Johnson served refreshments. John Spanable is the news reporter.

The Missionary Society of the Brown Road Church held a pot luck supper Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Fannin on Jackson-av.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Downing, Mary Lee and Steve 2050 Eakin-rd, spent Sunday with Elmer Smith and family near Washington C. H. Libby Downing underwent a tonsilectomy Tuesday morning.

Enrollment at the Briggsdale Vacation Bible School was 75 at the opening session Monday morning. In addition to the pupils there were 10 teachers and helpers. Rev. J. Arva Shirer is pastor of the church.

Tomorrow evening family night will be observed at the Briggsdale Methodist Church. A pot luck supper will be held at 7:00. A program has been arranged by the Youth Fellowship. Members will be assisted by visiting talent and by the Misses Ethel Hepner and Betty Saltsman, leaders of the Bible School.

Fatal Crash Brings $150,000 Damage Suit

A Common Pleas Court suit for $150,000 was brought against the farmer who owned a blind horse which was struck by an auto in Jackson-pk last Sept. 16. Dwight C. Berror, Jackson-pk, was named defendant in the suit brought against him by three Hilltoppers.

Mrs. Louise H. McComb, 41, died as a result of the accident in which the horse was thrown into the air and fell onto the top of the auto. Her husband, Leo L. McComb, 47, 351 N. Burgess-av, and a son, James Robert McComb, 18, of 176 N. Powell-av, were injured.

Three suits for $50,000 are contained in the case. One was filed by the administratrix of Mrs. McComb's estate in behalf of the surviving six children; a second by the father for himself; and a third by the father for his son.

Boys' Activities At YMCA Started Mon.

The summer membership campaign is in full swing in the boys' department of Central YMCA. Beginning on Monday, some 400 boys will avail themselves of a varied program that includes fun in the gym, in the pool and in the craft shop. Classes are limited in size, allowing each boy to receive maximum attention so that he may develop new skills in swimming, gym activities and making things of wood, plastic, leather and metal in the craft shop—all under expert supervision.

In addition to three regular class periods each week, there will be special hikes and trips to points of interest in the city, to the zoo, and chartered bus trips to caves and mounds near Chillicothe. Opportunity will be given for fathers to share the experiences of their sons in special craft periods, over-night hikes and swims. Each class will have an opportunity to spend an entire day at South "Y" Park for hiking, nature study and fishing.

Further information may be obtained by calling the YMCA, AD. 1131.

THE FATHER

The dawn has come at last; there is so much
To do—so many little things she did—
I must bring in the milk and make the fires;
The children must be bathed and dressed and fed.
They do not know, O Father, give me strength.
To do the little things that cannot wait
For death or hopelessness or nameless fear.

Flatbush Dutch Reformed Church

This church dates back to the year 1654—almost 300 years ago. Its first house of worship was a wooden frame structure, which was in use from 1654 to 1699.

The second church stood for almost 100 years. Its bell sounded the alarm in the Battle of Long Island, when the British were still at some distance from the village. During the battle, the church was pressed into service as a hospital for the wounded. American soldiers who fell in the struggle are buried in the church graveyard.

The third structure was built in the year 1797. Its bell was molded in the foundry at Amsterdam "Seest." It bears the inscription, "John Vanderbilt's gave the bell to the Dutch Church in Flatbush, A.D. 1796."

The last pastor, the 18th, the Rev. J. Frederick Berg, recently resigned. He was said to be a collateral descendant of Peter Stuyvesant's wife, Judith Bayard.

The modern church faces the busiest corner in Flatbush. It is flanked by banks, restaurants, moving picture theatres and commercial enterprises. To obtain a satisfactory photograph of the church, eliminating the business places near its front door, it was necessary to take the picture at the rear of the structure.

Will the commercial life of Flatbush crowd out this old church, rich in the history of our country? What will its future be? Such an institution, a living force since before the Revolutionary War, seems too symbolic of all that has made America great, to allow financial considerations to take away its historic heritage.

Plan Hilltop Lutheran Group Picnic Sunday

The annual congregational picnic of Hilltop Evangelical Lutheran Church will be held Sunday, beginning at 1:30 p. m., in Westgate Park. It is being sponsored by the Sunday School of the church.

A feature of the outing will be a softball game between the Hilltop Lutherans and the team of the Rome Lutheran Church. This will be a regularly scheduled contest in the Lutheran Church League.

Clarence Bird is general chairman of the committee arranging the picnic. Other committee chairmen are Francis Harvey, refreshments; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pfaltzgraf, games for adults; Mrs. Walter Titton and Mrs. William Hallsteine, games for children; and Ben Miller, registration.

A horseshoe pitching contest will launch the day's activities.

Evening vesper services will be conducted by Archie Shaw.

FOR JUNE 20

Bible Story Sheds Light on Today's Prejudice Problem

AN experience some years ago in Providence, R. I., revealed to me how interesting the Bible can be, even for those who are unfamiliar with it.

I was spending a pleasant Sunday afternoon in the University Club library. Over in a far corner of the large room were two young men, and one of them was reading to the other what I recognized as the Book of Esther.

As the one read the tense story, the other one would break in with, "Isn't it great?" I wondered why two red-blooded young men, on a bright Sunday afternoon, were indoors and so much interested suddenly in the Bible. The explanation came as one of them said, "I bought a boat yesterday, called the Vashti, and we were looking up the origin of its name.

The incident reveals the rich quality of that story in the Bible, called the Book of Esther.

The story is eastern and ancient in its setting and in some of its details, but very understandable and modern in the light—or one should say the darkness—of the persecution and destruction of Jewish people in our own time.

Back in the days of King Ahasuerus, a Hitler-like courtier named Haman sought to destroy the Jews by assuring the king that there were in his realm people who were disloyal. He did not name them, but the king gave him authority to destroy them.

Here is where Esther comes in. Queen Vashti had displeased the king by disobeying his demand to display her beauty before his companions. Esther was then chosen to become the king's favorite.

Her own father and mother were dead, and she had been adopted by an uncle who adjured her that she must not admit she was a Jewess or related to him. But now he appealed to Esther to save her people.

Esther risked her life and saved her people. And Haman was hanged.

It's all there in the book. Haman is dead, and Hitler is dead. But the spirit of racial prejudice and hatred lives on, even in our own land. What have Christians today, and do, about it?

TO LECTURE HERE—Ralph E. Baney, world traveler, author, lecturer and missionary from Palestine and the D. P. camps of Europe, will present his timely lecture with sound motion pictures on "The Palestine Crisis," at the Immanuel Baptist Church, 286 Belvidere-av, Wednesday, June 23, at 7:30 p. m.

The speaker has just recently returned from Palestine and Europe and is now on a brief lecture tour before returning to resume his work in Palestine. Mr. Baney, author of "Behind the Scenes in Nazi Germany" and editor of "The Palestine Pictorial News", is well known throughout the state from his lectures in many of the leading churches and his crusade for Christian work in Palestine.

Church Of God To Conduct Outdoor School

The Hilltop Church of God will provide summertime activities at the new church building site on Whitethorne-av between Safford and Homewood-ave. The church plans to promote a community pattern program geared to serve the needs of the community. A shelter house is being erected this week to serve the needs of all age groups in the church and community.

Beginning Monday, June 21, and closing July 16, a four weeks vacation Church School will be conducted on the lots for children ages 4 through 12. The school will be held Monday through Friday, 9:30 to 11:30 a. m. Afternoon activities will include supervised recreation for the children of the community. A creative recreation program will take the place of much of the traditional recreation. After the vacation church school ends, supervised activities are planned for the boys and girls the morning.

Delena Goodman of Decatur, Ill., has been secured as the full time paid supervisor of the summertime activities. Miss Goodman has served as director of Christian education at the Decatur, Ill., Church of God and also served as president of the Illinois Youth Fellowship. She received her master's degree in religious education this month from Oberlin College. She is qualified as a worker with children and youth.

Families or groups in the community who wish to use the shelter house in the evenings should clear the date through the pastor, Rev. Denver H. Smoot. RA. 6184.

Prince, if living, the unknown heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors and assigns of Richard B. Prince and the unknown spouses of unknown heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors and assigns of Richard B. Prince, all whose addresses are unknown to plaintiff and cannot with reasonable diligence be ascertained are hereby notified that on May 12, 1948, Grace Patterson filed a petition in the above entitled cause against them as defendants alleging that she is the owner in fee simple and in possession of the following described real estate, situated in the County of Franklin, in the State of Ohio, and in the City of Columbus, bounded and described as follows:

Being the westerly portion of Lot No. Thirty-five (35) of the Hill Crest Park Addition, to the City of Columbus, Ohio as the same is numbered and delineated in Plat Book 12, page 34, Recorder's Office Franklin County, Ohio, the eastern boundary of said westerly portion of said Lot No. 35 being a straight line joining a point in north boundary of said lot and located 113.65 feet east of the northwest corner of said lot and located 115 feet east of the southwest corner of said Lot No. 35. Together with an easement on the easterly portion of said Lot No. 35 above described, an said easement is set out in Deed Book 813, page 168, Recorder's Office Franklin County, Ohio, the plaintiff was conveyed title to said real estate by deed from Mildred I. Wren, that defendants may claim an interest therein adverse to the plaintiff, the nature of which is unknown to the plaintiff, and the plaintiff asks that they be compelled to declare the same or be forever barred.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays that an alleged claim or claims of defendants in and to said premises be adjudged null and void; that the plaintiff's title be quieted against the same, and for such other relief as is proper.

Said defendants are further notified that they are required to answer said petition on or before July 17, 1948, or judgment may be rendered as prayed for therein.

Hilltop "Y" To Have Open House Saturday

After several weeks of work and a lot of sweat as well as an expenditure of considerable money the Hilltop "Y" headquarters at Burgess and Broad in the old Weber home will be open to the public at an "open house" party Saturday night.

This is an example of doing the best with what you have. It would cost a small fortune to put the building up in tip top shape for use over a period of many years. However, the committee has spent only to do the things they felt were most needed at this time and in any event the building is clean. It now provides a nice meeting place for youngsters and for various organizations of the community.

It is hoped that parents of The Hilltop will avail themselves of the opportunity to visit the "Y" headquarters Saturday night and that youngsters too will be on hand to participate in a program that the "Y" secretary is planning for that evening.

Work Is Started On Kirwin Building Damaged By Fire

Work was started yesterday on rebuilding damaged areas of Kirwin's Grill and six apartments on the second floor at 2447 W. Broad-st, badly damaged when a three-alarm fire swept the building on June 4.

Three firemen were hurt battling the blaze that badly damaged the apartments and the night club-restaurant below.

Frank M. Kirwin, operator of the grill, said that plans were being made to re-open as soon as needed repairs can be made and new equipment installed.

Radio Entertainers Feature Of Hilltop Bean Dinner

The Buckeye Jamboree, a group of widely-known radio entertainers featuring Uncle Homer Meachum, will be the top entertainment feature of the Fifth Annual Hilltop Bean Dinner to be held at Westgate Park on July 28.

The NBC artists are heard from the Barn at Moxahala Park near Zanesville every Saturday night over Station WHIZ. They will appear for afternoon and evening performances and then take charge of the dance in the shelter house.

Featured with the troupe are Aunt Blanche and Little Buford, comedians; Slim Pinkerman, violinist; Joan O'Hara, songstress, and Lucky Joy, accordianist.

Meanwhile Joe Briggs, general chairman of the affair, reports that there will be two major rides for young people and adults, two kiddie rides and six ponies for the children plus games and contests galore.

John Davis will serve as auctioneer at the two scrip auctions to be held afternoon and evening. At that time holders of scrip money given by many Hilltop Business Association merchants will be eligible to bid on prizes that will total more than $1,000 in value. Only the scrip can be used in payment for the merchandise. (A list of the firms issuing the scrip may be seen on Page 1B of today's Hilltop Record.)

Special committees for various phases of the big Hilltop picnic were also announced this week as follows:

Grounds—E. O. Melvin and L. E. Saunders.

Concessions—John Davis and Harold Greene.

Ponies—Bill Coon.

Pop stand—Jack Shank.

Hot dog stand—Dr. E. E. McNamee.

Ice cream stand—Bob Henry.

Greased pole—Charles Kent.

Dance—Tom Lewis and John Hippert.

Scrip section — John Davis, Jack Merriman and Gus Johnson.

First aid — Dr. Palmer L. Cordray.

Ambulance—Noble L. Allen.

There will be dancing in the shelter house from 9 to 12 o'clock midnight.

Survivors Of Local Tragedy Will Marry

Two survivors of an auto crash that resulted in the drownings of three of their West High School classmates on June 4 announced their engagement this week.

Keitha Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Thompson, 38 N. James-rd, and James R. Elleman, 20, brother of one of the drowning victims, announced their engagement this week.

Elleman is the brother of Sue Elleman, 17, one of the victims of the tragedy that followed an all-night celebration after the senior banquet and prom. Others who drowned when the car in which they were riding crashed into a guard rail and then plunged into the waters of the Scioto River two miles north of the Columbus Zoo were Rose Lombard, 17, of 235 S. Hague-av, and Gordon Welker, 17, of 123 N. Burgess-av. James Rose, driver of the car, was one of the three who escaped.

Miss Thompson's parents said the young couple would be married next June. She is now a freshman in the College of Commerce at Ohio State University. Mr. Elleman, who is 20, lives at 2213 W. Broad-st.

Roland Karshner, 17, of 826 S. Terrace-av, was treated at Mt. Carmel Hospital Saturday when a truck struck the rear of a car in which he was a passenger. He was treated for knee injuries and bruises.

Adult Swim Class May Be Formed

Mom and Pop, if you don't know how to swim and are interested in learning, now is your opportunity.

Jim Seagle, who has been teaching the kids the know how of the aquatic sport, is ready to organize classes for the adults too, if there is sufficient interest shown. Persons interested are asked to report to the pool at 10 a. m. today or Saturday. Classes will be conducted at that hour on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday if there are enough people to warrant holding the class.

More than 100 children are now enrolled in the classes held each Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings, Seagle reported.

Mibs Tourney Is First YMCA Undertaking

The first official project of the new Hilltop YMCA got under way yesterday with the start of a tournament to establish the marble champ of the community.

Averille Thorn, secretary of the local "Y", said two full weeks at Camp Wilson with all expenses paid, will go to the boy who is crowned the champ. Winners of the various playground eliminations will also get prizes.

The first elimination was to have been held at Westgate Park yesterday afternoon. This afternoon the tourneys will be held at John Burroughs at 1 p. m. at Glenwood at 3 o'clock. Friday they will be held at Columbian Avenue playground at 1 p. m. and at Holton at 3 p. m. The last one will be held at West Broad playground Monday at 1:30 p. m.

All boys 9 to 12 years of age are invited to the competition.

Open house will be held Saturday evening at the YMCA headquarters in the Teen Club building at Burgess and Broad-st between the hours of 7 and 10:30.

The entire community is invited to drop in for a visit. There will be ping-pong, pool, refreshments and music for dancing for the younger set. Adults are particularly invited, Thorn said.

Two-day Festival Is Planned By Sullivant Gardens

A two-day summer festival is to be put on at the playground located at 590 Van Buren-dr by the Sullivant Gardens Residents' Council. It will be held Friday and Saturday nights, June 25 and 26. All proceeds will be used to purchase needed recreation equipment for the playground.

There will be games, contests, refreshments and dancing on the park plan to Roy Grossman's orchestra. Tennis courts are needed, along with other recreational facilities for the approximately 1,000 children under 16 years of age who live in the Sullivant Gardens development.

The Boys' Athletic Club and Cub Pack 88 will also benefit from proceeds of the festival. The public is invited.

Gibbon Vice Chairman Of Progressive Party

William R. Gibbon, 124 Southampton-av, has been named vice chairman of the Progressive Party of Ohio, it was announced Monday following a meeting in Cleveland. Gibbon is chairman of the Franklin County Wallace-for-President group. The party elected Mrs. Frances Dunn of Columbus, secretary.

HEADLINER FOR BEAN DINNER — Featured entertainment attraction for the Hilltop Bean Dinner to be held at Westgate Park July 28 is Uncle Homer Meechum and his Buckeye Jamboree. The group will be heard during the afternoon and evening.

How Do You Like Your Beans?

Some like 'em hot. Some like 'em cold. Some like 'em in the pot, nine days old." Beans, that is.

The editor of The Hilltop Record is interested in compiling a series of recipes of the various ways of preparing baked beans. The more (recipes) the merrier.

Baked beans will be the center of attraction at the Hilltop Bean Dinner to be held in Westgate Park on July 28.

So send in those recipes right away. Address them to The Hilltop Record, 2465 W. Broad-st.

School Improvements Being Sought By West Mound PTA Committee

Ground work on a four-phase program of improvements for the West Mound Street School area has been started by a special committee, created in May by the school PTA.

The group, to be known as the West Mound Improvement Committee, is headed by Paul Langdon, 545 Nashoba-av.

Included in the program of school betterment are the following:

(1) A traffic light in Mound-st near the school.

(2) Sidewalks along Mound-st so that children will not have to walk in the road.

(3) Cut through alley ways north of Mound-st so that children can walk there instead of on Mound-st.

(4) Better building facilities with more teachers to handle the rapidly-growing school population.

Serving with Langdon on the committee are Mrs. Robert Weygandt, 649 Columbian-av; Mrs. Charles Bachman, 572 Woodbury-av; Mrs. Maderia Crispin, 655 Hilltonia-av; Mrs. Arthur Robinson, 470 Hilltonia-av; Victor Fippin, 511 Wrexham-av; Harold Howe, 592 Columbian-av; Harold Beard, 635 Woodbury-av, and John Hyer, 604 Columbian-av.

Mrs. Harold Beard is president of the PTA.

Steps are being taken to get some sort of additional building space in view of the rapidly increasing school population. A recent survey conducted by the PTA and the school reveals that if all the children in the area now attending Mound and other public schools were to report for classes at Mound, there would be approximately 230 on hand. Approximately 100 were enrolled at the close of school this month. About 40 kindergarten pupils are expected to report in the fall when the public kindergarten program is launched in the city's grade schools.

Shows Rapid Growth

The school survey further reveals that in the area bounded by Central-av, Mound-st, Wayne-av and Sullivant-av, approximately 300 homes have been added within the past two years. During the past year, 120 have been completed with 40 more now under construction and 80 additional to go in soon.

In a special report submitted to Supt. George Roudebush, it was shown that 13 classes are now being taught by three teachers assigned there. This has thrown a considerable load on the teaching personnel, the committee points out.

The committee asks that immediate steps be taken to erect another portable school building for use in September. It asks also that plans be made for the erection of a permanent school building on an equal basis with other school districts.

Mr. Roudebusch said that the plan was being studied but that he could make no statement on the matter at the present time.

Consolation Prizes Offered In Contest

After awarding a total of 30 quarts of Fairmont's milk to the grand prize winners of The Hilltop Record-J. Curtis Allen Photo Contest, Bob Henery at the Superior Drug Store, Whitethorne-av and W. Broad-st, announced this week that 30 more quarts of milk would be divided by the runners-up in each of the two classes.

This consolation prize will be divided between Dawn LaValley, 323 Lechner-av, second in the baby class, and Sunya Graham, 822 Wiltshire-rd, second in the child class.

Mrs. J. Curtis Allen announced this week that the color enlargements of the weekly prize winners will be ready around July 1. They are being cleaned up before being awarded since they were on display for several weeks in the window at Seiller's, 2404 W. Broad-st. The two large oil portraits of the grand prize winners are still on display.

Woman Hurt In Fall

Carolyn Reffit, 75, of London O., was taken to Mt. Carmel Hospital suffering from a laceration of the right leg Monday. She fell in the 100-block of N. Wheatland av when the heel of her shoe caught in the hem of her dress.

Rev. Harold Osterman of Capital University will preach at both services Sunday at the Hilltop Evangelical Lutheran Church, Terrace-av and W. Broad-st.

He will take the place of the regular pastor, Rev. Russell Olson, who will undergo a tonsilectomy today.

27 West Senior Students Have All A Work

The June honor roll at West Senior High School contains the names of 27 students with all A work for the final grading period. Irvin F. Young, principal of the school, released the following names of students with all A or B averages last week.

Names followed by an asterisk (*) were those students with straight-A work.

Unprecedented Activity Seen In Program Of Recreation On Hilltop This Season

Six Supervised Play Centers Are Open Here

Formal opening of three more public playgrounds Monday afternoon brought to six the number of supervised play centers now in operation on the Hilltop.

Openings at all of the play centers were arranged by a special committee of the Hilltop Community Council headed by Mrs. R. W. Hastilow, 197 Midland-av. Prizes for the games and contests were made available by the Hilltop Business Association.

Playgrounds opened Monday included the new Columbian-av center, operated by the City Recreation Department, and John Burroughs and West Broad Street School grounds, under the supervision of the Columbus Board of Education.

Last Monday the play centers at Holton, Westgate and Glenwood Parks were opened for supervised play.

3 Hilltoppers Are Named To Traffic Group

Three Hilltoppers have been named to the new Traffic and Transportation Committee. City Council Monday night approved Mayor James A. Rhodes' selection of the nine persons to serve on the newly created committee.

Named from the Hilltop were E. O. Melvin, 107 S. Warren-av, D. K. Finley, 733 S. Hague-av, and Mrs. Ray Cave, 2936 Olive-st.

Melvin, who was named to a four-year term, is a member of the previous Traffic Commission. Finley, is safety chairman of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce. His appointment was for two years. Mrs. Cave received a one-year appointment.

The new nine-man committee was set up following action of City Council on May 17. It replaces the former Traffic Commission and the Transportation Committee.

Others named to the traffic group included Allen Gundersheimer, 42 Park-dr, Harold G. Eckhardt, 1988 Summit-st, Norwood J. Engle, 27 E. Deshler-av, Neil Rush, 1182 - 20th-av, and Leslie M. Shaw, 1022 E. Rich-st.

Bethlehem Church To Dedicate Organ

The dedication of the organ at Bethlehem Lutheran Church, S. Harris-av at Vida-pl, will take place at the regular church service Sunday, June 27. Rev. E. J. Klamfoth will be in charge of the service. Arleen Vogel will be the organist at the morning service.

At 8 p. m. a special organ recital will be given by guest organist Charles Everly, organist at First Baptist Church.

The plate offering at both services will go toward the organ.

The Baldwin electric organ will be the first one installed in this area.

Park Supervisors Are Announced

The complete list of supervisors for the six Hilltop play centers this summer is as follows:

Westgate Park—Mack Pemberton, Don Rumley and Mrs. Edwards (Forman Slager and his son, Jim, are in charge of the lighted tennis courts there.)

Holton—Chuck Westenberger and Irene Luckshaw.

Glenwood—Dick Koontz and Miss Betty Rush.

Columbian Avenue — Clarence Baker.

John Burroughs — Jack De Pietro and Mrs. Michael Knilans.

West Broad Street — W. P. Bunner.

Two Streets To Be Paved

Portions of two West Side streets on State Route 62 and U. S. 40 will soon have that "new look" after a hard winter of traffic.

Spots of both Central-av, Route 62, and W. Broad-st, Route 40, will be subject to a resurfaced asphaltic concrete treatment by the State Highway Department following bids awarded Tuesday, June 22, Robert Werner, 187 N. Harris-av, division engineer, said this week.

Date set for completion of both projects is Oct. 31. The contracts were let to the A. W. Burns Company for $23,732.

Two sections on Route 62 will be improved: (1) from Mound-st to Sullivant-av on Central-av; (2) Town-st to W. Broad-st. Both cover a stretch of more than a half mile at an estimated cost of $13,900.

Historic Route 40, more commonly known as the National Road, will likewise be resurfaced from Letchworth-av on the Hilltop for a distance of 1200 feet to the west corporation line, at an approximate figure of $9,100.

The cost of the two projects is financed, share and share alike, by both the City of Columbus and the State Highway Department.

Construction of a new concrete island is also included in the contract.

Two-lane traffic will be maintained on both roads at all times, Werner said.

Local Lodge Man To Head Masons

Another Hilltopper was elected to high office in Masonry last week. He is R. F. Robinson, 377 S. Warren-av, named high priest of Ohio Chapter, No. 12, RAM, at the Masonic Temple, 34 N. Fourth-st.

A few days ago Albert B. Torr, 936 S. Hague-av, was elected high priest at the West Gate Chapter, and Edgar L. Ott, 3245 Parkside-dr, was elevated to similiar office of Community Chapter, No. 227.

Extensive Repairs Are Under Way

An unprecedented hum of activity was in evidence at four of the city's Hilltop play centers as the summer season got under way last week. Three of the city playgrounds were opened on June 14 while the Columbian-av Playground and John Burroughs and West Broad Street School grounds were officially opened on Monday of this week.

The activity was unprecedented in two respects—the number of children and adults taking advantage of improved recreation facilities and the physical improvements to the play centers themselves.

Much in evidence was work on five new tennis courts, erection of new swings, slide boards, teeter boards, etc., a new wading pool, roof and other property repairs and the almost complete renovation of the Glenwood Shelter House.

Glenwood and Holton Parks seemed to be getting the most noticeable overhauls. The Columbian play center is entirely new this year and is still much in the developing stage.

At Holton Park three new black top tennis courts are in the process of being completed and should be ready for play very soon. New swings have been installed, a new slide and other playground equipment have been added and the roof of the shelter house replaced.

Glenwood Park is undergoing the greatest changes of all. There workmen are remodeling the permanent shelter house. The front is being remodeled to add space to the assembly hall, new shower and toilet facilities will be added and the entire building painted and put in top condition, N. J. Barack, director of recreation, said this week. He expects the building to be completely overhauled and ready for use by late September.

Outside the grounds have been extensively improved. A new rectangular wading pool has been getting more than its share of attention from the youngsters. Two new tennis courts are in the process of construction and it is understood, a softball diamond is to be added later. Barack explained that the wooded area at the foot of the hill on W. Broad-st would be developed, possibly not before 1949. Improvements there would include picnic facilities, a softball diamond for amateur use, horseshoe courts and other park facilities.

Columbian-av Playground thus far has teeters, a slide and swings. Some work has been done toward creating a softball diamond there but additional grading will be required before it can be used. This portion of a five-acre tract owned by the city is being used for the first time this year for recreational purposes.

The biggest single improvement to Westgate Park has been the installation of lights on the six enclosed tennis courts. The addition of lights has brought out hundreds of players who sometimes have to wait their turn to get on the courts after dark. Jim Slager has the courts in top condition and a new high in interest in this sport is expected as the summer progresses.

All of the park areas are eventually to have improved toilet and drinking water facilities.

Barack has promised that a more complete job of grading will be done in preparation for the softball diamond at the Columbian Avenue center. Weeds and shrubs are to be cut and a drinking fountain will be installed shortly.

It is expected that by next year a shelter house can be erected, providing for an office, storage space and indoor toilets. An open area-way will provide shelter for picnics and other gatherings.

Playground Openings

At West Broad Street playground W. P. Bunner, 336 S. Huron-av, the supervisor, was assisted during the opening ceremonies by Mrs. Earl Abram, 100 N. Huron-av, Mrs. P. M. Walton, 63 N. Terrace-av, Mrs. P. M. Rausch, 3002 Olive-st, and K. W. Sheradin, 105 S. Brinker-av.

Boy Scout Jack Galloway, 191 Haldy-av, carried the flag and

World War Chaplain Recalled

Rev. J. Herbert Goewey, Hillcrest Pastor To Report For Active Duty

Rev. Goewey

A leader in the religious and civic life of the Hilltop during the past two years has been ordered back into uniform in one of the first phases of the expanded military program growing out of universal military service.

He is Rev. J. Herbert Goewey, pastor of Hillcrest Baptist Church for two years and recently elected president of the Hilltop Ministerial Association. Rev. Goewey, a chaplain in World War II and a veteran also of World War I, will report to Ft. Benning, Ga., next Monday. He received orders to return to extended active duty as a chaplain with the 750th Heavy Tank Battalion only last Saturday. He was on a reserve status.

Rev. Goewey will preach his farewell sermon Sunday morning. Mrs. Goewey and their daughter, Janet, will remain at the new parsonage, recently completed at 144 S. Sylvan-av, until living accommodations are secured at the military base.

A farewell party is being held at the Hillcrest Baptist Church Friday night at 8 o'clock. All Hilltop pastors and members of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club are invited to attend.

Chaplain Goewey assumed the pastorate of the local church upon release from active duty in 1946. During the recent war he served as regimental chaplain of the 368th Engineer Regiment, seeing service in France, Belgium, Holland and Germany. He holds the rank of captain.

His past activities have included service as religious director of Navy YMCA, Brooklyn, N. Y.; associate executive secretary of Army and Navy YMCA, Cristobal, Panama Canal Zone; executive secretary, Army YMCA, Fort Totten, N. Y.; pastor of Temple Community Baptist Church, Merchantville, N. J. He was also pastor of First Baptist Church, St. Albans, Va., for nine years, and the First Baptist Church, Richwood, Ohio, for four years, prior to entering the chaplaincy in 1943.

He has taken an active part in the work of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club and serves on several committees of the Ohio Baptist Convention. During his pastorate at Hillcrest the world outreach program has been expanded; the total giving to current expense and missions has increased; extensive repairs to the interior of the church have been completed and a modern parsonage at the Sylvan-av address completed at a cost of $30,000.

Mariwyn Distelhorst Is Married In Rome Church Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. David E. Haueisen

As the light of late afternoon mingled with soft candlelight and filtered through the blossoms and greenery which decorated the chancel of St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Rome, the wedding party of Miss Mariwyn Distelhorst and David E. Haueisen, approached the altar for the 4:30 o'clock ceremony on Sunday, May 30.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Distelhorst, of 4601 W. Broad-st, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin V. Haueisen of Hilliards. The Rev. Arthur Rismiller, pastor of the church officiated.

Beautifully attired in a gown of slipper satin, the bride was escorted to the altar by her father. The bridal dress was fashioned with an off-shoulder effect, a sheer yoke appliqued with motifs of satin, a closely fitted bodice and a very full skirt ending in a cathedral train. The long sleeves ended in points over her hands and her train length veil which cascaded in two tiers was lavishly trimmed with chantilly lace, while her beaded tiara was enhanced with lace taken from her mother's wedding gown. The bride's only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom, and she carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a purple throated orchid.

Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. John R. Swinehart who wore a gown of jonquil yellow, also styled with an off shoulder effect, sheer yoke and a soft shirred bertha which formed tiny cap sleeves. The close fitting basque bodice was fastened with tiny covered buttons and the bustle back bouffant skirt cascaded over an old fashioned hoop. Miss Ann Snodgrass of Groveport, and Miss Joan Krause of Columbus were bridesmaids and wore identical gowns to that of the matron of honor, in orchid and lime green. All wore matching tiaras and long mits ending in points over the hands and single strands of pearls which were gifts from the bride. Their flowers were orchid gladioli and yellow roses and were tied with matching ribbons.

Little Miss Deborah Draper was flower girl in a jonquil yellow taffeta bouffant gown fashioned similar to those of the other attendants. A contrasting ribbon trim fell in long streamers to the bottom of her skirt and she carried a basket of rose petals. In her blonde curls she wore a garland of yellow sweet peas and her jewelry was a tiny gold bracelet, gift of the bride.

Mr. Max Dodds of Lima was best man and ushers were Mr. John R. Swinehart and Mr. Herbert Poenisch, both of Columbus.

At the reception, held on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents and which was attended by 300 guests, Mrs. Distelhorst greeted her guests in a dressmaker suit of soft rose with which she wore contrasting accessories and a corsage of pink rose buds and white carnations. The bridegroom's mother chose a dressmaker suit of aqua blue, accentuated with brown accessories and a corsage of talisman roses and white carnations.

Following the reception the bride changed to a suit of black faille with which she wore a matching hat and the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet.

When the young couple return from their honeymoon to the east, they will be at home to their friends at 4601 W. Broad-st st, Apt. 2.

The bride is a teacher in the Worthington High School and the groom is a senior at Capital University.

Golden Wedding Is Celebrated Here

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Lorain H. Conner, 692 S. Wayne-av, was celebrated Wednesday, June 16, at their home with open house and a family dinner.

Married at Newark, Ohio, they lived for 17 years in Elmwood, Ill., and then moved to Columbus 25 years ago. Mr. Connor, now retired, worked for the Columbus Bolt Works for 18 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Conner have five sons, one daughter, 19 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

This will be the last meeting of the club until September.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis Attend Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Davis, 981 Sullivant-av, left Saturday for Atlantic City to attend the National Retail Grocers' Convention held there June 20-24.

They will be guests of the Ambassador Hotel. Before returning home July 2 they will visit New York, Boston, and the Cape Cod country.

Mary Ann Boyd And Ray McVay, Jr., Were Married On June 15

St. John's Evangelical Protestant Church, 59 E. Mound-st, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Mary Ann Boyd, who is the daughter of Mrs. Mary G. Boyd and the late Mr. Clifford Boyd of 211 N. Hague-av, and Mr. Ray F. McVay, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray F. McVay, 165 S. Roys-av, on June 15, at 8:30 p. m. with Rev. Arnold E. Klick performing the double ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with palms and candelabra and baskets of beautiful white gladiolas and lilies.

The ceremony was preceded by a half hour of organ music played by Mr. Kenneth Williams. The solos were sung by Mrs. Harold Dutt.

The bride was escorted down a candlelit aisle on the arm of her uncle, Mr. E. H. Howard. Her gown was of white slipper satin with lace sleeves and shoulders, and the traditional train. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion edged with chantilly lace was held in place by a tiara of orange blossoms. Both the veil and the dress were made by the bride and her aunt, Mrs. Alma Thompson. The bride carried her Eastern Star Bible topped with two white orchids.

The matron of honor was Mrs. John C. Wolfe, the sister of the groom. Her dress was of green ninon with yellow trim in the back of the skirt and a short flounce of the green and yellow giving a small bustle effect to the dress. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow and talisman roses and wore flowers to match in her hair.

The bridesmaids were Miss Virginia Boyd, sister of the bride, and Miss Alice McAfee of Cincinnati. Both wore identically made dresses to that of the matron of honor; the colors were rose with blue trim, and blue with rose trim. Their flowers were colonial bouquets of pink rosebuds and also pink roses in their hair. The flower girl was Carol Ann Williams. She wore yellow taffeta trimmed with blue and her flowers were a yellow and blue colonial bouquet.

The best man was Mr. Don C. McVay, brother of the groom. The guests were seated by Mr. John C. Wolfe, brother-in-law of the groom, Mr. Jack H. Beard, and Mr. Raymond K. Bell.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride and groom, 208 N. Powell-av, for 175 people. The bride's mother received the guests in a dress of rose crepe, with white accessories and she wore an orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a black summer crepe dress with flesh-backed lace inserts and white accessories with a corsage of pink rosebuds. Hostesses for the reception were Miss Esther Knisley and Miss Anne Critchell of Terrace Park, Ohio, and Miss Martha Graves.

For traveling the bride changed to a two piece suit of powder blue with white accessories. They plan to journey to Cleveland, New York, Canada and Detroit on a two week honeymoon after which they will be at home at 208 N. Powell-av.

The newly married couple chose the date of June 15th because it was the 32nd wedding anniversary of the groom's parents.

Pre-nuptial showers were given by Mrs. Edna Howard, and Mrs. Alice McVay.

A spinster dinner was given on Sunday, June 13, by Mrs. John C. Wolfe at her home, 120 Haldy-av, for 14 guests.

Lucy Lepore Will Marry Mr. Cordetti

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lepore, 3485 Trabue-rd, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lucy M., to Nick Cordetti, son of Mrs. Anna Kelly, 3665 Trabue-rd.

The bride-elect is a graduate of West High School.

A graduate of Hilliard High School, Mr. Cordetti is associated with Fisher Body Ternstedt Division.

The wedding will be an event of early fall.

MARRIED ON APRIL 3 — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shrum, married here on April 3, are now at home at 94 N. Haldy-av.

At a lovely candlelight service on April 3, Miss Joyce Strawser and Mr. Robert Shrum were united in marriage at 94 N. Haldy-av, at 7:30 o'clock by Rev. Joseph Shellhaas, pastor of Glenwood Methodist Church.

Given in marriage by A. M. Nicklaus, the bride chose for her wedding a gown of white silk crepe with a lace yoke, also an insert of lace at the waistline. A full length veil was held in place by a head band of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds.

Miss Dolores Shrum, sister of the bridegroom served as bridesmaid, and carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations. Lynn Gill and Patty Kilian, nieces of the bride were flower girls and carried mixed bouquets of roses, daisies and snapdragons.

Mr. Paul Parks, Jr., was best man and seating the guests was Charles Strawser, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Nicklaus wore an aqua crepe dress with a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Shrum also wore an aque crepe dress with a corsage of yellow carnations.

A reception was held for relatives and close friends attending the wedding.

After a wedding trip to New York, the couple are making their home at 94 N. Haldy-av.

Mardi Club Plans For Dinner Party

When the Mardi Club met for its last meeting of the season, Mrs. Charles O'Connor was hostess in her home at 953 Franklin-av. Dues were collected and plans formulated for the club's annual dinner party, to be held this year on August 17.

In the bridge game which followed, Mrs. Harrold Walter won first prize, Mrs. Orain Menz, second, Mrs. John Kelley, third, and Mrs. Lee Henne, consolation.

Present were Mesdames Otto Lausa, Clyde Floyd, John Kelley, Harrold Walter, Lee Henne, William Populin, one guest, Mrs. Orain Menz, and the hostess. Mrs. Emmett Arnold was absent.

Pfc. Tresenrider First Veteran To Be Buried In New Green Lawn Plot

Pfc. Tresenrider

Exactly four years to a day after he was killed in action in New Guinea, Pfc. Robert M. (Dick) Tresenrider will be buried on the Hilltop. His will be the first grave in a new veterans' burial plot dedicated Sunday in Green Lawn Cemetery.

Funeral services for the World War II veteran will be held in the Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Church at 1:30 p. m. Sunday. Rev. Harold Dutt, pastor of the church, will officiate.

The body of the former West High School graduate was returned to the Hilltop this week. Friends may call at the Spears Funeral Home starting this evening.

He is survived by a son, Michael, 4, and his wife, now Mrs. Mariam Tresenrider Curtiss of Dayton; his mother, Mrs. Frances Tresenrider, 97 N. Powell-av, and two brothers, Paul R. and Louis A. Tresenrider, both of Columbus. Both brothers also served in the armed forces.

Pfc. Tresenrider had been in service 23 months and had been overseas since September, 1943. Following his graduation from West in 1837, he had been employed as a sub-station manager in the circulation department of the Columbus Dispatch.

Softball Leagues Are Organized Here

Why Diogenes Quit

He met an ex-soldier who confessed he had only been a private. He met a politician who admitted he had made a mistake.

He met a defeated political candidate who did not blame his defeat on the perfidy, and trickery of the other party.

He met a man who had been fishing and said he hadn't even got a bite.

He met a husband and wife both of whom said they had been wrong at the end of an argument.

He met an editor who did not blame the printer or proofreader for a mistake in his paper.

Having met all these honest people, Diogenes blew out his lantern and went home, being so old by this time that he could hardly walk.

MARRIED ON MAY 29—Mary Louise Miller, 310 S. Warren-av, exchanged wedding vows with Montague Spratley Jr., 426 Reinhard-av.

Mr. and Mrs. David H. Miller, 310 S. Warren-av, are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Mary Louise, to Montague Spratley, Jr., 426 Reinhard-av.

The wedding took place at 6:30 p. m. May 29, in the Hilltonia U. B. Church, with the Rev. Roscoe Perr officiating. Mrs. William F. Brush served as matron of honor and William Carpenter, nephew of the bridegroom, was best man. William F. Brush ushered the wedding guests.

The bride was graduated from West High School and Ohio State University. Mr. Spratley, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Montague Spratley, Sr., of Buckeye Lake, graduated from North High School and served three years with the Marine Corps.

Model Autos To Be Judged Soon

Judging of model automobiles built by Ohio youths and entered in the 1948 competition of the Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild will begin July 8, it was announced this week by W. S. McLean, Guild secretary.

Ohio youths who have built model cars in this year's $65,000 competition are being instructed to send them to Detroit for judging. There, judges will pick seven winners in the senior and the junior divisions to receive state awards, the top award in each division being $150. First award winners in both divisions then will compete with winners from Michigan for regional honors. The two regional winners from the Michigan-Ohio area will receive expense free trips to the Guild's annual convention in Detroit in August.

At the national convention eight winners will be selected to receive university scholarships.

McLean said indications are that the number of models to be submitted in this year's competition will be the largest in the Guild's 18-year history.

Navy Has 5,000 Reservist Openings

The navy announced this week that 5,000 vacant billets in ships and shore stations of the regular navy have been made available to naval reservists of certain rates who wish to return to active duty for one year, according to Lieutenant Richard M. Allison, USNR.

Enlisted male reservists may volunteer for active duty for one year, with an option of remaining on active duty an additional year, provided funds permit.

PLAYS AT WESTMONT—A story of the colorful era when railroads first pushed across the wild lands of the Texas cattle kings is "Duel in the Sun," technicolor movie, opening Sunday, June 27, at the Westmont Theatre. It will be shown at the Westmont for four days with "Climbing the Matterhorn," Academy Award-winning featurette, filmed in color, as added attraction.

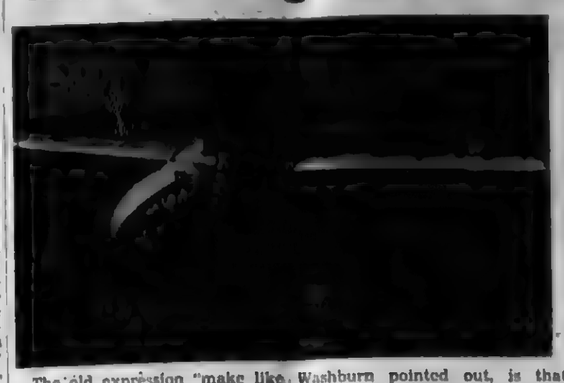
Glenwood

Approximately 300 youngsters have been reporting for play daily at Glenwood Park since its official opening.

Dick Koontz, one of the supervisors there, reports that dances are being held in the shelter house every Thursday night from 8 to 10 p. m. A record player is used to provide the dance music.

Miss Betty Rush is back in the capacity of a supervisor for the second year. N. J. Barack, recreation director, said that if attendance keeps up at the present rate a third supervisor will be added to the park staff.



Method In His Madness

Meezy Moots, down in our village, is an inveterate fisherman — although he seldom catches anything. In fact, it has been whispered about that Meezy really hates fish.

The other evening a neighbor passing Meezy's little cottage called out: "Hear-tell you went fishing today, Meezy. Have any luck?"

Meezy laughed. "I shore did," he replied. "Three bill collectors called while I was away."

Art of Soaring Attracts Many Local Flyers

The old expression "make like a bird" might well be the goal of 14 members who comprise the Columbus Soaring Association, Inc., a group with headquarters at a Jones Flying Service out at the Sullivant Avenue Airport.

Sailing silently through the sky without the benefit of power unit is the technique of the soaring or gliding enthusiasts, said to be increasing steadily in numbers throughout the country.

Soaring (or gliding) has two distinct advantages, members will point out. First there is a real thrill in being able to climb up into the air for thousands of feet, silently without the noise of an engine, and continue in flight for hours. It is the nearest thing to the natural flight of the bird. In the second place it is inexpensive. Hours of enjoyment may be had for only a few cents cost as compared to operational and maintenance costs of regular airplanes.

Incorporated on May 5, 1948, the Columbus Soaring Association is one of two or three organized clubs in Ohio although there are several groups that engage in the sport at various air centers.

Lee Washburn, 244 Eldon-av, is president of the local soaring group. Other officers are Sophia Peters, secretary, and Dal Shady, treasurer. The club recently purchased a Schweitzer Model 119 glider from Jones Flying Service. It is a single-place job although much larger gliders are on the market and in use today. Members pay a fee of $35 and then have use of the glider for 25c per flight for as long as they desire. Club rooms are maintained at the Sullivant Avenue Airport and meetings are held the first Thursday of each month.

Holds Silver C

Paul Souders, service manager at Jones Flying Service, and a licensed instructor in soaring, stayed in the air six hours and 12 minutes. He also took a glider up to an altitude of 7,000 feet over the city. He is holder of the Silver C pin and diploma for having met requirements of the Federation Aeronautique Internationale. This has been issued to only a few glider pilots in the country through the Soaring Society of America. Among the requirements are a flight of 32 miles distance; an altitude of 3,280 feet and a duration flight of five hours.

Washburn pointed out that any one of the three requirements calls for considerable skill in flying technique plus a good understanding of how to ride the thermals.

Thermals is a term applied to rising heat waves radiated from the earth's surface that glider pilots ride to get altitude. Once considerable altitude has been gained by this means, soaring can continue indefinitely from one cumulus cloud to another.

A common misconception, Washburn pointed out, is that many people believe that soaring can be done only in hilly or mountainous country. Souders made all of his records flying from the Columbus area. Washburn himself has flown to Chillicothe and back on one occasion and is looking forward to meeting other requirements to gain the Silver C award at some future time. Other local flights have been made over Dayton, Newark and other cities.

Hot sultry days when there are cumulus clouds overhead make ideal days for soaring, although shorter flights can be made in almost all kinds of weather. Regulations for flight over the city are the same as those governing power planes. Time gained in soaring can be applied against an application for license for power planes. As a matter of fact, about 50 per cent of the present club membership has flown power planes.

One of the biggest problems in soaring today is getting the sail plane into the air. Four methods or variations are in general use. An auto may tow the sail plane at sufficient speed to give it lift and thus become airborne. Other methods are by Jeep pulley tow and power winch where the plane is jerked into the air and by airplane tow where the plane is pulled off the ground and into flight and then cut loose from the towing plane.

Plans are being made for a regional soaring meet to be held at the local airport during the Senior Scout Sky Meet in August.

Thomas Learns Magic Via Plow

By Martha Smith

Champaign County, near Cable, Ohio, was the birthplace of one of the favorite magicians on the Hilltop Jack Thomas. While he worked on the farm at his home, he rode a corn plow and read a book of magic.

His family, headed by the late William H. Thomas, moved to Kenton, shortly after Jack was born. There he met "Bill" Durbin, a "King Pin" in Hardin County politics, who was a magician and who started Jack as a magician.

W. W. Durbin, better known as "Bill", went to school with the late Franklin D. Roosevelt and, was the one who nominated him for President of the United States.

In 1918, Jack began working for the Erie Railroad in Marion and later for the Pennsylvania Railroad in Pittsburgh.

Last winter Jack and his wife, Stella, who helps him in his shows, traveled through the South, doing shows in Tennessee, Georgia and Florida. Jack stated, "Usually the Southerners just don't like the Northern Yankees," but in Georgia to show their appreciation for the wonderful shows that he had put on they named him "honorary sheriff" of that state.

Last Christmas, Jack, who has been in the printing business for several years, sent to the State Hospital 300 boxes of stationery as gifts for the patients.

Jack Thomas does his shows largely to help others. Most of his shows are for disabled veterans, crippled children and orphan children, from which he gets a great deal of pleasure.

United Neighbors Idea Gains Ground

Local interest appeared to be growing this week in a plan of international good will known as United Neighbors.

The idea of adopting a city in Europe where material help could be given directly was first suggested by Mrs. J. G. Bowser, 35 N. Hague-av, several weeks ago. It has been discussed by several religious and civic groups and individuals about the Hilltop and seems destined to grow into a tangible demonstration of good will.

The plan, already in operation in several villages and cities throughout the country, is for an American municipality to adopt a city or town of about equal size in Europe for the purpose of providing direct relief for those unable to help themselves. The name — United Neighbors — was adopted because of its implied similarity to the United Nations program. In addition to its relief aspects, the program emphasizes the desire for a permanent and two-way exchange of educational and cultural ideas.

An objective of the plan is to unite many people in many categories as to racial origin and religion, and in all social and economic strata in a nation-wide organization concerned with the cause of peace, to promote international friendliness and neighborliness, to conduct forums to clarify peace objectives and understanding, to study the growth of the United Nations and other peace movements and to perform specific acts of international friendship.

A three-day conference at Dunkirk, New York, recently completed, outlined a broad plan of operation for this movement.

Locally, Mrs. Bowser said this week that she was confident that the movement was gaining ground on the Hilltop and that it was hoped that it would develop into a city-wide project. She expects that by fall, the city may be ready to get behind the idea and take steps to put it into operation.

Bond Cleaners Add New Equipment

Bond Cleaners, 2492 Sullivant-av, has just completed the installation of a Detrex 25 cleaning machine, it was announced by Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne (Curly) Rinehart, owners of the business.

The new equipment makes possible speedy and thorough cleaning work. A pickup and delivery service is maintained and emergency three-hour service can be given.

Two of Rinehart's brothers, Larry and Ralph, are associated in the business. All are ex-service men. Mrs. Eva McKnight is in charge of all alterations and repairs.

Snyders Purchase Hollywood Inn

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Snyder have recently purchased the Hollywood Inn at 4655 W. Broad-st, it was announced this week.

The motel-type tourist center includes tourist cabins, trailer park and a modern restaurant.

The Snyders have lived in the Hilltop area for many years. Before entering the service, Mr. Snyder was choir director of the West Broad Street Presbyterian Church. His father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Snyder, were charter members of the Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church. He was discharged from military service in October of last year with the rank of lieutenant colonel.

The Snyders have two children, James, a freshman at Ohio State University, and Marilynn Jo, 14, a student at West High School.

Expect Rural Zoning To Be On November Ballot; Final Hearing Is Set For July 10

An issue likely to appear on the November ballot in Franklin Township is that of rural zoning.

A hearing has been set by the Franklin County Commissioners for July 10 at which time residents of Franklin and the other townships will have an opportunity to express their feelings on this matter. If the commissioners see fit to put their stamp of approval on the plan, it will then be put on the general election ballot to be voted individually by townships. A majority vote would place the law into effect and thus give Franklin County a pattern for future development in all townships where the law is passed.

Residents of Prairie Township are invited to a zoning meeting next Thursday night. It will be held at the Township Hall at Alton, starting at 8 p. m. The proposed zoning plan for the township will be explained at that time.

Rural zoning is made possible under the act passed by the Ohio Legislature in June, 1947. It permits the people of any township to adopt, or to reject, simple rules to govern the future growth of their township. The law is not retroactive. No business now operating can be affected by the provisions of the act. It is purely for the future pattern of things to come and is designed to prevent the hodge podge of undesirable businesses in places that impair the value of desirable residential sites. Farm lands are not generally affected by the law.

Franklin County, through its planning commission, is a year ahead of most other counties in this matter. Grover Clements, engineer-director of the plan, and his staff have drawn plans for the future development of each township and held preliminary hearings in all townships for all interested persons. The July 10 meeting before the commissioners will be the last opportunity for voters in the various townships to ask questions or voice opposition to the plan.

Arnold A. Murdock, a resident of Franklin Township, is chairman of a five-member Franklin County Rural Zoning Commission.

Maps drawn by the planning engineers generally provide for five types of uses of rural areas. They are (1) farming, (2) residential, (3) apartment residential, (4) commercial, and (5) manufacturing.

Once a zoning regulation has been put into effect in any township, its provisions will control the future growth of that township, unless and until zoning provisions are amended, by a process of due notice and hearings. Any new industries will be built only in districts approved for the purpose in the zoning plan. Any new shops or stores built will be restricted to the areas set aside for commercial or industrial purposes, with the knowledge and consent of the people of the township. Apartment houses will not be permitted to spring up in districts set aside for single-family residences. Outdoor advertising shall be classified as a business use, and be limited to areas zoned for business, industry or farming.

The zoning regulations proposed for Franklin County will call for suitable off-street parking space in all districts, residential, commercial, or industrial. In effect, this will require off-street space for one car for each family in residential and apartment districts, for one car for each two workers in business districts, and for one car for each four seats in theatres or places of assembly other than churches.

The minimum setback lines for all main thoroughfares would require new construction to be set back at least 80 feet along primary roadways (100 feet wide), and 65 feet along secondary roads (80 feet wide).

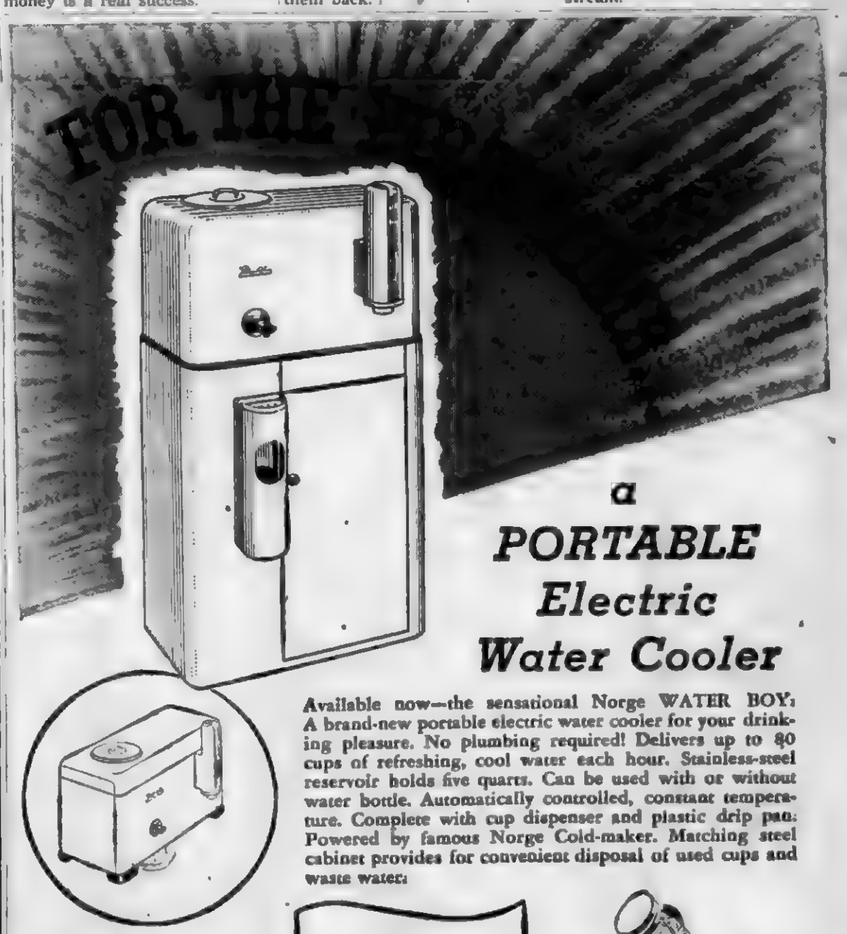
Along the streams of Franklin County, the proposed zoning regulations will forbid the erection of buildings (except for farming or truck gardening) on sites less than three feet above the high water level of the adjacent stream.

A Concrete Idea

Los Angeles bank teller Bill Ream watches his idea work—a blower-equipped cement mixer that breaks up rolls of coins and discards the paper rolls (Fedcral Reserve banks will accept banks' surplus coins in bags, but not in rolls). The cement mixer breaks up 200 rolls in four minutes, a 20-minute job by hand.

Gene McGurer At Carburetor School

Gene McGurer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed McGurer, owners of McGurer Auto Repair, left June 13 for St. Louis, Mo. He is attending Carter Carburetor School in that city. School opened June 14 and will hold classes for three weeks. Gene will stay in St. Louis until his course as carburetor specialist is completed.



When he return to Columbus he will work at McGurer's Garage as carburetor specialist.

Not every man who makes money is a real success.

When the umpires begin to work for their pay, the nation will really have a serious issue to discuss.

The successful merchant passes through three stages: (1) Advertising, (2) selling; and (3) retiring.

Most older folk will tell you that the old days were wonderful but few of them wish to have them back.

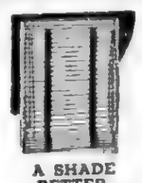
The Community Speaks



Action of the State Liquor Control Department last week in rejecting three applications for liquor permits on the Hilltop is continued evidence that public concern still helps shape the pattern of any community. The reason cited by the director of that department for turning down the night club permits was significant.

"The people in that (the Hilltop) area have voiced the feeling that they want no more liquor spots," was the explanation.

It is cognizance of the feeling of a community by a public official that makes us glad we live in America. It is one of the many differences between a Democracy and the many other less desirable forms of government that are being peddled all over the world today.

Without the expression of opposition of not a few but many Hilltop citizens, it is altogether likely that one or all of the three might have been granted. Hundreds of persons expressed their feeling on these applications. By far the majority of these expressions were in opposition to the granting of the permits.

By the same token, good things are added to the community life when enough people are willing to stand up for what they believe is needed. Too many communities are willing to sit back and take whatever comes although the residents may do more than their share of grumbling at the final result. That difference is one of many reasons why the Hilltop has been a good community and shall continue to improve as its citizens are willing to share their part of community life.

Letters To The Editor

Guantanamo Bay, Cuba
June 15, 1948

Dear Sir,

I am just a sailor way down here at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, but my mother sent me the article in the paper about the accident that took place last Friday morning in which the three seniors were killed. I would like to send my deepest sympathy to Jim and all his friends.

You see, I went to school with Jim and I know that he is one of the best. I know that that accident will live in his mind all the rest of his life. When the class of forty-eight has its reunion there will always be three empty chairs, one for Sue, one for Billie and one for Gordon.

I knew all these kids and I just want them to know that they have my deepest sympathy.

Yours truly,
Robert Ramsey

HILL TOPICS —By PW—

Embarrassing Moments

You have to be careful with those new fangled autos with all of their trick gadgets. Embarrassing things can happen.

Take Dr. R. J. Miller for instance with his new Buick convertible. Doc was driving out through the country one day shortly after taking title to his new buggy. As he cruised along he would push this button and pull that gadget to see what they were all about. Much to his embarrassment one of them lowered the top.

Which reminds me that back in the Model T days there were not so many gadgets to bewilder the motorist but surprising things could happen just the same. There was the time for instance we were riding down a hill at a modest speed (10 to 15 mph) when suddenly there was a lurch and one side of the rear end of the car started scraping the roadway while the wheel rolled merrily down the hill.

Then there was the time I taught my cousin how to drive the Ford. After several trips up the road and back I felt she was ready to solo. So, loading the entire family in the car, including my uncle (her father) who owned the car, we started up the road on a Sunday afternoon.

Since my cousin was still not too skilled at backing the Lizzie, we had worked out a little turntable down through a meadow that bordered the road. Everything was rosy until we reached the turning around place. There she reversed her field from the way she had formerly made the turn and ran over a ditch that was covered over with grass. There was a terrific jolt as the car hit the ditch and then bounced to an abrupt halt, snapping the two straps that fastened the top to the windshield frame.

Naturally the top collapsed and folded up. That wouldn't have been too bad in itself except for the fact that Uncle happened to be looking out between two of the braces at someone's corn field just as the top folded up.

It took a little undoing to extricate Uncle from the confusion of braces and canvas. That was the day I quit giving private driving instructions.

History's Mistake

If you're one of the millions of Americans today who was led to believe that Aaron Burr was a traitor to his country and otherwise pretty much of a stinker, you're all wrong. Aaron was actually an "all right" guy and what's more he was a patriot, deeply devoted to the cause of liberty.

I learned this along with a room full of local Kiwanians last Thursday when Forest Smith, a Columbus attorney, deplored the characterization of Burr as taught in the history books of earlier days. He had a briefcase full of documents to back up his assertion too, but none of the Kiwanians had time to check him on his statistics.

Burr, you may recall became a marked man following the duel in which he killed Alexander Hamilton, his arch political rival. Later the one-time vice president was tried for treason but was completely vindicated by Chief Justice John Marshall, a leader of the opposition Federalist Party.

Smith deplores the fact that many history books end their account of the life of this colorful figure with the fact that he was tried for treason. There is no further explanation of the outcome of the trial.

Actually, history proves that Burr was a brilliant man in the law as well as politically. At one time he could have been president of the United States if he had so desired. He applied for admission to Princeton at the age of 13—was finally admitted at the age of 13 and graduated with honors at 16. He served with distinction on the staff of General George Washington and was elected to the U. S. Senate at 35.

The jury that heard his treason trial acquitted him with less than 30 minutes deliberation.

That's what Mr. Smith thinks about one of the nation's most misunderstood and misrepresented men.

News of Rome

By Mrs. E. C. Sheets

The WSCS of the Columbia Heights Church held its regular monthly meeting Thursday in the church parlors. Members discussed plans that would take them to the county fair and the state fair where they will serve the public with good food.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Barnecut, S. Burgess-av, were visited by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones and family, Saturday evening for supper.

Phyllis Armstrong, Patty Cox, Marilyn Snyder, Betty Joe Stormont and Georgeanne Terry are among the young folks from this district who are attending the MYF Institute at Lakeside on Lake Erie during this week. Rev. Elwood Rose and Mrs. Stormont provided transportation. She met her husband in Cleveland for the return home trip. Rev. Rose will teach one of the classes and serve as editor of The Breeze, the daily camp newspaper.

Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock Miss Betty Garretson and Mr. William Suver were united in marriage by Rev. Elwood Rose at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Garretson, Ridge-av, formerly of Maple-dr. The new Mr. and Mrs. Suver are located in their home, 184 Warren-st. They are both employed by the Timken Co. Mrs. Robert Hines and children of Troy were home for the wedding of her sister. She was accompanied home Sunday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Garretson.

Mrs. Garretson is accompanying her husband on a business trip to Minnesota, after which they will take an extended vacation for several weeks.

Dianne Kasler, Pasadena-av, is attending the Lutheran Camp this week. It is located in Miami Valley at Chataqua, near Dayton. Together with other Lutherans from this district, she went to and from camp with Rev. John Lang.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coulter, who have been making their home at the Coulter residence, and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hane, who have been living at the home of the Breckenridges, Maple-dr, (Mrs. Hane's mother) are now located in their own home on Fifteenth-av.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Coulter spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Sampson.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Barnecut spent Sunday with their daughter and family, Dr. and Mrs. Earl Knisley, Worthington.

T. M. Patterson, Maple-dr, has returned home from a visit in Toronto, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb and family spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ross, formerly of Maple-dr, now at 6500 E. Broad-st.

Harold Hart, leader of the Alton Advancer 4-H Club, took a number of his boys to Camp Ohio, near Utica for the week. Tom Lamb, Bob Stormont and John Phillips, were among the older ones from this community.

The Ernest Schroeder family spent Sunday in Decatur, Ind., attending the reunion of Mrs. Jackson's family, (Mrs. Schroeder's mother), also to visit her brother who is in the hospital.

Mrs. Sylvester Schroeder, of Bel Garden, Calif., was guest for a few days at her brother-in-law's home, the Schroeder's on Lawrence-av.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sheets, Jr., spent Sunday evening visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Sheets.

Golden Yeater of Maple-dr, who has been sick for several weeks, was operated on Monday. He is recovering but it will be some time before a complete recovery is effected.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Warner and family of Pasadena-av, spent Sunday in Dayton visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gould.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morrow of Columbus, sister of Mrs. Howell, spent Saturday visiting with their mother, Mrs. McCoy, who was visiting a few days at the Howell's. Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Howell attended the Electric Elevator picnic Saturday that was held at Oak Park, Sunbury.

Mrs. Freet, sister-in-law of Mrs. Porter, is spending a few days with Mrs. Porter, Maple-dr, while Mr. and Mrs. Robert Porter are visiting in Akron.

Sgt. Hutchinson Home On Furlough

Sgt. James Hutchinson, 363 Midland-av, was home on furlough for two weeks from the Marine Air Corps. He was one of five boys who entered the service together after graduation, and is the only one not yet discharged.

James is stationed at Eltoro, Calif., and is a radio repair man. He left on the Constellation from Chicago, Wednesday noon and will be at Santa Ana Wednesday evening.

PUBLIC NOTICE
Common Pleas Court, Franklin County, Ohio.
No. 174874—Grace Patterson, Plaintiff, vs. Hazel D. Prince, et al., Defendants.
Hazel D. Prince, if living, the unknown heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors and assigns of Hazel D. Prince, and the unknown spouses of unknown heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors and assigns of Richard B. Prince and the unknown spouses of unknown heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors and assigns of Richard B. Prince, all whose addresses are unknown to plaintiff and cannot with reasonable diligence be ascertained, are hereby notified that on May 12, 1948, Grace Patterson filed a petition in the above entitled cause against them as defendants alleging that she is the owner in fee simple and in possession of the following described real estate, situated in the County of Franklin, in the State of Ohio, and in the City of Columbus, bounded and described as follows:

Being the westerly portion of Lot No. Thirty-five (35) of the Hill Crest Park Addition, to the City of Columbus, Ohio as the same is numbered and delineated in Plat Book 16, page 34, Recorder's Office, Franklin County, Ohio, the eastern boundary of said westerly portion of said Lot No. 35 being a straight line joining a point in north boundary of said lot and located 119.65 feet east of the northwest corner of said lot and located 115 feet east of the southwest corner of said Lot No. 35. Together with an easement on the easterly portion of said Lot No. 35 above described, as said easement is set out in Deed Book 513, page 165, Recorder's Office, Franklin County, Ohio; that plaintiff was conveyed title to said real estate by deed from Mildred I. Wren; that defendants may claim an interest therein adverse to the plaintiff, the nature of which is unknown to the plaintiff, and the plaintiff asks that they be compelled to declare the same or be forever barred.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays that an alleged claim or claims of defendants in and to said premises be adjudged null and void; that the plaintiffs' title be quieted against the same, and for such other relief as is proper.

Said defendants are further notified that they are required to answer said petition on or before July 16, 1948, or judgment may be rendered as prayed for therein.

West Yearbook Has "New Look"

During the year 1948 many changes have taken place. Automobiles, dresses, and even West High's yearbook have the new look.

There are many new features this year in the Occident. When you look at the book you first notice that it has a picture of the school with a light green background as its cover. There are many small pictures of school activities, and sketches of familiar faces that were seen around school. The faculty is also pictured.

This year's graduating pictures are arranged vertically rather than horizontally, as in previous years. The information about the pictures is horizontally arranged.

The class prophecy and class will contain information about the graduating class and the prophecy of their futures.

Aerial pictures of the school and football field taken from different angles, as well as pictures of the dedication night crowd are included in this year's book. The rope twirlers who performed at all the football games are pictured in uniform, with their instructor, Mr. Stone, and Miss O'Harra, who made the uniforms.

Individual pictures of the championship football team are one of the highlights. Another added feature is the ninth grade pictures. They include pictures of registration rooms, clubs, student council and athletic teams.

The book contains over [illegible] more pictures than ever before used in any West yearbook.

Students who have not obtained their Occidents may do so any week-day between the hours of 9 a. m. and 2 p. m. at the school office. Approximately 60 copies are still available to those who did not order in advance.

Paul To Head Theatre Group

The Hilltop Little Theatre, following the successful presentation of its initial production, "The Youngest," has completed its permanent organization and is planning a crowded season.

Officers elected for the 1948-1949 season are: Gene C. Paul, president; Robert Spohn, vice-president; W. W. Marot, treasurer; Betty Moon, recording secretary; Marie Wilkins, corresponding secretary and D. Knight Finley, business manager. The three members-at-large, who with the above officers constitute the executive committee, are Lee Koontz, Virginia Donavon and Art Howard.

Standing committees were appointed by the new president as follows: play selection and casting, Virginia Donavon, chairman, with Art Howard, Lucile Bogue and Pat Aspel; the property committee will be in charge of Norman Menge; and the social committee is composed of Curt Meeks, chairman, assisted by Pat Howell, Lee Koontz, Ruth Groeginger and Dorothy Finley.

An associate membership has been established to support the movement and many Hilltoppers are lining up behind the activity. The membership of $5.00 per year entitles the holder to attend all performances given by the group as well as participating in the social events which are being planned.

Garbage Disposal Ordinance Cited

Hilltoppers are warned that violators of the city garbage disposal regulations may be in for a bit of checking by the city's health department. Dr. O. M. Goodloe, health commissioner, announced last week that a check-up was being made to have all residents comply with existing regulations.

Dr. Goodloe said misdemeanor charges carrying fines will be brought against persons depositing garbage outside in a manner other than in prescribed containers.

Regulations require that garbage be placed in water-tight metal containers, not larger than two bushels (about 39 gallons). If garbage cans overflow or are filled so that the lid cannot be placed on tightly, requirements are not met.

"The average family should have at least a 20-gallon garbage can," Dr. Goodloe said, "and if one is not enough there should be two cans."

Violations are punishable by a fine of $5 to $100 for the first offense and $10 to $200 for subsequent offenses. City Council is expected to amend the "garbage can" ordinance to require cans of specific sizes. The present ordinance, requiring receptacles not larger than two bushels, was enacted during the war when regular garbage cans were not obtainable.

It's probably a good thing, after all, that some people can't see themselves as others see them.

The best way to save money is to refuse to buy anything until you can pay cash.

SINGS FOR GAR—For the third consecutive year, 12-year-old Sunya Slane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Slane, 769 S. Harris-av, appeared as featured soloist when one of the city's last living connections with the Civil War got under way Sunday as the state GAR encampment opened its five-day meeting at the Deshler-Wallick with only two veterans attending.

Sunya sang Monday at the banquet in the Hall of Mirrors and on Tuesday for the father and daughter luncheon. She was accompanied by her piano teacher, Mrs. E. C. Henley, 326 S. Terrace-av.

Briggsdale And Brown Road

By Mrs. Harry Downing

The Wilson Cooking Beetles 4-H Club made a tour of the Ohio Penitentiary and the Fairmont Creamery Thursday, June 17. At noon a picnic lunch was enjoyed by 10 members and their leader, Mrs. Neva Brickles. The next meeting is to be at the home of Esther Schooley on Geneva-av. Arlene Sibley is the news reporter for the girls' club.

Mr. and Mrs. William Woodyard and son, Jimmy, 2120 Eakin-rd, returned to their home Tuesday of last week after a vacation spent with friends in South Carolina.

The Misses Hepner and Saltsman, leaders of the Vacation Bible School in Briggsdale Methodist Church, were guests of honor last Thursday afternoon when the WSCS held its regular meeting. They also took part in the program Friday evening following the pot luck supper held in connection with Family Night. Another feature was special music by the King's Daughters Trio.

A picnic will be held at the close of Bible School tomorrow. In the church Sunday morning each department will give a demonstration of its work during the past two weeks.

Mrs. Kathryn King, 2066 Eakin-rd, returned home Friday evening from Akron after visiting with friends several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Corbin, 520 Catherine-st, have announced the coming marriage of their daughter, Delores Rose, to Jerry Boggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Boggs, 2215 Eakin-rd. The wedding will take place Sunday afternoon in Glenwood Methodist Church. Immediately following the ceremony a reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mikesell of Dayton and their grandson, Peter Eloff, of Miami, Fla., will arrive Friday evening to spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Downing and family, 2050 Eakin-rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reber, 2063 Frank-rd, entertained the Misses Hepner and Saltsman with a dinner Saturday evening and again last Thursday evening. The Rebers also met the girls, who are the Bible School leaders, at the train upon their arrival here Saturday, June 12. Miss Saltsman and Miss Hepner were guests at the home of Mrs. S. B. Winters, 1602 Harrisburg-pk, during their first week in Briggsdale. The second week is being spent with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Watkins, 756 Harrisburg-pk. Dorothy Nichols, Frank-rd, was also a dinner guest at the Reber home on Saturday.

Jimmy, Donald and Robert Bapst, Chambers-av, Briggsdale, underwent tonsil operations Monday morning in Mt. Carmel Hospital.

An old-fashioned ice cream social will be held on the lawn of the Briggsdale Methodist Church tomorrow evening, beginning at 7:30. Ice cream and home-made pies and cakes will be on the menu. The social is being sponsored by the Youth Fellowship. Proceeds will go toward redecorating the church.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Camp Bugler

Camp bugler at Camp Lazarus for the first two weeks this year is Dick Briggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Briggs, 34 S. Algonquin-av. On July 5 he leaves for Camp Sarona, Wis., where he will be junior councilor in the camp operated by Harold Olsen, former Ohio State University basketball coach.

Troop 79

Plans are being completed by the committee of Troop 79 for a week-end camp in the hills of Hocking County. The boys and their leaders will assemble at Burress Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church Saturday at 12:30 a. m. for transportation to the camp site.

They will return to the Hilltop Sunday evening. Approximately 20 boys and their leaders are expected to make the trip.

Cub Pack 250

The Cub Scouts Pack 250 will hold its monthly pack meeting Thursday, June 24, at 7:30 p. m., in the annex at St. Aloysius Church.

All Cubs who are eligible for awards at this meeting must have one or both of their parents present to receive the awards for them. The parents in turn will present these awards to their sons.

The Crowning Calamity

The stranger on the bus was very sad, and it took only a couple of sympathetic remarks to open him up like an accordion at a gypsy frolic.

"Marriage," he wailed. "Marriage! That has been the blight of my life."

"How many?" asked the passenger who had primed him.

"Two," was the doleful rejoinder. "My first wife took everything I had and left me."

"Very sad," commented the other.

"Not as bad as my present plight," moaned the sad-faced victim of matrimony. "The wife I've got now has taken everything, and won't leave me."

BIBLE COMMENT
FOR JUNE 27

Many Find Goal Of the Golden Age Still Not Achieved

IN his poem, "An Interview With Myles Standish," James Russell Lowell wrote of "men of vision, whose gaunt eyes see golden ages rising." He did not think much of some of these dreamers.

But poets, prophets and saints have long dreamed and spoken of a golden age. It has been a prolific theme in literature. Thomas More gave his dream of it in his famous book, "Utopia." In his own time Bellamy portrayed it in "Looking Backward."

But these and other visions of a golden age pale in comparison with the expectation of a Messiah and the coming of a Messianic kingdom. They arose in the Jewish world in the centuries before the birth of Jesus and found expression in the noblest passages of the later prophecies of Israel.

Christians found fulfilment of those prophecies in the coming of Jesus as Messiah and King. They saw the golden age begun, if not fully established, in the kingdom He proclaimed. They pray, "Thy kingdom come," and that the will of God may be "done in earth as it is done in heaven." But they see a world in which that goal is not yet achieved, and in which it will not be until all is brought under the rule of Christ. That would be the golden age.

Some Christians look for a return of Jesus to earth. Though they think of Jesus as Messiah in His first coming, their look toward the future in the hope of His second coming is not unlike the looking toward the future of many Jews, who do not regard Jesus as the Messiah, but who believe the Messiah is still to come.

What of the golden age today? The triumph of the Prince of Peace, the one whom Isaiah called Wonderful, Counsellor, the one whom Christians call the Eternal Christ, seems far off in a world of violence and hate. But it was in such a world that the faith, hope and vision arose. It was in such a world that the prophets lived and spoke.

Can we doubt or fear where the noblest of all mankind have had faith and courage?

New Church Officers Have Dinner Meet

About 30 newly elected officers of Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church had a potluck dinner at the church Monday evening. The dinner was followed by organization of the various committees.

Rev. C. F. Lutz, pastor of the church, presided at the meeting and explained the organizational setup under the new church discipline.

Farewell Planned For Rev. Goewey

There will be a farewell reception Friday night, June 25, at 7:45 at Hillcrest Baptist Church in honor of Rev. J. Herbert Goewey, the pastor of the church. Rev. Goewey has been pastor of Hillcrest for the past two years and has just been re-called to active duty with the U. S. Army.

Speakers on the program will include Rev. Raymond L. Bailey, pastor of First Baptist Church, representing the Baptist ministers of the city; Dr. Paul Judson Morris, executive secretary of Ohio Baptist Convention; and Rev. A. J. Wold, pastor of Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church, representing the Hilltop Ministerial Association.

The program will also include special music by members of the church choir and will be followed with serving of refreshments in the Fellowship Room of the church. All local Baptist ministers and members of the Hilltop Ministerial Association are invited to this reception and it will also be open to the general public.

Wheatland School To Open On Monday

The Wheatland Avenue Methodist Church Daily Vacation Bible School opens Monday, June 28, at 9 a. m. All pupils, from 2½ years up, are invited. The school's curriculum will include music, Bible lesson studies, planned recreation and handcrafts.

The officers, teachers and instructors are Mrs. Elizabeth Shaw, dean; Rev. T. L. Linsley, assistant dean; Mrs. Geneva French, chairman of purchasing and planning; Mrs. Leota Oats, Louise More, Charles Ann Pruit, Virginia Harris, Kathleen Bell, Jane Martin, Mrs. Beck, Dorothy Williams, Beulah Cook, JoAnn Nelson, Bonita Shaw; Katherine Manns, Ruth Perking, Esther Burke, Betty Cooper, Elizabeth Reid, Anna Mae Cooper, Marion Goolsby and Katherine Scott.

Whitethorne Church To Entertain Song Service Sunday Night

The Whitethorne Church of Christ in Christian Union will be host to the bi-weekly Hilltop Hymn Sing Sunday night starting at 9 o'clock. The church is located at the corner of Whitethorne-av and Whitehead-rd.

The attendance banner will be awarded to the visiting church with the largest percentage of the evening worship service present at the song service. All are invited.

Concordia Lutheran Church Anniversary To Be Held Sunday

Anniversary services of Concordia Lutheran Church will be held at the usual Sunday morning hour of worship.

There will be a basket lunch at the church at noon. In the afternoon there will be games for the children on the church lawn. A baseball game at Westgate Park will follow the children's games.

Rev. and Mrs. Dean To Attend Convention

The Hilltop Community Church is sending its pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Dean, as delegates to the annual convention of the Oriental and Inter-American Missionary Society, which convenes in Wilona Lake, Ind., June 22 to 27.

Rev. Dale McClain of Danville, Ohio, who is serving in China as a missionary, is being supported by the Community Church and Sunday School. The missionary Society of the Church is financing a native student in a Bible seminary in India.

Rea-Bow News

By Jo Ann Kidd

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Farris and daughter, Ruth Ann, of 986 Midland-av, left Munday morning for a trip through the mountains of West Virginia and will visit at Morgantown. They will be gone one week.

Saturday being the birthday of Mrs. Ralph Kidd and Tuesday the birthday of Ralph Kidd, a family dinner was served at their home on Rea-av Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kidd, Nancy and Lannie, Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Kidd, Jimmie and Jo Ann and Bonnie Adkins of Glouster; also Mr. and Mrs. Marian Bradenberger and Norman Kemberling.

Mrs. Carl Dickson and daughter, Shirley Jo, of Clarendon-av, spent two days last week with Mrs. Ralph Cruit of Lancaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Slane, Clarendon-av, were visited last week by Mrs. Slane's sister, Mrs. Philip Dusenbury and daughter, Phyllis, of Beaumont, Texas.

Bonnie Adkins of Glouster was the week-end guest of Jo Ann Kidd of Vadis-st.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Underhill and children of Whitethorne-av visited Thursday and Friday of last week with Mrs. Nellie McCarty at Irwin O.

Harry Balderson of Columbus visited Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cox and family on Whitethorne-av.

Mr. and Mrs. Marian Brandenberger of Whitehead-rd attended the Hoppo Club picnic which was held at Edgewater Park Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Irvin and family of Clarendon-av were visited Sunday by Oakie Martin, Lloyd Martin, Junior Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Ishamel Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Martha Martin, all of Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Brokamp and family, 939 Clarendon-av, attended the Brokamp reunion held at Minster, Ohio, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller, Midland-av, visited relatives in Pennsylvania May 30 and left their son, Billie, to visit his aunt, Mrs. J. P. Jones, until July 4.

$5500 Blaze Hits Hilltop Residence

A $5500 blaze of undetermined origin swept the two-story frame residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Fielding, at 2389 Sullivant-av early Sunday, firemen reported.

The fire, which is believed to have originated on the back porch of the residence, was discovered by two unidentified fishermen who were passing the house. The men awakened Mr. and Mrs. Fielding and their son, James, and notified the Fire Department.

Additional equipment was sent nine minutes after the first alarm was sounded.

Firemen unofficially estimated the damage to the house at $3500 and $2000 to the contents.

West Park, Salvation Army Unbeaten In Church Loop

By Dave Miller

West Park Methodist and Salvation Army softball nines kept up their unbeaten ways in play on Monday evening, both emerging victors in doubleheaders played in West Church League No. 2.

In League No. 1, St. Aloysius is still out in front, having also swept a twin bill. All games were doubleheaders in both leagues.

West Park took a pair from thrice-beaten St. John AC, 15 to 3, and 5 to 4. St. John held a slight lead in the opening part of the nightcap, but the ultimate winners came from behind to remain unbeaten. Salvation Army, which has won two less than West Park, also swept its duo-setting. They were 5 to 1 and 9 to 2 winners over Hillcrest Baptist, which has yet to win a league affair.

In the toher games in League 2, Chicago Avenue and Avondale divided a twin bill, with Chicago the first winners, 3 to 2, and Avondale coming back to collar Chicago, 6 to 0.

Two sweeps and one even split was the summary of the play in League No. 1. Once-beaten St. Aloysius took a double bill from yet-to-win Hoge Memorial, 9 to 0, and 6 to 0, to put itself one and one-half games ahead of second place Westgate, which divided with Glenwood. Westgate took a low-scoring, 2 to 0 game in the opener, and Glenwood came back in the second to win, 6 to 3.

In the other game of the evening, Burgess UEB took a twin-win over Hilltop Church of God, 10 to 7 and 10 to 6.

The schedule for next Monday is as follows:

League No. 1 — Westgate vs. Burgess EUB; Glenwood vs. St Aloysius; Hilltop C. of G. vs. Hoge.

League No. 2—Chicago Avenue vs. Hillcrest; Avondale EUB vs. West Park; Salvation Army vs. St. John.

West Baseballers Rate All-City Mythical Teams

Don Skipper, Dick Kirk, Al Andrews and Chuck Weeks were given places on the first team of the all-city mythical baseball champs selected by the Columbus Citizen from the 1948 baseball teams.

Dave Dupler, Jack Pickens and Dick Culbertson were named to the second team.

The Ohio State Journal sports writers placed only Kirk on their first nine but listed Skipper, Dupler, Pickens and Andrews on the second team.

Honorable mention was given to Culbertson, Don Little, Pat Collins and Chuck Weeks.

Garden Sprays Are Essential To Kill Off Insect Pests

If you spray your garden in time this summer, you'll save yourself a lot of unnecessary trouble and disappointment later on, says an old hand, F. F. Rockwell. He tells the different kinds of bugs to watch out for and the right spray to use for each:

"To get rid of bugs, the first secret is to start shooting the moment a bug appears. The second is to use the right kind of ammunition. There are three kinds of pests and you've got to kill each with a different ammunition. Aphids (plant lice) are tiny, soft insects that suck plant sap from inside stems and leaves. Get them with a contact poison —nicotine.

"Bugs and beetles that actually eat foliage can be stopped with a stomach poison such as arsenate of lead. DDT and rotenone (non-poisonous) control many of them. Fungous diseases — blights, mildews, leaf-spots, etc. — can't be cured. To prevent, keep foliage sprayed or dusted with sulphur, copper or phygon."

Bethlehem No. 3, 1 and 8 Tie For League Lead

Bethlehem No. 3, which has been leading the Bethlehem Lutheran League since the beginning of the season had to share the top spot with Bethlehem No. 1 and No. 8 due to their two games lost to Bethlehem No. 7. Their downfall occurred when they were short a man and had to roll with a blind. They lost the first game, 710-757, the second, 801-823, but managed to salvage the final 795-776. In the third game Jim Matheny rolled 213, the high single game of the evening, to give him nigh series for the night, 548. Esther Willing led the women with 164 and Brucilla Smith had 362. Bethlehem No. 8's 906 and 2577 were the high team events.

Black Bass Season Open To Anglers

Good fishing weather ushered in the black bass season in Ohio's inland waters last week and reports reaching the Columbus headquarters of the Ohio Division of Conservation indicated good catches in all parts of the state.

The season closed May 1 and opened on June 16. The legal length for black bass is 10 inches and the daily bag limit six except in those waters where for experimental purposes, closed seasons, legal lengths and bag limits do not apply. Those waters include Lake St. Marys, Charles Mill Reservoir, Guilford Lake, Leesville Lake, Seneca Lake, Buckeye Lake, Lake Loramie, Jackson Lake, Lake Alma and Shade River and all tributaries in Athens and Meigs Counties.

E. L. Wickliff, chief of the Fish Management and Propagation Section of the Division of Conservation reports that the peak of the black bass spawning season was reached before the season opened and that, therefore, the closed season again has served its purpose of protecting bass during the reproduction period.

The season which opened last Wednesday affects only the inland waters of the state since the Lake Erie Fishing District season, which closed May 25, will not open until July 1.

Westgate Drops Tennis Match

The Westgate Tennis Club dropped its first match of the season to Upper Arlington on the Westgate courts Sunday afternoon.

In the singles division Dick Slager defeated G. Pack of Arlington, 6-4 and 6-2; B. Rinehart (Arlington) bested R. Lindley, 6-4, 16 and 68, while Pat Tonti (Westgate) dropped matches of 1-6 and 6-8 to Ed Farmer of Arlington.

In the doubles events Paul Walton and R. Lindley for Westgate dropped 6-4 and 6-2 matches to B. Hadley senior and junior. Arlington also took the other doubles. Jim Slager and George Phillips, for Westgate, opposed B. Mackey and B. Keeley. The scores were 1-6, 6-1 and 1-6.

Play at the Westgate courts has increased steadily since lights were installed this spring. The six courts are open to play from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. weekdays and Saturdays and until 8 p. m. on Sunday nights.

Plans are being made for a tennis tourney for younger boys at Westgate Park. Jim Slager is in charge of this work.

Legion Building To Be Started Soon

Those who have made contributions to Camp Chase Post for their Legion Memorial building will be pleased to read the news that the post plans to start work on the building late this summer.

This project like many others has been delayed due to extremely high building costs but a determination to see it through on the part of the post building committee and with similar support from post members will make the dream of this organization realized at last.

Numerous individuals in the community have no doubt promised additional contributions to the post building fund when the project got under way. This sign of good faith on the part of the legionnaires should be rewarded by receipt of these funds as well as many new and additional contributions now that the stage is being set for action.

Camp Chase Post has served this community well in many capacities in the years since it has been organized. It's greater growth due to additional membership from World War II vets will provide for even greater service as the Hilltop continues to grow.

If Firemen Were Promised Raise It Should Be Paid

Back at the time of the campaign to put across the city income tax the most enthusiastic group supporting it was the firemen and policemen. It was an indication that the success of the measure would mean a better pay scale for the men in these departments.

Now that the tax has been passed council has taken no action to increase the pay scale. Firemen say the raise was definitely promised. They are so emphatic in their statement that they are willing to back it up with a wholesale resignation unless the increase comes through.

We cannot go along with support of mass action of this type that might jeopardize the city fire service. It seems to resolve itself into one question. Did the administration promise a pay increase?

Honesty on the part of the administration will answer the question. If the increase was promised then it should be paid.

If the increase was promised and resignations go into effect it would seem that this is certainly time for the police and firemen to resolve for all times not to allow themselves to be used as a tool to fight the battle of politicians.

I Ain't Mad At Nobody

We had a very pleasant experience the other day. It was particularly pleasant in view of a previous unpleasant experience with the same individual.

Some weeks ago we, the Record, had said something this individual didn't like. He took exception to it and proceeded to tell us so and in such terms he left us feeling like he was through with us forever.

Then a week ago another issue of the Record carried an item that pleased this same individual very much and he took the opportunity to tell us so—all of which proved that he hadn't stopped reading our paper.

This isn't a new experience by any means—many times we face similar situations—and in

W. Mound Group Seeks New School Building and Light

The program to get better facilities for the rapidly growing West Mound Street School gained momentum as members of the newly created Improvement Committee of the school PTA met with two different city groups this week.

The Improvement Committee presented its requests to the building committee of the Columbus School Board last Friday. These requests included a two room steel portable as an immediate solution to the conditions at West Mound and that as soon as possible a permanent building be provided.

It was stated by the building committee that if the permanent building were approved immediately it would be two or three years before the building could be completed due to the time necessary to prepare the plans, let the contracts and complete the building. The heavy enrollment from the new homes being built in the West Mound area is expected to come in about three or four years, according to Superintendent George Roudebush.

The major problem concerning the permanent building at West Mound is whether to build a primary school with a classroom for each full grade or a building which would provide a room for each half grade. This depends, said Roudebush, upon what enrollment can be expected in three or four years.

Mrs. Harold Beard, president of West Mound PTA, Paul R. Landon, chairman of the Improvement Committee, and Mrs. Charles Bachman, member of the Improvement Committee met with the school officials.

John Hyer, a member of the Improvement Committee of West Mound Elementary PTA, made formal appeal Monday to the Traffic and Transportation Commission for a traffic light at Mound and Belvidere. This was the first meeting of the newly formed commission that was just recently appointed by Mayor James Rhodes.

Mr. Hyer pointed out that in addition to the increase during the past year of over 60 per cent in the enrollment at West Mound, it is expected that there will be an additional 40 pupils next year enrolled in the kindergarten. A school light was requested that would operate only while the school is in session. The Hilltop Community Council is also supporting this request.

In accordance with the customary procedure of the commission a survey will be made by the traffic engineer and the formal consideration of the request will come up in about two or four weeks.

Larry Houston Is Mibs Champ Here

Larry Houston, 135 Lechner av, proved to the Hilltop that he is the marble champ of the community Tuesday when he knocked out the champs of other local playgrounds but he is not interested in the two weeks free camping period.

As a result, Danny Boyd, 6[illegible] S. Warren-av, will enjoy the two weeks at Camp Wilson with all expenses paid. He was the runner-up in the Hilltop YMCA marble tournament conducted by [illegible] erille Thorn, local "Y" secretary. Danny won the John Burroughs competition and then was knocked off in the Hilltop finals Larry, the winner, represented Glenwood Park.

Other local mibs winners were Jack Mitchel, 624 Wrexham av, Columbian av Jack Davis, 623 S. Terrace-av, Westgate Park, and Bill Chappelear, 158 N. Oakley-av, Holton Park. Each winner received a softball or softball bat.

The Hilltop YMCA was officially opened Saturday when open house was held at headquarters in the Teen Club Building. The center is now open for business with office hours from 9 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. on week-days and 9 a. m. to 12 noon on Saturdays.

Thorn announced that the "Y" facilities were now available for a meeting place for any local group. Any organization wanting to meet there is asked to call and schedule a room for that purpose.

Several local YMCA boys enjoyed the wrestling matches Wednesday evening on tickets supplied by the 13 Club. The local group furnished 25 tickets to the Franklin County Peace Officers Association benefit show.

Judy Wolfe Continues To Show Improvement

Mrs. N. J. Wolfe said this week that her daughter, Judy, who continues to improve, is able to be propped up in a lawn chair and may sit in the yard.

Judy, who lives with her parents at 336 N. Sylvan av, was critically injured when struck by an auto on April 28. She returned home from the hospital June 12.

As soon as she feels able, her doctor recommends that she should begin to walk. When that time comes Judy will have someone on each side of her to support her weight but it will still be some time before she can walk alone.

Mrs. Pearson To Face Charge Of Manslaughter

Manslaughter charges have been filed against Mrs. Virginia Pearson 26, in the fatal shooting Wednesday of Frank Martin, 48, a former sheriff's deputy.

The affidavit was signed by Mrs. Isabel Martin, 1293 Broadview-av, the dead man's widow. The affidavit accused the 29-year-old brunette divorcee with the unintentional shooting of Mr. Martin.

The former deputy was shot in Mrs. Pearson's home at 93 Mixrd.

Mrs. Pearson told deputies Mr Martin was shot during a scuffle over possession of his gun, a .25-caliber automatic. She pleaded not guilty when she was arraigned late Friday before Justice of [illegible] Township. She was held to the grand jury under $500 bond.

Three Firemen Treated Here Monday Following Call

Three firemen from No. 17 Engine House were treated by emergency squadmen Monday evening after they became ill following a run to the residence of Mrs. Rose Grundstein, 269 S. Harris-av.

Gas fumes from a leaky refrigerator made the men ill after they were called to disconnect it.

Those who were given oxygen were Lt. John Herold, 46, of 389 S. Richardson-av, Robert Foran, 59, of 1181 W. Broad-st, and William Peterfy, 24, of 186 Nashoba-av.

Local Pastor's Mother Dies In Nova Scotia

Rev. Harris B. Anthony, pastor of the Warren Avenue Church of the Nazarene, returned with Mrs. Anthony Monday morning from a Nazarene convention in St. Louis, Mo. only to receive word of the death of Rev. Anthony's mother Sunday.

He left by plane for Boston that afternoon and was scheduled to fly from Boston to Halifax, Nova Scotia, where the pastor's mother resided. Funeral services were scheduled for Wednesday.

Rev. Anthony expects to be back in his pulpit Sunday morning.

Warren-av, was reported Wednesday as being in critical condition in Springfield City Hospital with injuries suffered Tuesday following an auto crash in Rt. 40 about two miles west of Springfield. A woman companion, identified by State Highway Patrolmen as Mrs. Elizabeth Ward of Springfield, was killed when the car went out of control and hit a tree.

Child Cuts Hand On Milk Bottle

A three-year-old child received a severe hand laceration Monday when she fell on a milk bottle at the rear of her home.

She is Judy Hensley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hensley, of 1554 W. Broad-st. She was taken to Mt. Carmel Hospital by police and later transferred to Children's Hospital.

GRANDPARENTS NOW

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wagner, 667 Wiltshire-rd, became grandparents for the first time this week. A baby daughter was born in White Cross Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Phillips of London, Ohio, Saturday. Mrs. Phillips is the former Eleanor Wagner.

Holiday Week Coming Up

Because of the July 4th holiday next week, The Hilltop Record office will be open all day Saturday so that employees can enjoy the holiday on Monday. This will necessitate prompt adherence to all copy deadlines. It is requested that all church notices be brought or sent to the Record office on Saturday.

Most Hilltop business firms that close on Wednesday afternoons will remain open for business next Wednesday, having been closed all day on Monday.

Dr. Palmer Cordray

Helped To Organize One Of Aviation's Most Unique Groups -- Over 50 Club

Dr. Cordray

It may be the younger men who win the glory in the air with their daring exploits but it's the older men who make the safest pilots, statistics prove.

It was on that theory that Dr. Palmer Cordray 2553 Sullivant-av, a local physician, and several men past the 50-year mark in life decided to organize one of the most unique groups known to aviation. It is unofficially known as the "Over 50 Club," however, the name has never been definitely voted upon. In fact the members don't even pay dues, elect officers or any of the other usual formalities engaged in by organized groups. It is the only club of its kind known to exist today.

There are "about" 27 members of the group scattered throughout the state. Fourteen of them are from Columbus.

Sunday they had one of their monthly get-to-gethers at the Jo[illegible] Flying Service where they had dinner and discussed some of the phases of private plane operation.

The group was started about six months ago by the joint efforts of Dr. Cordray, Colonel Johnson and Frank Garn with the moral assistance of Gomer Jones, operator of the local airport. Garn has served as something of a one-man chamber of commerce in getting members at various centers throughout the state where he is a frequent visitor [illegible] his own private plane.

The original idea was to restrict membership to men who learned to fly after they had reached age 50 but some of the members were flying before that age.

"We wanted to prove that flying is not limited to young people," Dr. Cordray said.

Records show that the older pilots have the higher safety history. The following figure illustrate that point conclusively:

Age Group	Student Pilots
Under 20	88.5
20-24	100
25-29	246
30-34	240
35-39	432
40-44	500
45-49	271
50-54	205
55-59	217

(Figures in right hand column represent student pilot safety record based on standard of 100 for age 20-24.)

Dr. Cordray is not alone in his interest in flying in his immediate family. His oldest son, Robert, was in the Army Air Forces for five years ending up as a B-29 pilot flying over Tokyo. At present he is flying Constellations commercially for Pan American Airways over the Atlantic division.

Richard, who graduated from Ohio State University in June of this year, served in the Navy 19 months and obtained his private pilot's license after returning to civilian life. Mrs. Cordray is very much interested in flying and is a frequent passenger on their jaunts to various cities via their own private plane.

Granted License Last Year

Dr. Cordray obtained his private license in November of last year. His work prevents his flying as much as he would like but he manages to get into the air for a couple of hours each week.

In addition to his professional practice in Columbus, Dr. Cordray will be remembered by athletic fans of a few years back as football coach at East High School.

Hilltop Library To Be Closed Monday

The Hilltop Branch Library, 21 N. Hague-av, will be closed Monday, July 5, in celebration of Independence Day.

At present the library operates on the summer schedule of hours. It is open daily from 9 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. and on Saturdays from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Sorrow Comes Again To Welker Family Here

Sorrow returned to the Earl F. Welker home, 123 N. Burgess-av for the second time in a month.

On June 4 a son, Gordon, died as a result of an auto crash along the Scioto River, north of the Columbus Zoo, just a few days before he was to have received his diploma from West High School. Last week the family was notified that the body of their son, Technical Sergeant George H. Welker was to be returned for interment. Sgt. Welker was killed over Dunkirk on June 20, 1944.

Arrangements are being made to have him buried in the Camp Butler National Cemetery, Springfield, Ill. The exact date of the service is not known at this time.

Sgt. Welker enlisted in the Army Air Forces and had served three years before he met his death in a B-17. He was an engineer-gunner and had served overseas four months. Before entering the service he had graduated from West High School and was doing electrical work for a contracting firm. He was 24 at the time he met his death.

He is survived by his parents, a sister, Dorothy Fosnaugh, and five brothers, Jim, Vincent, Robert, Richard and Earl.

Auto Damaged By Falling Limb Tues.

An auto belonging to Lawrence Odea, 57 Belvidere-av, was damaged when a big limb from a tree near his home fell during the hard storm Tuesday evening. The top was mashed in and the windshield broken from the impact.

The hard rain, accompanied by a driving wind, did considerable damage about the Hilltop. The area immediately to the south of the Hilltop was without light for almost four hours as a result of storm damage.

Falling limbs were also reported in the vicinity of 219 S. Harris-av.

Church Bells Will Ring Here Sunday

Hilltop church bells are expected to join a city-wide chorus from 9:55 to 10 a. m. Sunday commemorating the ringing of the Liberty Bell in 1776.

Dr. Donald Timmerman, executive secretary of the Franklin County Council of Churches, said he expected a majority of the churches of the Columbus area would cooperate.

Special sermons will be delivered from most local pulpits in keeping with the occasion.

OMITTED FROM HONOR ROLL

The name of Marilyn Gaugel, 323 N. Warren-av, an 11B student at West High School, should have been included in the all A's group of honor pupils published in The Hilltop Record last week.

Work To Get Started On Camp Chase Building

Plans Near Completion For New Legion Home On W. Broad-st.

Plans for a $30,000 to $35,000 American Legion home on the Hilltop were announced this week by Ray McVay, chairman of a special building committee of Camp Chase Post No. 98.

At the present time the plans are undergoing last-minute inspection by the committee and are expected to be ready to submit for bids very soon. McVay said that it was possible that some activity could be gotten under way by mid-August.

The new building, a memorial to the Hilltoppers who served in World War II, will be erected on a lot on the north side of West Broad-st, just east of Westgate-av. The project for the building was started during the war and is expected to fill a long-felt need for a permanent home for the local post.

Serving with McVay on the building committee are Chester Wagner, Edgar Planck, Frank Morgan, Dewey Stout, Ernest Brown and John Martindale, commander of the post who is an ex-officio member.

The new building would be erected on a foundation 40 feet by 120 feet. It would be one story with a full basement. It would provide a large assembly hall suitable for banquets, dances and assemblies; committee rooms, a modern kitchen, room for Scout activities and ample storage facilities.

It will be built of cement block with a front appropriate for the location. It is hoped to have it completed by early winter, McVay pointed out.

Camp Chase Post was organized on the Hilltop in 1929. At present it has close to 500 members. During its 19-year history it has met in seven different locations. At present, rented quarters are maintained in the K of P Hall at Burgess-av and W. Broad-st. This will be its first permanent home. The building site was acquired shortly after the original campaign was opened to erect the memorial building.

Work Started On Site For Bean Dinner

Workmen have started making a general cleanup of Westgate Park so that the scene of the Hilltop Bean Dinner on July 28 will be in ship shape, members of the bean dinner committee heard when they met Tuesday noon.

Ed Melvin in charge of the grounds, reports that every department of the city has been very cooperative and that dead trees are being removed, toilets repaired, benches provided, weeds cut, and a number of other improvements are on schedule. Full cooperation from the police department has also been promised.

Charley Haas and Don Rice in charge of the actual serving of the beans, report that they are preparing to serve about a half ton of beans that day. A generous portion of beans, crackers and coffee will be provided for a service charge of 10c. Serving of the beans will start about 2:30 and continue until 4:30 and then again from about 6:30 to 8:30 or as long as the beans last.

A special committee has been appointed to purchase merchandise to be auctioned at the scrip auction. Hundreds of items with a total value of over $1000 will be sold to the highest bidders among those using Hilltop Scrip. Scrip may be obtained from about 100 member firms of the association with each purchase or payment on account.

Merchants in the association are invited to have displays of other merchandising features at the bean dinner.

8 Free Movies To Be Presented By Kiwanis Club

An expanded program of free movies for the kids of the Hilltop this summer has been announced by Donald F. Smith chairman of the youth work committee of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club.

Eight shows will be presented on alternating Saturday afternoons at the Rivoli and Ritz. The dates through the cooperation of George Pekras, owner of both houses.

Carl Dale, Mack Pemberton and Charles Reichelderfer will be in direct charge of the shows. Tickets will be distributed free of charge to each of the six playgrounds now in operation on the Hilltop. They may also be obtained at The Hilltop Record office, 2465 W. Broad-st.

The first of the shows will be held at the Rivoli Theater on July 10, starting at 1:30 p. m. The picture will be "Frontier Feud." A musical comedy cartoon will also be shown.

Marjorie Kroeten Rates All "A's"

Marjorie Kroeten, 467 Belvidere-av, completed the spring quarter at Ohio State University with a straight "A" average. She is enrolled in the home economics department.

She was one of only two Columbus students to rate an all "A" average.

Mrs. Robert Cline, 37, of 802 S. Richardson-av, was cut and bruised Tuesday when the taxicab in which she was riding was in collision at Mound-st and Eureka-av with an automobile driven by Thomas B. Doyle, 815 Chestershire-rd, police reported.

Doyle's daughter, Diana, 9, also was cut and bruised. She and Mrs. Cline were treated at Mt. Carmel Hospital.

If Summer's Here, Can Grid Season Be Far Behind -- Schedule Complete

It may be just the start of July to most Hilltoppers, but to Mack Pemberton, coach of the West High School city grid champs last year, that means that the start of football practice is little more than six weeks away.

Junior and senior candidates for the 1948 squad will be asked to report for the first practice on Aug. 20. Sophomores will be put to work a short time later under this year's plan of operation. The West coach feels that better work can be done with the smaller squad.

Two pre-season games have been scheduled this year with the regular 10-game card of games to start on Sept. 17 when the Cowboys trek to Marion.

Conditioning tilts have been scheduled with Grandview on Sept. 3 and Newark on Sept. 10.

The complete schedule is published for the first time as follows:

Sept. 3—at Grandview*
Sept. 10—at Newark*
Sept. 17—at Marion
Sept. 24—Arlington here
Oct. 1—East here.
Oct. 8—at South
Oct. 15—at Central
Oct. 22—New Philadelphia
Oct. 29—Aquinas here
Nov. 5—Linden McKinley here
Nov. 12—North here
Nov. 19—at Cincinnati Hughes

*Pre-season games.
West Homecoming attraction.

Both Marion and New Philadelphia are new additions to the West schedule this season. Marion takes the place of the Springfield tilt played at Springfield. New Philly, the homecoming attraction, takes the place of what was a poorly matched Jackson eleven last year.

Dave Randall and Fred Beischman will again assist Pemberton with his coaching duties this year. Assignment of reserve coaches will not be made until the start of school when Ohio State physical education majors will be sent here for practice assignments.

NAMED VICE COMMANDER — Clark Finneran, 211 S. Eureka-av, was elected vice commander of the 12th District of Department of Ohio, American Legion, in an election held Sunday. The district comprises all of Franklin County.

Finneran, a veteran of World War I, has long been active in Legion affairs. He is a past commander of Camp Chase Post No. 98 and a former president of the Franklin County Council.

Notices Sent On Sullivant Paving Job

Notices are being served this week on property owners along Sullivant-av between Hague-av and the corporation line advising them of the cost of repaving that Hilltop thoroughfare.

City Engineer Paul Maetzel said that under the provision of the street improvement provided in the 1945 bond issue, the city is standing 65 per cent of the cost while the property owner will pay the balance by assessment against his tax duplicate. The cost to property owners in this instance will be $7.40 per front foot, Maetzel said.

The city official said that it may be two weeks before all of the notices are served since some of the owners of the property live in other cities. He said he doubted if the actual construction work would be undertaken this year since it would be late fall before the contract could be let for the work. Maetzel said he doubted the advisability of doing that type of work during the winter months.

The work of paving short sections of Binns-blvd and Wiltshire-rd from Vandenberg-av to the southern corporation line is now under way and several alley improvements are being considered for the Hilltop.

The city engineer also pointed out that the contract for resurfacing of Hague-av from W. Broad-st to Sullivant-av has already been let. Work is expected to start soon.

State Patients Here Vaccinated For Tuberculosis

Inmates of two Hilltop state-operated institutions were being used to test a new vaccine said to produce an immunity to tuberculosis.

Vaccinating patients at the Columbus State School got under way Tuesday while chest X-rays were being made of inmates of the Columbus State Hospital. More than 11,000 patients in state institutions, including the state penitentiary, will be involved in the first testing of the vaccine.

The vaccine is described as a builder of immunity against tuberculosis. Dr. Arnold B. Kurlander, chief of the division of tuberculosis of the State Health Department, said:

Hilltop Kiwanis Club To Hear Reports

Today's meeting of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club will be in the form of an open forum with reports from various committees presented on the floor.

In the event that M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner, delegate to the national convention in Los Angeles, returns in time for the meeting, he may make his report to the local club.

Dr. R. J. Miller, president of the club, will preside at the luncheon meeting to be held at Schmelzer's Restaurant, 3178 W. Broad-st.

Pvt. Lieberman To Be Returned Here For Final Rites

The body of Pvt. Bernard Lieberman, 23-year old son of Mrs. Mary Lieberman, 562 Belvidere-av, is being brought home from France aboard the Transport Greenville Victory. He is expected to arrive in Columbus in the next 10 days.

Pvt. Lieberman was killed in action with the 83rd Division in France in August, 1944. An alumnus of East High School, he was with the F. & R. Lazarus & Co. when he enlisted.

In addition to his mother he is survived by two sisters, Lillian and Ruth Lieberman and two brothers, Harold and Irving Lieberman, all of Columbus.

Services Held Monday For Pfc. Roy Jaynes

Funeral services for Pfc. Roy Jaynes, formerly of Oak Hill, were held at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Estyn Jaynes, 1573 Thomas av. Monday at 2 p. m.

Pfc. Jaynes was killed in action on Christmas Day, 1943, while serving with an Army cavalry unit in Arawe, New Britain. He entered the service in April, 1942 and was sent overseas three months later. His body was returned to the Hilltop for burial last week.

Pfc. Jaynes was employed at the Etna Brick Yard in Oak Hill before enlisting in the service.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by three brothers, Stewart and Rodger of Columbus, and Carl of San Jose, Calif., and three sisters. Another brother, Howard, was killed on May 9, 1947, in an auto accident.

Burial was in Green Lawn Cemetery.

Original Wedding Pictures Wanted

The Hilltop Record welcomes the opportunity to publish the photographs of brides-to-be or newly married couples where they have not previously been published in other newspapers.

The Record regrets that because of continually mounting costs, it cannot use pictures previously published. It is suggested that persons desiring publication of wedding pictures contact Miss Libby Downing, society editor of The Record, as far in advance as possible. The telephone number is RA. 1125.

Double-ring Rites Unite Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Jerry Boggs

Glenwood Methodist Church was the scene of the 5 o'clock wedding uniting Miss Delores Rose Corbin and Mr. Melvin Jerry Boggs, on Sunday. Rev. J. B. Shellhaas officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Corbin, 520 Catherine-st, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Quinton Boggs, 2215 Eakin-rd.

A gown of heavy white satin, featuring a sheer net yoke, and deep lace ruffle, was chosen by the bride. The fingertip veil of bridal illusion was held in place by a rhinestone band. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses and baby breath, with an orchid corsage as the centerpiece.

Miss Betty Jane Corbin, cousin of the bride, acted as maid of honor. The bride's matron was Mrs. Katherine Sharon, and bridesmaids were Miss Phyllis Church and Miss Mary Davis. Two nieces of the bride, Barbara Ann Corbin and Rose Marie Crawford, attended her as flower girls.

Mr. Bill Boggs, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and seating the guests were Mr. John Canter, Mr. Raymond Corbin and Mr. Bob Thacker.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents immediately following the service.

After a two week honeymoon in Miami, Fla., and Washington, D. C., the couple will return to Columbus to make their home. Their temporary address is 2215 Eakin-rd.

Rinehart-Haskins Vows Read On May 30

White gladioli and blue delphiniums decorated Glenwood Methodist Church for the wedding, May 30, of Miss Mary J. Haskins and Robert D. Rinehart. Rev. J. D. Shellhass officiated at the 2:30 p. m. ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Haskins of Neffs, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Rinehart, 239 S. Warren-av.

Miss Kathleen Closser acted as maid of honor.

Best man was Robert M. Riggs, and ushers were Mr. Allan Grinstead, Mr. Bruce Durfey and Mr. Jerry Postle.

Hostesses at the reception held at the church were Mrs. Mary B. Riggs, Mis Helen Holt and Mrs. Francis Rinehart.

Mary Ellen Mitchell To Marry Mr. Drake In August Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mitchell, 49 N. Chase-av, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Mary Ellen, to Mr. Donovan Drake, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Drake, 1578 Sullivant-av.

Both are graduates of West High School. Miss Mitchell is associated with the Boy Scouts of America and Mr. Drake attends Ohio State University.

The open church wedding will be an event of August 13, in the Highland Avenue Friends Church. Rev. Chester G. Stanley will officiate at the 7:15 p.m. service.

Spring Ceremony Solemnized Here

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Mary Jane Shade and Mr. Robert Phelps which took place April 25 in Broad Street Church of Christ with Dr. Floyd Faust officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Jacob Shade, 1023 Miller-av, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr and Mrs. Allen J. Phelps, 2288 Dublin-rd.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown with an illusion yoke outlined in a satin fold. The full skirt was caught up by rosettes of seed pearls and fell softly into a long train. Her fingertip veil of maline fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a small white Bible topped with white gardenias and ribbon streamers tied with lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Constance Sherman and Miss Patricia Moore were the attendants and wore green and orchid gowns respectively. They carried colonial bouquets of roses, carnations and sweet peas tied with streamers.

Mr. Richard Jones was the best man and the ushers were Mr. Gene Shade, brother of the bride, Mr. George Ohlinger and Mr. Richard Gubsch.

The couple resides at 6761 Harrisburg-pk.

Looking Ahead with Jean Worrel

Women as the buyers of the nation have a highly developed sense of values. Years of bargain hunting have conditioned them so they can see through gaudy wrappings to the essential value of the product. That is why much of the increased income being earned by women in business nowadays is set aside to purchase annuities, endowments, and other forms of life assurance protection. With business women generally retiring at an earlier age than men, their need for such protection is very great and has resulted in the number of women owning life assurance policies today being twice the pre-war figure. The average policy, too, is for a considerably larger amount. Why not talk your policy over with me today?

It is suggested that persons desiring publication of wedding pictures contact Miss Libby Downing, society editor of The Record, as far in advance as possible. The telephone number is RA. 1126.

Double-ring Rites Unite Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Jerry Boggs

Glenwood Methodist Church was the scene of the 5 o'clock wedding uniting Miss Delores Rose Corbin and Mr. Melvin Jerry Boggs, on Sunday. Rev. J. D. Shellhass officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Corbin, 320 Catherine-st, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Quinton Boggs, 2215 Eakin-rd.

A gown of heavy white satin, featuring a sheer net yoke, and deep lace ruffle, was chosen by the bride. The fingertip veil of bridal illusion was held in place by a rhinestone band. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses and baby breath, with an orchid corsage as the centerpiece.

Miss Betty Jane Corbin, cousin of the bride, acted as maid of honor. The bride's matron was Mrs. Katherine Sharon, and bridesmaids were Miss Phyllis Church and Miss Mary Davis. Two nieces of the bride, Barbara Ann Corbin and Rose Marie Crawford, attended her as flower girls.

Mr. Bill Boggs, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and seating the guests were Mr. John Canter, Mr. Raymond Corbin and Mr. Bob Thacker.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents immediately following the service.

After a two week honeymoon in Miami, Fla., and Washington, D. C., the couple will return to Columbus to make their home. Their temporary address is 2215 Eakin-rd.

Rinehart-Haskins Vows Read On May 30

White gladioli and blue delphiniums decorated Glenwood Methodist Church for the wedding, May 30, of Miss Mary J. Haskins and Robert D. Rinehart. Rev. J. D. Shellhass officiated at the 2:30 p. m. ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Haskins of Neffs, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Rinehart, 239 S. Warren-av.

Miss Kathleen Closser acted as maid of honor.

Best man was Robert M. Riggs, and ushers were Mr. Allan Grinstead, Mr. Bruce Durfey and Mr. Jerry Postle.

Hostesses at the reception held at the church were Mrs. Mary B. Riggs, Mis Helen Holt and Mrs. Francis Rinehart.

Mary Ellen Mitchell To Marry Mr. Drake In August Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mitchell, 49 N. Chase-av, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Mary Ellen, to Mr. Donovan Drake, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Drake, 1878 Sullivant-av.

Both are graduates of West High School. Miss Mitchell is associated with the Boy Scouts of America and Mr. Drake attends Ohio State University.

The open church wedding will be an event of August 13, in the Highland Avenue Friends Church. Rev. Chester G. Stanley will officiate at the 7:15 p. m. service.

Spring Ceremony Solemnized Here

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Mary Jane Shade and Mr. Robert Phelps which took place April 25 in Broad Street Church of Christ with Dr. Floyd Faust officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Jacob Shade, 1023 Miller-av, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen J. Phelps, 2288 Dublin-rd.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown with an illusion yoke outlined in a satin fold. The full skirt was caught up by rosettes of seed pearls and fell softly into a long train. Her fingertip veil of maline fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a small white Bible topped with white gardenias and ribbon streamers tied with lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Constance Sherman and Miss Patricia Moore were the attendants and wore green and orchid gowns respectively. They carried colonial bouquets of roses, carnations and sweet peas tied with streamers.

Mr. Richard Jones was the best man and the ushers were Mr. Gene Shade, brother of the bride, Mr. George Ohlinger and Mr. Richard Gubsch.

The couple resides at 6761 Harrisburg-pk.

Looking Ahead with
Jean Worrel
Women as the buyers of the nation have a highly developed sense of values. Years of bargain hunting have conditioned them so they can see through gaudy wrappings to the essential value of the product. That is why much of the increased income being earned by women in business nowadays is set aside to purchase annuities, endowments, and other forms of life assurance protection. With business women generally retiring at an earlier age than men, their need for such protection is very great and has resulted in the number of women owning life assurance policies today being twice the pre-war figure. The average policy, too, is for a considerably larger amount. Why not talk your policy over with me today?

Cub Pack 63

Cub Pack 63 had a picnic and an Indian pow-wow June 18 at Maple Shades.

A game of softball, horseshoes and swimming were enjoyed by the Cubs and their parents.

At dusk an Indian pow-wow was held around a campfire. Each Den represented the following Indian tribes: Den 1—Cherokee; Den 2—Kickapoo; Den 3—Comanche; Den 4—Pueblos; Den 6—Sioux. The Cubs were in costume and did an Indian dance around the fire.

The following Cubs received their achievement awards:

Registrations — David Kendall No. 3, Rawland Bezold No. 4, John Hummel No. 4, Neil Brown No. 6.

Bobcat—Rawland Bezold No. 4, Jack Morgan No. 4, Eugene Russell No. 4, Neil Brown No. 6.

Two Year Service Star—James Davis No. 1.

Assistant Denner Stripe—Jim Heinzleman No. 3.

Denner Stripe—Kail Linebrink No. 3.

Wolf Badge—John Kelly No. 3, Frank Faistl No. 4.

Wolf Gold Arrow—John Kelly No. 3, John Kuntz No. 3, Kail Linebrink No. 3, Frank Faistl No. 4.

Wolf Silver Arrow—John Kuntz No. 3, Kail Linebrink No. 3, Ronnie Slabaugh No. 3, Frank Faistl No. 4.

Bear Badge—Arthur Andrews No. 4.

Bear Silver Arrow—Walter Ritter No. 6.

Lion Gold Arrow — John Thompson No. 4.

Webelow Badge—John Thompson No. 4.

Graduation Certificates — Dale Seibert No. 4, John Thompson No. 4.

Den Chief Cord—Roger Burlew No. 3.

The Pack ended its activities for the summer until September.

Troop 79

Thirteen members of Troop 79 had an over-night camp at Old Man's Cave Saturday night and Sunday. The group left Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church Saturday noon and returned Sunday evening.

Committeemen in charge were Edward Thomas, James Walton and Paul Wichterman. Also making the trip were Bob Walton and Jimmy Wichterman. Scoutmaster Richard McFadden and Dave Haines, assistant, were unavoidably detained at the last minute and were unable to make the trip.

Pack 43

Cubs of Pack 43 and their parents attended the June pack picnic supper at Maple Shades last Thursday evening, June 24. The committee of the pack planned at its last meeting that pop, ice cream and admission to the playgrounds be furnished by the pack.

Troop 29

Sixteen members of Troop 29 with four adult leaders had an overnight camp near North Lewisburg, Ohio, on June 12 and 13. While there they had an opportunity to study soil conservation as it is being practiced in that area.

Cub Pack 250

The Cub Scout Pack 250 held its monthly meeting on June 24. The Cubs had as their guests Mr. Duncan, assistant southwest commissioner, and Jim Jaquay, scoutmaster of Troop 250.

The project for the past month was for the cubs to make Tom-Tom drums. The judges were Mrs. Anna Borowitz, Mr. Grant, and Cecilia Heitner. They awarded plaques for the boys who made the best drums to Danny Matyak, Den 4, a Wolf; Jerry Walsh, Den 3, a Bear; Robert Davis, Den 4, a Lion.

The membership pennant was won by Den 1 having 84% attendance.

Mr. Grant, the magician, furnished entertainment doing some of his many magic tricks for the cubs, their parents and guests.

The cubs had completed various requirements and were given their awards as follows: membership cards to Paul Borowitz, James Bradley, Robert Lee, John Guzzo, Fred Galucci, Pat Mahoney, and William Lee.

Bobcat awards to William Lee, Robert Lee, John Guzzo, of Den 6, Jack Dolfinger, Den 1, Fred Galucci, Den 2.

Wolf pin to Edward Shroeder, Den 2; Wolf and Bear pins to Donald Kienle, Den 2. Wolf, Bear and Lion to Ted Roberts, Den 4; Wolf, Bear, Lion and Gold Arrow to Edward Zasutdil, Den 5; Wolf, Bear, Lion, Gold and Silver Arrow to Patrick Martindale, Den 2.

Den 2 of Pack 250 held its monthly meeting on June 23 at Glenwood Park. It was in the form of a picnic. Those present were Robert and David Maxwell, David and Jimmy Shea, Wayne Claggett, Fred and Mike Gallucci, Patrick Martindale, Den Chief Kenny Martindale, and Bob Patterson, a member of Troop 250.

On June 16 Den 2 of Pack 250 held an election of officers. The following were elected: Patrick Martindale, denner; Timothy Shea, assistant denner; Wayne Claggett, keeper of the buckskin, and Eddy Shroeder, contact man. David Maxwell is mascot.

On June 30th Den Mother Mrs. Kenneth Martindale was to have presented prizes to the boys who have had perfect attendance for the past three months. These boys are Wayne Clagett, Eddy Shroeder, Robert and David Maxwell, Patrick Martindale.

Hilltop Parents Hold Meet Wed.

The Hilltop Parents Association was scheduled to meet Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Delbert Prillerman, Sr., is president of the group and Mrs. Elizabeth Shaw is the director.

This group of parents and adults was organized by the board of education of the Wheatland Avenue Methodist Church but its membership is not limited to the church. It has been accepted as a member of the Council of Social Agencies.

Membership of the group is made up of parents and other adults who are interested in promoting recreation, better health, higher standards of parenthood and human welfare.

It Pays To Advertise For Honest People

Last Monday Mose Williams found a purse in a building downtown. It contained a neat sum of money. He has watched the ad columns in the papers but as yet has not found a person who had enough confidence in human nature to believe anyone would be so honest as to return the purse.

Last Thursday Mrs. Williams had a similar experience when she found a purse in a downtown store. It too had considerable money in it. She too watched the ads but this time the loser must have known the world is full of a number of honest people and so she advertised her loss. On Monday the purse and contents were returned to the rightful owner.

Moral of the story: A modern Diogenes would throw away his lantern when looking for an honest person—he would advertise.

during the days of the immortal Chic Harley. He coached the All-America grid great all three years that he played high school ball. Although the local physician does not consider it outstanding, his team (with Harley as a player) lost only one game in three years — that to North High.

Another of his grid stars was Joe Mulbarger, considered along with West High's Yip Owen as the greatest punters of their day. Before coming to East as a coach, Dr. Cordray had starred in football and baseball at Ohio Wesleyan University under the coaching of Branch Rickey. It was Branch who got him his first coaching job at Dickinson Seminary, a prep school at Williamsport, Pa. After three years there he came back to Columbus to enter med school at OSU but World War I interferred with his plans temporarily. After serving 16 months in the armed services, he came back to Columbus to study medicine. He set up his practice in 1924 and later came to the Hilltop in 1941.

While a student at OSU he paid all expenses by officiating football and basketball games. He worked high school games on Fridays and Big Six Conference contests on Saturdays.

Dr. Cordray is a member of the Hilltop Business Association, the Masonic Blue Lodge, the Columbus Academy of Medicine and the American Medical Association.

LETTER TO ANNE BOLEYN

And so you lost your pretty head
—but not until his favor first was lost to you.
I finger, wonderingly, my own smooth throat,
unwinding jeweled words
As they slip through my thoughts I turn from anguish to the tower of your captivity, remembering,
it was your lot to know a fatal hour
you laid aside the jewels of a king.

Now like a queen disposed I bend my knee,
and make my prayer for courage at the block, and wear my cloak of pride disdainfully, nor turn my head toward those inclined to mock.

Though dull for striking flesh and soul apart
the blade of bitterness can reach the heart.

West Park, Salvation Army Only Undefeated Teams Here

By Dave Miller

West Park and Salvation Army each scored 11 runs in their West Church League outings on Monday evening to remain in the unbeaten ratings.

They are the only softball nines undefeated in both the League No. 1 and No. 2 West Park is the pacer, however, having won two more contests than Salvation Army, in the League No. 2.

League No. 1 has St. Aloysius on top. Although having been defeated once, they are one and one-half games ahead of second-place Westgate, which was also a victor Monday. Westgate's victim, Burgess EUB, had to go down a few notches because of the setback. They were only a half-game ahead of thrice-beaten Glenwood, last week.

In the games played, in League No. 1, St. Aloysius handed Glenwood Methodist another close loss, this time winning, 3 to 1. The first time these two nines met in Round One, the first-place nine edged out Glenwood, 2 to 1. Westgate shut out Burgess EUB, 4 to 0, to tighten its grip on second place, and in the battle for the cellar, Hoge Memorial fell prey to Hilltop Church of God in a game that ended with an 11 to 5 score. Hoge was the loser in the first meeting with Hilltop, 5 to 4.

In the League No. 2, the two yet-to-beat teams, Salvation Army and West Park, each tallied 11 runs against Avondale and St. John A. C., respectively. Avondale was collared and St. John managed to eke out a duo of runs. In the other game, Chicago Avenue Church of God won its third game of the year, beating Hillcrest, 17 to 10. Chicago Avenue was a 13 to 6 winner the first time these teams met.

Because of the holiday, there are no games scheduled for Monday night.

New Books Are Added At Hilltop Library

Seven new books have been added to the reading shelf at the Hilltop Branch Library sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service of Glenwood Methodist Church. They are as follows:

"1000 Quotable Poems" by Thomas Clark. An anthology of modern verse to be used for personal enjoyment or for worship programs.

"I Quote" by Virginia Ely. A collection of quotations by ancient and modern authors, arranged by subject matter.

"Rural Parish" by Anna Gebhard. Experiences of a minister's bride on a three-point circuit.

"Prophet in the Wilderness" by Hermann Hagedorn. The biography of Albert Schweitzer, a doctor of medicine, a doctor of theology, a doctor of philosophy, a doctor of music, who has spent half of his life as a medical missionary in Africa.

"A Hundred Years of China Methodism" by Walter Lucy. A history of Methodists missions in China.

"The World's Great Madonnas" by Cynthia Maus. An anthology of pictures, poetry, music and stories of the Madonna and Child.

"Does God Exist?" by Alfred Taylor. An essay proving that scientific objections to theistic belief are unsound.

Other books already on the shelf are: "An Outline of Missions" by John Aberly. "East River" by Shalom Asch. "Worship Programs and Stories for Young People" by Alice Boys. "Worship Programs in the Fine Arts for Young People" by Alice Boys. "Your Child's Religion" by Mildred Eakin. "The Modern Parent and the Teaching Church" by Wesner Fallow. "Distinguished Negroes Abroad" by Beatrice Fleming.

"In the Secret Place of the Most High" by Arthur Gossip. "Christianity and the Family" by Ernest Groves. "Man the Measure" by Erich Kahler. "Meet Yourself" by Roy L. Lawrin. "Human Destiny" by Pierre Lecomte du Nouy. "Rediscovery of Morals" by Henry Link. "Christ and the Fine Arts" by Cynthia Maus. "Live, Love and Learn" by Joseph Newton. "African Journey" by Kopeson. "Relevance of the Bible" by Harold Rowley. "Opening the Door to God" by Herman Sweet. "Foundations for Reconstruction" by David Trueblood. "Predicament of Modern Man" by David Trueblood. "Fireside Book of Christmas Stories" by Edward Wagenkecht. "The Story of Jesus in the World's Literature" by Edward Wagenkecht.

West High Slugger Gets 10 Bingles For Afternoon At Bat

Dick Kirk, recently elected as unanimous All-City outfielder for West High School, on the Ohio State Journal, Columbus Dispatch, and Columbus Citizen, led the attack for the Navy-Marine Green Cabs as they swamped Grove City Paschal Post in an American Legion Western League doubleheader, 25 to 0, and 35 to 0.

The Grove City nine used three pitchers in the opener and one less in the nightcap. Paul Theisen, who won seven and lost three for the co-champions, West, gave up only two hits in slugfest first game and Phil Young, 15-year-old sophomore, who hurled two one-hitters for the Cowboys, gave up only three bingles. Theisen and Young each struck out 14 batters.

Kirk in getting 10 hits for the day, hit three home runs. He will be back for West's baseball team again next year.

Gerry Murray and Billy Bogash have been selected to captain the local aggregation. Toughie Brathun and Ken Monte will be the New York captains. Each city is represented by a men's and women's squad, with five skaters competing with each team at a time.

FEATURED IN JULY 4 AND 5 AIR SHOW—This old World War I French Nieuport fighter is one of many planes to be seen in the JayCee National Air Show to be held at Port Columbus on July 4 and 5.

Among the featured numbers in this two-day show is the aerial acrobatics of Hilltopper Dave Binns, considered one of the best in the business today. He will be seen in his "Flight of Yesteryear," a jump with his special German ribbon chute, and in "American Flag Parachute Jump."

The newest Army and Navy jet-propelled planes will also be exhibited and their performance will highlight the show.

Safety Is Stressed For Sane Fourth Of July

"Now, today, this very moment is the accepted time to resolve that July the Fourth will come and go this year without accident or fatality," said Joseph Hall, president of the Kroger Grocery Company and general chairman of the Governor's Ohio Fire Safety Committee.

"Sheriff,s fire chiefs and policemen can and will do much to protect you and your children from the hazard of firecrackers. Better than ever before, they are organized this year to wrap the mantle of safety around Ohio citizens, but, continued Hall "they cannot put safety sense into the heads and behavior of folks who will neither listen nor learn."

A funeral may be the bitter price you will pay for holiday carelessness. A maimed hand, lost fingers, eyes that never again will see loved ones and nature's beauties, are holiday souvenirs nobody covets for himself or family.

"Fireworks are all right as mass entertainment when they are set off under specified conditions by persons qualified and authorized to handle them," said Roger Bear, safety engineer of the Kroger Grocery Company, and executive director of the committee.

"In those circumstances fireworks can be enjoyed by thousands at a time without danger to anyone," but, Mr. Bear pointed out, "there will be chiselers cruising in autcmobiles, selling their wares wherever youngsters congregate, and every parent in Ohio should cooperate with his police authorities to eliminate this practice."

We confidently rely on the cooperation of parents, teachers, church members and citizens in general, to do their share in the state-wide campaign for a safe and sane national holiday.

News of Rome

By Mrs. E. C. Sheets

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Nichols and son, Boyd, of Fairbault, Minn., visited last week with his brother, Dr. E. T. Nichols, W. Broad-st. They were on a vacation trip that would take them to Washington, D. C., and other places of interest in the East and then home by way of Niagara Falls.

Mary Neal of Mt. Gilead was a house guest at the home of Mrs. Jack Elliott, Amity-rd, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Rarey (Marion Howell) of W. Broad-st are staying at her home on Pasadena-av while the Howells are on vacation.

Mrs. William Snyder, Lawrence-av, has returned from visiting her daughter, Mrs. Andrea, in Indianapolis, and the twins, Monajean and Donnajane, children of Mrs. Andrea, are visiting her.

Mrs. Virginia Mae Richey, Pasadena-av, who figured in an automobile accident last Saturday evening, seems to be none the worse for the shock she received.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Caldwell and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Metcalf, Columbus, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Barnecut, Maple-dr.

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Thompson and son, Bob, enjoyed a picnic supper Sunday evening on the lawn of the Warners' home, Pasadena-av.

Rex Lamb fell from his wagon while playing. He received a bad cut on his head. It took some time to quiet the bleeding before his mother found that he had a half inch cut.

The parents of Beverly Rock of Windber, Pa., were in Westerville Sunday afternoon to attend the wedding of their daughter, who was married in the EUB Church of that town. Mr. and Mrs. Warner, Priscilla and David, were also guests. Miriam Wetzell of Akron is now visiting at the home of the Warners. The girls were all classmates at Otterbein College.

The Breckenridges of Maple-dr held a family picnic Sunday in the Ohio Forests, near Waverly. Just as they were ready to eat, a downpour arrived and made them rush to their respective cars. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rumfield, son-in-law and daughter of the Breckenridges, met the family at the Forests.

Golden Yater of Maple-dr is now home from the hospital. He is improving slowly.

After a very serious sickness, the little baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kidwell, Darby Hill, is home and gaining slowly. In spite of her age (four months) many tanks of oxygen had to be used to keep her alive until the crisis was passed.

Mr. and Mrs. John Giehl, 42 N. Grener-av, announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Ann, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at Hoge Memorial Church. She is marrying Mr. Ralph Peterman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Peterman, West Jefferson. It will be an open church affair, with reception in the church parlors after the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Giehl, West-st, announce the arrival of a son. They have named him Michael Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Rich of Dayton visited at the home of Mrs. Irving Kasler, Pasadena-av, Saturday afternoon.

SWEET AND LOVELY

Sweet and lovely, both the gorgeous gal and the charming cotton frock designed by Linsk of California. The dainty cotton poplin dress features a deep square neckline outlined by the same material in a large soft bow with tight basque waist and full gathered skirt. According to National Cotton Council fashion experts, the skirt is slashed at the hemline for glimpses of white lace petticoat ruffles, and to really make talk, there's a large bow tying the hemline up in back for a more daring glimpse of the white eyelet embroidery.

Springfield Man Is W. Broad-st Victim

A 60-year-old Springfield man was killed late Saturday night when he was struck by an auto in front of the Seven Acre Camp, Inc., 4491 W. Broad-st. He was Jay Gould Reams, formerly of 202½ E. Main-st.

Driver of the car that struck Reams was Mrs. Virginia Richey, sheriff's deputies reported. He was pronounced dead upon arrival at Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Route of National Road Was Contested 100 Years Ago

Few, if any, persons living remember the building of the National Road through Columbus, but among the older residents there are doubtless quite a number who have heard from their parents the spectacular developments surrounding the building of this colossal thoroughfare. That was in the days when Ohio was the west, and before the steam couriers began to roll over the mountains on ribbons of steel and transportation by horseless carriage and airlines was an unknown development.

There are perhaps a great multitude of Columbus citizens who are unfamiliar with the story of the national road, which is naturally full of incident and intricacies. At that time, both before it was built and after it was completed, it was rightfully regarded as one of the great wonders of the world—much as the Appian Highway in Rome. It was very natural therefore that the route of this famous highway should be the subject of much controversy. It is altogether probable too, that had every individual's wishes been followed, the road would have actually spread over the entire State of Ohio.

There was scarcely a citizen in the state who didn't want the thoroughfare to run close to or through his domain. Thus it was that a number of routes were suggested and laid out for the road between Zanesville and Columbus, and it was with much difficulty that the finally accepted one was decided upon.

The controversy in this respect was a subject of not a little trouble in the legislature and numerous efforts were made to have that body settle it by vote. Plans were discussed, prints made, costs budgeted and engineers were consulted. The procedure followed was similiar to that of the progenitors of the canals. Right of way, public domain—as today—made topics of conversation everywhere in the community. It was also to be remembered that a hundred years ago the builders of the national road could not avail themselves of the services of the Ohio Department of Highways.

The line of the road from Muskingum's capital to Columbus was finally settled upon by the engineers, but how the road passed through the metropolis of Columbus was not so easily determined. It is often a matter of remark that the road does not pursue a straight course through the city, and it is frequently asked why this jog or curvature appears between Front and Main. Only those who have heard from their parents or grandparents or have made an especial study of the history of the National Road can account for this occurrence.

State Street Was Dividing Line

A hundred years ago the dividing line between the north and south sides of the city was State-st. Broad-st was only an ordinary street, and though even then one of the nicest thoroughfares in the city, did not possess the distinguishing feature of dividing the town into its north and south parts.

The rivalry between the two portions of the city was as strong and demonstrative as it perhaps is now—friendly always however—and though the south side was perhaps the stronger and larger a century ago, its northern rival was at times aggressive and saucy. There were many things over which they contested, and the part of the city through which the National Road should pass was not the least among these.

Indeed this matter became such an important one, and so hotly was it contested that bad blood was in a measure engendered, and it became a serious question as to how it should be decided.

At length, by the consent of the engineers, it was decided to settle the dispute by suggesting a compromise—since neither the northerner or the southerners would "give an inch of ground." It was therefore agreed that the National Road should enter the city on the south side and leave it from the north side. The survey brought it into the city on Main-st, then known as Friend-st, thence it passed up High-st to Broad-st on which thoroughfare it turned to leave the city. Broad-st at that time, as did all the other streets, stopped at the river. The river was a small obstacle to the national road, and so Broad-st was honored by being the first street to be extended across the river, over a wooden bridge. Thus

The YMCA Is Here

Following the "open house" held at the headquarters of the Hilltop YMCA Saturday night, it is interesting to look back on its brief prelimigary history.

It was less than a year ago (July 7 to be exact) that the Hilltop Community Recreation Center Committee, after more than three months of study, recommended to a gathering at West High School that in the opinion of its members, a "Y" would best serve the needs of the Hilltop. The late Dr. C. O. Cramer headed the group that studied recreational programs in several cities before arriving at its decision. It was he who personally and at his own expense made a trip to Texas to see first hand the operation of Branch YMCA work there. It was his hand that guided the work of the group of men who saw the need for such a community asset.

The YMCA program is now under way on the Hilltop. Of necessity its program will be limited by facilities and man power for some time to come. A YMCA building is needed to make the program most effective. People of the Hilltop have indicated from their willingness to work for and give to the local program that they want a first class center here. The time should not be too far away when some plans for such a center should be developed. A community such as the Hilltop can well afford to make this investment in a recreational center of this type.

Letters To The Editor

June 24, 1948

Mr. Editor:

As commander of Westway Post No. 3441, Veterans of Foreign Wars of America, permit me the space to thank our fellow Hilltoppers for the support they gave us, by attending the Spring Carnival, last spring.

Your Community VFW Post sincerely appreciates your support each year, for this is one of the very few occasions that we come to them for aid and sincerely hope that they will be our loyal supporter in the years to come, for we plan on making this Spring Carnival a yearly affair, under the able leadership of a well known Hilltop business man, Comrade Herb Kunzie.

Our thanks go out to Bob Swiger and the VFW Drum Corps for their support and last but not least, to the editor of The Hilltop Record for his generosity in a fine job of publicity, each year.

The VFW club room had its face lifted this month and it now has that new look again, but old Father Time, aided and abetted by smoke and dirt will catch up with us again, just as it does at home.

A firing squad, under the able direction of that old time Regular Army veteran, Comrade Frank Phelps, is now being formed. The rifles are on the way, the ammunition beat them here and now all Frank has to do is to train men to use them again.

Our ritualistic degree team is taking on real form and has begun to click. We have purchased the essential supplies for them and on the last Friday in July, they will make their first official entry, as a team.

All members who have not taken the full degree work are urged to report at that meeting; one set aside for that purpose alone; one to be followed by a stag party of Post and Drum Corps members. Remember the date July 30, 8 p. m., Post Hall.

Next regular meeting will be held July 2, 8 p. m. During the months of July and August, just one meeting will be held, the first Friday of each month. Starting again in September two meetings will again be in order.

Commander VFW, No. 3441
THE OLD SARGE
R. M. Hartman

I would like to try to convey my thanks and appreciation for the lovely honor of "Flowers of the Week."

Whereas I am sure there were many more worthy than I, I can assure you no one could have been more surprised or pleased.

Congratulations to you for this stimulating column.

Sincerely,
Pat Aspel

WBNS-Red Cross Water Safety To Be Taught On Hilltop

Classes in swimming and Junior and Senior Life Saving in the city and county swimming pools, which are participating in the WBNS-Red Cross Water Safety program are announced today. Instruction is by certified Red Cross instructors and is furnished by pool managements at no extra cost to the pool's membership ticket.

This is the third consecutive year that the WBNS-Red Cross Water Safety campaigns have been held in Franklin County, although this year's program includes both junior and senior life saving as well as beginner swimming.

Parents, and children, may register for any of the classes at the swimming pool in which membership is held.

On the Hilltop classes are held at the Hilltop Pool Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 10 to 12 o'clock.

The Hilltop Record can be mailed anywhere in Franklin County for $1.50 per year.

Whose Side Is He On, Anyway?

HILL TOPICS —By PW—

Based on today's sanitary rules protecting the health of city people, it's a wonder many of us ever survived the many unsanitary practices looked upon as quite acceptable in their day.

For instance, I grew up in a farm home where the old tin cup hung on the side of the pump the year round. The whole family used it and visitors as well. There were times when it was taken into the kitchen for a scalding, especially if some unknown visitor happened to use it. We didn't mind catching each other's germs but we never appreciated the bugs from outside.

At threshing time the water bucket was passed around to the two dozen or more hands who all drank from the same dipper. The old water jug was standard equipment in the hay or corn field. I wonder how many people today have mastered the art of drinking from a gallon jug without pouring half of its contents over his person.

In the one-room school house there was usually a single glass or cup that went the rounds although in later years the sanitary paper cups were in pretty general use.

Water from the open spring was still used in a few homes. The spring house served as source of water supply as well as refrigerator for the butter, milk and other perishable table items. Another practice where the old open well was in use was to lower the butter and milk into the well during the heat of the day. We used to keep a supply of home-made root beer in the well for cooling on special occasions.

I doubt if a dozen people in our entire township had ever tasted pasteurized milk. Today, I'm told, many farmers sell their milk and either buy or process their own milk for table use.

Of course all in those days there were occasional cases of typhoid and other diseases that could easily have been traced to the lack of sanitary precautions. But radio and newspapers were not so much in use at that time to spread the word of the dangers of communal drinking receptacles. One of the reasons why there was no more disease might be the fact that there was not so much contact with the more crowded urban areas in that day. Today people come and go a great deal more and more communicable diseases have access to the farms as well as the cities.

I wouldn't recommend such practices today either on farms or in the city. There are too many cases of the dreaded polio, something we scarcely knew existed a few years back. Such unsanitary methods never were commendable. The miracle of it all is that so many of us are alive today in spite of it.

Inflation All Over

As the little man crept into the movie theater and took his seat in the last row, it was obvious from his doleful expression that he had much on his mind and was sadly in need of recreation.

On the screen an old-fashioned melodrama unfolded, a production doubtless made long ago and now "reissued." Came the scene where the heroine, lured all unsuspecting to the villian's lair, suddenly realized with horror that his intentions were anything but honorable. Providentially, she discovered the handy carving-knife.

"Stand back, you unspeakable cad, she cried, brandishing the weapon, "I may be only a poor, weak, friendless woman—but, by Heaven, I shall sell my honor dearly!"

"Profiteers," shouted the troubled little man. "Everywhere you go, it's high prices."

And with that he bolted out of the theater and disappeared into the night.

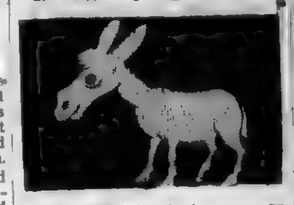
The second annual Fourth of July celebration at the Columbus State Hospital will be brought to a climax Monday evening with a gigantic display of pyrotechnics comparable to any fireworks show in Columbus, it was announced by Dr. Freemont Bateman, superintendent, Wednesday morning.



The second round of play in the West Church Softball League got under way Monday evening at Westgate Park with Westgate Evangelical, Hoge Memorial and Calvary Presbyterian coming out on the winning end of the scores.

With the event only seven weeks away, preparations are rapidly going forward for the 25th annual Franklin County Fair to be held at Hilliards, Aug. 17, 18 and 19.

C. H. Campbell of the Hilltop Business Men's Association is busy working with the "Bean Day" committee planning a gala day on July 27 for Hilltoppers.

SONG FOR SMALL BIRTHDAYS

I would rather see you wise
Than love reflected in your eyes,
I would rather see you so
Square-shouldered, unafraid,
Than know
You were leaning on my shadow,
Slender on the world's wide meadow.
I would rather see you true
To your own dreams than hold a few
Uncertainties that I believe
As truths, my dear, and so I weave
All I can beg, all I can borrow
To shape my love for your tomorrow,
That you may never know or guess
The width of my possessiveness,
The narrow way a heart can be
When little boys are almost three.

Undisputed First Place Taken In Three of the Summer Leagues

Three of the four summer bowling leagues came up with undisputed leaders this week. In the Monday Night Veterans' League it was the Collectors who continued their reign in first place while on Tuesday evening the Friendly Five team extended its lead to three games in the Tuesday Nighters League. Wednesday night the Bears jumped into undisputed first place by winning three games.

Ardle

The biggest upset of the week came in the Bethlehem Lutheran League when the league leading Bethlehem No. 3 team was dropped from first place (which they have held since the beginning of the season) when they lost three games to Bethlehem No. 5 team. The loss, coupled with Bethlehem No. 1 and 3's three game victories, enabled these two teams to go into a tie for first place.

For the second straight week, Brucilla Smith and Jim Matheny took individual scoring honors. Brucilla had 353 while Matheny had 208-545. Bethlehem No 5 had 876-2536 to top the team events.

Standings

Bethlehem No. 5	14	7
Bethlehem No. 1	14	7
Bethlehem No. 2	12	9
Bethlehem No. 3	11	10
Bethlehem No. 5	11	10
Methlehem No. 7	8	13
Bethlehem No. 4	7	14
Bethlehem No. 6	7	14

Even though spotting Detrick's Market 20 pins the Friendly Five team was able to rack up three more victories and extend their lead over the other teams to three games. They won the first game 793 to 815, the second 770-680 and the third 776 to 674. Chet Krebs topped the men with 529 and Ruth Perry the women with 515. Ronnie Bryant had the high single game of 200. State Hospital had top team games of 883-2456.

Standings

Friendly Five	19	5
Reeves Bros.	16	8
Rain Bowlers	14	10
Bryant Glasers	12	12
State Hospital	8	15
Pin Spotjers	8	16
Mixups	8	16
Detricks	5	14

The Collectors managed to hold their one game lead in the Veterans' League as a new team threatened them.

The V-1 team, by virtue of their two game victory over N-3-1, moved into second place while the N-3-1 team dropped to third.

A score of 533 was registered by Farrington for high series, while team honors went to V-1 with 909 and the Collectors with 2622.

Standings

Collecters	13	6
V-1	11	7
N-3-1	10	8
N-9	9	9
V-2	8	10
N-3-2	4	14

In the St. John Lutheran League it was the Bears who broke their tie for first place with the Poodlers by winning three games from the Go Getters while the Poodlers were winning only one from the last place Wonders.

The Hurricanes rolled into a tie for second with a three game triumph over the Cubs.

Howard Davis and wife, Doris, were high individuals with 499 and 435 respectively. Team honors were taken by the Poodlers with 899 and the Bears with 240.

Standings

Bears	15	6
Poodlers	13	8
Hurricanes	13	8
Wolves	11	10
Go Getters	10	11
Mudhens	9	12
Cubs	8	13
Wonders	8	13

Red Birds To Finish Home Stay Tomorrow

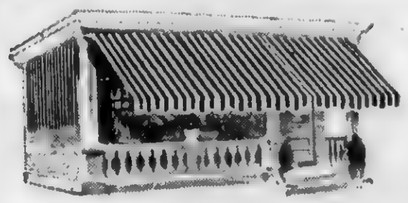
The Columbus Red Birds will complete their third home stay at the Mound-st park with an abbreviated series with St. Paul tonight and tomorrow night.

The Saints come to Red Bird Stadium for only the two contests. Tomorrow night will be ladies' night. Game time is 8:30 o'clock.

The Birds will take to the road again to be gone until July 24.

Answers to TEST YOUR I. Q.

1. Tularemia, which appeared after the San Francisco earthquake in 1906 and was named after Tulare County, Calif., where it was discovered the disease was transmitted by squirrels.



2. A cygnet.

3. It was inspired by a Thomas Nast cartoon, appearing in 1870, in which Nast used a donkey to represent the party. He also used a fox and a wolf to portray the party, but the donkey emblem won the most favor and was later officially adopted.

4. It was known as Philadelphis, in honor of Ptolemy Philadelphus, king of Egypt during the third century, B. C.

5. Esther, the daughter of Grover Cleveland, who was born there in 1893.

M. Nachman Opens Law Office On Hilltop

Mitchell N. Nachman, a practicing attorney-at-law in Columbus since 1926, announces the opening of law offices at 2345½ W. Broad-st, above Kirk's Appliances, Inc., at southeast corner of W. Broad and Oakley.

Mr. Nachman is a graduate of Ohio State University, College of Law, and Bliss Business and Secretarial College.

He is a member of the Columbus Bar Association, Business Men's Club of the YMCA, Columbus Lodge 37 of BPO Elks, American Legion, Post No. 1, Franklin County Republican War Veterans Club, Young Republican Club, Speakers' Bureau Columbus Community Fund and Columbus Philharmonic.

Mr. Nachman is a veteran of World War II in the judge advocate's department of the 99th division.

He was private secretary to the late Congressman Clement Brumbaugh at Washington, D. C., and was formerly associated in the practice of law with the late John A. Conner and Henry H. Metcalf, late member of the Ohio Legislature.

Mr. Nachman is moving his home and will reside on the Hilltop.

Pedestrian Controls His On Destiny To Large Degree

Pedestrian involvement in traffic accidents is one of the biggest factors in city traffic accidents, says D. K. Finley, 733 S. Hagueav, manager of the Columbus Safety Council.

In Columbus, the pedestrian situation is particularly bad, Finley points out. Of 23 traffic deaths recorded on a recent date this year, 17 have been pedestrians—or a total of 74 percent. This means about three out of every four.

Ironically, it is the most inexcusable type of accident and the easiest to prevent if the pedestrian will only exercise caution and common sense. Pedestrians have their destiny in their own hands largely, but, from the records, they do not seem to do anything about it.

The old adage, "Self preservation is the first law of motive" is the bunk, Finley contends.

Camp Chase Swamps Hilltop Lions 16 To 2

Camp Chase won its opening game in the Intermediate Knot Hole League Wednesday, June 23, at Westgate Park by the score of 16-2.

Paul Ellingsworth pitched a two-hitter, striking out 10 of the opponents who faced him. While pitching good ball he also obtained three hits for four attempts at the plate. His team-mates gave him good support, playing errorless ball and collecting 17 hits.

Jim Burke was the big gun, with a triple, double and two singles, for four trips to the box. Bill South came through with three hits, having four tries at the plate.

The batterv for the victors was Ellingsworth and Thompson, and Cline and Morris for the losers. Tim Sweeney coaches the Camp Chase nine.

Hilltop Van Splits Twin Bill Sunday

Hilltop Van & Storage softball team split a double-header with Orient last Sunday at Westgate Park, winning the opener 8 to 7 and dropping the nightcap by the score of 9 to 3.

Next Tuesday Hilltop visits the Ohio Pen to play the Hurricanes in a Columbus Independent League game. The game, starting at 6 p. m., will have a bearing on the second round championship.

Westgate Tennis Club Drops Match

The Westgate Tennis Club dropped a 3 to 3 match on the hard surface courts at Olentangy Village Sunday.

Purty (O) bested Lindley (W) by counts of 6-2 and 6-1; Tonti (W) downed Becher (O), 6-3 and 8-6, and Murphy (O) defeated Sherker (W) 6-4 and 8-4 in the singles play.

In the doubles a team made up of Purts and Wagner defeated Hilltoppers Lindley and Walton, 8-6 and 6-2, while Tonti and Sherker teamed up to beat Bau and Massoro, 6-0 and 6-3.

Because of the holiday weekend, there will be no match play this Sunday. On July 11, Westgate will entertain Bexley at the Westgate Park clay courts.

Life Saving Courses Are Offered At "Y"

Because of the demand of Boy Scouts and other youth, the YMCA is again offering a class for junior and senior life saving. The junior life saving classes started Monday and will be held on each Monday afternoon from 2:30 to 4 p. m. Junior life savers must be 12 years of age or older.

Senior life saving will be taught each Friday from 8 to 9:45 a. m. John (Red) Colmery will teach both groups.

There is a fee of $1.50 per boy for the 12-week course.

McGrail, Woodruff Study Television In Chicago School

Robert S. (Mac) McGrail, 486 S. Harris-av, and Stanley Woodruff, 720 S. Eureka-av, have returned to Chicago after spending five days at home.

The two have been attending the American Television School since February under the G. I. Bill.

McGrail served in the Marines for two years and nine months and was attached to the famous 4th Regiment, 6th Marine Division, that saw service on Okinawa and Yokasuka Naval Base, Japan.

it was that both the north and south sides of the city were satisfied and a job was made in the great commercial thoroughfare.

The compromise was of advantage in another way too. It brought all the travel over the road, which grew to great proportions, up High-st, the main business street of the city, and so the business men received the full benefit of the travelers trade. It worked a great disappointment however, to some of the property holders of Franklinton, on the west side of the Scioto adjoining Columbus, who had builded up hopes that the road would cross the river and go westward on State-st instead of Broad.

BIBLE COMMENT
FOR JULY 4

Apocryphal Books Bridge Israel Era Between Testaments

THERE are certain books, known as the Apocrypha, that were included in the "Authorized Version" of the Bible, the version that is most commonly used today, translated and issued in 1611 under the authority of King James I of England.

They have been omitted from the Old Testament as most of us know it. But they can still be found in many pulpit Bibles and in many of the large "family Bibles" that used to stand upon parlor tables.

To describe the Apocryphal books, or to discuss the issues concerning them, would be impossible here. But their chief and deep interest is in what they tell of the history and religious life of Israel during a great part of the 400 years between the periods of the Old Testament and the New.

It was a time of tragic happenings, bitter and ruthless struggles for mastery among those aspiring to rule, murders and assassinations, terrible persecutions and intense sufferings. But there are inspiring records of faith and courage on the part of those who dared to stand for their convictions and resist the powers that sought to corrupt and paganize the purity of the religion of Israel.

The Books of the Maccabees, particularly, tell of that brave resistance to the Hitler-like tyrants and dictators of that ancient day who sought with ruthlessness to pollute popular religion with pagan ideas and practices. That the true faith of Israel was preserved is evident in the remnant of noble and faithful souls in the time of Christ, like Simeon "waiting for the consolation of Israel."

But the faith was preserved at terrific cost. In the persecutions, 800 Pharisees, then the sect of the most earnest and sincere, were crucified in one day.

Yet the faith survived, and Israel has survived. The land of tragedy and glory is a land of tragedy again. What will the future bring forth? We may well say, "Pray for the peace of Jerusalem; they shall prosper that love thee."—(Psalm 122:6.)

Charter Members To Be Received By New Church

Charter members of the recently formed Community Christian Church will be received on Sunday, July 4, in special ceremonies at West High School Auditorium where regular worship services are being held.

Rev. James Lorenz, pastor of the church, this week made the following statement concerning the policies and doctrines of this new church:

"The Christian Church was started in America in that very hour of Independence. It is altogether fitting that July 4 should be the hour when the Community Christian Church should have its formal beginning. The Christian Church maintains as its cardinal principles the following:

1. Christ the only head of the church.
2. The Bible the only rule of faith.
3. Christian character the only test of fellowship.
4. Individual judgment in matters of opinion the right and privilege of all believers. Here is offered a platform sufficiently broad for all earnest Christians to occupy in uniting for Christian work and worship."

All the charter members will be received on Sunday, at 10:30 a. m. The pastor expects to extend the right hand of fellowship to about 50 persons. After this service the charter members will subscribe their names to the Covenant.

On July 7, at 8 p. m. the charter members of the church will meet at the Hughes Four Restaurant, 2725 W. Broad-st, to organize the new church. The church is organized with all the authority invested in the local group. All the policies of the church are determined by the majority of its members. There is no higher authority than the local church. In the church none are greater or less than others, none below or above others; but all are one in Jesus Christ. It is a common brotherhood—a Christian republic, where all are equal in Christ Jesus, Rev. Lorenz said.

TO PREACH SUNDAY—Ira W. Newsome, 376 S. Highland-av, an active member of Oakley Avenue Baptist Church during the past 11 years, will preach his trial sermon in that church. About three months ago he began studying for the ministry.

He has served as Sunday School superintendent and as secretary of the trustee board of his church. He is employed at the state auditor's office. Mr. Newsome has been a Baptist all his life. His father was a deacon in the church for 50 years.

Edgewood Chapel Wins Sing Banner

Edgewood Chapel United Brethren Church won the Hilltop Hymn Sing attendance banner Sunday night in the song service held at the Whitethorne Avenue Church of Christ in Christian Union.

The service was attended by 97 persons representing eight churches. The next song service will be held at Edgewood Chapel July 11.

Westgate Church To Have Picnic Monday

The Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Church will hold its annual picnic at the South "Y" Park on July 5.

All church members and friends are invited to attend the picnic. The group will meet at the church at noon, where transportation will be furnished for those needing it. Dinner will be served at 5:30 p. m.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

The Community Christian Church will hold a Vacation Bible School at the Westgate Park Shelter House for two weeks, beginning July 6. All the children of the community are invited. The school will close with a family picnic Friday, July 16.

TO HOLD JEWISH MISSIONS CONFERENCE — Rev. O. E. Phillips of the Hebrew Christian Fellowship of Philadelphia, will lead a three-day conference on Jewish Missions at the Immanuel Baptist Church on July 7, 8 and 9.

His topics for the three nights are as follows:

Wednesday, "The Jews, Palestine and World Peace."

Thursday, "Will Russia Invade Palestine?"

Friday, "The Lost City of a Thousand Temples."

Certificates Awarded To 28 Bible Students

The Hilltop Church of Christ Daily Vacation Bible School came to a close officially Monday with a workers' breakfast at the church. Certificates were awarded to 28 children.

Rev. Enoch Smith, pastor of the church, served as dean of the school. Teachers included Mrs. Ray Burgess, Mrs. Elza Miles, Mrs. Faun Marzluf. Story tellers were Mrs. Leo Ditrick, Mrs. Miles, Mrs. Burgess, Mrs. C. N. Roby, Mrs. Galr Daugherty and Mrs. Raymond Stimson.

The worship periods were directed by Mrs. Enoch Smith and Mrs. J. F. Agries and helping with the music were Mrs. Marzluf and Mrs. Elaine Simmons. Special youth workers were Janet Hickman and Joan Malone.

The boys and girls attending were Diana Neil, Patty Henry, Marilyn Neil, Nancy Roby, Elaine Marzluf, Sharon Marzluf, Marilyn RozeRe, Helen Hart, Sharon Neil, Sally Malone, Lynn Browning, Catherine Hostettler, Suzanne Knallman, Donna Stimson, Buenda Neil, Bernice Uhl, Myra Neil, Debby Lee Michaels, Paul Neil, Gwen Neal, Virginia Neal, Billie Mantle, Kay Burgess, Sandra Willis, Ellen Miller, Jimmy Cobb, Suzanne Lehman, Billy Hart, Diana Bergman, Catherine and Jean Stewart, Glenna Keister, Nancy Steele, Mardelle Dixon, Ronnie Dixon, Jimmy Elliott, Phyllis Bergman and Jimmy Trehern.

Spears, Howard To Fill Burgess Pulpit For Sunday Services

Jerry Spears, Sr., of the Spears Funeral Home, 2893 W. Broad-st, will fill the pulpit Sunday morning at Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church in the absence of the pastor, Rev. C. F. Lutz.

On Sunday evening the speaker will be Robert Howard, 209 N. Hague-av, a ministerial student at Asbury College, Wilmore, Ky.

Rev. and Mrs. Lutz left Columbus Monday on a 10-day vacation trip through the Great Smoky Mountains.

Hoge Pastor Lists July Sermon Series

During the month of July the Rev. A. J. Wold of Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church will present the following personal problem sermons:

Briggsdale And Brown Road

By Mrs. Harry Downing

Mrs. Earl Canter and daughter, Charlotte, 1109 Geneva-av, and Mrs. S. C. Borror, 1025 S. High-st, returned recently from Hermon, Ill., where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Canter's niece.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Burchfield, 1043 Geneva-av, spent the week-end of June 20 with their nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stoveall, at their summer cottage on Madison Lake, near London. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. William Burchfield and son, James, and Mr. and Mrs. George Burchfield.

The Briggsdale Daily Vacation Bible School, which closed last Friday, gave demonstrations of the work accomplished, at the church Sunday morning. Each department was represented. Eighty-seven pupils were enrolled in the school, and the average daily attendance was 70. The 10 teachers and helpers were Mrs. Dorothy Hampson, Mrs. Grace Haughn, Betty Smith, Dorothy Nichols, Mrs. Doris Friend, Mrs. Mae Gibbony, Virginia Withers, Louise Benjamin, Sue Nichols and Freida Aldrich. The Misses Betty Saltsman and Ethel Hepner of the Youth Home Missions organization were the directors. A free will offering of $96.96 which was turned in Sunday morning will be sent to the youth organization. The teachers, directors and students thank Rev. Shirer for his untiring cooperation.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burchfield and son, Geneva-av, visited relatives in Meigs and Vinton Counties recently.

Mrs. Margerite Gossin, 1043 Geneva-av, spent Sunday a week ago with her husband, who is a patient at the Veterans' Hospital in Chillicothe.

Mrs. John R. Briggs, 1487 Harrisburg-pk, who has been a patient in Grant Hospital, returned home recently.

John Canter, 1109 Geneva-av, attended Sunday School in Nelsonville Sunday, June 20.

[redacted] and Mrs. Harold Reber and son, Jack, Frank-rd, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Canter and family, Geneva-av, spent the week-end at Buckeye Lake.

The Jackson Chapel Youth Fellowship will hold an old-fashioned box social Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steward Gibbony, 1491 Stringtown-rd.

NOSTALGIA

I think that I shall never see
A bride as dewy-eyed as me!
One who sniffs the orange scent
With such a holy, high intent—
One so sure that nothing phony
Alloys the gold of matrimony . . .
There'll never be a bride again
Whose coffee tastes so much like rain.

Fish Diet Good For Brain? Just A Notion Says Science But it's Still Fun To Catch 'em

Reports by the Ohio Division of Conservation of heavy catches of fish throughout the state would indicate that Ohio anglers are headed for higher level of intelligence providing the old notion that fish is a brain food is true.

Science, however, does not recognize any one food as more beneficial to the brain than another. What food is good for the whole body is also good for the brain.

Fish meat is considered rich in phosphorus and a German scientist of the nineteenth century started the idea, "No phosphorus, no thought." As a matter of fact, the human brain attains almost its full adult size during the first six years of a child's life and during the time when its chief article of diet is milk.

The flesh of fish is lighter and more easily digested than most of the flesh meats and therefore it is a suitable and desirable food for so-called brain workers or persons engaged in occupations involving little physical exertion and much mental labor.

Whether or not fish flesh is a brain builder, a major portion of the population consider freshly fried fish as a special treat especially when some member of the family has had the thrill of pro- during he catch. And the sooner the fish hit tne skillet after being yanked from the water, the better the flavor.

Fishermen who want to enjoy a real outdoor delicacy should take along a skillet on an early morning fishing trip and fry the catch when there's enough on the stringer to make a normal sized breakfast. It will be a meal to be long remembered and will furnish conversation material for many months.

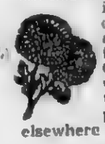
Need Men Who Aren't Afraid To Speak Up

In a friendly little chat with Bob Draper this past week I remarked that a two year term in congress would barely give him time to get started on his campaign for re-election.

"I'm not seeking re-election," he replied. "If I'm elected I'll devote my time to doing the things I think need to be done and not worry about re-election."

I've always found Bob to be honest. Sometimes he has made some people mad at him because he has been more honest than politically minded. We would sincerely like to have more of his type in public office.

Today because men are afraid to speak up for fear of losing votes we have littered our governmental paths with a lot of trash. We are in a state of confusion.



This week housewives are faced with new high food prices —even higher than last week. But all the time the government pays the farmer for growing foods and then in turn destroys the food in order to keep prices high.

An all time high in potato production is being reported this year and all the while the housewife will pay an all time high for the spuds because the government has contracted to purchase great quantities of them and in turn will destroy them . . . this in the face of starvation in Europe.

It is high time that we return to an economy based on production rather than on destruction. It is little wonder that nations abroad take one look at our foolish antics and turn away. Certainly they can find but little in this portion of our system worthy of emulating.

Ritz Theatre Gets New Facing this Week

The Ritz Theater, near the corner of Sullivant and Richardson-avs, is undergoing some face-lifting operations this week.

A new Perma Stone facing is being installed on the front of the building above the display windows. Just recently a new cushion board sound-proof ceiling was installed in the movie house.

Clarkin To Go To Washington On Boys' State Trip July 30

William (Bill) Clarkin was a very happy boy this week.

Tuesday he celebrated his 17th birthday by receiving news that he was one of two boys from Ohio selected from the American Legion Boys' State who would receive an all expense trip to Washington D. C. in what amounts to a national Boys' State.

Bill was at work at the Green Lawn Cemetery Tuesday and did not learn of his good fortune until he returned home in the evening. The Ohio Department of the American Legion broke the good news to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Clarkin, 135 N. Chase-av, Tuesday morning.

Bill was one of three Hilltop boys who attended the Legion Boys' State at Ohio Wesleyan University June 12 to 22. While there he was elected mayor of Denny City, a mythical municipality. His administration there was rated by Legion officials as "the best job at Boys' State." It was for this outstanding work that he was chosen as one of two boys picked from the 856 boys who attended the Ohio Wesleyan School.

The three local boys were sponsored by Camp Chase Post No. 98, the Hilltop Business Association and the Hilltop Kiwanis Club.

Sister Wins Scholarship

Bill is not the only member of his family to win recent distinction. His older sister, Barbara, a June graduate of West High School, was awarded a $300 college scholarship by the Hilltop Kiwanis Club this spring. Another sister, Sharon, 15, graduated from West Junior High School in the June class.

The Washington trip will be from July 30 to Aug. 5. It will include among other things a study of federal government in much the same way the state groups studied government on the state level.

A senior at West High, Bill is vice-president of his class, a member of Hi-Y, Student Council and is an honor student. He is working to save money to pay his way through college where he plans to study electrical engineering.

"Naturally, we're quite proud of Bill," the father said Tuesday after learning the news. Mr. Clarkin is a safety engineer for a New York insurance firm. The family has lived on the Hilltop 13 years. They are members of St. Mary Magdalene Church.

Byron Baker Is OSU Graduate At Age Nineteen

Nineteen-year-old Byron Baker, 133 S. Brinker-av, graduated from Ohio State University on June 11, in the college of commerce.

Baker, who majored in marketing, completed the four year course in just two and one-half years by attending OSU during the summer months and by passing several aptitude tests, for which he was given credit hours.

A graduate of West High School, he is now employed as a salesman for the Burroughs Adding Machine Company.

Owner Of 500 Books Sought By City

Supervisors of Glenwood Park would like to find the owner of a collection of books running upwards of 500 volumes.

The situation is this. At the present time the shelter house is undergoing extensive remodeling. The shelving that has held the books for many years is to be torn out and there is no suitable place for them. Furthermore, Betty Rush, one of the supervisors, says the books have not been used for some time anyway.

The books were originally given to the City Recreation Department by some Hilltop family. Thus far no one has been able to find a record of who this person was.

Recreation officials say that the original owner is welcome to his books again if he can be found. If the owner does not claim them, they will be given to any group or organization that has use for them.

The collection contains a number of worthwhile volumes, Miss Rush explained.

Police "Close In" On Hilltop Roomer

A scene reminiscent of the wild and woolly West took place on the Hilltop Saturday when a posse of city detectives and police threw a full-fledged dragnet around a Whitethorne-av rooming house and "closed in."

The result of the raid—the arrest of Charles A. Harris, 43, a roomer who had been reported carrying firearms into the home by neighbors. Harris offered no resistance and was later released by police when he explained that the guns had been used for target practice and nothing more. The weapons included an Army carbine, a 12 gauge shotgun and an automatic rifle.

Harris had come to the Hilltop recently from Del Rio, Texas. He rooms at 347 Whitethorne-av.

Need Extra Money? Record Jobs Open

Numerous Hilltop boys and girls have been inquiring about jobs for the summer. They want to earn some extra spending money. The Hilltop Record is pleased to announce that such an opportunity is now available for them.

The Record is about ready to launch a special promotion plan which will require the services of about 25 boys and girls between the ages of 10 and 16 who are really hustlers.

In return for their efforts the Record will pay each worker a liberal amount for his successful endeavors and in addition will provide some very attractive cash prizes. The plan also calls for continued earnings each week during the summer and after school during the winter months.

Full details may be had by stopping in at the Record office and asking for Mr. Maus, who will be glad to explain this special plan today, Friday or Saturday morning.

Fire House Site Is Purchased Here

City Council will be asked Monday night to approve the expenditure of money to hire an architect to draw plans for the Hilltop's second fire house.

According to Baxter Evans of the city attorney's office, title to three lots at the northwest corner of Sullivant and Brinker-avs was taken last week. Service Director Elmer Keller is out of town on vacation but a spokesman for his office said that the matter would go before City Council at next week's meeting.

Selection of the Hilltop's second fire house site has been "up in the air" for more than a year. Fire Department officials had at first strongly urged the use of Westgate Park as the location. Through the efforts of the Hilltop Community Council and residents of the park area, City Council finally agreed to seek another site. Three or four other locations were considered before the final selection was made.

Following the approval of council, plans will be drawn for a building that will blend into the community surroundings. The site will provide 140 feet of Sullivant Avenue frontage with an equal depth running back to the alley to the north.

Fire Victim Rites Were On Tuesday

The body of a Prairie Township fire victim was returned to Kentucky this week where funeral services were held on Tuesday.

Russell Stapleton, 31, was burned to death early Saturday morning when flames completely destroyed a one-room building in which he lived at 417 Emmitt-rd, just southeast of New Rome. Fire department officials believe the blaze started from a cigarette.

Stapleton was a native of Bruin, Ky., and had been employed as a laborer by the Visentine Bridge Company during the past four years. He was a veteran of World War II.

Surviving are his father, Jessis Stapleton and a sister, Mrs. Bertha Lewis, both of Bruin, and three brothers, Earl of Ashland, Ky., Hershell of Washington C. H., and Eddie of Wilmington.

The remains were sent by the Jerry Spears Funeral Home.

Gibbon Is Delegate To Progressive Party National Convention

William R. Gibbon, 124 S. Southampton-av, chairman of the Franklin County Wallace-for-President Committee and vice chairman of the New Progressive Party of Ohio, was recently elected a delegate to the founding convention of the New Party to be held in Philadelphia on July 23-25, Wallace headquarters announced this week.

The New Party convention, which will meet following the Republican and Democratic conventions in the City of Brotherly Love, will nominate Henry A. Wallace and Senator Glen H. Taylor, of Idaho, for president and vice president.

Gibbon will head the Columbus delegation of eight delegates and three alternates.

He will serve as a member of the credentials committee at the national convention.

Installs New Air Conditioner

James Phillips, owner of the Biltmore and Broad-Hague Restaurants, announced this week that he had just completed installation of a new $3,000 air conditioning unit at the Broad-Hague. Both eating places are air-conditioned.

Since Larry was not interested in the two weeks of free camping at Camp Wilson, Danny, the runner-up, gets the coveted prize.

Pvt. R. W. Geyer Is Being Returned For Burial Here

Among 28 men en route home from Europe on the transport Lawrence Victory is the body of Pvt. Ralph W. Geyer, 31, husband of Mrs. Jane Geyer, 414 S. Wayne-av. Pvt. Geyer was killed in action in Luxembourg, Dec. 17, 1944, in the Battle of the Bulge.

He was a member of the 109th Infantry, having entered service March 6, 1944. He was assigned to overseas duty in August of that year. A graduate of Central High School and St. Joseph's Academy, he was a restaurant representative for Vernor's Ginger Ale Co. before entering the service.

He is also survived by a daughter, Nancy Lee Geyer, 11.

Local Housewife Is Hospitalized At Clarksburg

A Hilltop housewife is a patient in a Clarksburg, W. Va., hospital this week—the result of a holiday week-end auto crash near West Union, W. Va., Saturday.

She is Mrs. M. A. Beck, 45, of 271 N. Ogden-av, injured when the car driven by her husband was in collision with another auto. She is recovering from a broken left hip and two fractured ribs. It is expected that she will be confined to the hospital for four or five weeks.

A daughter, Donna, 21, and Mrs. Beck's niece, Pauline Beck, 19, of 1516 Bryden-av, both passengers in the car, were uninjured as was Mr. Beck. The local family had left the Hilltop Saturday enroute to Florida where they planned to spend their vacation.

Mr., Mrs. Hertenstein To Celebrate 50th Anniversary Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hertenstein, 39 N. Powell-av, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on Sunday.

An open house will be held all day for relatives and friends of the couple who were married in Columbus on July 11, 50 years ago.

They have four children, Mrs. Alma Brewer, 39 N. Powell-av, Mrs. Minnie Weigand, 3181 W. Broad-st, Mrs. Hilda Aeh, 37 N. Powell-av, and Edward Hertenstein, Jr., 1447 Northwest-blvd. They also have four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

James E. Hogan, 4, In Serious Condition

Four-year-old James E. Hogan remained in serious condition in Children's Hospital as The Hilltop Record went to press this week, after he was struck by an auto in front of his home on Tuesday. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hogan, 1013 N. Hague-av.

The sheriff's office said the child was crossing the street to go to the mail box when a car driven by Mark Nicholas, 36 E. Frambes-av, struck him. The driver was not held.

James was taken to Mt. Carmel Hospital in a Floyd Born ambulance where he received treatment and was later moved to Children's Hospital.

Navy Reserve Needs Registered Nurses

Registered nurses are urged to become a member of an organized reserve. The Navy offers registered nurses the rank of ensign, through lieutenant, senior grade, based on their age and qualifications.

Free Kiwanis Movie Is Set For Saturday

The first of a series of eight free movies for kiddies of the Hilltop will be held in the Rivoli Theater Saturday at 1:30 p. m. "Frontier Feud," an action packed western flicker, will be the principal attraction, supplemented by a musical comedy cartoon.

Tickets are being given free at each of the Hilltop's six supervised playgrounds. They may be gotten from any of the pack supervisors.

The shows to be held on alternating Saturday afternoons at the Rivoli and Ritz Theaters are sponsored by the Hilltop Kiwanis Club through the cooperation of George Pekras, owner of the two shows.

Woody Wills To Join Miami U. Coaching Staff

Woodrow (Woody) Wills, 34, former West High and Ohio U. star, last week accepted a position as backfield coach at Miami U., completing the staff of newly named grid coach George E. Blackburn. Blackburn is another former West star.

Wills, coach at Gahanna Lincoln High School, graduated from Ohio U. in 1937 and was unanimous All-Ohio as sophomore quarterback in 1933 and senior fullback in 1936.

He coached at Newcomerstown, Coshocton and Gallipolis before coming to Gahanna. Wills was a lieutenant in the navy in World War II.

4 Local Teachers Retire From Schools

Mrs. Mabel M. Eagleson, a sixth grade teacher at Highland Elementary School for the past 19 years, was one of the 15 Columbus public school teachers whose retirement was announced this week by the Board of Education.

Mrs. Eagleson, who began her teaching career in Columbus in 1897, was the oldest in the group from a standpoint of service.

Also included in the retirement list were Miss Louise Cherry, a commercial subjects teacher at West Junior High since 1928, and identified with the system for 42 years; Miss Valeria Bostwick, a mathematics teacher at West Junior since 1937, and a school teacher for 35 years; and Miss Lucy Jones, fourth grade teacher at West Broad Street Elementary School, since 1933, who joined the system in 1916.

LEAVES ON VACATION

Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Miller left Wednesday for a vacation of six or seven weeks at their summer camp at French River in Ontario. During his absence his office at 2493 W. Broad-st will be open, with Margery Midgley and Mrs. Frances Myers in charge.

Merchandise For Auction Is Sought

Members of the Hilltop Bean Dinner committee are shopping this week—shopping in a hundred Hilltop stores to get the merchandise to be auctioned at the Hilltop Bean Dinner at Westgate Park on Wednesday afternoon and evening, July 28.

Joe Briggs, chairman of the committee, stated Wednesday that not nearly all the merchandise has been selected yet but he reports that some very interesting items have been selected to date and are continuing to come in.

Just a few examples of the type of merchandise available at the park that day to be purchased with Hilltop Scrip are as follows: a General Electric whistling tea kettle worth $9.95; a Presto cooker at $12.95; a pair of silver plated book ends worth $5.00; a wood bowl worth $1.50; a $2.50 Isco wood tray; $10 worth of insurance; boxed stationery and greeting cards; 5-gallon can of motor oil; a Magican step-on garbage can worth 5.98; a 20-piece California Missionware luncheon set; $2.25 Boston pencil sharpener; case of grapefruit juice; coffee, sugar, groceries of all kinds. Numerous surprise packages will also be auctioned off.

Multiply the above list of items by about 50 and you will have some ides of all the selection of merchandise that will go on the auction block that day, and can be purchased only with Hilltop Scrip. Local merchants are giving scrip with each purchase amounting to 50c or more or payments on accounts.

Merchants are glad to have you ask for scrip. In some cases they have forgotten to give it with purchases but they will gladly do so if you merely ask for scrip when you make a purchase or make a payment on account.

The scrip money is useless for any other purpose than to bid in the big auction sales to be held afternoon and evening at Westgate Park. It is being issued by most members of the Hilltop Business Association, sponsors of the Bean Dinner.

Rated as tops in the entertainment field are the Buckeye Jamboree gang, a group of radio entertainers who will appear afternoon and night on a special platform and then take charge of the dancing in the shelter house, starting at 9 p. m.

Central feature of the picnic will of course be boiled beans, coffee and crackers to be served at a nominal price. Also available will be hot dogs, pop, etc.

There will be games, contests, rides and fun galore for the picnickers, expected to number in the thousands. The first affair of its kind drew an estimated 35,000 to Westgate Park in 1938. The crowds increased on almost every succeeding year in spite of thunder showers on two occasions.

Valleyview Residents Act Swiftly To Halt Train During Storm

Louis M. Blum, 2661 Dibblee-av, and Mrs. Wilbur McLaughlin, 2658 Dibblee-av, were credited last Tuesday with preventing at least an accident and possibly with saving several lives, when they reported to Pennsylvania Railroad officials that a tree had fallen across nearby railroad tracks during a heavy rain.

Mrs. McLaughlin, who heard the tree crash to the ground, reported the incident to Blum, marshal of Valleyview. He in turn called the superintendent at Union Station, and asked about trains scheduled for that run.

A train dispatcher notified an oncoming express train, then between London and Alton, of what lay ahead. In the meantime Mr. Blum had parked his car at the railroad and Hague-av crossing, and grabbing two fuses and a red flag ran West along the track and lit one of the flares.

The express approached slowly and was flagged down by Blum who hopped on the engine and rode to where the tree had fallen. After the tree trunk's removal the engineer continued on his way and arrived at Union Station only 12 minutes late.

Conservation Club To Meet

The Hilltop Conservation Club will meet in the basement of the Hilltop Sporting Goods Store, 2461 W. Broad-st, Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Meeting nights have been changed to the first Monday and the third Friday night of the month.

Rome To Hold Celebration

Prairie Township To Formally Dedicate $20,000 Fire House

Formal dedication of the new $20,000 Prairie Township fire house will take place on the afternoon of July 24 with a big celebration in the Rome community.

Joe Lamb, fire chief and chairman of the dedication day committee, said that plans are rapidly taking form for a big event that will run through the afternoon and evening.

The festivities will start with a parade at 2 o'clock, featuring emergency equipment from all over Franklin County. This will be followed by a doll, pet and bicycle parade, with prizes for the winners. A fish fry will be conducted all during the afternoon, with an assortment of concessions.

At 3 o'clock the formal dedication will take place with a speaker, to be named later. The evening's program will include a band concert and a dance in the fire house. Both round and square dancing will be on the program.

Assisting Lamb in working out arrangements are Lawrence Karns and J. R. Richards, parade; George Cordosi, fish fry; Carlton Lavely, dance; Floyd Armstrong, lights, and W. G. Lamb, advertising.

The new fire house was completed and turned over to the volunteer department on March 8. It provides room for three pieces of fire equipment, a recreation room, firemen's room and toilet facilities. A new fire truck is on order and had been expected by this time but recent word is to the effect that it may not be available in time for the celebration.

Capt. McDonald Completes 25th Year As Fireman

Capt. G. W. McDonald

Sunday marked the twenty-fifth year of service to the Columbus Fire Department for Gerald W. McDonald, 2497 Steele-av. In commemoration of the occasion, his family held a surprise dinner in his honor at the home on July 4.

Captain McDonald first donated his services to defend his country in World War I, at the age of 16. He was a member of the Rainbow Division. During the second war, he served the Navy as a lieutenant. Of his two years in Naval service, he spent 12 months in the South Pacific, teaching fire fighting. He was released this time in December, 1946.

McDonald became a lieutenant in the CFD on April 1, 1937. Then on May 6, 1940, his efforts were rewarded when he received the rank of captain.

For three years he held the office of president of the Firemen's Union. He was responsible for starting a movement to hold an annual firemen's minstrel, and after completing the initial plans, was MC of the show for the first two years that it played. McDonald belongs to the Ralph Rickly Chapter of the Masons and is a Shrine member.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald have lived on the Hilltop for 21 years. They have two children, Mrs. Dwight Dixon, 84 N. Westgate-av, and Tom McDonald, at home, in addition to two grandchildren, Jimmy Dixon and Cathy McDonald. The son, Tom, is also a member of the Fire Department.

Legion Auxiliary Selects Delegates To Ohio Convention

Mrs. Larry Scales, 603 S. Eureka-av, Mrs. Carroll Balo, 2594 Valleyview-dr, Mrs. Vernon Fiscus, 616 S Terrace-av, Mrs. William Booth, 58 Haldy-av, Mrs. D. C. Finneran, 211 S. Eureka-av, were elected last week to serve as delegates from Camp Chase Legion Auxiliary to the Ohio Auxiliary convention to be held in Columbus Aug. 7 and 8.

The following members were appointed to serve on the nominating committee to select officers for the coming year: Mrs. D. C. Finneran, chairman, Mrs. Charles Weidner, Mrs. Dennis Thompson, Mrs. Horace Swain and Mrs. Ioto Johnson. Mrs. Larry Scales, president, will serve as ex-officio member.

The regular meeting of the Auxiliary will be conducted Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock. This will be the only meeting this month.

Hilltopper To Head Underwriters' Group

Edward T. O'Brien, assistant manager of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, 17 S. High-st, has been elected president of the Columbus Life Underwriters Association, according to announcement made this week by Ben F. Hadley, the retiring president. Other officers are G. A. B. Woodley, Midland Mutual, vice-president; Ely D. Miller, Provident Mutual, secretary, and C. Nelson Black, Phoenix, treasurer. New trustees to serve three years are Franklin T. Phillips, Commonwealth; Sylvan F. Weill, John Hancock and Robert T. Cull, Union Central.

O'Brien, who resides at 319 S. Algonquin-av, came to Columbus 12 years ago from London, O., where he represented the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

Sky Meet Is Being Planned For Aug. 20-22

One of the biggest events to come to the Hilltop in some time is the Sky Meet to be held at the Sullivant Avenue Airport on Aug. 20, 21 and 22.

The annual event conducted in the interest of Senior Boy Scout work will attract hundreds of boys from Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky. According to its planners, it promises to give the public a good show too.

This will be the third year for the event, having previously been held at Urbana in 1946 and last year in Kentucky. A committee composed of several local people as well as representatives from other Ohio and Kentucky cities has been at work on the project for more than six months. Paul W. Litchfield, of Akron, is chairman of the Region Four Senior Scout Committee, responsible for planning the affair.

The affair is to open with colorful ceremonies including the Franklin Post No. 1, American Legion, band. A number of dignitaries are expected to attend the three-day meet.

The features of the Sky Meet are a grand ball on Saturday evening, model airplane demonstrations, glider and plane flights and demonstration of the latest in aviation equipment.

The facilities of Gomer Jones flying service will be made available to the visitors expected to number at least 500 boys and their leaders.

Sensenbrenner To Report To Kiwanis Club

M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner, 335 Guernsey-av, will give his report as a delegate to the national convention of Kiwanis when the Hilltop Kiwanis Club meets for today's luncheon meeting at Schmelzer's Restaurant, 3176 W. Broad-st.

Just back from the Los Angeles convention, Sensenbrenner, vice-president of the club, will report on his experiences in the California city.

In a three o'clock ceremony at the Hilltop Church of Christ, Barbara L. Smith, and Samuel M. Dew, were united in marriage on Sunday, June 13. The bride is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Enoch C. Smith, and Mr. Dew is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Judson C. Dew of Bristol, Tenn. The father of the bride officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mr. Maurice Bowsher at the organ and Mrs. Clenmont Bergman, soloist, presented the program of nuptial music.

The bride wore a white marquisette gown with a hoop skirt and a bodice of lace. Escorted to the altar by her father, she wore a shoulder length veil of illusion, and carried a shower-bouquet of white roses, centered with an orchid corsage.

Miss Mildred Emrick, in lilac taffeta, was the maid of honor. She wore matching mitts and carried a bouquet of yellow rose buds. Miss Maxine Oney and Miss Norma Jean Thomas, in Nile green taffeta with matching mitts, were the bridesmaids. Their arm bouquets were of peach rose buds.

The flower girls, Jean and Catherine Stewart, wore gowns of yellow organdie and headbands of shattered carnations. They carried mixed bouquets.

Mr. Gibson Dew attended his brother as best man, and seating the guests were Mr. Glenmont Bergman, and Mr. Miles McFarland.

At the reception which followed in the church parlors, Mrs. Smith greeted her guests in beige marquisette with coffee colored accessories. The aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. Garnett Bonner, of Abingdon, Va., wore a gown of black lace with matching accessories. Both she and the bride's mother wore corsages of purple orchids.

For their honeymoon, the new Mr. and Mrs. Dew, will travel through Denver, Salt Lake City and the Bitter Root Mountains. Their destination is Missoula, Mont., where Mr. Dew will resume work on his Masters Degree and where his bride plans to study music.

Evaporated Milk Recipes Provide For Rich But Inexpensive Dishes For All

Evaporated milk is the alchemy that can make dishes extra rich and extra tasty. It's a wonderfully inexpensive way to please your family with anything from a fondue to ice cream.

Orange Nog

3 tablespoons sugar
1½ cups chilled orange juice
1 tablespoon lemon or lime juice
1 cup undiluted evaporated milk
1 cup ice water

Stir sugar into orange juice (fresh or canned) until dissolved. Add all other ingredients and beat with egg beater until thoroughly mixed. Pour over ice cubes. Enough for 4 and very refreshing and good.

Moist Salmon Loaf

1 egg
2/3 cup undiluted evaporated milk
2 cups canned salmon, drained
1 cup soft bread crumbs
1 small minced onion
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons melted shortening
2 tablespoons lemon juice

Set oven at 350F, or moderate. Grease 9 in. by 5 in. by 2½ in. loaf pan. Beat egg slightly, add evaporated milk, then broken salmon, bread crumbs, minced onion, lemon rind, salt and pepper. Mix well, then add melted shortening and lemon juice and mix in well. Put into loaf pan and bake for 50 minutes or until firm. Plenty for 6 and excellent.

Cheese Fondue

½ cup undiluted evaporated milk
½ cup water
1 cup soft bread crumbs
2 tablespoons prepared mustard
¾ teaspoons salt
Few grains cayenne
1¾ cups cubed Am. Cheddar cheese
3 eggs, separated

Set the oven at 350F or moderate. Grease a large casserole. Combine evaporated milk, water, bread crumbs, mustard, salt and cayenne in a saucepan. Cook over low heat, stirring until mixture is smooth and bubbling. Remove from heat, add cheese. Stir until all cheese melts. Add egg yolks, mix in well. Beat egg whites until stiff and mix into mixture. Pour into casserole. Bake 45 minutes. Good with a tart jelly. Serves 6.

It is NOT true that it never snows on the equator! (Usually the thermometer falls one degree for every three hundred foot increase in the elevation to which it is carried. Hence, the summits of high mountains are covered with snow throughout the year even in tropical climates. Cf. the equatorial country of Ecuador, South America, which boasts Mts. Babies Know Their Own Appetites, Food Needs Best, Child Expert Says

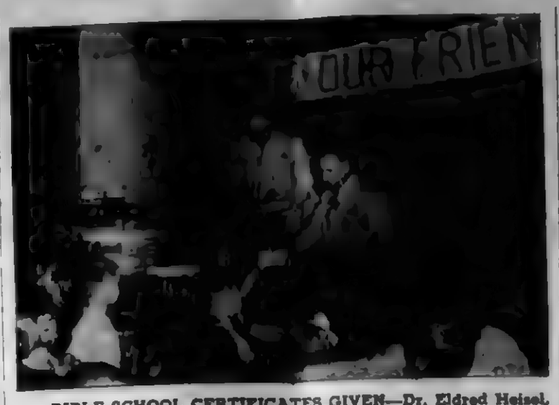
Who knows better when he's hungry—the baby or the clock? Modern child experts believe that most babies will find their own eating pattern if allowed to regulate themselves, says Marguerite Clark. Discussing the problems of child feeding, she has this to say:

"After 20 years of strict, coercive feeding and a few short experimental years of letting the baby eat when and as he wills, the pediatric pendulum has swung to the center and stopped at the point of natural, commonsense child feeding. The relatively new attitude of 'self demand'—or respecting the child's own eating pattern—is still in a test stage, but from research reports so far made, the idea itself appears to be entirely sound.

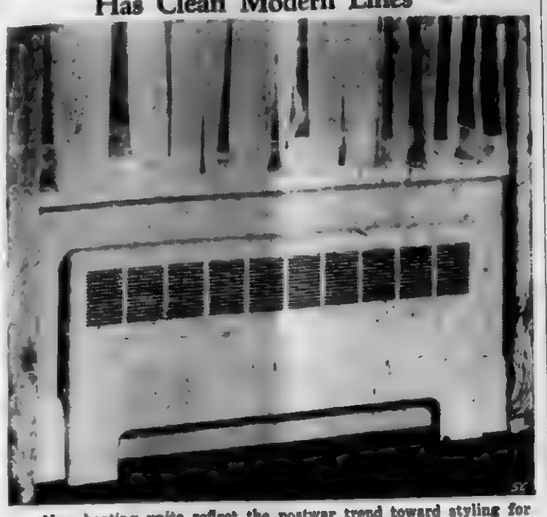
"For sound, normal babies, reliance on the child's natural rhythm of feeding, and no restriction on the amount he is allowed to take from bottle or breast, is now considered by the majority of child health authorities to be the most scientific feeding method.



"However, the use of the term 'self-demand' is unfortunate. It brings to mind a sort of despotic behavior on the part of the baby which makes parents reluctant to accept the new technique. So this kind of practical infant feeding is now called the 'self-regulating' method by Dr. C. Anderson Aldrich, author of Babies Are Human Beings, and director of the Rochester Child Health Project at Rochester, Minn., where the technique has been tried out for several years.

"In the Journal of the American Medical Association, Dr. Aldrich has published a report on more than 600 self-regulating babies, supervised in a well-baby clinic at Rochester from the time of their dismissal from the hospital to go to their homes until their first birthday. Statistics revealed that feeding intervals varied with the child—two hours, three, four and five hours, four meals a day and three meals a day. However, in the first two months of life, a large majority of babies selected an interval of less than four hours for feeding.

"Dr. Aldrich and other modern child specialists agree that it is natural and preferable to feed an infant at its mother's breast. But if this is not possible, artificial feeding with cow's milk is a perfectly adequate alternative. In fact, the only serious objection to properly prepared and administered artificial feeding seems to be that bottle-fed babies are more susceptible to respiratory infections during the second six months of life than are breast-fed babies.



"Dr. Stuart Shelton Stevenson, child health professor at Harvard University, thinks that vitamin A and vitamin C (ascorbic acid) may be the substances that are stored by the breast-fed baby. 'But when the bottle-fed baby receives proper amounts of these vitamins daily, in several divided doses, he thrives well,' Dr. Stevenson said, 'and there is hope that this may lessen his chance of getting a respiratory infection.'

"All doctors now agree that the bottle-fed baby should not be given his meals while lying on a table or bed, or by means of a bottle propper. Instead, the mother should cuddle him in her arms while he is taking his food and thus give him some physical semblance of breast feeding."

Recessed Heating Unit Has Clean Modern Lines

New heating units reflect the postwar trend toward styling for beauty and compactness.

Shown in the illustration is a convector for use with hot water and steam heating systems. The new unit has clean, modern lines and may be recessed under windows so that it is entirely unobtrusive yet highly efficient in the distribution of heat.

A convector consists of two basic parts—a heating unit which carries the hot water or steam and transfers its heat to the air and an attractive steel enclosure in which the heating unit is installed.

Hot water or steam circulates through the heating unit and warms the air above it. Being lighter, the warmer air rises in the enclosure and is discharged into the room through the outlet grille. Cooler, heavier air is drawn in through the lower opening of the enclosure, comes in contact with the heating unit where it is heated, rises, and is circulated into the room.

Room air is circulated through convectors on an average of three times per hour. The warm front of the enclosure provides radiant heat directly beneath windows where convectors are usually installed and where radiant heat loss is greatest.

Close temperature control, quick response to the demands of the thermostat, and ease of installation are among the advantages of convectors as distributors of heat.

Smoking Is No. 1 Cause Of Fires, Official Says

"A brand new $10,000 home for every family in Columbus could be built with the money that went up in smoke last year," declared State Fire Marshal, Ray Gill, today.

The cigarette, the cigar, the pipe and the match, in other words, SMOKING is responsible for more fires than any other single cause. Billions of cigarettes are lighted every week in the United States; they in turn, when carelessly used, light destructive fires by the thousands. Thus a little careless smoking pleasure inflicts hideous losses on innocent victims.

"Never smoke in bed" continued Fire Marshal Gill. A lighted cigarette on pillow case or sheet invites disaster. A face or body permanently disfigured by fire may be the shocking penalty you pay for carelessness. Furthermore, if you fall asleep with a lighted cigarette in your hand, you may never wake up to know the bed is on fire. 'Fumes overcome you before fire touches your body."

The Fire Marshal laid emphatic stress on the solemn duty

Wedding Industry A Billion-dollar Affair; Special Secretaries Make Complete Plans

America's brides and grooms—2,000,000 of them a year — have become a billion-dollar industry, spending huge sums of money annually on trousseaux, home furnishings, household equipment, linen, stationery and luggage. It takes the average couple close to $4,000 to get married and settled in a new home. It is no wonder then, says Elizabeth Pope, that there has grown up a host of specialists and professional consultants of all kinds, who are prepared to smooth the way to the altar. In a recent article she tells how a bridal secretary "manages" a wedding, and also adds some hints for honeymooners:

"One professional consultant is Mrs. Calla Caroe, of New York City, who specializes in low-cost weddings, primarily for working girls, and who advertises a thirty-guest inclusive wedding for as low as $195."

"She personally directs over 150 weddings a year, some of them on forty-eight hours' notice. The essential ingredients of Mrs. Caroe's packaged weddings are: wedding dress and veil, invitations, reception cards, cocktail, luncheon or dinner, table flowers, wedding cake and ornament, and photographs of the bride. She frequently goes to the wedding, always attends the reception, where she is treated as a guest of honor.

"Travel agencies, too, come in for their share of the wedding windfall. In New York there is an agency, run by Betty White, which specializes almost exclusively in honeymoon trips for modest budgets. A lovely week's honeymoon can be arranged for $150.

"For actual volume of over-all assistance to brides, the special bridal services of several hundred of the nation's larger department stores and specialty shops appear to be well in the lead. This kind of peculiarly American merchandising genius, generally called store-wide bridal services, has been cultivated and developed largely by Bride's House, Inc., publishers of the Bride's Magazine and the Bride's Reference Book. One of the methods used to spread the gospel is an annual Bridal Business Clinic attended by department-store representatives all over the country.

"The focal point of the store-wide bridal service is the bride's shop—or bridal salon—which is artfully designed for luxury and comfort. There a bridal secretary, young, attractive and highly trained, is waiting to relieve the bride and her mother of all the headaches connected with arranging a wedding.

"The bridal secretary performs a whole series of extra services, in addition to selecting the wedding gown and bridesmaids' dresses. She assembles trousseau clothes from other departments and brings them to the bridal shop for approval. She arranges a visit to the gift bureau, where the bride's preferences in silver, china, linen are entered on a card and, to avoid duplication, a record is kept of all gifts. She has the bride photographed in her own in time to make the society page. She arranges an appointment for bride and groom to shop the home-planning center for furniture, rugs, bric-abrac. And she answers a lot of worried questions about etiquette.

"She is often asked to come to the house and help them through the last moments. 'I always plan to arrive an hour or two in advance,' one secretary explained crisply. 'I ask the bride to be bathed and in a slip. I take over from there.' In the excited atmosphere of the bride's house an hour before they leave for the church, the secretary becomes everyone's Miss Fixit. In the vestibule of the church the bridal secretary supervises the formation of the procession.

"Here are some helpful hints for honeymooners: Before packing, make a list of all the things you will need, from bathing-suit to toothbrush. Then, using list, lay out everything on bed or floor.

"Most couples don't want to be recognized as honeymooners. New, unmarked luggage doesn't help keep your secret, so paste some travel stickers on bags.

"On arrival at destination, send both parents telegrams thanking them again for the beautiful wedding and all the wonderful things they did for you.

"Bride should have good permanent before wedding so her hair holds up well. But if she must put it up, don't use curlers. Do it attractively with ribbons.

"Be sure to take a camera. You'll later prize those honeymoon pictures. You can get cameras today which are relatively inexpensive and easy to operate."

Remodeling Erases Years From Old House

This cheerful, modern-equipped black, white and red kitchen with inlaid linoleum covering chromium-edged counter surface, is an example of what can be done to erase years from an old house by a smart remodeling job.

The Elmer Klever family did just that when Mr. Klever bought a farm in Scott county, Iowa, four years ago. Betty Lindsay points out in an article in Capper's Farmer, a leading farm magazine. The old-fashioned house was gloomy and run down. It had few conveniences.

So mother and dad and the three children, Marilyn, Joan and Al made plans for modernizing the house. Soon carpenters were at work.

The kitchen is just one instance of what was done inside and out, Miss Lindsay tells the readers of the farm magazine that reaches 1,300,000 farm families. Off came three unused porches. White asbestos shingles masked the age of the exterior. Gay red shutters gave a streamline effect. By adding a dormer, wasted space over the living room was made into a bedroom. A hallway was built upstairs to save going through one room to get to another. Some windows were changed.

There was electricity in the house. So Klever installed a water system with a softener, making possible a new kitchen sink and a bathroom. A new furnace with stoker and blower was added. Modern materials pepped up the aged interior. The Klevers slipcovered and refinished old furniture so it would look better in new surroundings.

Walls Can Make Room Cozy or Cold

Wall board of several colors was used to turn unfinished attic into an attractive room for a child. Scalloped border was cut from the board.

Hunting, Fishing Most Popular Of All Sports; Sports Spending A Big Item

Commenting on a recent survey made by a popular men's magazine revealing that 66.8 per cent of those questioned in a poll were fishermen and 74.6 per cent were hunters, Conservation Commissioner H. A. Rider said today that people just don't realize the importance of these and similar sports to the general public here in Ohio.

He pointed out that hunters and fishermen spend more money each year than would be needed to buy all the race tracks and horses in America, all the football stadiums, all the baseball parks, all the hockey rinks, all the dog tracks, automobile speedways and polo fields and there would still be plenty of money left over.

Hunters and fishermen in Ohio spend $2,829,000 a year for automobile travel alone. After they reach their hunting or fishing grounds they spend five million for food, beverages and lodging. The equipment they carry is worth every year three and a half million dollars. They spend the amazing sum of $175,000 for live bait every year.

"There are here in Ohio at this moment," Rider said, "more than a million people who are afflicted with this wonderful disease, which thank goodness has no cure, known as fishing fever. Anyone who wants to see some of these afflicted people need only to visit any of the 500 fishing lakes in Ohio or check the 12,000 miles of streams and you'll find them there having the time of their lives, just fishing, and this year in particular they are taking home more fish than they ever did in the fishing history of Ohio."

People enjoy fishing because, unlike most sports, they always win whether they catch fish or not for they still have fun.

Desserts That Are...

By BETTY BARCLAY

The dictionary says that "dependable" means the same thing as "trust", "faith", "confidence." And well does Mrs. Homemaker know that her family depends on her with faith, trust, and confidence for a comfortable home, clean clothes, and good meals.

Good Meals! Well, when it comes to food, the problems are many and varied. There is help in sight, though, for the wise cook who has a shelf well stocked with packaged desserts and puddings and who keeps on hand a collection of easy-to-do dessert recipes that are popular favorites of the family. Ambrosia Cream is one of these. It's a variation on the popular ambrosia recipe — much simplified — a real time saver:

Ambrosia Cream

1 package prepared orange coconut tapioca pudding
¼ cup heavy cream, whipped

Turn contents of package into a saucepan. Add 2 cups milk and mix well. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. (Mixture will be thin. Do not overcook.) Cool. Stir once after 15 to 20 minutes. (Mixture thickens as it cools.) Chill and fold in ¼ cup heavy cream whipped. Fills in sherbet glasses. Makes 5 servings.

If desired, garnish with orange slices or serve in orange "baskets."

Four Easy Lunch Menus A Help To Housewife On Busy Saturday

Saturday lunches are the worst of all Saturday chores with so many mouths to feed and so little time to do it in. Mary Stinson comes to the rescue with four hearty, delicious lunches that are easy to prepare and don't cut into your week-end supplies:

Salmon Macaroni Salad
Hot Biscuits (from a mix)
Canned or Fresh Fruit
Tea or Milk

Salmon Macaroni Salad

1 3 cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon grated onion
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
2 3 cup elbow macaroni
1 8-oz. can salmon
1½ cups drained, canned peas
Salad greens
1 hard-cooked egg

Mix up mayonnaise, onion and mustard and let dressing stand.

Cook macaroni in boiling salted water 10 minutes. Drain. Now open the salmon, pick out the bones and skin and mix the juice with the dressing. Combine macaroni, salmon and peas, mix in the dressing and toss lightly, taking care not to break up the pieces. Chill thoroughly and serve on crisp greens. It's a good idea to make this salad early in the morning and put it in the refrigerator until lunchtime.

A garnish of hard-cooked egg slices makes this salad heartier and prettier. Enough for 4 Saturday appetites.

Noodle Cheese Custard
Waldorf Salad
Toasted English Muffins
Tea or Milk

Noodle Cheese Custard

1 8-oz. pkg. broad noodles
1-1 3 cup grated Amer. Cheddar Cheese
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
3 eggs
1¼ cups milk
1 cup crispy rice cereal

Start your oven at 325F or slow. Break noodles into pieces about an inch long. Drop in boiling, salted water and cook 10 minutes. Drain well and rinse in cold water. Grease a shallow casserole.

Mix cheese, salt and pepper in with the noodles and pour into casserole. Beat up eggs slightly and mix with the milk. Pour this over the noodle mixture and sprinkle with crushed cereal. Bake 25 to 30 minutes. Serves 4 generously.

Strawberry Ice Cream

1 cup undiluted evaporated milk
1½ cups strawberries
2 tablespoons sugar
1 egg
1/3 cup sugar
⅛ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon lemon juice

Set cold control at coldest point; pour milk into freezing tray. Freeze until mushy. Wash and hull strawberries; sprinkle with 2 tablespoons sugar and crush with a fork. Beat egg until thick; add 1/3 cup sugar gradually, beating constantly; beat until thick as marshmallow sauce. Add salt. Turn milk into chilled bowl. Beat until thick. Add lemon juice and beat again. Careful ly combine egg mixture and drained berries. Turn into freezing tray and freeze firm. Serves 4 to 6.

of teaching and practicing proper smoking behavior. Thirty people die in fires every day in the United States and the guiltiest cause of them is SMOKING, continued Gill. "Governor Thomas J. Herbert organized a specific statewide committee to mobilize public sentiment on mounting fire losses in Ohio. During the month of May, this committee has concentrated its efforts on educating the public about the grim reality of the SMOKING fire hazard and the imperious necessity of decent, intelligent smoking behavior.

Three's not a crowd when the threesome is this beautiful trio of suntan-seekers clad in swim suits of striped chambray. The girls are soaking in their Vitamin D supply in style—their suits are of Hope Skillman's cotton chambray designed by Cole of California in slightly different fashions: left, a one-piece swimsuit with open midriff and bow-tie top; center, a one-piece suit with closed midriff and skirted front; right, an exciting new backless-strapless two-piece style.

Sullivant Avenue Airport Takes On Character Of Army Operation

Sullivant Avenue Airport now is an army field.

This does not mean that commercial operations do not still make u pthe major portion of the field's flying activities.

It is true, however, since Sullivant is now the base of the air liaison group of the 37th Division, Ohio National Guard.

The 37th liaison outfit is small, but it is a "wheeling-dealing" outfit.

Its quarters consist of a portion of the west hangar and the small-ish building which for some years has been an abandoned concession stand.

Under the direction of Maj. Robert G. Wirthin, National Guard, and Lt. Floyd S. Alexander, regular army light aviation adviser, the outfit's three enlisted men and 10 officer-pilots have done a real job of making headquarters of the shack.

In the hangar, the liaison group keeps its six airplanes. It has two L-5's, two L-16's, a new Aeronca observation plane, and two L-17A's.

The L-17's are the pride of the fleet. To look at them, a non-liaison pilot would swear they were Navions. They are.

"We don't know how in the world we got so luck to get two new Navions," Maj. Wirthin said, "but, boy, are we happy about it."

Just how happy is indicated by the high degree to which the members of the outfit have polished them.

Except when the 37th Division is on maneuvers, the Sullivant Airport "Air Force" will engage in routine training flying.

The group has been authorized to fly members of the Air Reserve in the liaison classification, and to give liaison training to class military (army) pilots who wish to transfer to the liaison branch.

It also furnishes air transportation within the state to officials of 37th Division headquarters.

Playing Hookey A Sign Of Emotional Illness, Not Badness, Educator Says

Children who play hookey are usually very sick emotionally. The solution to their problems is not punishment, but understanding and sympathy, says Benjamin Fine, famous expert and writer on education, after extensive interviews with educators and truants. Discussing some of the causes of truancy and the enlightened measures that progressive communities are taking to meet the problem, he writes:

"Why do kids play hookey? To find the answer, I recently made an extensive study of truancy, securing information from the education departments of the 48 states, the Children's Bureau, the United States Office of Education and many local Boards of Education. In addition, I interviewed scores of educators as well as hundreds of truants. Most instructive of all was the day I spent sitting as a 'Judge' in the office of a city attendance bureau, listening and talking to a stream of truant boys and girls.

"The number of children who play hookey is in the neighborhood of two million. Furthermore, the truancy rate in most places is increasing. To get children back to school, the country as a whole last year spent, at a conservative estimate, $75,000,000. But however staggering the financial cost of truancy, it is a trifle compared to the human loss. Truancy is often the first step in a career of crime.

"Educators have found that you simply cannot brow-beat or shame a child into going to school. They have learned that truancy is the symptom of a serious maladjustment. Truants are emotionally sick children in need of love, not punishment.

"Unfavorable home conditions are, of course, only one of the causes of truancy. The school must also take its share of the blame. Teachers who are harsh, unsympathetic and punitive have been responsible for the truancy of thousands of children. Because of insufficient funds, the classes in many schools are over-crowded and the equipment is inadequate. Medical supervision in most schools is inadequate. Poor eyesight, hearing defects and reading disabilities can hamper a child, with the result that he becomes discouraged and stays away from school.

"Furthermore, many high school children object—and with good reason—to the studies they are given. The curriculum is geared to the student who intends to go to college—but eight out of 10 children never go beyond high school. Many would rather work with their hands.

"Truancy is most marked, my study found, in children attending the sixth, seventh and eighth grades—the group from 11 to 14. My study also disclosed that each individual case has its own particular cause. This was brought home to me forcefully during the day I spent as a 'judge' in a city attendance bureau.

"The experience made me recognize the validity of the observation made by Dr. Stanley P. Davies, general director of the Community Service Society, who has pointed out that 'Truancy never exists alone as a child's difficulty. It is the top layer of a situation that is serious indeed down underneath.'

"One of the best examples of an enlightened truancy program is to be found in Georgia, where the antiquated truant officer has been replaced by the 'visiting teacher.' Luke Greene, the research supervisor of the Georgia State Department of Education, has described the visiting teacher as a 'combination welfare worker, human relations expert, teacher, preacher, diplomat, policeman and traveling salesman.' Each case of truancy in Georgia is treated individually and sympathetically.

"During the three years the program has been in operation, school attendance in the state has jumped by 80,000. Two years ago, daily attendance in Georgia schools was 76 per cent. Last year it reached 83 per cent, or just about as high as any state in the country."

Can't Catch Fish! Time To Skish

"When you can't fish, Skish!" That's a new slogan created by Better Fishing, Inc., a national, non-profit organization exclusively devoted to the improvement of fishing.

Probably some of you have tried Skish, others possibly are not acquainted with the new game for fishermen; consequently, this column is being written to tell you a bit about the sport that was started in 1939 and has been making rapid strides since in popularity.

Skish is similar to tournament casting in that you toss your flies and plugs at "targets" instead of fish. It is different from tournament competition in that your regular fishing equipment is used in Skish, not the special gear that is considered a must for tournament work.

Actually, you don't even have to have water to start the sport; a few old bicycle or automobile tires tossed on the lawn is sufficient for a Skish range. Then get out your bass casting or fly fishing equipment, call a few fishermen friends over to your home and start shooting at tire hoops. That's how simple it is to start Skish. Naturally, there is a set of rules governing the sport, and this code has been nationally established to add uniformity to Skish competition. The rules are simple, however, and quite easy to conform to.

Skish has two big attractions in our opinion. First, any sort of friendly competition among fishermen is grand sport; and second, work on a Skish range will prove valuable practice in sharpening your casting accuracy and the distance you can obtain with lures. This, naturally, will pay big dividends when fishing your favorite lake or stream. In addition, Skish work will teach you the proper balance to seek in your equipment, the line that best fits your particular rod, the weight of lures that you can handle advantageously. Skish truly is a sport for fishermen; we think you'll like it.

In organizing a Skish club in your community, it would be wise to write to the National Skish Board, Better Fishing, Inc., 509 S. Wabash-av, Chicago, Ill. You'll get all the dope on how to start.

Clark Gable and Lana Turner are the romantic co-stars of "Homecoming," opening a three-day engagement at the Westmont Theatre on Sunday. Co-featured with "Homecoming" will be "Return of the Whistler," mystery thriller starring Michael Duane.

Tourists Span Hilltop Area 100 Years Ago

By Barbara Harper

Turn your clock back to a sunny summer day in 1837. Imagine a stagecoach traveling west on the newly-completed National Highway. Eleven passengers are in the coach.

The driver, a gray-haired man of the "chawin' tobacco" type, sits in his special seat in the front, enjoying the wonderful weather. His seat is envied by all on a beautiful day like this.

The "new look" among the women consists of gaily-colored cottons and pastel organdies in the new ballerina styles over full petticoats.

We are now approaching a toll gate. These are placed at intervals of 10 miles.

The National Highway is the only paved road in the community. Elsewhere you find only mud roads.

It's time for lunch, so everybody out. The passengers stretch their legs and enjoy a good meal at the Four-Mile Tavern.

My, how times have changed! It's 1948. The new name of the National Highway is Route 40.

Greyhound buses with a seating capacity of 38 have replaced the stagecoach. Trolley and gasoline buses carry people to various sections of the city.

There goes the family next door in their new car, on their way to a picnic—mother, father, Jimmy, Linda, Eddie, and baby Patti.

On a nearby railroad, the noise of a Diesel engine can be heard.

Look! There's a huge TWA passenger plane flying overhead.

The old toll-gate, formerly at what is now Wheatland, then at Midland, and later at Central, has passed out of existence.

The surrounding streets are now paved with brick, tar, or gravel, and new street signs have been erected.

However, though the roads are different, the styles in women's clothes have returned to those of the nineteenth century.

Now our brief sketch of the old and the new is complete. Which do you prefer?

Are you worried about living too long—or not long enough? Many people are worried about one or the other. Some even about both.

Yes—the fear of outliving life savings after advancing age has forced them into retirement is common to many elderly people. And the fear of what will happen to wife and family should death occur before sufficient money has been saved, gravely concerns many thoughtful young men.

Both of these fears can be removed forever by carefully planned life assurance. Planned life assurance brings peace-of-mind in youth and old age. It is a blessing throughout life. You cannot afford to be without it.

Squirrel Season Opens Sept. 15

Ohio squirrel hunters will have a 15-day period in which to shoot their game this year, it was decided last week by the Ohio Conservation Division.

The season will open on Sept. 15 and close on Sept. 30. The bag limit will be the same as in previous years.

Nov. 15 has been tentatively set for the opening of the trapping season. The season will open at 9 a. m. but the closing hour and bag limit were not set pending further study of the supply.

Local Blue Star Mothers Join Fight To Help Ohio State GI's Find Homes

The West and Glenwood Units of Chapter 6, Blue Star Mothers of America, are backing a movement to support the veterans and their families in a fight for better housing conditions in the Ohio State University sector.

Below is a copy of a letter signed by the president of the Columbus chapter. It reads as follows:

"The plight of the families of veteran students living in the GI trailer village at the state fairgrounds has been brought to the attention of the Blue Star Mothers of America, Chapter No. 6, and we have pledged ourselves to support them in solving their housing problems. Is the general public aware of the conditions under which they have been living? There are about 200 families, each owning a trailer home valued from $2,000 to $4,000. They are located in a section of the grounds with little or no shade, on blacktop and cinders, and with very poor sanitary and toilet facilities.

"Realizing that they must vacate before the state fair in August, these veterans have organized into an incorporated body, and have purchased land near the university, to which they hope to move their trailer homes where their children may enjoy fresh air, in their community planned playground, where they expect to build the laundry building, shower rooms, toilets, etc., necessary to their population of over 400.

"However, there is now an injunction held against these GI's, preventing them from going ahead with their housing project. Many students have foregone paying positions during the summer quarter, hoping to work on this project, digging ditches for sewers, erecting the buildings, shrubbing and beautifying their grounds.

"This land is located west of the Olentangy River and just south of the golf driving range on W. Dodridge St. It does not have Olentangy River Rd. frontage.

"These young people are not objects of charity. They come from some of the finest families in the United States, seeking an education at our state university.

"They have raised through the sale of preferred stock in the corporation and money making projects and special gifts from interested friends more than $25,000.

"Shall we, the public, stand idly by and do nothing to see that they have the right to a home, an education and the pursuit to happiness? Should we not do something to help and encourage them, when they are trying so hard to help themselves?"

Reading Club Is Popular Summer Pastime Here

The Hilltop Branch Library, 21 N. Hague-av, reports this week that its summer reading club, "The Quest of the Golden Apples," is quite popular with the young readers.

Between 200 and 300 children joined the club when it opened the first of June. Since that time over one dozen golden apples have been awarded the club members. To be eligible for the coveted golden apple, a series of four books must be read, for which a yellow apple is pinned to a pretty green paper tree in the library, under the reader's name. The next series of four books rewards a bright red apple, and the last four books completed qualify the reader for the golden apple.

Miss Mildred Phalor, Mrs. Harry Emrich and Mrs. Dorothy Wilson have charge of the club. The response was so great that instead of one tree on which to pin the apples, it was necessary to make a second in order to accommodate the literary fans.

Any children are eligible to join the local club. The library schedule of summer hours is 9 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. week days, and 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. on Saturdays.

The Hilltop Record can be mailed to a friend. $1.50 per year anywhere in Franklin County.

Double Headers Scheduled In West Church Loops Mon.

By Dave Miller

West Church Leagues No. 1 and No. 2 were both idle this past Monday evening due to the holiday. However, next Monday there will be two sets of doubleheaders.

In the big game of these settings, two undefeated nines will go against each other. They are West Park Methodist, unbeaten in their last eight outings, and Salvation Army, yet to be beat in silk contests. They are both League No. 2 teams.

In other games of this loop, Avondale EUB engages Hillcrest Baptist and Chicago Avenue Church of Christ plays St. John A. C.

In League No. 1, Glenwood Methodist and Burgess EUB have a duo setting, Westgate tackles yet-to-win Hoge Memorial and Hilltop Church of God tangles with St. Aloysius. The latter is the leader in Loop No. 1. St. Aloysius has won six out of the last seven starts.

Walter Gerber, city recreation official, announced last week that after the doubleheaders next Monday, the West Church Leagues Nos. 1 and 2, along with other city church and industrial loops will go into a city elimination plan. Each team in each of the two local leagues will play each other until a winner is claimed. The winner will go to the city finals to discover the City Champ of Champs.

Grove City Tops Lutheran Loop

Grove City remained undefeated in the Northwest Lutheran League as reported last week by C. A. Holmquist, in charge of the Lutheran Athletic program.

The last half of the current season is under way with several games to be played off from earlier in the season.

As reported last week the standings are as follows:

NORTHWEST	W	L
Grove City	7	0
Rome	5	1
Zion	5	2
St. Peter	4	2
Indianola	2	3
Hilltop	3	3
Clinton Heights	0	5
St. John	0	7

INTERMEDIATES	W	L
Christ	4	1
St. Paul	4	0
Grace	2	2

Hilltop	1	4
Hope	1	4
St. John	2	3

Local Sports

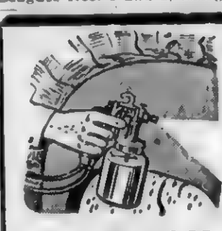
A. M. (Mack) Pemberton, West High gridder coach, reported last week-end that he expects to start football practice Aug. 20. He thinks there will be about the same number as last year, 150. He then will cut the squad to 30 reserves and the same number of varsity.

Coach O. D. (Red) Lehman, West Junior High baseball and basketball mentor, and last year a supervisor at the John Burroughs playground, has turned to salesmanship. He has been seen around the Hill selling storm doors, screens, etc.

When the West High Baseball team reports for its first diamond workout around next April, Coach George Williams will be greeted with six returning lettermen. They will include Jack Pickens, all-city shortstop of the 1948 co-champions, Dick Culbertson, Dick Kirk, Phil Young, Don Nafzger and Bill Thrush. All of these baseballers are playing Legion ball at the present time.

Don Rumley has organized a Junior Knothole League team. The Hilltop Sporting Goods is sponsoring the team, which is being run under the managership of Ellis Easterly.

Morris Dobbs, slugging third-baseman with the West Juniors baseballers this past season, sprained his arm so badly last week that he must wear a cast. He hurt it while chasing a fly ball, in a Green Cabs Intermediate game, when he ran into shortstop Dave Caton. Caton was uninjured.



In Florist School

Mrs. James K. Fritter of Roxainne's Florist is in Chicago taking a special short course for florists at Bright's School of Floral Design.

THE SMALL TOWN PAPER

Some of the most important things in life are taken for granted and accorded scant consideration until they cease to function. For instance, the occupants of a luxurious Pullman sleeper think little about the wheels on which it rolls. The most vital things are generally the least obvious. The country press goes in this category. But there would be no United States without the country press, any more than there would be a Pullman car without a wheel.

No nation in the world is so universally served with newspapers as is the United States. But the average citizen doesn't know this—he takes the newspaper for granted even in the smallest town. And yet without the newspaper, community affairs could not be conducted as they are. Try to think of your town without newspapers, even the smallest weekly. Where would you get the local news and the intimate information on births, marriages, deaths and the affairs of the community that at some time or other are so important to every family? Where would you read the proceedings of the county courts, the legal notices, the personal columns, the news about the local churches, lodges, and the advertising of the local merchants. The big city dailies carry the world news, but they cannot carry the day-to-day happenings of the smaller towns and cities.

Along with the school teacher, the local editor is responsible for the education of the community. A good editor comments on activities, local, state, and national, that affect the lives of all citizens. He discusses questions from the standpoint of their bearing on community welfare. He must have a good working knowledge of government, legislation, social conditions, industries, labor, taxation—the things that affect the working man, the businessman, and the family. The local editor accepts a real responsibility in publishing even the smallest paper, for when the reader sees something in print, he thinks it is the truth.

How many people appreciate these facts that underlie the ownership and publication of the 12,000 country newspapers in the United States? Those papers are the greatest safeguard of our nation's independence. They are individually owned, and the vast majority of their editors are well grounded in the ideals of Constitutional government and are opposed to trends toward socialism which disregard the importance of the individual. The country press reaches a majority of readers in the United States. It deserves more recognition than it receives. And in that respect it is like the wheel under a Pullman car, but with this difference: It is human and it can appreciate a word or act of encouragement while upholding the rights of others.

HILL TOPICS —By PW—

First Birthday

Last week marked the end of the first year of the revival of this column. As stated in the beginning, there has been little attempt to add to the store of human knowledge through this department.

A newspaper needs a few touches of things in the lighter vein such as the comics and this triviata. A diet of meat and potatoes is nourishing but gets a bit monotonous so to vary the menu slightly Hilltopics gives you hash.

Preferred by More Doctors

Not being addicted to the "coffin nail" habit, we've never been too disturbed over the fact that we don't smoke the brand of cigarettes "preferred by more doctors."

It did inflate our ego somewhat to learn the other day that we use the shaving cream "preferred by more doctors than any other shaving cream." You've got to be discriminating to keep up with those doctors or rather the boys who write the advertising tripe.

We're as much impressed by this latest advertising claim as by one of their old standbys "To keep presentable longer, use M——— shaving cream."

You keep presentable longer, all right—longer than if you hadn't shaved in the first place.

Too Good a Bargain

Duke Reynolds, who has been offering his sandwich shop for sale for the past several days, is somewhat similar to the may who was going to sell his house.

He sat down and wrote a glowing advertisement of the merits of his property and when it came out in print, he was so impressed by all of its good features that he told his wife he had always been looking for such a place and consequently couldn't sell.

Vacationitis

It's too late by the calendar to have spring fever but vacationitis has broken out on the Hilltop. Vacationitis is that feeling you get when the other fellow spends 10 minutes telling you what all he's going to do on the trip he's about to take.

Hilltoppers by the score are taking off on trips to hither and yon. After talking to a dozen or more prospective vacationers this past week and receiving cards from almost as many from points far removed from Columbus, we're rapidly developing a bad case ourselves.

June In January

Contrary to what our calendar tells us, it's still June.

How do we know

An auto dealer promised us a new jalopy "some time in June." So regardless of what month you think you're living in, for us it's still June. Let's hope it doesn't run into "June in January."

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Cub Pack 250

The Cub Scouts of Den 4, their families and Den Mother, Mrs. T. E. Kenny were the guests of Harold Davis, the assistant cub scout master of Pack 250, and his wife on Wednesday, June 30, at the home, 165, N. Eureka-av.

The Cubs held an Indian POW WOW and cook out in honor of Robert Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davis, who was third time winner of the monthly project. He presented to his den the plaque that the Pack gave him as his award and Den 4 gets to keep this plaque. Danny Matyac has started the den on its second plaque by being the project winner at the last Pack meeting.

The Cubs entertained their parents by being their hosts at the cook-out, playing games and putting on a ceremonial Indian dance around a council fire.

All of the cubs of Den 4 attended. Present were Robert Davis, Felix Borowitz, Pat Lyghtle, Dennis Martin, Paul Sipe, Bill Kenney, Phillip Momburg, Danny Maytac and their Den Chief Jim Thompson. These boys with their families made up a total of 30 present.

Den 6 held its meeting Thursday, July 1, at Westgate Park. They had a picnic lunch and fishing party.

Hard Rains Flood Belvidere Residents

Residents of 200 block of Belvidere-av are growing a bit weary of dragging out the hose to scrub off the mud from the sidewalks and some front lawns following each hard rain.

A group of homes on the east side of the street in the "dip" area suffer the most from these "flash" floods, Mrs. H. E. Starcher, 196 Belvidere-av, said. The downpour on the evening of June 29 caused a veritable river to accumulate and pour down over their front lawn with much of the water running through their basement.

Three catch basins in that sector are unable to handle the flow of water that comes from both directions on Belvidere-av. Inquiries to city officials offered little direct relief from this condition, Mrs. Starcher reported.

NEW SUPPLEX HOSE
Light-but Tough!

THE NEW SUPPLEX® plastic hose is different from any you have ever seen. It's really terrific—It's so light a child can lift a 50-foot length with one finger.

You can run your car over it, leave it out in the hot sun, forget it in freezing cold—and you can't hurt it. It's only ⅓ the weight of ordinary hose and lasts twice as long. Fully guaranteed. Buy this hose and your friends will be green with envy!

25-FOOT LENGTH $4.75 Was $5.50
50-FOOT LENGTH $7.95 Was $9.95

®T. M. Reg. Pend.

• Fits all standard outlets. Will not rot, crack, peel, swell or shrink.
• Silvery-grey ribbed surface resists rough use—looks beautiful.
• Hot sun, freezing cold, oil, grease, soap, acids, gasoline have no effect on SUPPLEX.

Ask the Man Who Knows—
"QUALITY LUMBER ALWAYS Cuts Upkeep Costs!"

"You can't beat standard, grade-marked lumber for building homes that last.

"Yes, sir . . . and you save on repair bills which can bear down over the years! I know, because I get very few calls to repair homes built of QUALITY LUMBER.

"Ask my dealer friend here, too! He'll tell you the same thing I'm telling you . . . that it pays and pays well to build with good lumber. Give him a call . . . he'll give you a square deal in QUALITY LUMBER and building material.

Ticklers — By George

"Thanks for the loan, Grandma. I wish Mom and Pop would realize that a guy can't take his girl very far on a dollar these days."

Three New Hamburger Recipes Will Feed Six Hungry People On 1½ Pounds Of Meat

Hamburger all fixed up to look like a roast is really news in these days of soaring prices. It's done with only 1½ pounds of meat and will feed six hungry people generously, according to Eleanor Noderer, who has worked out this and other new-flavor hamburger recipes.

Hamburger Roll

1 cup soft bread crumbs
¼ cup milk
1½ pound ground beef chuck
1 egg
2 tablespoons chopped onion
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1½ teaspoons salt
1 teaspoon sage
4 tablespoons flour
2½ cups diced cooked or canned carrots
½ cup finely chopped celery
1 tablespoon grated onion
1 8-oz. can tomato sauce

Start your oven at 350F or moderate. Then put your bread crumbs in a good-sized bowl and pour the milk over them. (A large bowl because it's easier to mix in.) Combine with beef, egg, chopped onion, Worcestershire sauce, mustard, salt and sage and mix very thoroughly with your hands. Now place the mixture on lightly floured waxed paper. (Flour keeps meat from sticking; gives roll a slight crust). At this point it's best to mix up the carrots, celery and grated onion. Now place layer of waxed paper on top of meat and roll in rectangular shape. (Saves washing a rolling pin). Spread vegetables over beef and roll up like a jelly roll. Place in pan; cover with tomato sauce. Bake 1 hour and 15 minutes. Six people are going to love this meal.

Hamburgers With Roquefort Style Cheese

1½ lb. ground beef
1 egg
Salt
Pepper
¼ lb. roquefort style cheese
1 teaspoon dry mustard
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce

To do this easily, mix the beef, egg, salt and pepper well with your hands and form into 12 thin patties. Crumble cheese and mix with mustard, mayonnaise and Worcestershire sauce. Divide cheese mixture into 6 equal parts. Then put a dab of cheese on 6 patties. Cover these with remaining 6 patties of beef and press the edges together. Broil about 10 to 12 minutes if you like them rare or a little longer if you're the "well-done" type.

Pan-Broiled Hamburgers a La Sailor Bill Griffin

"A vice-president of the world's largest advertising agency, sailor of racing yachts and the fussiest cook that ever put foot into a ship's galley, Bill claims this is the only way to cook hamburgers. They always turn out juicy and delicious. They have more flavor and never shrink up.

Take 1½ pounds unsalted hamburger. You'll discover why no salt in a flash. Cover the bottom of your heaviest skillet with a thin layer of salt. The salt seals in the juices. Heat the pan to a high heat. Make 6 thick patties and brown quickly on both sides in the pan if you like them really rare. Lower the heat and fry a little longer if you prefer them well done. These taste every bit as good as your favorite steak cut.

Westgate Bible School Closed On June 21

A picnic and program climaxed the Westgate Methodist Daily Vacation Bible School which has been meeting at the church since Monday, June 21. Recognition certificates were presented to 49 children. Total attendance at the school was 78.

Mrs. George Pruden was the director of the school and her teachers and helpers were: beginners, Mrs. Fred Scholl and Virginia Cockrell; older beginners, Mrs. Charles Moody, Yvonne Clover, Mrs. J. D. Arnold and Patty Holycross; primary, first grade, Mrs. William McCullough, Mrs. Jacob and Mrs. Fenner; primary, second grade, Mrs. Vera Cochran and Mrs. Ray Boord; primary, third grade, Mrs. George Pruden, Jean Recob; juniors, Mrs. Carl Spohn and Mrs. Watts.

Mrs. Louise Wilson helped with recreation and Mrs. Cochran and Rev. Schreiber with devotions.

66 Get Certificates From Bible School

Certificates were handed out to 66 boys and girls at the Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Church on the evening of June 27 in graduation exercises that marked the close of the two-week daily vacation Bible School. A total enrollment of 76 was reported.

The program consisted of a demonstration of the work in each department. Dr. Eldred Heisel, assistant superintendent, was in charge.

The staff of the school included Mrs. Edna Howard, superintendent, George Miller, registrar, Jack Six, coach, and Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Crist, Mrs. Meddles, Mrs. Dutt, Mrs. DeLong, Mrs. Hegele, Mrs. Krueger, Mary Ann Brooks, Janet Dutt, Kathleen Evans and Ellen Page as teach-

BIBLE COMMENT

FOR JULY 11

Biography in Bible Offers Fascinating Account of History

HENRY FORD once called history "the bunk." It is at least very interesting bunk and not unprofitable for those who would learn anything from the past experiences of men and nations.

History has also been called "the essence of innumerable biographies." It is that, but it is a great deal more. For there is a corporate life of nations and peoples, and that is something more than the total of all the experiences of individual lives.

All this is well illustrated in the Old Testament story of the life and religion of the people of Israel. The story told in books of history, poetry and prophecy concerns chiefly the people as a whole, their struggles and conquests, their lofty conceptions of God and man and their rise and fall.

But in the Bible are innumerable accounts of individual characters and incidents that are of equal interest and profit. It is this aspect of the Bible that gives it its strongly human quality and makes it realistic.

Among these characters of the Bible, the great liberators, judges, kings and prophets stand out boldly. But there are lesser characters whose stories are illustrated in striking action. Sometimes they appear in a single chapter, or even in a few sentences. But what they were and what they did is there with indelible impression.

There were prophets like Nathan (II Samuel 12), who dared to rebuke King David for his adultery; Micaiah (I Kings 23), who refused to say words pleasing to a king when the truth that he had to declare was unpleasant. There was a devoted husband and lover like Elkanah, father of Samuel (I Samuel 1). And there were craftsmen like Bezaiel who gave the work of their hands in worship.

But the biography of the Bible does not concern only heroes and hero worship. With honest realism the weaknesses of men, their faults and sins are set down with their records of greatness. The shiftiness of Jacob, the anger of Moses, the adultery of David, the folly of Solomon, are all there, too. What a book of honesty and truth!

Two Hilltoppers Pass Pharmacy Exam

Two Hilltoppers passed the Ohio State Board of Pharmacy examination held in Columbus June 15 and 16.

They are Jessie H. Strickland, 2059 Sullivant-av, and Miles F. McFarland, 215 S. Burgess-av.

AMBASSADORS TO SING

The Ambassador Male Quintette from the Missionary Training Institute of Nyack-on-the-Hudson, New York, will present "The Amazing Christ" at the Third Avenue Alliance Church, Monday, July 12, at 8 p. m.

News of Rome

By Mrs. E. C. Sheets

A baby shower will be held for Mrs. Frank Callands, choir director of the Columbia Heights Church. Mr. and Mrs. Callands have just adopted a baby, named James Franklin. Formerly of Pasadena-av, they are now residing at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barrel, 83 N. Burgess-av, while their new home is being built on Buena-Vista-av.

A big celebration is being planned for the Rome community on Saturday, July 24.

The choir of the Columbia Heights church has disbanded for the summer. A party was held at the home of Mrs. W. G. Lamb Thursday night for its members. Delicious refreshments and a delightful evening of fun were enjoyed by the following members: Henry Warner, George Terry, Rev. Elwood Rose, I. A. Thompson, David Warner, Mrs. Marshall Hall, Mrs. Harvey Rose, Miss Opal Williams, Mrs. Clarice Schroeder, Mrs. Jack Elliott, Mrs. Robert Denman, Miss Marilyn Snyder and the hostess Mrs. W. G. Lamb.

Mrs. G. T. English, Pasadena-av, was hostess to a plastic party Tuesday night. Mrs. Fox was the demonstrator.

Church Of Christ May Be Ready By September 1

Members of the Church of Christ that meets in the American Legion quarters at Burgess and Broad are hopeful that their new building might be ready for use by Sept. 1, Gale Reeder, a member of the congregation, said this week.

The brick walls of the new structure being built on the bluff overlooking W. Broad-st at Demorest-rd are nearing completion and sub-flooring is being laid.

William Cunningham is in charge of the construction work. He has been assisted by dozens of volunteer workers who have saved "hundreds of dollars" in the cost of the project. Members are estimating that the one-floor building might be completed for $25,000 under the present plan.

The congregation is at present making plans to call a permanent pastor. Since the start of the church, a fill-in pastor has served.

Services start with Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. Morning worship follows at 10:30 with an evening service at 7:30. The Hilltop church also co-sponsors the 6:45 p. m. broadcast over Station WHKC on Saturday.

Good Shepherd Convent To Have Summer Festival

A committee of 40 prominent civic and business leaders will help promote the annual summer festival of the House of the Good Shepherd, July 31, at the school grounds, Sandusky and W. Broadsts.

General chairman for the affair, which this year will be the most elaborate and ambitious staged by the nuns, will be Edward W. Burwell. He will be assisted by Mrs. C. A. Posey, Mrs. George T. Lennon, Walter R. Burkley, George J. Igel, Louis C. Zettler, Eddie Wagner, Bernard A. Hodapp, Mike Hausman, and Reverend Father William E. Kappes.

For 83 years a factor for good in the community, the Convent this year helped 128 girls from all sections of Ohio, and of all creeds, to get a new start in life.

Proceeds from the lawn festival, which are expected to total $15,000.00, will be used for needed improvements and expansion.

Among those who will serve as committee chairmen for the July 31 event are: R. Neil Grove, W. P. Finneran, Frank West, Kathryn Murta Will, A. W. "Bugs" Raymond, Ed Scanlon, Richard J. Albanese, Ray Eyerman and Brad Willson.

Mayor James A. Rhodes is honorary chairman of the festival committee.

There will be games, and more than $2,000.00 worth of prizes.

Alpha Class Plans Lawn Fete July 23

The Alpha Class of the Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church will hold a lawn fete on the church lawn on the evening of July 23. Ice cream, cake, wieners, candy, pop and coffee will be on sale.

Tickets are now on sale for 25c each. Howard Dellinger is in charge of the lawn fete.

BIBLE SCHOOL

Running July 12 to 30, Mondays through Fridays, 9-11:30 a. m., a Vacation Bible School will be conducted at Concordia Lutheran Church. The church is located at 45 S. Brinker-av.

An invitation is extended to children from kindergarten to the eighth grade.

A. L. Witt, principal of Concordia Parish School, will be the superintendent of the Vacation Bible School.

Bible stories will be studied, with the aid of work books and film-strip pictures. There will also be handwork and singing.

Thanks For Street Improvements

A new surface for Hague Avenue between Sullivant and Broad will be a welcome sight to all who drive this route so often. The Hilltop is appreciative of the efforts of the city in making these repairs at this time.

Numerous other cross streets are in bad condition and it is hoped some action can be taken on them soon. One in particular, Westgate Avenue, needs attention right away. If repairs could be made before the bean dinner at Westgate Park on July 28 it would be appreciated.

That Last Straw

Among the testimony offered at a divorce hearing by the elderly husband-plaintiff was the following:

His wife, married twice previously, had him haul dirt to the cemetery to build up the graves of two of her former husbands, and she pointed out to him just where she intended his grave should be . . .

P. S. He got the divorce.

Federation Band To Hold Concert Sunday Night At Westgate Park

Westgate Park has been picked by the Federation of Musicians Band as the site of its next concert to be given Sunday night at 8 o'clock by the band and an assisting chorus. The conductor for that evening and for a repeat Wednesday evening at Schiller Park will be D. Talmadge Crawshaw.

Mr. Crawshaw is a conservatory-trained musician who has directed Gilbert and Sullivan operas locally; supervised Federal Music Project concerts, himself conducting an average of 18 concerts a week and the past season conducted Theater Productions in a performance of "The Student Prince" at the Hartman Theater. The same cast and chorus will sing at Westgate Park, doing selections from the same Romberg classic and other musical comedies. The unusual program follows:

Star Spangled Bannor ..... Key

2nd Kiwanis Movie To Be Held Saturday

The second in a series of eight free movies for children of the Hilltop will be held in the Ritz Theater this Saturday afternoon. The shows are sponsored by the Hilltop Kiwanis Club through the cooperation of George Pekras, owner of the Ritz and Rivoli movie houses.

This Saturday's show will feature "Trail To Mexico" and musical cartoons.

Free tickets to the show can be gotten from supervisors at the Hilltop's six supervised playgrounds.

The first of the eight shows was held at the Rivoli Theater Saturday afternoon with a near capacity crowd of enthusiastic youngsters on hand. The shows will be held in the two theaters on alternating Saturdays.

Start Hague Resurfacing

Work was started Monday morning on the resurfacing of Hague-av between W. Broad-st and Sullivant-av.

The new surface is being laid over the brick street and will require only a few days to complete.

The State Highway Department will have work started very soon on two sections of Central-av. One section runs from Mound-st to Sullivant-av while the other is from Town-st to W. Broad-st.

New surfacing will also be put down on a 1200-foot stretch from Letchworth-av west on Broad-st to the city limits.

Other recent street repairs include Binns-blvd and Wiltshire-rd from Vandenberg-av, to the southern corporation line.

Notices have gone out to residents of Sullivant-av from Hague-av west to the city limits advising them of their share of the cost of repaving that thoroughfare. Work on this project is not expected to start before next spring, however.

Cook To Face Murder Charge

First degree murder charges were to have been filed this week against Lawrence Cook, 21, of 2161 McKinley-av, following the death of a woman companion Monday night.

Ethel Adkins, 20, rear of 1140½ Cleveland-av, died as the result of a fall from Cook's car in McKinley-av near the State Highway Garage. The tragedy followed their earlier meeting in a West Side cafe.

Dr. Mitchell Spyker, Franklin County coroner, said death was apparently caused when the woman fell from the moving car and struck her head on the roadway.

Hearing Is Set On School Light Request

The City Traffic and Transportation Committee has scheduled a hearing on the need for a traffic light near the West Mound Street School on W. Mound-st, on the afternoon of July 26.

The light, for the protection of children who must cross Mound-st on their way to school, was asked recently by a committee of parents from the school. At present the condition is being studied by city officials in light of the need for the traffic signal.

The light is one of several things being sought by way of improvement to the West Mound Street School. Paul R. Langdon, chairman of the Improvement Committee of the PTA, said that his group had appeared before school officials and asked that a permanent school building be considered as a future need for the rapidly growing school area. At present the school is operated as a part of the John Burroughs district with classes being held in two portable-type buildings.

Langdon pointed out that additional classroom space was needed for this fall in view of a recent school census and the start of public kindergarten work.

Craftsmen's Lawn Fete To Feature Many Attractions

A lawn fete with many extra trimmings will be held at West Gate Temple tomorrow night by the Craftsmen's Club of the Masonic organization. The affair is scheduled to run from 5 p. m. to 12 midnight.

Included in the food department will be hot dogs, barbecue beef, potato salad, baked beans, ice cream, pop, coffee, cake, pie, potato chips and popcorn.

There will be a novelty stand and a fish pond. Fireworks will climax the evening's entertainment, which will include music by an orchestra and a band. There will also be a professional clown on hand to entertain the kiddies.

All members of the club are assisting Russell Brewer, president of the group, in this second annual lawn fete. Proceeds will go to the support of the work at West Gate Temple.

Guernsey County Picnic Planned

The Guernsey County Club will hold its annual picnic for members and friends at Schiller Park Sunday, July 18, from 3 to 9 p. m.

Members are asked to bring picnic baskets and their own table service. Further information may be obtained from the president of the group, W. E. Slasor, 2649 Summit-st.

Playground Worker Quits Over Wage Disagreement

A disagreement over a salary arrangement led to the resignation from the City Recreation Department of Mrs. Margaret Edwards, 785 S. Terrace-av.

Mrs. Edwards was starting her third year as recreation instructor at Westgate Park. She said that before the start of the season she had been promised $176.88 per month by N. J. Barack, director of the department, but when she got her first check it was at the rate of $157.25 per month.

Barack said the whole misunderstanding was due to a "clerical error." He said that under present Civil Service rulings the lower figure was all he was permitted to pay an instructor. He said that only a supervisor-in-charge was eligible for the $176.88.

Mrs. Edwards made the following statement to The Hilltop Record concerning the incident:

"With some reluctance I have resigned my work at Westgate Park because I feel that my experience and training qualified me for the higher salary bracket. I have enjoyed working with the boys and girls at Westgate Park.

"I was definitely told that my pay would be $176.88 per month but Mr. Barack would not agree to that figure in spite of his earlier letter setting that as the salary."

Mrs. Edwards, a widow, teaches school and supports her three children. There had been no assignment to take her place this week.

STRUCK BY AUTO

Abraham L. Nance, 69, Briggsdale, was struck Tuesday night on Rt. 3, Briggsdale, by an automobile driven, according to the State Highway Patrol, by Harry G. Mallernee, 65, of 2537 Clime-rd. Nance was treated at Mt. Carmel Hospital for lacerations and possible skull fracture.

Struck By Hit-Skip

Cledith King, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde King, 66 N. Princeton-av, suffered cuts and bruises Tuesday afternoon when she was struck by a hit-skip driver as she was riding her bicycle in Cable-av at Princeton-av, police said. She was taken to Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Vets' Building In Bid Stage

Plans for the new war memorial building to serve as a permanent home for Camp Chase Post No. 98, American Legion, are out for bids this week, it was learned from Ray McVay, chairman of the building program.

Plans call for the erection of a one-story building with full basement on a lot just east of Westgate-av on the north side of W. Broad-st. It will be built on a foundation 40 by 120 feet. Cost of the building is estimated at from $30,000 to $35,000.

Hundreds Enter Slogan Contest

Key's 5 & 10 Cent Stores, Inc. "I Shop at Key's Because—" contest ended June 30 with a swarm of entries.

The judges, Mitchel Nachman, attorney, who just moved to his new location on the Hilltop, M. A. Sheskey and G. W. McDonald, are swamped trying to select the winners from the hundreds of letters submitted.

Names of the winners will be announced through the papers and a list published at the three Key's stores, 1268 W. Broad-st, 2368 W. Broad-st and 1402 Cleveland-av, as soon as the winners can be determined.

AT SUMMER CAMP

Dave Miller, 2648 Sullivant-av, part-time sports writer for The Hilltop Record, is enjoying two weeks at a summer camp.

Mrs. Ruby, Housewife and Mother

Annexes Another Archery Title . . .

Mrs. Eloise Ruby

By Libby Downing

"Ours was really a family affair," said Iowa-born Mrs. Eloise Ruby, 1831 Sullivant-av, of her start in archery. Over the July Fourth week-end, she was awarded first place in the Mid-Western archery tournament, in which 16 states were represented.

While living with her family in Iowa City, her father, Dr. Claude Lapp became the first man to win the state championship in archery contests. Then, too, Mrs. Lapp was a sportswoman and she copped the women's state championship. Well, now, Eloise and her brother, Roger, weren't oblivious to all this, so they jaunted down to the contests and took turn about in walking off with the junior girls' title and the junior boys' trophy.

When Eloise was old enough to enter the women's division, she immediately won first place honors. Where did that leave her mother? In second place! And Mrs. Lapp hasn't bested her daughter since.

For 15 years Mrs. Ruby has been shooting in city, state, and national meets. She doesn't come home empty-handed either. On the living room mantel are three archery trophies, all won since March of this year.

The first was for the Ohio State Women's Indoor title, which she won in March. At the meet each year the officials present one of the players with a "Good Sports" award and this year it was given to Mrs. Ruby just about two months before the arrival of their second child, six-week-old Sally. The Rubys' other little girl is two-year-old Lois. The third trophy stands for first place award in the mid-western contests which were held on July 4.

"My husband, Phillip, acts as sort of mascot at the meets, Mrs. Ruby said. "He has gone often enough to know the people fairly well, and the outcome of the contests wears him down before it bothers me. You know, it's easier to be in the midst of things than to sit on the sidelines and wonder."

Won't Enter '48 National

This year's national tourney will be in Reno the first week of August, but the name of Eloise Ruby will be absent from the roll this time. It's too far away for a busy housewife with two small children.

Last year and the year before she attended the nationals and came back as second place winner. In the mid-western from which she recently returned and which she has won for the third time (1940, 1946 and this year) she broke all existing records except one, and she tied it!

The big event was held in Jackson, Mich., Mr. Ruby's home town, and "our baby sitters (his parents) were just made to order," she said.

The Ruby family will celebrate its second year as Hilltoppers in October.

The part of Mrs. R's archery skill which is so different is the fact that she doesn't practice often. Most sportsmen and women are kept in condition by practicing their sport almost constantly. The way she explains it is "after learning to shoot as a child, and doing it so often through the years, my average has gradually risen, and practice is not so necessary an item. However now and then I set up a board on the back porch and practice a little, but the range is too short for much good."

Phil Ruby is an aeronautical engineer at the local Curtiss-Wright plant where he and his wife met. While Eloise attended college, the Curtiss plants offered a cadet course to young women students, and trained them for 10 months. She was in Purdue University during her training period and was sent to Columbus from there.

Archery is not the only sport in which she indulges. While in college at Alabama Polytech, she won a badminton tournament, and at Purdue was runner-up in a tennis contest. She likes swimming, and has held life saving badges from time to time, too.

Although sports play an important part in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Ruby, they do not intend to go overboard on the subject.

"My home and children come first, then if I have some spare time I enjoy shooting contests," said this pretty young Hilltop mother.

Butter vs. Margarine Controversy To Be Aired Before Kiwanis Club

Members of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club will hear both sides of the controversial butter vs. margarine question during the next two weeks.

At today's luncheon meeting to be held at Schmelzer's Restaurant, 3176 W. Broad-st, Neil Baker, manager of Fairmont Foods Co., will be the speaker. He will discuss the importance of butter and the dairy industry to Ohio agriculture and compare the relative merits of margarine and butter as foods and the necessity of fair and adequate taxing of margarine as related to other food products.

The following week a representative of the margarine interests will appear on the program and give the other side of the story.

Last week M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner, vice-president of the Kiwanis Club and delegate to the national convention in Los Angeles, was the speaker. He reported on his recent trip to the west coast and his experiences at the convention.

He reported that Kiwanis now has 187,182 members.

Summing up his impressions of the convention, Sensenbrenner said, "Yes, Kiwanis is a great organization. It can be hard-boiled and unyielding in its attitude if the occasion requires but it will always be at the same time a kind and understanding father because it is made up of 187,182 kind and understanding men who want from Kiwanis only the opportunity to be their brothers' keeper."

Tennis Courts Near Completion

The new hard-surface tennis courts for Holton and Glenwood Parks were nearing completion this week. The blacktop surfaces were laid but work on the fences had not yet started by Tuesday of this week.

Three new courts are being made at Holton and two at Glenwood Park. They are a part of 17 new courts being constructed throughout the city this year.

Progress on the remodeling of Glenwood Shelterhouse was termed 'satisfactory" this week by N. J. Barack, city recreation director. The building is undergoing extensive remodeling and renovation from top to bottom. It is expected that the entire building will be completed in time for full use with the start of the fall and winter program.

Barack also reports that the department is now advertising for bids for similar remodeling and renovation of Sunshine Shelter house.

A drinking fountain was installed at the Columbian Avenue playground last week for the dozens of boys and girls who assemble there daily.

Jr. Tennis Tourney Advances To Finals

Play in the Westgate Junior Tennis Tourney had advanced to the finals stage early this week with Ronnie Eifert and Charles Turner matched to play the championship round.

In the semi-finals Eifert beat John Bolg, 6-0 and 6-2, while Turner turned back Dave Armour 6-2 and 6-4.

Hurt On Playground

Raymond Rose, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rose, 353 Clarendon-av, was cut on the head in a fall at the Glenwood Park playground Monday. He was treated in Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Susan Johnson To Have Role In Broadway Show

After spending a five week vacation with her parents in Columbus, Susan Johnson, former West High School soprano, returned to New York to be cast for a part in "Brigadoon," a popular musical show.

A pupil of Dorothy Stevens Humphreys and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Johnson, 2422½ W. Broad-st, Susan has been a solo singer at Radio City Music Hall since June, 1947.

She will join the "Brigadoon" cast immediately for the remainder of the New York run, which goes through July, and will stay with it during the coast to coast tour which begins in September.

In recent years Miss Johnson has been a member of several Hilltop Minstrel shows, besides her appearances at West High, while a student there. She was also featured at the Hartman Theatre in leading roles of "No, No Nanette" and "Naughty Marietta."

Child Dies After Being Struck By Auto Last Tues.

A 4-year-old N. Hague-av child struck by an auto near his home a week ago Tuesday died in Children's Hospital Thursday, a result of the injuries.

He was James Hogan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hogan, 1013 N. Hague-av. The child was struck by a car driven by Mark Nichols, 21, of 36 E. Frambes-av, as he crossed the road to go to the mailbox. The driver was not held.

Funeral services for the child were held at the Spears Funeral Home Monday afternoon with interment in Union Cemetery.

In addition to his parents, he leaves a sister, Freda J., and a brother, Albert Lee Hogan at home; his paternal grandmother, Mrs. J. E. Hogan, and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wedemeyer.

3 Rings Stolen

Three diemond rings valued at approximately $500 were stolen from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Narden, 1029 Brown-rd, on June 20. During the afternoon the family left the residence for a short time, and left a door which is difficult to open, unlocked.

When they returned Mrs. Narden looked for her rings which she had left in the kitchen and they had disappeared. Neighbors were unable to supply any clues as to who might have taken the property. Sheriff's deputies are now working on the case.

Former West Boys Enter Service

With the recent passage of the "peacetime draft", several former West High boys have enlisted in some branch of military service.

Scheduled to report at Great Lakes, Ill., Monday for the start of their three-year enlistments in the navy are John Cherup, Robert (Bob) Freshcorn and Dick Ham from the June graduating class. All three have signed up for hospital apprentice.

Recently signed up for service with the Marine Organized Reserve are Robin Schmidt, Don Kunzi, Don Woodland, Kenny Mahan, Pat Collins and Don Skipper.

Misspelled Word Contest To Start

Like beans?

Like beans real well?

In keeping with the spirit of the Hilltop Bean Dinner, The Hilltop Record wants to be certain that everyone on the Hilltop gets all the beans they want to eat for a long time and so this week we are pleased to anncunce a Misspelled Word Contest to be conducted in the Record next week.

And—you guessed it—the prizes will be BEANS!

First prize will be a case of baked beans, second prize will be 12 cans of baked beans and third prize will be 5 pounds of white Navy beans.

The contest will be interesting and worth your while—so be on the lookout for it in a page ad in next week's Hilltop Record and be prepared to sit right down and figure it out and send in your answers.

If you like beans this is your big moment!

Maj. Imrie To Be Speaker At Dedication

Maj. Norman Imrie, well-known Columbus after dinner speaker and director of publicity for the state fire prevention organization, will give the address when Prairie Township's new $20,000 fire house is dedicated in special ceremonies Saturday, July 24.

Joe Lamb, chief of the volunteer organization and chairman of Rome's big celebration, also announced this week that Lee Koontz would serve as master of ceremonies for the afternoon and evening entertainment and that the Hilliards Summer Band would play a concert from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m.

The dedication festivities will get under way with a parade at 2 p. m. This will feature some of the best fire equipment in use throughout the county. A doll, pet and bicycle parade will be the next item on the agenda. There will be prizes for the winners.

Dedication At 3 P. M.

The dedication itself will take place at 3 o'clock. Round and square dancing will be held in the engine house during the evening.

A fish fry will be held during the late afternoon and evening and a wide assortment of refreshment and concession stands will be in operation.

Chief Lamb and his committee members are looking forward to making it the biggest celebration ever to be held in the neighboring villiage of New Rome.

FIDDLER — Although he's pictured above with a guitar, Slim Pinkerman is better known to barn dance followers as "the wizard of the violin." He will appear at Westgate Park with the Buckeye Jamboree group at the Hilltop Bean Dinner. The group will make afternoon and evening appearances and then take over for dancing in the shelter house.

Pet Show To Be Held At Holton Tomorrow

Holton Park supervisors have planned Friday as "Pet Show Day" for their young clients.

All children with pets are eligible to enter the contest with the animal of their choice.

Any parents interested are invited to the show, at which prizes will be given for pets in various divisions.

The time is 6:45 p. m. at the park, July 16.

Gala Bean Picnic Set For July 28

More merchandise continued to pile up this week as members of the bean dinner committee made still further selections in preparation for the scrip auction to be held at the Hilltop Bean Dinner at Westgate Park on Wednesday afternoon and evening, July 28.

In addition to the variety listed in last week's Record the following merchandise was reported this week as being for sale at the auction:

One table lamp, $7.50; $11.95 toilet seat; $4, 25-ft. sink augur; $24.50 end table; $16.95 Arvin radio; $10 blanket; 48 quarts Esso motor oil; two $2.50 spray guns; 5 engineer tire pumps; 1 dish set, $5; 1 Lucite cigarete box, $2.95; 3 fountain pens; 1 fruit bowl, $4.95; 1 Cory electric coffee grinder, $19.95; 1 room size Axminster rug, $89.50; 4 Car Nu wax kits; 4 orders 10 gal. gasoline, $2.45 each.

Pair grass shears; hammer; bath room scaleh; tennis balls; Toni Home permanent; plastic hair brush; carton cigarettes; electric fan, $7.95; Clix-O-Flex camera and films; plastic green toilet seat; set $19.65 auto seat covers; groceries of all kinds; copper tea kettle; flour sifter; cake decorating set; measuring spoons; coffee pot; tray and coasters; glass wax; plastic apron; cold pack canning outfit; overnight case; Thermos jug; tray; shoe polish; dancing taps; rawhide and sport laces; 3 pairs children's play sandals; 6-foot stepladder; collender; 12 qt. kettle; cake pan; aluminum roaster.

A complete list of the many items with a total value of over $1000 will be listed in the Record next week. More than 100 merchants are giving Hilltop scrip with each purchase or payment on account.

Entertainment Scheduled

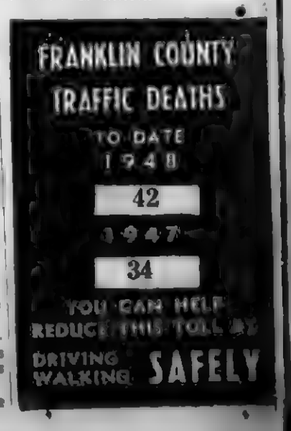
There will be something to entertain and amuse the Bean Dinner crowd every moment of the afternoon and evening.

The Buckeye Jamboree, a group of widely-known radio entertainers featuring Uncle Homer Meachum, will be heard in two shows—afternoon and evening. The musicians will also take charge of the dance in the shelterhouse from 9 to 12 o'clock.

The famous Moose Band will be on hand to play an early evening concert. In the department of sports, Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Church softball team will play the Galloway Merchants on the ball diamonds.

For the kiddies there will be pony rides, ferris wheel and other rides, to say nothing of a full program of games and contests with prizes for the winners.

It is suggested by members of the Hilltop Business Association, sponsors of the affair, that many families may want to come and bring a picnic basket for their evening meal. Where this is done it has been suggested that these persons bring their own plates and table service. This will help to speed up the service at the bean stands.



Of course there will be soft drinks, ice cream, hot dogs and other items of food in addition to the beans and coffee.

Joe Briggs, chairman of the Hilltop's biggest summer event, has been a busy man indeed these past few days. If this year's crowd measures up to expectations, upwards of 30,000 persons will be on hand during the afternoon and evening.

PLAN SOCIAL FETE

The Mothers' Club of Troop 219 will hold a social Saturday night, July 17, at 2130 Whitehead-rd. There will be round and square dancing, soft drinks, cake, ice cream, hot dogs and coffee.

Proceeds from the social will go toward building a hall in the Rainbow Addition.

The Hilltop Record can be mailed anywhere in Franklin County for $1.50 per year.

JUNE 5 NEWLYWEDS—Pictured above are Mr. and Mrs. John B. Hurd, the former Patricia Ann Lauer, who were married early last month.

Miss Patricia Ann Lauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Lauer, 79 S. Sylvan-av, became the bride of Mr. John B. Hurd, son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Hurd, 613 Binns-blvd, at 11:30 a. m. Saturday, June 5. The Rev. Fr. Raymond Bauschard officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional white satin gown designed with a sheer marquisette yoke, long sleeves pointed over the wrists, a fitted bodice, and a full skirt ending in a train. Her veil of silk illusion was held in place by a lace headdress. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a purple throated orchid.

Miss Elnora S. Basinger of Pandora was the maid of honor. She wore a yellow taffeta faille gown styled with an off-the-shoulder neckline, a soft bertha which formed cap sleeves, and a full skirt with a bustle. She wore matching mitts and carried a bouquet of orchid carnations.

Mrs. Jack Horcher, sister of the bride, wore a pink gown with matching mitts. Mrs. James Lyday of Chicago, Miss Mary Ann Holt, and Miss Shirley Lindley, of Marion, attended as bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of blue with matching mitts. Their bouquets were of pink carnations. Mr. Edward W. Lauer, III, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer.

Mr. James Hurd, Jr., was best man for his brother, while Mr. James Douthitt, Mr. William Schmelzer and Mr. Edward W. Lauer, Jr., served as ushers.

A reception was held in the afternoon at the Seneca Hotel with Miss Elaine Bangert, Miss Jo Ann Shuster of Wapakoneta, and Miss Nettie Bassinger of Pandora, as assisting hostesses.

Mrs. Lauer chose a dress of blue silk with pink and black accessories for the occasion. She wore a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink crepe dress and chose black accessories and a corsage of blue carnations.

The bride is a graduate of West High School and the School of Nursing at Ohio State University. The groom is a graduate of Aquinas High School and is a senior at Ohio State University.

East Broad Street Methodist Church was the scene on June 13 for the marriage of Miss Alice Callahan to Mr. Richard Joe Wharton. Rev. Walter P. Castoe officiated at the ceremony, assisted by Rev. R. Thomas.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Callahan, 481 Wrexham-av, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Wharton, 42 N. Oakley-av.

The bride chose a gown of white marquisette trimmed with white rosepoint lace for her marriage. The long full skirt formed the train. She carried a white prayer book, a gift of the bridegroom, topped with a white orchid.

Mrs. Arthur Jones and Miss Inez Lou Wharton, sisters of Mr. Wharton, attended the bride as matron of honor and bridesmaid. Mrs. Jones chose yellow marquisette, and her sister wore green marquisette. They both wore matching bonnets and carried bouquets of baby calla lilies and red roses.

Attending the bridegroom were Mr. Orin Williams as best man, and seating the guests were Mr Frank Callahan, brother of the bride, Mr. Robert Smith, nephew of the bridegroom, Mr. Carl Fisher and Mr. Arthur Jones.

A reception for 350 guests was held immediately following the service, in the church parlors. Mrs. Callahan greeted her guests in aqua silk crepe with purple accessories. Mrs. Wharton chose pink linen with white accessories, and both wore an orchid corsage.

Assisting hostesses at the reception were Miss Mary Scheck, Mrs. Carl Fisher, Miss Margie Molengraft, Mrs. Orin Williams and Mrs. Richard Pontius.

The former Miss Callahan is a graduate of Central High School and the Secretarial Institute, and is now associated with the Ohio Bell Telephone Company, in the employment office.

Mr. Wharton, a West High School graduate, attended Purdue and Antioch Colleges. He is now Columbus representative for the Protexa-Car Company of Newark, N. J. He is a veteran of two years in the U. S. Army, part of which period was served in the European Theater of Operations.

The couple are now at home at 1992 Doren-av.

Miss Wagner Hostess To Out-of-town Folks

Wanda Wagner, 684 S. Eureka-av, was hostess last week to eight girls (and two of their husbands), all alumnae of Stevens College, in Columbia, Mo.

The Hilltopper and her friends were members of the class of '43.

Included in the group were Joan McLane, Piedmont, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Murphy, Munford, Tenn.; Martha Buskirk, Huntington, W. Va.; Beverly Short, Hamlet, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Bodine, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Denzil Knight, St. Mary's, W. Va.; Relna Kalfs, Waverly, O.; and Donna Flannigan, Columbus.

Arriving Tuesday of last week, they spent Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at Buckeye Lake. Then over the week-end the girls returned to their homes.

Miss Wagner and Miss Buskirk, who remained here, left Tuesday for Mackinac Island, Mich., and will return to Columbus Sunday.

'Made in Japan'

Consumer goods is being turned out again in Japan, in converted war plant assembly lines, as the Japs try to revive their once vast export trade. Here workers at the Seikosha Clock Co. in Tokyo put finishing touches on alarm clocks, part of a 27,000-unit order. The Japs themselves can't afford products like this.

Scrap trade backs imports from Germany, offers to help plan.

Rev. Russell J. Olson officiated at the double-ring ceremony on May 29, which united in marriage Miss Phyllis Byerly and Mr. William Herbert.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Byerly, 42 S. Hague-av, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Byerly, 111 S. Harris-av.

For her marriage the bride wore a gown of white marquisette with a sweetheart neckline and long, full skirt, with matching mitts. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a tiara of orange blossoms, and she wore a strand of pearls with matching ear-rings. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. Raymond Righter, sister of the bridegroom, was the matron of honor in blue marquisette. Her bouquet was of pink carnations. Identically gowned in pink marquisette was the junior bridesmaid, Miss Connie Sue Byerly, niece of the bride. She carried yellow carnations. Both wore matching headdresses.

Attending Mr. Herbert as best man was Mr. Raymond Righter.

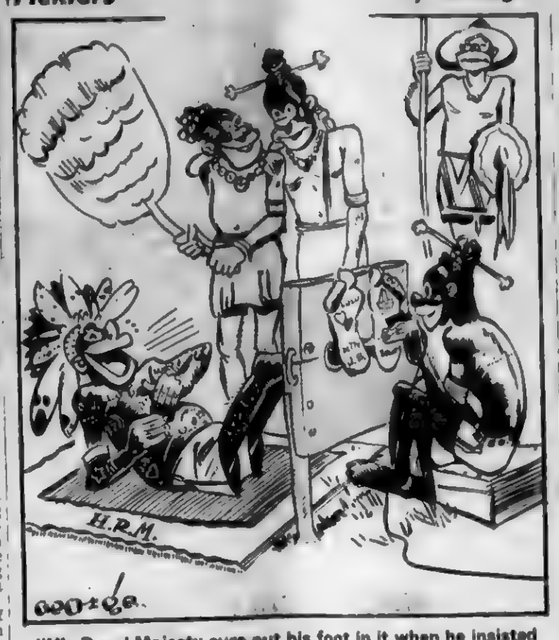
A reception was held immediately following the marriage at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Byerly greeted her guests in a dress of grey print with white accessories. She wore a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of navy blue with pink accessories and a pink rose corsage.

For her going-away costume, Mrs. Herbert wore a suit of aqua, with white accessories, and accented by a corsage of tea roses.

The bride is a graduate of West High. Mr. Herbert is a graduate of Central Evening High and attended Franklin University. Both are now employed at the Ohio Bell Telephone Company.

Blueberry Muffins

1 egg
4 tablespoons shortening
1 cup milk
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1/3 cup sugar
4 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup blueberries



Grease muffin tins and set your oven at 425° or hot. Beat egg until foamy with an egg beater. Melt the shortening, add to milk, then combine with the beaten egg.

Sift dry ingredients together, saving 1 tablespoon to shake with berries (this keeps them from sinking to the bottom of your muffins). Add liquid to dry part. Mix, using 15 strokes.

Beat in lightly floured berries with 5 more strokes only. Don't be shocked at the slight amount of mixing. The batter will, and should, look lumpy. This is the way with good muffins.

Drop the batter from a spoon into muffin tins. Fill the pans 2/3 full. Bake 20 minutes and you'll have 8 wonderful muffins.

Three-Fuel Convertible Furnace, Plastic Fluid Preserves Eggs, Fruit

Home owners faced with shortages of various fuels can solve their conversion problems with a newly developed furnace that has packaged units which can be changed at will to heat with coal, gas or oil. A new plastic fluid provides a protective film on eggs, fruits and vegetables, keeping them fresh and free from dirt. A new seasoning intensifies the natural flavor of foods without adding any taste of its own.

"Washington, D. C., reports that this country's ever growing need for oil is behind plans for the huge new synthetic fuels industry now getting under way. More years and much more research will be needed to launch it fully. Meanwhile, since we consume more petroleum products than all other countries put together—and have only about 30 per cent of the known world reserves — what happens to the big reserves of the Middle East is of major importance to our economy, as well as to world politics.

Gasoline won't be plentiful this summer, especially in the Midwest. What we waste now we'll pay for next winter in fuel oil shortages.

Food notes: You can look at peanut butter sandwiches with new respect. Protein chemists have found that the amino acids of peanuts supplement those of bread to make a combination more nutritious than the same amounts of both ingredients would be if eaten separately. A new plastic fluid which can be thinned or thickened and is removable with water is coming in to use as a coating for eggs, fruit and vegetables. It provides a film which protects their freshness and keeps them free of outside dirt. Eggs treated with it have kept fresh for as much as a year without refrigeration. You can get a new secret-process seasoning which adds no taste of its own but intensifies the natural flavor of foods with which it is combined.

Akron, Ohio, tells of a new plastic container made to hold a fifth cut from a standard size pie. It will keep the pie fresh, clean and uncrushed for lunch or picnic boxes.

Midland, Mich., announces that a self-sacrificing magnesium rod can be installed in hot water tanks to keep rust away. It will disintegrate before it permits rusting on the tank walls and it will last about six years in average water.

News from Detroit, Mich., has it that a convertible furnace, newly developed here, will heat with coal, gas or oil. It has packaged units which can be changed when the fuel supply varies.

Chicago, Ill., sends word of a special flat rectangular brush for screens. Its short stiff hairs fit through the holes, to make painting simpler and about 10 times faster.

San Pedro, Calif., reports that new molars from transplanted wisdom tooth buds may some day become commonplace for children and teen-agers. A dental surgeon here has found that the transplanted buds grow very well in their new homes, provided the patient is young.

New from Cleveland, Ohio, warns that if you want bugs to stay away from your porch or garden or camp this summer, use yellow light bulbs. For some unknown reason bugs don't like yellow lights. The ideal setup: a regular white lamp some distance away from our house to lure the bugs away, and a yellow one for the porch.

News from Boston, Mass., concerns hope for asthma sufferers: A new drug called isuprel has passed two years of testing with flying colors. Taken as a tasteless spray, it brings relief that will last 6 to 12 hours for some patients, as much as 6 months for those less acutely affected.

Los Angeles, Calif., says that transparent plastic shades which protect goods in store windows from fading may soon find their way into homes.

Los Angeles, Calif., reports that shower curtain weights can now be had to keep your curtains hanging straight and the water off the bathroom floor. They help reduce mildew, too.

COTTON TOPPER

Hollow cut velveteen, the cotton for smooth looking coats, goes into this swing-back topper by Raelson. It's the type of coat that can go over anything—sweaters, and skirts, smart date dresses, and prom formals. With the attached hood it's a natural for any weather, come rainy, windy, or balmy days.

SPRING PERENNIAL—This plaid gingham one-piecer with wedding ring waist, full skirt is made from a Simplicity pattern.

STOP AND THINK BEFORE YOU BUY
AND YOU'LL FIND YOURSELF SPENDING LESS MONEY FOR COMPLETELY SATISFYING MEALS
Our prices are as low as they can be, but nowadays everybody's food prices are too high. We don't like it any more than you do. However, in the main, food prices are determined by economic conditions over which we have no control.
Perhaps we can help repair those dents in your budget though, by passing along a few suggestions to help give your family satisfying meals without spending an unreasonable part of your income on food.
● 1 Serve the fruits and vegetables that are in season. They're best and lowest in price when supply is greatest.
● 2 Meat is the most expensive item on your shopping list, but you needn't always buy the most expensive cuts. Use hamburg, pot roast, and stews—they're all delicious when they're cooked right.
● 3 Don't be afraid to use left-overs. With a little imagination, you can dress up today's main dish into a new, delectable treat for tomorrow.
● 4 Margarine and evaporated milk are less expensive than butter and fresh milk, and just as nourishing. In addition to many table uses, you can use them thriftily in cooking.
● 5 Shop our shelves for special deals in canned foods and staple groceries, and buy in quantities. Shop at TINY'S MARKET where prices are consistently fair.

This Is The Season For Chicken; Enjoy It These Delicious Ways

Fryers and broilers are at their best and cheapest right now, so treat your family to a wonderfully succulent chicken dinner. Whether you broil, fry or fricassee, the secret of your success will lie partly in what you cook in, says Elizabeth Sweeney.

BARBECUED CHICKEN

2 fryers, 2½ to 3 lbs. each
Salt
Melted butter or margarine
1 clove garlic

Start your oven at 350F or moderate. Place chickens, which should be cleaned and split in two, in shallow roasting pan, skin side up; sprinkle with salt and brush with melted butter or margarine. Cut garlic in half and drop into pan. Bake ½ hour. Take garlic out of pan and cover birds with this sauce:

Barbecue Sauce

1 sliced medium onion
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
2½ cups tomato juice
2 tablespoons vinegar
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
¼ teaspoon curry powder
⅛ teaspoon cayenne
½ teaspoon tabasco
½ teaspoon black pepper
1 bay leaf

Cook onion in butter or margarine for about 5 minutes. Then stir in all the other ingredients and cook slowly over low fire for 15 minutes. Pour over chicken. Cook another hour and a half, basting with the sauce several times during cooking.

CHICKEN FRICASSEE WITH CURRY DUMPLINGS

Chicken and dumplings in a hurry? Call on the pressure cooker. Cook the chicken under pressure, then off with the lid, drop in the dumplings and finish, using the cooker like a covered kettle.

4-5 lb. fowl, cut up
1½ cups cold water
2 teaspoons salt
1 onion, sliced
Sprig of celery leaves
1 carrot
¼ cup flour
½ cup water
Dumpling dough

Place chicken in pressure cooker with 1½ cups water, salt, onion, celery leaves and carrot. Lock cover on and place over high heat. Bring pressure to 10 pounds. Reduce heat and hold this pressure 40 minutes. Reduce pressure and remove cover. Stir ¼ cup flour mixed with ½ cup water to thicken gravy. Drop dumplings by heaping tablespoonfuls onto chicken. Cook dumplings for first 10 minutes with cover off; then place cover on loosely, not locked, and cook 10 minutes longer.

*Dumpling Dough: Sift together 2 cups all-purpose flour, 3 teaspoon salt, 3 teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon curry powder. Cut in 2 tablespoons shortening with 2 knives or pastry blender. Add 3 tablespoons chopped parsley; gradually add 1 cup milk; mix until smooth. Drop by tablespoons onto hot fricassee by dipping spoon first into fricassee then into dough so dumplings will slip off more easily.

Decorative Glass Streamlines Modern Room

Glass blocks around a fireplace surrounded by a mirror add sparkle to large, modern living rooms.

Canned Pickled Beets Are Good Appetizers

Small pickled beets add a colorful and appetizing note to meals the year 'round. Your home canning schedule should include them.

1 gallon small beets
2 cups sugar, or 1 cup sugar and 1 cup corn sirup
1 long stick cinnamon
1 tablespoon allspice
3½ cups vinegar
1½ cups water

Cook and skin beets. Add sugar and spices to vinegar and water. Simmer 15 minutes. Add beets. Boil five minutes. Pack beets into hot jars. Cover with boiling sirup. If not enough sirup to cover, add more vinegar. Process five minutes in hot water bath.

Fathers Warned To Take Part In Child Care Or Face Failure

Altogether too many American fathers have the attitude that "bringing up the children is the wife's department." No matter how much time they have to spend away from home, they shouldn't neglect or avoid their duties as parents, according to Elizabeth Pope. Discussing what makes a successful father, she points out that boys need to share in their father's activities, and girls need someone who responds to their femininity.

"It would be surprising, as Anna W. M. Wolf of the Child Study Association has pointed out, if children didn't conclude from seeing Mother run the home, that women are the real bosses of the world and men a mere diversion. Boys and girls who feel this way often grow up to be passive men and aggressive women. It is one compelling reason children need fathers to take an active part in their upbringing., sharing responsibility jointly with mothers and working from the earliest years toward mutual love and understanding.

"Fathers are also necessary because, for both boys and girls, they are the source of a youngster's idea of society as a whole and of his place in the world. At as early an age as five, little boys begin to identify themselves with their fathers, drawing from them their standards of conduct and their conceptions of the masculine role they will play in life.

"Girls have a different but equally urgent need for a father. Lawrence Frank, authority on human development, who has six children of his own, says that from their earliest school years little girls need a 'safe foil' on whom to try out their feminine role. The effect of a father's indifference on a little girl may well outlast her childhood.

"The attitude of fathers also has an important indirect effect, which reaches the youngsters by way of the mothers. A mother needs to know that the children to whom she is dedicating her days (and often nights) are equally important to her husband. Without that knowledge she may fail in her job, and the children may become the victims of her conflicts; and the family and the marriage may fall apart.

"A father-child relationship is not a matter of quantity, but of quality. The time to start making it loving and confident is when the children are little, by sometimes taking over the bathing, feeding, and even the diapering of the baby. A little later, during the preschool years, a father can accomplish wonders by sharing his day-to-day routines with his youngster, such as shaving, picking out a necktie, and eating breakfast.

"At three or four it's still not too early to start doing things together away from home—a visit to the local firehouse, to the waterfront, or to a railroad crossing where gates go up and down.

"The years from five to twelve are the ones when all children, but especially boys, most need their fathers. What the five-to-twelve-year-old wants is someone who has done a good job of growing up, but who can still be sympathetic and helpful to a small boy struggling through the process.

"The greatest service a man can do for his boy is to let the youngster try, in his way, to act a man. That means letting the boy share in his father's activities as much as possible, such as, a visit to Father's office in which the boy meets his father's co-workers and gets an answer to all his questions about what Father does all day.

"Fathers can also let the child share in their pleasure and chores around the house. The best outings for most children are those that give fathers and youngsters a chance for active joint participation. Flying a kite with a boy is better than watching him fly it, and much better than taking him to see an air circus.

"Adolescents are not much interested in doing things with either or both parents. Self-assertion is so important to them that they seem to look for points of conflict rather than of agreement. A good father-son relationship at this time must be built on a firm understanding of what an adolescent boy wants from his father.

"First, he wants respect — respect as an individual in his own right and as a young male. Second, he wants freedom — freedom to follow his own interests and to have his own friends. Third, he wants to know that his father is standing back of him, but rather farther back than formerly.

"With his children in their middle teens, a man will find that everything he has ever done to build mutual warmth and understanding begins to pay dividends It will continue to pay them throughout the balance of his life."

For Desserts Supreme—Home-Canned Peaches

The homemaker who has home-canned peaches on her shelves need never apologize when she serves dessert, for home-canned peaches served right out of the jar are fit for a king! And, if there is time, peach upside down cake, peaches served on angel food cake wedges and topped with whipped cream, peach ice cream, a whole galaxy of mouth-watering desserts, can be made from this delicious, home-canned fruit.

Sound, firm, tree-ripened peaches are best for canning. Grade them for size, color and condition, then wash and peel. Simply scalding in boiling water one minute and dipping one-half minute in cold water will cause some varieties to skin easily. Paring with a knife is usually the best way to peel peaches. They may then be cut in halves and the stones discarded. If you like, scrape the cavities of freestone fruit to remove the pink or red fibers. As peaches are halved, drop them in a weak solution of vinegar and salt water (one tablespoon salt to a gallon of cold water) to prevent discoloring. Rinse before canning.

Peaches may be canned by the cold pack or hot pack methods, but hot packing and processing in a water bath canner is considered superior. The Ball Blue Book gives the following instructions.

COLD PACK METHOD

Pack peaches into hot Ball Jars, layers overlapping, cavity side down. Cover with boiling sirup made with one or two parts sugar to one of water. Process from 20 to 35 minutes in hot-water bath. Use the longer period for extra large or very firm fruit.

HOT PACK METHODS

1. Make a sirup of one or two parts sugar to one of water. Add peaches, a few at a time, and simmer until hot through (10 to 20 minutes). Pack into hot Ball Jars, layers overlapping, cavity side down. Cover with sirup in which peaches were cooked. Process 10 to 20 minutes in hot-water bath. Can leftover sirup for pudding or ice cream sauce.

2. Add from one to 1½ cups sugar and one cup boiling water to one gallon prepared peaches. Cook gently until peaches are hot through and sugar dissolved (10 to 20 minutes). Pack and process as instructed above. If there isn't enough liquid to cover peaches in jar, add boiling water after peaches are packed. Use longest processing period for large, firm fruit.

Highway Signs Help Make Ohio Driving Safe

So you plan to trek x-country with the family during your vacation from the shop or office this summer, in which event highway signs, if observed, may be the difference between a "real" vacation or one full of disappointments and perhaps tragedy.

"The best marked road signs in the country," is the remark casually heard from motorists, especially tourists and traveling men who frequent highways in the State of Ohio.

Due in a measure to the efforts of the traffic division of the Highway Department, the routes have been clearly and simply marked for the safety and convenience of the public.

The state maintains a central sign shop at Columbus and the superintendents of route markers, etc., specifies to the makers the needed marker.

The trend, all the way along, is toward simplification.

Purposes of road signs are to warn and guide the motorist, and may be divided into three general groups: 1) regulatory signs; 2) warning signs; and 3) guide signs or markers.

The first group includes those which regulate or control a driver's movement, requiring him to stop, limit his speed, prohibit parking or passing in certain areas, etc.

Stop signs are black on yellow in color, and is the only sign which is octagonal or eight-sided.

Warning signs are, as the name implies, to warn the driver that he is approaching a potential hazard, such as a crossroad, curve, railroad crossing, etc.

Guide signs are erected along the highway to inform the motorist of the route he is using or approaching, the town or village he is near, the county he is entering or leaving, etc.

Need of the sign must first be ascertained by the traffic division. Spot checks are frequently made to justify erection of the sign.

The Highway Department is ever alert to the installation of signals which it deems necessary to the public protection and interest.

Make Plenty of Flavorful Jelly While Blackberries Are Abundant

By BETTY BARCLAY

Blackberry thickets that are a riot of small white blossoms over which the bees swarm in a burst of energy in early spring, are a mass of juicy berries in early summer. In many sections of our country these delicious berries are so abundant they cost very little. Anyone wishing to reduce that cost to nothing, may pick their own berries along the roadside. That is provided, of course, one can take a few pricks from the brambles.

Blackberries are a summertime delight in many homes where they appear first in deep-dish pies. Then good cooks know, too, that blackberry jelly has a fine flavor and a rich, deep color. Since it will cost less than almost any other sweet, the thrifty homemaker will surely make much of it this season of unrationed sugar.

These simple, tested recipes using powdered or bottled fruit pectin will produce excellent results at a considerable saving of time and energy. They're economical, too, since the pectin method of jam and jelly making requires a shorter period of cooking and produces a larger yield of the finished product. Do try these tested recipes for blackberries, and for blackberries combined with other seasonal fruits and berries:

Blackberry Jam

4 cups prepared fruit
7 cups sugar
½ bottle fruit pectin

To prepare the fruit. Crush completely, one layer at a time, about 2 quarts fully ripe blackberries. (If desired, sieve half of pulp to remove some of the seeds.) Measure 4 cups pulp into a very large saucepan.

To make the jam. Add sugar to fruit in saucepan and mix well. Place over high heat, bring to a full rolling boil, and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and stir in bottled fruit pectin. Then stir and skim by turns for 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Ladle quickly into glasses. Paraffin at once. Makes about 10 six-ounce glasses.

Blackberry Jelly

3 cups juice
4 cups sugar
1 box powdered fruit pectin

To prepare the juice. Crush thoroughly about 2 quarts fully ripe blackberries. Place in jelly cloth or bag and squeeze out juice. Measure 3 cups into a large saucepan.

To make the jelly. Measure sugar and set aside. Place saucepan holding juice over high heat. Add powdered fruit pectin and stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once stir in sugar. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard ½ minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat, skim, pour quickly into glasses. Paraffin at once. Makes about 7 six-ounce glasses.

The Hilltop Record

Section C — The Hilltop, Columbus 4, Ohio, Thursday, July 15, 1948 — Page One

Westgate Wins 1st Game By 12-11 Score

The Westgate Knothole team, sponsored by the Hilltop Sporting Goods Store, won its initial game of the season by defeating Columbus Air Conditioning 12 to 11 last Tuesday.

The game went into an extra inning with Bill Popp getting credit for the win. Bob Thornton started on the mound and gave way to Popp in the fifth. Thornton stayed in the game, relieving Jimmy Hughes behind the plate and helping the cause by hitting a single, a double and a triple.

Westgate won its first game from the Smith Realtors by a forfeit. Ellis Easterly is the player-manager. Don Rumley is the coach.

The Hilltop Record can be mailed to a friend: $1.50 per year anywhere in Franklin County.

Dave Madden, a veteran 33-year-old Hilltop athlete, turned in one of the finest performances of his long career last week in a Franklin Independent Softball League game at State Hospital field. Maden set Falter Packers down with four scattered hits to give his team, Hill Tailors, a 1 to 0 victory in nine innings.

Dick Ucker, another Hilltop athlete, is starring for Ben Brew Beer in the Linden Independent Wednesday Night Softball League.

Hilltopper John Devlin is starring as a catcher for Omer Bakers in the AA Industrial Softball League and is coaching Hill Tailors in the Buckeye Night and Franklin Independent Leagues.

Hilltop Eagles went down in defeat Thursday of last week, losing to Chubby's Cut Rate, 9 to 1, in a M and M Class B Independent Softball League game.

Cora Lewis, of 290 Lechner-av, was one of the prize winners in The Columbus Dispatch Fishing Derby last week.

Sorry to hear of the illness of George Hardy, a Hilltop resident, active in Columbus athletic circles as a softball and basketball official, who has been a patient in Mt. Carmel Hospital for several days. Hardy is a former West High athlete.

Camp Chase Post turned in a 13 to 4 victory over Paschall Post in a West American Legion Baseball League game last week. Tom Wright hit a home run for the winners.

Jim Lenox, a Hilltop athlete, rated as one of Columbus' leading softball mound stars, pitched Civic Center, National VFW champions, to a 2 to 0 win over Wilmer Restaurant in a Columbus Independent Softball League game at King Avenue field last week.

Cardinal Tryouts To Be Held Aug. 9-11

The annual Cardinal Tryout Camp for prospective baseball players will be held at Red Bird Stadium on Aug. 9, 10 and 11, it was announced this week by the Columbus Baseball Club.

The camp staff will be made up of Hugh East, Bob Kline and J. F. Katherman. Players must be 17 years of age or older. Sessions start at 11 a. m.

Boys who report for the tryouts are to furnish their own uniforms, gloves and shoes.

A number of Hilltop boys are expected to try out with the Cardinal organization.

Rome Cuts Lead Of Grove City In Lutheran Loop

A 6 to 4 win by Rome over Grove City last Friday night featured the play in the Lutheran Softball League. The defeat was the first for Grove City in eight starts while the win gave Rome a six and one record for the season.

In other games that night Christ defeated Emmanuel, 8 to 3; Obetz trounced St. Paul, 16 to 6; Trinity won a forfeit victory from Martin Luther, 7 to 0; St. Johns outscored Hilltop, 7 to 5; Hope swamped First 17 to 7, and Peace outpointed Faith by a 5 to 2 count.

Rain Postpones West Church Loop Play On Monday

Late afternoon showers resulted in the postponement Monday of all West Church League softball games at Westgate and Sunshine ball diamonds.

It was the second week in a row that the league was idle. Last week the July 4 holiday interrupted the schedule. A number of postponed games remain to be played, including several sets of doubleheaders. The schedules for next Monday night were not worked out by recreation department officials when The Hilltop Record went to press. Announcements of Monday night's schedule will be made later in the week.

Westgate Tennis Club Wins Bexley Match

The Westgate Tennis Club won a match from Bexley Sunday by a 3-2 count. The Hilltoppers took two of the singles events and then split the doubles play to win the match.

In the singles events Dick Slager defeated Howard Kempton of Bexley, 8-6 and 6-1; Roger Lindley of Westgate lost to Dick Pugh, 3-6, 6-4 and 6-4; while Bill Sherker of Westgate won his match from Jim Kurtz, 6-2 and 6-3.

In the doubles, Dick Slager and John Hipple teamed up to defeat the visiting Kempton and Kurtz by scores of 5-7, 6-2 and 6-2 in the first event. The visitors won the second round with scores of 6-2 and 6-2, with Paul McClain and Roy Keys representing the visitors and Dick Paugh and Walter Neuron playing for Westgate.

The legion champs start an elimination planned tournament Sunday to decide the 12th annual American Legion Junior Baseball representative to the local state tournament carded here the first week in August.

The defending champion Scioto Post, Watson Fords, was eliminated in preliminary play. The team ended second with a won-3, lost-2 rating in the Southeast League.

Our local league, the Western loop, was won by Navy-Marine Post 276 (Green Cabs) with a 6-0 rating. Following in that order are Camp Chase (3-2), Columbus Air Conditioning (2-3) and Grove City (0-6).

In the Saturday Afternoon Amateur League, played on July 10, Upper Arlington beat Dublin, 8 to 6; Creith Lumber downed Green Cabs, 9 to 6; Reynoldsburg eked out an 8 to 4 win over Canal Winchester; Hill's Tailors swamped Gabel's Dairy, 15 to 1; Milo crushed North-Linden, 21 to 2; and St. Charles, aided by two homers, beat General Depot, 12 to 6.

Joe Speakman, district commissioner of the Legion softball nines, announced that the championship game between Raymond Scott Post, the defending champ, and Franklin Post No. 1, will be played this Saturday evening at the State Hospital Field.

Jack DiPietro, supervisor of the John Burroughs playgrounds, announced that his softball nine, made up of the boys around JB, would like to have some one contact him on a game. Any other playground supervisors interested are asked to see Mr. DiPietro at the school between the hours of 12 noon and 8 p. m.

Local Service Man Hurls One-hitter For Blackhorse 9

T/4 Fred Miller, who last fall was hailed as an outstanding football star in Germany, where he was staticned with the U. S. Army, has added a new laurel to his crown.

Pitcher for the "Blackhorses," the 11th Regiment's baseball team, he hurled a one-hitter several weeks ago, during a weekend double-header which his team won with scores of 15-0 and 15-13.

A clipping from the German newspaper said of the Hilltopper, "besides blasting out a double in the seventh, Miller toed the rubber for 13 strike-outs behind his mates errorless fielding duties. He failed to issue a single base on balls entour."

Miller, a graduate of West High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Miller, 77 N. Wheatland-av. After completing three years of service, he will be discharged this fall.

Camp Chase Downs Green Cabs In 5-1 Tilt

Bill South pitched Camp Chase to a 5-1 victory over Green Cabs Wednesday night at Westgate Park allowing only one hit, after relieving Paul Ellingsworth in the third who gave up two hits.

Dick Lamprecht got the big blow of the game which was a triple. Irven Denune got two hits for two tries, while Paul Ellingsworth was the powerhouse with two doubles and a single for three trips to the plate.

Hilltop's Best Softballers To Perform Here Saturday As All-Stars Meet VFW Champs

By BOB HUMPHREY

The fish weighed 19 pounds, 13 ounces, and measured 17 inches around. It was landed without a net after a struggle of less than 15 minutes.

The outstanding softball stars of the Hilltop will exhibit their skill against a major opponent when the Hilltop All-Stars faces Civic Center, National VFW champion, Saturday at 9 p. m. at State Hospital, one of the features of a four game special program.

Columbus' top ranking girls' team, the Capital School of Beauty squad, will play host to the Moore Wrestlers girls of Akron in a double header. The girls will play the opening game of the evening at 6 o'clock and will come back in the third game at 8 o'clock.

The American Legion District softball title will be at stake in the second game on the program at 7 o'clock, with Raymond Scott Post, defending champion, meeting the challenge of Franklin Post.

"Pop" Nader, who piloted the West Park Methodist team in the West Church League in 1947, has been chosen to serve as manager of the Hilltop All-Stars.

The leading stars of the West Church League now playing at Westgate Park will be members of the All-Star squad.

Lenox To Pitch

Jim Lenox, the Hilltop's No. 1 pitcher, who has been starring for the Civic Center squad this season, decided to pitch for the All-Stars against his regular team. Two other Hilltop mound stars, Duffy Bolin and Maurice Reese, will also see service in Saturday's game.

The Hilltop boys who will be members of the Hilltop All-Stars, the name of their regular teams and the athlete's address follows:

"Bub" Evaline, 426 Clarendon-av, West Park Methodist; John Devlin, 158 Highland-av, Omar Bakers, St. Aloysius and Swan Club; Maurice Reese, 3433 Fisher-rd, Wilmer Restaurant; Jim Lenox, 123 Nashoba-av, Civic Center; "Shorty" Sims, 2390 Sullivant-av, Jeffrey's and Kahn Jewelers; George Davis, 628 S. Huron-av, Hoge Memorial; Jim McElwee, 125 S. Ogden-av, Westgate Evangelical; Gerald Plank, 596 Columbian-av, Hilltop Church of God.

Four other stars, Bill Kearney, Dick Nader, Ben Henry and Paul Schlosser, who reside on the West Side and close to the Hilltop, will also be on the Hilltop All-Stars' squad.

The team will play all of its games in the West Side Park League.

Some time in the near future the boys hope to use the two new softball diamonds which are now in the process of completion.

The follcwing boys are on the team: Jim Carlson, Bill Nye, Jim Adams, Don Bauman, Eddie Fluke, Mike Casserly, Buzz Lelonek, Roger Soover, Doyne Basye, Ronnie Krems and Jackie Mitchell.

Local Playground Forms Ball Team

Columbian Playground has formed a softball team made up of boys in the vicinity of the park.

JUNE 13 WEDDING PARTY—Pictured above are Miss Pauline Kaufman; Mrs. Catherine Stutz; the bride: Mrs. James A. McCafferty, the former Jane Roush; and Miss Marilyn Goldsack.

The altar of Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church was decorated with seven branch candelabra and greenery, centered with an urn of white gladioli and shasta daisies, for the June 13 marriage of Miss Jane Roush to Mr. James Arthur McCafferty.

The double-ring ceremony was read at 3:30 p. m. by Rev. A. J. Wold. A half hour of music preceded the service with Mr. Donald Beever, soloist, accompanied by Miss Edith Pedrick at the organ.

The former Miss Roush is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley F. Roush, 2946 Clime-rd, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Capuano of Columbus and Miami, Fla.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of white moire taffeta, with capped sleeves and matching mitts. A fitted bodice, and hipline peplum, which formed a bustle, accented the wedding gown. The full skirt fell into a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a braid of matching net, and her bouquet was of white shattered carnations and pansies, centered with a single white orchid.

Mrs. Catherine Stutz, of Orrville, served as matron of honor and wore a gown of heather moire taffeta, with matching mitts. Miss Marilyn Goldsack of Cleveland, the maid of honor, wore an aqua moire taffeta gown, and Miss Pauline Kaufman of Columbus, the bridesmaid, chose a gown of heather moire taffeta. All carried bouquets of white shasta daisies and blue delphinia.

Mr. Daniel Yaw served as best man for Mr. McCafferty and Mr. Charles Mossburg and Mr. Ned Brockington seated the guests.

A garden reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, for the immediate families. Mrs. Robert Wilson and Mrs. William Owen, sisters of the bridegroom, and Miss Velma Mills, acted as assisting hostesses.

Mrs. Roush greeted her guests in a dress of grey crepe, with purple accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a brown print dress with white accessories. Both wore corsages of pink carnations and roses.

Before the couple left for Dayton and Indianapolis, where they spent their honeymoon, the bride changed to a tailored grey suit with red accessories. She pinned the orchid from her bridal bouquet at her shoulder.

The new Mrs. McCafferty is a graduate of West High School and will graduate in August from Ohio State University. Mr. McCafferty, a North High graduate, is an alumnus of Ohio State University and is now associated with the Bureau of Research and Statistics, in the State Department of Public Welfare.

Murnane Home Scene Of Reunion Sunday As 50 Persons Are Guests

A fifteen pound ham, a kettle of green beans and another of succotash—that's all it takes to prepare for a family reunion, just a small one, say about 50 people in all.

"Why, this place looked more like a park," laughed Mrs. T. A. Murnane, 24 S. Terrace-av, at whose home the spectacle took place Sunday.

Mrs. Murnane has seven children. Catherine lives at home, and the others, all of them married, live in and around Columbus. Counting their husbands and wives and the 12 grandchildren, Mrs. Murnane's immediate family numbers 26.

"Now when my 10 brothers and sisters and some of their families join the crowd, (and they're mostly farmers, who love to eat,) it really means work and food," said the local lady.

At the reunion Sunday, only nine of the eleven children could be together. Each Labor Day they always meet "at the old homestead" in Glenmont, and occasionally during the year hold family gatherings elsewhere. Since the group had never visited 24 S. Terrace, they decided to break the precedent. The baby of the family is 56 years old, and the oldest is 75.

Mrs. Murnane and her husband, now deceased, moved into their home on S. Terrace-av, immediately after their marriage. Not many persons can match that claim.

"I've lived in this house every year since I was married in 1907," she said, "when we came here the street had just been cut through."

Included in the reunion were Mrs. Lucy Weil, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weil, of Wabnonding; Mr. and Mrs. William Durban of Danville; Louis Dete, Newark; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dete, and Charles Dete, of Glenmont; Mrs. Charles Smith, Brinkhaven; and Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Dete, Akron. These are the sisters and brothers of the local hostess. Those unable to attend were Mrs. Mary Sapp, Akron; and Mrs. Tillie Grassbaugh, Glenmont.

All of her own children were present. Catherine Murnane, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Somers, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murnane, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Murnane, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Murnane, and Mr. and Mrs. John Murnane, plus 11 of the 12 grandchildren.

Other relatives present included Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Vogel, Mrs. John O'Keefe, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Simmons, Joe and Melda Dete; and guests, Josephine Shesky, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shesky, Margaret Bartek, and Rev. Fr. George Schorr.

Mrs. Murnane feels that the satisfaction devired from having the family together is incomparable. She said too that everyone brought basket lunches but she prepared her ham, beans, and succotash, "just to make sure that everybody had plenty."

"I think I'll rest a little while today," she said Monday, "I'm just a little tired."

Needed—A Little Salesmanship

In spite of the fact that the day of shortages in most lines of merchandise is almost past, the art of salesmanship in many local stores and business places is still sadly lacking. This is not intended as an indictment against many local sales people who now as always go out of their way to make you feel welcome and try hard to get the merchandise that you want to buy.

The day of competitive selling is back. The customer is becoming more discriminating. He isn't grabbing the first item of merchandise that is thrust at him any more. He knows that if he can't buy what he wants in one store, there is a good chance that the next store can satisfy his desires.

It is unfortunate that among many of the younger sales people there seems to be the idea that customers are a bunch of cranky individuals who don't know what they want while all the while the real trouble is basically ignorance of his own merchandise and little or no desire to help the customer find what he wants.

Nothing is so disgusting as to try to buy something years of study and practice to master that art to perfection. Virtually every customer appreciates sales effort well done.

Community stores need to stress the art of selling as much as larger down-town retail establishments. Good salesmanship is one of the things that will keep more customers on the Hilltop than almost any other single factor. Progressive stores have long noted that fact and attempted to do something about it. Unfortunately many others have not been able to analyze what is driving their customers away. of his merchandise and less desire to learn. Retail sellwhere the sales person seems to have no basic knowledge

Unsung by Poets

Society hasn't done right by the lowly bean.

It grieves me to report that only a poet has been moved to write about this friend of the working man. Through all the ages its merits have gone unsung. Eaten and loved by more persons in America than almost any other food, it has never been the subject of so much as a couplet or sonnet.

Luber Weakley, poetry editor of this paper for more years than I can recall, broke this sad news to me this week. In preparing next week's Bean Dinner Edition of The Hilltop Record, I felt it only fitting to give the lowly bean its place in the poetry field. After hours of diligent searching, F. W. comes to the conclusion that the bean is not romantic enough to inspire the bards. She breaks the news to me thusly:

Dear P. W.:
I've looked through all my books of verse and every magazine.
but nobody 'pears to have waxed poetic over the lowly bean.

So since the bean has been unsung
And none of his kin or kith, he'l have to get his glory at the Hilltop Bean Dinner.

That's what I call real poetic injustice. Song writers have waxed sentimental about shortning bread, mother's apple pie, suppin' cider through a straw, the old spinning wheel and the old swimmin' hole, but not that first line about beans.

The dairy industry spends millions of dollars promoting the virtues of milk and butter; the poultry industry shouts the virtues of eating eggs; the citrus growers have banded together with high-pressure selling tactics to cause us to eat more grapefruit and kumquats; meat packers sponsor lavish radio shows to get us to eat more pork and beef, but I ask you what is being done to popularize the bean?

Now that's where the Hilltop Business Association comes in. Being sensitive souls, the members of that group of business people have taken it upon themselves to make amends for a terrible social injustice. They are going to glorify the bean on July 28 when they hold the fifth annual Hilltop Bean Dinner at Westgate Park. It's not going to be an idle gesture either for they've lined up a full afternoon and evening of entertainment, including games, contests, radio shows, band concerts, ball games and a big scrip auction with dozens of prizes. And then there will be beans — boiled beans with crackers and coffee. There'll be hot dogs, ice cream, soda pop and just about everything else that goes with a big community picnic.

So, friends and fellow bean lovers, if you are irked over society's snubbing of Phaseolus Vulgaris L. (beans to you), come out to Westgate Park on July 28 and show your colors. The lowly bean will have its day.

Modern Poetry

By Esther Weakley

TO INSTANTS FLED

All verities, all facts, all certitudes
Belong to other forms, to instants fled:
Each moment we must build anew. The dream
Unique that blossoms now is mirrored by
No precedent, no pattern from the past.
Nor may our utmost prayers and prophecies
Predict the unmatched color of a song.
That waits in grandeur for tomorrow's sun.
To prove how threadbare is this creed, how dead
This wisdom, this conviction of the hour.
H. P. Stoddard, in his book,
THE LIPS KEEP MOVING.

OHIO FARMSTEAD

Under this elm, the wandering Wyandots trod;
Under this rooftree, birth and death have battled;
In this wood cradle, babes have laughed and prattled
Whose dust is one now with the meadow sod.
And what are rifle-hooks above a door,
And scrathes as of spurs on rounds of chairs?
Time is the enemy who unawares
Will claim this place; he has been here before
And constantly, whoever else has come;
Dependably, whoever else has gone;
Among the wheat, or in the lane he stands,
Testing too calmly, with a patient thumb
The rusty scythe he has been leaning on
While indoors old men wait to fold their hands.
Minnie Hite Moody,
in THE MUSIC MAKERS.

MOTHER

In life we had not seen her once
So still nor so well-dressed:
The pale eyes closed, the quiet hands
Too white upon her breast.

The tragedy of death we found
Was nothing starkly new,
But just the pathos of worn hands
With nothing more to do.
Helen Frazee-Bower,
in MUSIC MAKERS.

MOODS

This is the hour of dusk
When every voice is hushed;
Old griefs walk soundlessly
Across my heart—a perfect
Pageantry of loss.

One candle lights the gloom,
Consuming woe, like cotton figures
In a sudden flame;
Peace walks the night again;
The hour of candle-light has come
Hazel Shinn Krumm,
in her book,
THE YEARS LIKE FOXES.

SECRETS

Night, moving softly, velvet shod
Bends low,
I istening to secrets
Day, noisily rushing by,
Will never know,

LITTLE HEARTS

The child heart is so strange, a little thing,
So mild—so timorous, shy and small,
When grown-up hearts throb, it goes
Scampering behind the wall, beguiled—
Nor dares peer out, at all.
Naomi Stevens McClain,
in her book,
THOUGHTS ALONG THE TRAIL.

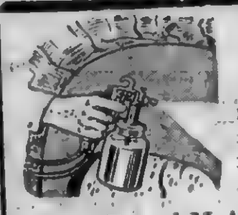
VALUES



I would not cage a moonbeam,
Or claim the golden sun,
Or keep alive the beauty
Of a day whose course is run;
I would not, if I could, possess
The world and all within it—
But I would hold for always, dear,
This little stolen minute.
Faye Chilcote Walker,
in her book,
SCALE OF VALUES.

Pot Roast Chicken

The joy of cooking chicken by this method is that it's done on top of the stove. Get a young, 3-pound fryer from your butcher. Have it cleaned and drawn but not cut up. Clean it, then make the following stuffing:

- 5 slices stale white bread, crumbled up fine in a large bowl, then mix in the apple, onion, salt, seasoning, hot water and butter or margarine. Stuff the bird with this mixture but do not pack it in because suffing expands somewhat. Sew it up, tie legs together and tie wings close to body. Heat the shortening in Dutch Oven or any heavy pot that has a good, tight cover. Brown chicken on all sides. Add garlic, savory and wine. Cover tightly and cook very slowly for 1½ hours. Serves 4.
- 1 small green apple, diced
- 2 small onions, minced
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon poultry seasoning
- 2 tablespoons hot water
- 4 tablespoons butter or margarine
- ¼ cup shortening
- 1 clove garlic
- 1 teaspoon summer savory
- 2/3 cup white wine

Clean, Store Chicken

Clean chicken immediately on arrival in your kitchen. First remove and clean giblets. Wrap separately and store in refrigerator. Singe bird over flame (a candle can be used) and pull out any pin feathers. Wash under cold, running water and dry thoroughly.

Before storing bird in refrigerator, cut off the little oil sac just above the tail with a sharp knife. If left on, sac is apt to break, which will give your chicken a pronounced and unpleasant rancid taste. Cut off feet before storing and use them in your stock pot.

To store, chicken must be wrapped to make it as near airtight as you can. If you do not have aluminum foil, use two layers of waxed paper. Store in refrigerator as near freezing unit as possible. Never keep a chicken, without cooking, longer than 24 hours.

Thomas, O'Hearn Are Navy Enlistees

Charles E. Thomas, Sr., son of Mrs. Minnie O'Hearn, 535 Souder-st, and Eugene Deboard, Sr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Cassie L. Deboard, 2108 McKinley-av, enlisted in the regular navy on July 6, it was announced this week by the local U. S. Navy Recruiting Station.

Both men are receiving their recruit training at the Naval Training Center in Great Lakes, Ill.

Three Centuries Of Life

The Congregational church shown here is a "mere" century and a quarter old, but the idea for its building may have originated more than 300 years ago in its environs.

For here, in Guilford, Conn., still stands the oldest stone house in New England, built in 1639, and now a museum for visitors of the Atomic Age. Guilford is the town with the most authenticated old "saltbox" houses.

The old colonial architecture of this church, with its clock and towering steeple, make it a thing of beauty. It is built on the usual "village green."

Within the portals of this church, like all other Christian churches, God has dwelt among the worshippers. Man has risen to the spiritual heights in surrendering himself to the will of his Creator.

Regular attendance at the church of one's choice on Sunday and the various religious days has been a privliege of every American since the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Freedom of religion is an American institution as old as America itself.

The youth of tomorrow—the leaders in the new age in world history—need the church and its opportunities for prayer and worship if they are to direct the destiny of America into the pathways that are eternal.

134 Attend Sunday Hilltop Hymn Sing

In spite of mid-summer heat, 134 persons attended the bi-weekly Hilltop Hymn Sing held Sunday night at the Edgewood Chapel United Brethren Church. Ten churches were represented.

The attendance banner went to Franklin Heights Church with 100 per cent of the evening service in attendance. Franklin Heights Church, 3552 Sullivant-av, will be host to the next song service on the evening of July 25.

Community Christian Church Organizes With 40 Attending

The Community Christian Church was organized July 7 at the Hughes Four Restaurant, 2725 W. Broad-st. Rev. James F. Lorenz presided over the meeting, which was attended by 40 persons. Mrs. Ralph Perrine, 421 Demorest-av, was elected clerk of the church; Harry Blankner, 123 Letchworth-av, treasurer, and Mrs. James King, 778 S. Terrace-av, financial secretary.

Frank Snedecor, 336 Demorest-av, was elected the first deacon of the church. It was voted to incorporate the church, officers of the church to be the incorporators and the treasurer the agent.

The new church instructed its pastor to find a church site. It was voted that the next meeting should be a special meeting called by the pastor. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Church Kindergarten Started At Briggsdale

A new feature has been added to the program of Briggsdale Methodist Church, that of a church kindergarten. During the worship service all small children who desire may attend the kindergarten, which will be supervised by the Busy Bee Class. Included in the instruction will be flannel board illustrations of Bible stories.

The church completed its daily vacation Bible School with a program by the students on June 27.

Eighty-seven children were enrolled in this year's Bible School. Out of this number 64 qualified for merit in attendance and constructive work. Forty-four pupils received additional awards for regular attendance at every school session.

A change in schedule has been made at the church. The Sunday morning service will be unified, with Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. and morning worship following without interruption at 10:40 a. m.

Hostel Council Has Offices At YWCA

The Buckeye Trails District Hostel Council of American Youth Hostels, Inc., now have office space at the YWCA, 65 S. Fourth-st, in the program information office on the second floor.

The office staff will be there on Thursday nights from 5:30 to 8, to answer inquiries about hostelling in general, issue passes, furnish information on scheduled trips and to help plan your own bicycle trips.

The Buckeye Trails District Hostel Council is planning a bicycle trip to Granville July 24-25. Those interested are asked to contact Elfleda Seelbach, LA. 8328, or the program information office at the YWCA on Thursday, between 5:30 and 8 p. m.

West Unit To Meet Here On Monday

West Unit Blue Star Mothers of America, will meet at 10½ S. Burgess-av, on July 19, at 8 p. m. Mrs. Clyde Dennison will preside.

Initiation of new members, a program and refreshments will follow the business meeting.

Mrs. Mary Stout, 69 S. Warren-av, and Mrs. Dennison, 34 N. Warren-av, were hostesses at the July 4 Carnival held at the Veterans' Hospital in Chillicothe. The group served more than 1800 men during the day's course.

BIBLE COMMENT

FOR JULY 18

Women Play Big Roles in the Bible As in Life Today

THE 20th century, in spite of two world wars, has seen much advancement in what we commonly call "the emancipation of women." Not only in the most progressive democracies, but even in backward countries, women have become voters and have now an active part in almost every phase of public life.

But when one looks over the vast field of history an amazing thing is the discovery of the way in which, even in times and places in which the position of women was inferior to that of men, women have occupied positions of great power and dominance. Sometimes good, sometimes bad, sometimes in characters and actions strangely blended of both good and evil. Women have been powerful as queens and warriors, as sirens luring men to destruction, and as ambitious wives and mothers.

One thinks of queens, like Cleopatra, Catherine of Russia, and Elizabeth of England; of warriors, ambitious women, like the mother of George III, whose admonition to her son, "George, be king," had like Boadicea and Joan of Arc; of something to do with the revolt of the American colonies.

Now, in the Bible, all these phases of women in outstanding character and action are fully represented. There is the great judge-warrior, Deborah (Judges 5); the good and pure Hannah, mother of Samuel (Samuel 1); the beautiful Bathsheba, mother of Solomon, but lured and luring in the adulterous commerce with David (II Samuel 11); and there is the vicious Jezebel (I Kings 18-21), whose name has become a byword for vengefulness and evil. All these, and many more, are there in the pages of the Old Testament.

But a whole book of the Old Testament, the Book of Ruth, is devoted to the story of two women, Ruth and her mother-in-law Naomi. Their character shines with undiminished beauty, as types of noble womanhood, as true for our time as for that ancient day in which they lived, suffered and triumphed.

News of Rome

By Mrs. E. C. Sheets

Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Roe Moore entertained the Rome Card Club. Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Kent C. Richey.

James Berry, Akron, was the week-end guest at the Warner home on Pasadena-av last week.

The Olson family of Detroit has moved back to Rome. They formerly lived for a short time at 218 Lennox-av. They have purchased the Terry property.

Elowise Jackson, sister of Mrs. Ernest Schroeder, and Irene Baker, of Decatur, Ind, were week-end guests of the Schroeders.

Ruth Degen, of Pittsburgh, whose marriage to Joe Coulter will be an event of the very near future, spent the holidays at the Coulter home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Glass, of Norton-rd, who have been living in Arkansas for the last several months, are now back home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. English and son, Tommy, of Pasadena-av, spent several days in Detroit.

A family picnic was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Sampson, north of Hilliard's. Those to enjoy the affair were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Coulter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coulter, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Schoonover and son, Ronnie, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Elliott and son, Dick and Walter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coulter and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Sampson, (Ladonna Coulter). Joe Coulter and Ruth Degen were house guests of the Coulters.

Miss Diane Kasler, 251 Pasadena-av, was the house guest of Virginia Bigelow, 64 Eldon-av, Friday and Saturday. Swimming took up the major portion of their time.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Kimes and daughter, Nona, 246 Maple-dr, and Adam Cloman, 55 Lawrence-av, are at the Congress Hotel, Miami Beach, Fla. On the way down they visited with Mrs. Edgar Kimes in St. Cloud, Fla. At Silver Springs they enjoyed a trip in a glass bottom boat and a submarine. While in Miami they also visited with Betty and Ann Marshall, Nona's cousins, who have been frequent visitors in Rome. They are planning to go to Cuba before returning home. Mr. Cloman, who is 77 years of age, has never been out of the state until now, and he is certainly enjoying this trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Shaner are happy grandparents after receiving word that a baby girl (Patti Ann) had arrived at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Thomas, Jr., San Fernando, Calif. This is their first grandchild.

S. E. Boyd, father of Mrs. Russell Brooks, spent the Fourth with her.

Little Tamy Brackett of Lima is spending the month of July at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brooks, Maple-dr.

Mrs. Lamb and Mrs. Marshall Hall were hostesses for the baby shower given at the Lamb home. There were about 40 guests and the assisting hostesses were Mrs. Denman, Mrs. Schroeder and Mrs. E. C. Sheets, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Warner and family spent the week-end in Cleveland visiting with the Fergusons, who formerly lived in Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. English and son, Tommy, are having a three weeks vacation at Georgian Bay, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford Sellers, of Syracuse, O., cousin of Mrs. John Moberly, 352 Lennox-av, spent several days with the Moberlys after visiting their son in Columbus.

A family celebration was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sheets, Jr., Buena Vista, the Fourth of July. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Barnecut, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Noie and children, Dennis and Cherly Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Kaderly and children, Caroline, Rebecca, and Robert, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb and sons, Jim, Bill, Tim, Rex, and Tad, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Day, T. M. Patterson and daughter, Mary, E. D. Warren, Dr. and Mrs. Earl Knisley, and son, John. E. D. Warren, and Lin, and Bill Baker, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sheets, Sr., and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sheets, Jr., and son, E. C. III. The children enjoyed having sparklers and red flares to make the celebration seem more like the Fourth. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. John Sheets, of Chillicothe, brother of E. C. Sheets, Sr., were very welcome and unexpected guests, having dropped in after taking their daughter, Dorothy, to the Franklin Sanitarium where she is doing six weeks therapy training before being transferred to a veterans hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Broyles, Smith-rd, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Suver, who have been vacationing in northern Michigan, for two weeks, are home. They made sight seeing trips while in that community and on the way home visited with Mrs. Broyles mother in Michigan. They also went over to Canada.

Miss Helen Warner spent the week-end with her father, D. C. Warner, while the Henry Warners were in Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Howell, Pasadena-av, are home after vacationing for two weeks in the vicinity of Mackinaw City, Mich.

Mrs. Glen Barnecut and Mrs. G. Lamb entertained Sunday evening for Mrs. Chambers, Toronto, Can., who is guest of Mary Patterson and T. M. Paterson, Maple-dr.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Denman and children spent Sunday at the home of her mother in Croton, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller and children, Maple-dr, spent Sunday in Washington C. H. visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Kessler.

Returning from New York City, Mr. and Mrs. Deitrick visited with the Burns family, Pasadena-av, Sunday evening.

COMICS TO SAVE LIVES

Members of the Ohio Automobile Dealers Assn. soon will distribute an unusual traffic safety comic book which includes drawings by famous newspaper comic artists. Pat O'Brien and his youngsters, Mavoureen, Terence (buried in book) and Patrick are seen looking at the comic book. Pat has just completed work on RKO Radio's picture, "Fighting Father Dunne."

Comic Book Approach To Safety Is Started

A new approach to the teaching of safety to the youngsters is being adopted by the Ohio Automobile Dealers Association. It is the use of specially drawn comics in a book entitled "It's Fun To Stay Alive."

The comic book will be available at automobile dealers and many service stations. It will feature specially drawn cartoon strips by Carl Anderson, Rod and Ruth Baer, Ray Bailey, Duane Bryers, Henry Formhals, Carl Grubert, John H. Striebel, Doc Winner, Raeburn Van Buren, Warner Brothers Cartoons, Inc., and Lyman Young.

Mrs. R. A. Upperman Wins Radio Prize

Three popular dance tunes were responsible for the presentation of a Gruen Curvex wristwatch to Mrs. R. A. Upperman, 650 Wiltshire-rd, last Thursday evening.

The occasion for the gift was when the Uppermans' phone number was chosen during a contest on WCOL's Guy Lombardo program. Each week three mystery tunes are played and the person identifying the songs is given a gift.

The Hilltop lady was very much surprised to be the one chosen for the call and still is in the dark as to how the number

The Uppermans, who recently moved from 548 S. Oakley-av to the Wiltshire-rd address, have two children, Barbara Ann, 13, and Carolyn Sue, 7. Mr. Upperman is supervisor of the A & P Company's stores in Columbus.

Book "The Killers" At National Theatre

The late Mark Hellinger's screen production of Ernest Hemingway's "The Killers" will return to the National Auto Theatre for a limited two-night engagement, starting Sunday, July 18. It will be co-featured with "Rocky."

Tuesday and Wednesday only, the widely-acclaimed J. Arthur Rank production of the Charles Dickens' classic, "Great Expectations," will be shown as a single feature at the National.

Hilltop Is Ready For Bean Dinner

The Spectator
By C.C. Hartley

Bean Dinner Is Big Event Of Summer

Next Wednesday afternoon and evening promises to provide a big time when hundreds of families of this community swell the crowd to well into the thousands at Westgate Park for the revival of the big bean dinners.

With beans on the menu at a very nominal price to pay for the serving containers, the big $1000 scrip auction, a band concert, a hillbilly band program, dance, rides and concessions, etc., it promises to provide a good time for every member of the family.

Why not make it a family picnic affair and pack up the lunch box with everything but beans and come on out for a good time!

How Could I Know

"How could I know unless someone told me," quotes a reader as he calls to inform us that he had heard we aren't carrying a wide enough variety of personal notes from the Hilltop. We readily agreed with him and take this opportunity to extend a welcome to use of our columns to any reader. If you have gone somewhere or done something just call Ra. 1125. This is your paper; use it.

And by the same token, we learned last week how well read are our editorials when a sleeping printer made a conglomeration out of a paragraph and several called to tell us about it or make some comment on it.

Harry Spyker To Retire

Members of the Metropolitan YMCA Board on Tuesday heard with regret, that Harry Spyker, for many years executive secretary of the "Y," will retire from that position after he reaches his sixtieth birthday in December.

As Mr. Spyker points out, he has served the city through an entire era in the "Y," an era marked primarily with the elimination of the "Y" debt, and which now finds the organization in a fine financial status.

The next era of the "Y" will be that of expansion as testified in the establishment of the Hilltop branch, the further needs of the South Side and Spring Street Branches, etc.

It is hoped that the organization will be able to secure the services of so competent an individual as Harry Spyker to direct its destinies in this new era. His contribution to youth work of this city has been great.

Patzer To Explain Margarine Side Of Controversy Today

The oleo side of the margarine vs. butter controversy will be explained to the Hilltop Kiwanis Club at today's luncheon meeting by Harry Patzer, 264 Richard-rd. Last week Neal R. Baker, manager of the Fairmont Foods Company, told the dairyman's version of the story.

Patzer, while not living on the Hilltop, is well known to Hilltoppers having served as ad writer for Seiller's Department Store for many years and as representative of the Creasy Company, wholesale grocers. For the past nine years he has been advertising manager for the Capital City products Company, food processing and merchandising organization. He has been in advertising work for more than 20 years. He is a graduate of Capital University and is a member of the Columbus Advertising Club.

Last Thursday Mr. Baker pointed out that the dairy industry is very vital to both the rural and urban economy of the State of Ohio. He pointed out that last year more than 60 million pounds of butter, worth an estimated 50 million dollars, was made in Ohio alone.

"Columbus can well become the future center of the dairy industry of the nation and the world," he emphasized.

Mr. Baker justified the 10c per pound tax on oleo as necessary to protect the people from what he termed "bootlegging" in the industry. Oleo in colored form is already being served in many restaurants and hotels without advising the customer of that fact, he said.

"We have no quarrel with the oleo people so long as they sell their products for what it really is and do not try to fool the public," he stated.

He also stressed the value of the dairy industry as being essential to restoring fertility to the soil.

Westgate Park Gets Face Lifting

Several improvements are being made to Westgate Park in preparation for the Hilltop Bean Dinner on July 28 and for its fuller use in the future.

Ray Dietz, superintendent of the parks and forestry division, announced this week that 10 new picnic tables will be ready for use by the bean dinner crowd. These are concrete tables with concrete slabs for seats to prevent pranksters from throwing them in the lake as has happened many times in the past.

One new drinking fountain has been added on the bank of the lake near the shelter house and it is hoped that another can be installed a little later on the south side of the lake near where the new tables and three new fireplices are being erected.

To Remove Trees

The woods have been cleaned up of dead limbs and Dietz hopes to start removal of some 33 dead trees that dot the park area. Other proposed improvements to Westgate Park include the erection of a second shelter house in the wooded area south of the lake. According to the park supervisor, the new building would be somewhat larger than the present building and would be designed with four fireplaces in the center of the area so that four parties could be in progress simultaneously.

Dietz pointed out that the demand for picnic space at Westgate Park is so great that there was scarcely a day open in July when the shelter house was not in use and only a very few openings in August.

Some work has been started toward dredging the lake of some of the muck and debris that it has accumulated. Further work along this line will continue and the water level of the lake will be raised, he said.

The city has also been busy the past several days resurfacing a section of Westgate-av between Parkside-av and Wicklow-rd.

Former Hilltopper To Represent Ohio In Temple of Music

Louise Yost, former Hilltopper and West High School graduate, will represent the state of Ohio tomorrow evening at the Washington Park Temple of Music in Milwaukee. She is being sponsored by the Columbus Opera Club of which she is a member.

Miss Yost studied in Columbus with Leila E. White, 142 N. Ogden-av, and also with Daniel Harris of Oberlin and Helen Chase of New York.

She will sing the part of Mercedes in an excerpt from "Carmen," at tomorrow's National Opera Festival, which is produced by the National Association for Opera. Nationally known artists will be featured in the festival, with a chorus of 200 trained voices and a 50 piece orchestra.

There May Be Light At West Entrance When School Opens

Fulfillment of a long-felt need on the Hilltop seemed just around the corner this week.

On Tuesday of this week, four light standards were unloaded in front of the main entrance to West High School.

The steps leading up to the main entrance to the building at the Powell-av side have been poorly lighted for many years. Last spring the city did put up two additional street lights along Powell-av but the walk leading up to the entrance was still in need of more light.

Irvin F. Young, principal of the school, said that the lights were being installed as a school project with various classes contributing to the cost of their installation. It is estimated that it will cost approximately $607 to complete the job. Mr. Young started the lighting project three years ago but little progress could be made due to the scarcity of materials.

Two of the lights will be erected at either side of the first steps just off the sidewalk along Powell-av. The other two will light the second set of steps immediately in front of the main entrance to the building.

The Haines Electric Company is installing the lights. Fixtures and standards were designed to blend in with the architectural design of the building.

FILES $85,000 SUIT

Suit for $85,000 damages was filed in Common Pleas Court Tuesday against Al Haft Sports, Inc. In his petition, Ed G. Witherspoon, 172 Lechner-av, said he was hurt Oct. 23, 1947, when he fell through a section of bleachers at the Bexley-Grandview football game in Grandview Stadium. Mr. Witherspoon said the Haft group furnished the bleachers for the game.

Leases Airport Restaurant

Walter McCoy, 1494 Glenn-av, has leased the restaurant at the Sullivant Avenue Airport, it was announced this week by Gomer Jones, owner of the flying center.

The restaurant is open to the public at all times for the serving of lunches, meals and sandwiches. A room is available for handling private parties and dinner-group meetings.

Capacity Crowds Attend Free Movies

Near capacity crowds of local boys and girls have been attending the free Kiwanis movies shown each Saturday afternoon during the vacation months.

On Saturday, July 24, the show will be held at the Rivoli Theatre. The attraction will be "Riding the California Trail." There will also be a musical cartoon.

Tickets can be obtained from the supervisors of any of the Hilltop's six organized playgrounds. The shows are put on by the Hilltop Kiwanis Club in cooperation with George Pekras, owner of the Ritz and Rivoli Theatres.

Doors for the Saturday shows open at 1:15 p. m. with the show starting at 1:30 o'clock. Tickets for next week's show will not be given out until Thursday and Friday of next week.

Talent Hunt To Be Conducted By Eagles Lodge

The Hilltop will not be bested! It now has an Eagle-sponsored talent scout program.

Auditions are being held each Tuesday and Thursday evening by the Fraternal Order of the Eagles, 2356 W. Broad-st, for acts either amateur or professional to appear on their talent programs beginning August 6. Anyone 18 years or older may try out between 7 and 9 p. m.

Instigators of the shows, which will run through September 24, are Norman Diehl, 234 N. Harris-av, and Frank Hagedorn, 721 S. Souder-av.

August 6, and 27, and September 3, 17, and 24, have been set as dates for the actual presentation of the selected acts.

The first four weeks, four acts will appear each evening with a grand winner being chosen. The final week, the four grand winners will participate in a contest and a final winner chosen. Each act each week receives a prize.

Weekly prizes will be $10, first prize; $5, second; $3, third; and $2, fourth. The weekly contest winners who are held over until the final week, will have the chance at prizes of $20, first; $5, second; and $1 each, consolation prizes for the other two acts.

Work Resumed On Business Center

The Hilltop's new $300,000 drive-in business center on the northeast corner of Sullivant and Huron-aves, is again moving along after a four-month delay caused by a shortage of structural steel. The project, the largest to be built so far on the West Side, has a total Sullivant-av frontage of 410 feet. The building itself has a frontage of 205 feet and a depth of 130 feet.

It will have parking areas to the west and to the east of the business center.

Known as the Greater Hilltop Drive-in Business Center, it is being developed by Don M. Casto, real estate developer, at 146 N. High-st. It is one of a chain of supermarket drive-ins being developed throughout central Ohio by Casto.

Leases have been completed for all of the business space. These will be announced in a few days, Casto said this week.

Vacation Time Finds West High Teachers In Many Varied Activities

When school closes in the spring, it's a welcome change to the teachers as well as their pupils. West Junior and Senior High women teachers are taking advantage of their summer vacations too.

Helen M. McCormick will leave next week for Wichita, Kans., where she will stay with a niece for about three or four weeks.

Just returning are Ruth Bachmayer, Edna Smith, Ona Prather, and Mary Baker, who drove to Williamsburg, Va., and spent a week stopping at Jamestown, Yorktown, the Natural Bridge, and driving along the Skyline Drive.

Lakeside, Ohio, was a change for Helen Workman, who spent several days there. Blanche Kern has been staying at home, entertaining guests, house-cleaning, working in the yard and doing "all the little things that you can't do while school is in session."

Rhoda O'Harra returned last week from the National Education Association convention in Cleveland. There were 4000 in attendance. On Monday Frances Hannan left for Canada with her mother. They planned to travel for two or three weeks there and have other shorter trips in mind.

Guatemala is where you'd find Leona Glenn at present. She left by plane on July 6 and will be home some time in August. On June 20 she and friends drove to Mexico City, stopping along the way at several points of interest, including the French quarter of New Orleans. On her return from Guatemala she will again visit friends in Mexico City.

Mrs. Delane Kittel is keeping up with her golf and tennis playing, and she and her husband plan to leave Aug. 14 for New York and Boston.

Inez M. Gooley has tentative plans for a trip with her cousin to Virginia and Maryland, where they hope to find material about their family tree.

A trip to Toronto and Quebec with her family from Cincinnati will highlight the summer of Mrs. Estelle Bell. They will leave the first part of next month. "A quiet summer at home," is what Emme Uncapher calls her vacation. She'll be entertaining now and then, however

Mrs. Evelyn Hall is visiting her mother in Colorado and Mrs. Jane A. Thomas returned the first of this month, after traveling with her aunt in North Carolina. She left the day after school was dismissed. They stayed in Hender-

Joe Briggs Is Descendant Of One Of Community's Oldest Families

Joe Briggs

Joe Briggs, general chairman of the fifth annual Hilltop Bean Dinner, is a descendant of one of the community's oldest families.

His grandmother, Mrs. Louisana Briggs, who will be 99 years of age next year, still lives at the Briggsdale residence.

Joe entered the insurance business shortly after graduating from high school, eventually taking over the agency started by his father, John R. Briggs. His activity soon branched into the real estate field and he took a job as secretary of the Citizens Realty Company. The firm was busy developing the Eakin Farm, south of Sullivant-av between Oakley and Warren-avs. Hundreds of homes were built in this section by the Citizens Realty Company.

In addition to his insurance interests, the Bean Dinner chairman is director-secretary of the First National Bank of Grove City. His grandfather, Joseph M. Briggs, was one of the founders of this bank.

Joe has been active in the West High Alumni Association for several years and has been one of the school's most ardent supporters. He has held various positions in the Southwest District Boy Scouts of America and is now a committeeman for Troop 161.

He has been an active member of the Hilltop Business Association, serving one year as its president. His hobbies are fishing, hunting and golf. He attends Glenwood Methodist Church and lives with his wife and two sons, Joe, Jr., and Dick, at 34 Algonquin-av.

Still Active At 98

His grandmother, still active and alert in spite of her 98 years, was born in New Madrid, Mo. and was given the name of Louisiana for her mother's native state. She was sent to Ohio at the age of 14 to escape guerrilla troops who had once taken her for a captive.

While visiting at the home of relatives in Briggsdale, she attended Ohio Wesleyan University in 1864. At the age of 17 she married Captain John M. Briggs of the Northern Army.

They had seven children, four boys and three girls. All of them are living except Merton who drowned while performing rescue work on the West Side during the disastrous 1913 flood. Mr. Briggs met his death when he was struck by an interurban trolley that ran from Columbus through Grove City.

Mrs. Briggs never completely lost her loyalty to the South. For many years she would load her children in the surrey and haul huge supplies of flowers to the Confederate Cemetery, located in old Camp Chase just north of Sullivant-av. Because of the feeling that existed at that time, she always went heavily veiled to avoid detection. It was only in later years that the "mystery lady" was unveiled. She still makes her pilgrimage to the local cemetery to pay homage to the fallen Confederate soldiers.

Last May she was honored in a special Mother's Day assembly at West Junior High School. At that time she was presented a corsage for being the oldest mother or grandmother of a student. She has seen 14 children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren graduate from West High School. One great-grandchild, Dick Briggs, is still a student there.

Prairie Township To Dedicate $20,000 Fire House In Celebration Saturday

An unusual display of fire and other emergency equipment from all over Franklin County will mark the dedication of Prairie Township's new $20,000 fire house at New Rome on Saturday afternoon and evening.

Joe Lamb, chief of the volunteer fire department that is sponsoring the affair, promises the biggest celebration in the history of the community. Maj. Norman Imrie, director of publicity for the state fire prevention bureau, will give the dedicatory address at 3 o'clock following a parade of the visiting emergency equipment and a doll, pet and bicycle parade by the kiddies.

Included in the display will be equipment from Obetz, Upper Arlington, Hilliards, Dublin, Marion Township, Hamilton Township, Clinton Township and the office of the Franklin County sheriff and the State Highway Patrol.

The parade will move out at 2 p. m. Following the judging of the doll, pet and bicycle parade the dedication of the new fire house will take place. Lee Koontz will serve as master of ceremonies.

Starting in the late afternoon there will be a fish fry and a wide assortment of soft drinks and other refreshments. The Hilliards Summer Band will play a concert between 7:30 and 8:30 p. m. Round and square dancing will be held throughout the remainder of the evening in the fire house.

Plans Pet Show

The Columbian Playground will have a pet show tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Children of all ages are invited to bring their pets.

Street Repairs Are Being Made Here

Sections of Hilltop streets were receiving surface coatings of asphaltic materials to smooth out the bumps this week.

Hague-av was completed last week from W. Broad-st to Sullivant-av; Central-av is being repaired and will be re-surfaced from Mound-st to Sullivant-av and from W. Town-st to W. Broad-st; Westgate-av is being repaired and surfaced along the east end of Westgate Park and Parkside-dr is being surface treated in sections where it is needed.

Also scheduled for re-surfacing in the near future is a section of W. Broad-st from Letchworth-av west to the city limits.

Sullivant-av from Hague-av west to the city limits is on the schedule for widening and repaving with work expected to start next spring.

Sgt. Grady Services Set For Friday

Military funeral services for S/Sgt. Wallace D. Grady, 22, who was killed in action Nov. 10, 1944, while serving with the 80th Infantry Division in France, will be held at 10 a. m. Friday in the Jerry Spears Funeral Home.

Burial will be in Green Lawn Cemetery.

A former employe of the Schiff Shoe Co., he is survived by a grandmother, Mrs. Katherine Barnett, 389 Midland-av, with whom he lived, his mother, Mrs. William Perry, Chillicothe, and a brother, Clyde Grady, also of the Midland-av address.

Bean Dinner Schedule

1:00 p. m. Welcome by Joe Goodwin, president of the Hilltop Business Association.
1:15 to 3:00 p. m. Games for children and adults.
2:30 to 3:30 p. m. Serving of beans at the bean stand.
3:00 to 3:30 p. m. Buckeye Jamboree Show.
3:30 to 4:30 p. m. Scrip Auction.
5:00 to 6:30 p. m. Serving of beans at the bean stand.
6:00 to 7:00 p. m. Softball game with Westgate EUB Church vs. Galloway Merchants.
6:00 to 7:00 p. m. Band concert by Loyal Order of the Moose.
7:00 to 8:00 p. m. Buckeye Jamboree show.
8:00 to 9:00 p. m. Scrip Auction.
9:00 to 12 midnight. Dancing in the Shelter House to the music of the Buckeye Jamboree.
Pop stand, hot dog stand, ice cream stand, pony rides, rides for children and adults and all other concessions in operation continuously from 1 o'clock throughout afternoon and evening.

$1,000 Worth of Merchandise To Go On Block In Big Scrip Auction

The Hilltop is buzzing with activity this week. It is preparing to play host to thousands of residents and visitors next Wednesday afternoon and evening when the fifth annual Hilltop Bean Dinner is held at Westgate Park.

The busiest of all is Joe M. Briggs, insurance man with offices at 2596 Sullivant-av. He is serving as general chairman of the big event for the Hilltop Business Association, sponsors of the affair.

Perhaps the biggest single attraction in a long list of events planned for the afternoon and evening is the scrip auction to be held at 3:30 and 8 p. m. More than $1,000 worth of merchandise will be sold to the highest bidders—payment to be made by scrip money only. This scrip has been issued by approximately 100 members firms of the HBA. John Davis will serve as auctioneer. (A list of the many items is carried elsewhere in this issue of The Hilltop Record).

A quick rundown of the major activities scheduled for the day, includes: games and contests for children and adults with prizes for each winner; two shows to be presented by the Buckeye Jamboree entertainers from Moxahala Park in Zanesville; a softball game between the Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Church and the Galloway Merchants; a concert by the Moose Band and dancing in the shelter house throughout the evening.

Of interest to all will be the serving of boiled beans and crackers with a cup of coffee for one dime. Serving will start at 2:30 p. m. and again at 5 p. m. and continue until a ton of the cooked beans have been dished out. One thousand pounds of the dry beans will make approximately 2,000 pounds for serving. Wherever possible, families are advised to bring their own tin plates and table service, although they will be provided.

Rides For Kiddies

For the kiddies and adults as well there will be four major rides installed for the day by Tim Nolan, a Hilltopper who operates the Zanesville amusement center at Moxahala Park. Included in the rides will be a ferris wheel, octopus, pony rides and airplanes.

Most Hilltop business places will be closed as usual on Wednesday afternoon. Many families will make it a picnic for the rest of the day. The program will open at 1 p. m. with a brief address of welcome by Joe Goodwin, president of the HBA. Dancing will continue until near the midnight hour with something of interest every minute of the day.

Four previous bean dinners, started back in 1938, have attracted upwards of 30,000 persons, police officials estimated. This year's crowd is expected to rival any previous Hilltop gathering.

An indication of the appetites expected can be seen in the size of orders being placed for provisions by the committee in charge. In addition to the ton of beans, there will be 250 pounds of wieners, 200 doren buns, 100 pounds of coffee; five gallons of mustard, 200 gallons of ice cream and approximately 500 cases of soft drink. Of course most of these orders can be expanded at a minute's notice since trucks will be standing by throughout the day to replenish stocks as they are depleted.

Here's What Scrip Money Will Buy

Col. Holmes Library Is Unclaimed Here

The mystery of how the City Recreation Department came into possession of part of the library of the late Col. G. T. Holmes, once one of the city's leading attorneys, still remained unsolved this week.

The collection of books including a personal diary running into 30 odd volumes of handwritten notes is scattered in confusion down at the Glenwood Shelter House. The books were discovered recently when workmen were tearing out parts of the building to remodel.

After a dozen or more calls, The Hilltop Record was able to identify the original owner of the books. Supreme Court Judge Edward Turner recalled Col. Holmes as having been one of the outstanding legal minds in the city about the turn of the century. He relates that he had served in the Civil War and at one time lived in a house that stands at the corner of Gay-st and Grant-av.

As this was being written, the Recreation Department was still searching for a way to properly dispose of the books. If any one has information as to relatives or friends who might be interested in what is left of this once impressive library, they are asked to contact the Recreation Department or The Hilltop Record, RA. 1125.

Turn to Page 5B of today's Hilltop Record and prepare to enter the misspelled word contest explained there. It is put on by the Record in a classified advertising promotion in connection with the Hilltop Bean Dinner.
The prizes are—beans.

MRS. RICHARD GESHWILM — Miss Marilyn Grenell and Mr. Richard Geshwilm were united in marriage on Saturday, June 12, in the Hilltop Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Rev. Russell J. Olson officiated at the 7:30 o'clock candlelight service on June 12, in the Hilltop Evangelical Lutheran Church, in which Miss Marilyn Grenell became the bride of Mr. Richard Geshwilm.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Grenell, Sr., 219 Powhatan-av, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Geshwilm, 421 S. Terrace-av.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mr. Walter E. Grenell, Jr., a brother of the bride, accompanied at the organ by Miss Ruth Warren.

The bride's gown of lustrous duchess satin was fashioned with a sheer yoke outlined by a bertha collar of venice lace. It featured a fitted bodice and long sleeves which came to points over the wrists. The full, lace-trimmed skirt fell softly over a hoop and terminated in a long train. Her finger-tip veil of English import illusion was held in place by a bonnet of lace and satin. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal white roses and stephanotis, centered with an orchid.

Miss Helen Grenell was maid of honor for her sister, in yellow tissue taffeta, with matching gauntlets. Her arm bouquet was of yellow roses and purple larkspur. She wore a floral headdress. Mrs. Roland Grenell and Mrs. Walter E. Grenell, Jr., sisters-in-law of the bride, attended her as bridesmaids. They were gowned in orchid and nile green tissue taffeta, with matching gauntlets, and carried shower bouquets of yellow roses and orchid larkspur.

Miss Karen Sue Morgan, niece of the bride, wore white organdy and attended her aunt as flower girl. She wore a sweetheart bouquet and carried a miniature bouquet matching the bride's.

Mr. James Hiland attended Mr. Geshwilm as best man, and seating the guests were Mr. Roland Grenell and Mr. Jack L. Morgan, brother and brother-in-law of the bride.

A reception for 100 guests was held at the home of the bride, with Miss Phyllis Jones, Mrs. John Lewis and Mrs. Dwight McGuire, Jr., as assisting hostesses.

The bride is a graduate of West High School and is associated with the Motorists Mutual Insurance Company. Her husband, also a West High graduate, is employed at the F. and R. Lazarus Company.

After spending a week's honeymoon in Washington, D. C., they are now at home at 5½ Clarendon-av.

Miss Berniece Lillian Aston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Aston, 593 S. Harris-av, became the bride of Mr. Francis Paul Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Long, West Lafayette, Ohio, on Sunday, June 20, at 2:30, in a double ring ceremony held in the Hillcrest Baptist Church.

The altar was decorated with two cages of singing canaries, surrounded with huckleberry branches, white gladioli and stock.

Officiating at the ceremony was Rev. J. Herbert Goewey.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She was wearing a white satin gown. The shirred bodice was fashioned with a sheer yoke with a Chantilly lace bertha and long sleeves which formed points over her hands. The full skirt ended in a circular train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place with a tiara of orange blossoms. The bride's only jewelry was a strand of pearls which were a gift of the groom. The bride carried a colonial bouquet of white camellias with cascades of satin ribbon.

Her maid of honor, Miss Lois Fuller, wore a gown of shell pink lace and marquisette with off-shoulder neckline. Her headdress was a pink picture hat with pink satin streamers. She wore matching mitts and carried a colonial bouquet of royal blue delphinia and yellow daisies.

Bridesmaids, Miss Pauline Miller and Miss Norma Cunningham, wore powder blue and canary yellow gowns identical to that of the maid of honor, with matching mitts and picture hats. They carried colonial bouquets of royal blue delphinia and yellow daisies.

Best man was Mr. Clayton Thomas of West Lafayette, and seating the guests were Mr. Alfred Huff of West Lafayette and Mr. Donald Lee Head, cousin of the bride, Greenfield, Ohio.

A half hour of music preceded the ceremony with Miss Eileen Davis as soloist and Mrs. Paul Crosier at the organ.

A large reception honored the couple in the fellowship room of the church following the ceremony. Mrs. Aston greeted her guests in a dress of aqua with pink accessories. She wore a corsage of white camellias and pink carnations. Mrs. Long was wearing a dress of gray print with navy blue accessories. She wore a corsage of white camellias and pink carnations.

Hostesses at the reception were the bride's sorority sisters, Mrs. Helen Livingston, Mrs. Pauline Kinnaird, Misses Norma Jean Gerber, Doris Bergh, Jerry Kirkwood, Dottie London and Ann Mitchell. Music during the reception was played by Miss Patricia Cozad and Mr. Robert Kimes.

Following the reception the bride changed to a gray suit with which she wore red accessories. At her shoulder she pinned the corsage from the center of her bridal bouquet. For their wedding trip the couple flew to Chicago, Ill.

They are residing temporarily at 593 S. Harris-av.

Combine Fire Destroys Wheat

A fire originating in a combine on the farm of George W. Jennings at W. Broad-st and Colerd, Tuesday afternoon burned five acres of wheat.

The sheriff's office said loss to the crop, plus straw, clover and the combine, would amount to about $500.

George W. Jennings, Jr., and a cousin, John Kile of West Jefferson, were working the field when the fire started. Two tractor-trailers were passing the field which fronts on Broad-st at the time. The drivers grabbed their extinguishers and put out the blaze in the combine.

BROILED SPRING CHICKEN

2 broilers, 2½ lb. each, split in halves
Melted butter or margarine

Brush clean, split broilers with melted butter or margarine. Place each half with skin side down on top section in broiler pan. Have broiler burner or unit at full heat. Place broiler pan in heated broiler compartment, making sure that chicken is 6 inches from broiler flame (8 to 9 inches from broiler unit in electric ranges). Broil 20 minutes; then turn skin side up and broil 10 to 15 minutes longer.

If your broiler is in a separate compartment alongside the oven, you can turn down the heat and in that case you can have the chicken closer to heat and still get it done through without burning.

However, if your broiler is under the oven so that the broiler heat is on full, make sure of two things: (1) have the chicken 6 inches from the flame, (2) keep the door of the bake oven open. The reason for the open oven door is that the burner, common to both broiler and oven, is controlled by the thermostat. When the heat in the oven reaches maximum, the heat would be automatically reduced before your chicken is done. So, if your broiler doesn't allow you 6 inches, use it for steaks or chops and do your chicken on top of the range or in the oven.

HOME FREEZING EASY WITH NEW GLASS FREEZER JARS

There is a new glass Freezer Jar on the market which is manufactured by the world's largest fruit jar maker. This sturdy, airtight, and leak-proof jar is ideal for home food freezing.

Whether you store your frozen foods in a locker plant or in your own home freezer, you will find these glass Freezer Jars convenient and so easy to use and sure to protect fresh food flavor.

Caps are recessed so that the jars can be stacked, and the caps are lined with a special rubber compound which makes the air-tight seal. To empty frozen food from a Freezer Jar, you simply run cool water on the cap or set in pan of cool water, unscrew, and turn the jar upside down. Contents will slide out.

And the beauty of these frozen food containers is that they can be used over and over again—both jars and caps! They also make fine refrigerator jars for storing leftovers and may be used for home canning by sealing with Wide Mouth Ball Dome Caps.

CCC Auto Theater Is Now Operating

Franklin County's newest Auto Theater, the C.C.C., located at 1555 Harrisburg Pk., just one mile from Mound and Central, has made its official opening and is open nightly for two shows, rain or clear.

Operated by Frank Yassenoff and Harold Schwartz, the C.C.C. is now a part of a chain of three theaters. The others are the Riverside and Eastside. The Riverside, located at 5800 Riverside-dr, is now in its ninth season and was the county's first drive-in. The Eastside, at 3811 E. Main-st, is in operation for its third consecutive season.

The C.C.C. is equipped with the latest modern devices. This includes water-proof individual car speakers. The screen, 72 by 72 is the largest in this territory.

The first show goes on the screen at dusk each night, with the last feature going on the screen at approximately 11:15. Children under 10, when accompanied by their parents, are admitted free.

too, and still have a few choice ones for sale . . . But the best one we have heard recently is told by Dr. Fred Marsch who located a long lost buddy through his Record ad . . . Seems this buddy was down in the country somewhere and was out in the vicinity of the two holer when he picked up a Record and lo and behold he immediately saw Doc's ad and thereupon learned where he was located . . . A hearty "Thank You" to the city engineering and street department for their repairs to Westgate-av, as per our note of last week . . . That was very fine fast action . . .

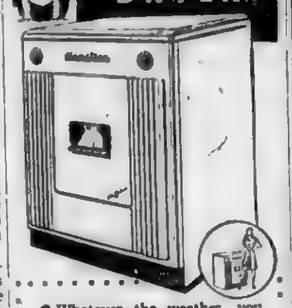
New Novena Series To Start Monday

On Monday, July 26, a new series in the perpetual novena to Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal will begin at St. Mary Magdalene Church, Parkside and S. Roys-avs. Conducting the series will be the Rev. Fr. Quentin Rinault, a passionist father from the Monastery of the Holy Cross in Cincinnati.

Since its inception the novena has continued in growth until at present ten services are held each Monday to accommodate the crowds attending. The Monday services begin with mass at 8:30; other exercises are at 10, 3 and 4 in the afternoon, and beginning at 5:15 at 45 minute intervals up to and including the 9 o'clock service. For the convenience of those attending the services, confessions are heard during and after each exercise.



Urbancrest Gains National Attention

Incorporation of the all-Negro Village of Urbancrest to the south of Columbus on the 3-C Highway has attracted nation-wide interest.

Last week a reporter for the New York Times telephoned Paul White, mayor of nearby Grove City, for full particulars on this unusual event.

A mass meeting at the Urbancrest School Friday is expected to result in the nomination of slates of candidates to be voted on at the November election.

"It's always fair weather" inside your Hamilton AUTOMATIC CLOTHES DRYER

● Whatever the weather, you always have clean, sweet, dry warmth, at fingertip touch in your Hamilton Automatic Clothes Dryer. It gives you fully automatic drying . . . the final freedom from washday work and worry . . . a complete divorce from the tiresome stoop and stretch of hanging out wet wash . . . the uncertainty of sun or shower . . . the risk of rewashing from airborne smoke and soot.

You just toss in your clothes, straight from wringer or spinner, flip the switch and, by the time your next washerload is ready, the first is done . . . ready for ironing, in just 15 to 25 minutes.

Let us demonstrate this newest of modern miracles TODAY. Come in and SEE the Hamilton for yourself.

Next Door to The Hilltop Record

With service in the optical business dating back to 1902, it's a pleasure to have been able to serve the Hilltop a great number of these years.

In October, 1913 I opened the first retail optical office on the Hilltop. Three years later I opened a downtown office but came back to the Hilltop 20 years ago.

Looking back . . . these years have been most pleasant ones and we anticipate serving you well for many years to come.

CCC Auto Theater Is Now Operating

Franklin County's newest Auto Theater, the C.C.C., located at 1395 Harrisburg-pk, just one mile from Mound and Central, has made its official opening and is open nightly for two shows, rain or clear.

Operated by Frank Yassenoff and Harold Schwartz, the C.C.C. is now a part of a chain of three theaters. The others are the Riverside and Eastside. The Riverside, located at 5800 Riverside-dr, is now in its ninth season and was the county's first drive-in. The Eastside, at 3811 E. Main-st, is in operation for its third consecutive season.

The C.C.C. is equipped with the latest modern devices. This includes water-proof individual car speakers. The screen, 72 by 72 is the largest in this territory.

The first show goes on the screen at dusk each night, with the last feature going on the screen at approximately 11:15. Children under 10, when accompanied by their parents, are admitted free.

To be a 100 per cent Hilltopper, read The Hilltop Record every week.

tor, and still have a few choice ones for sale . . . But the best one we have heard recently is told by Dr. Fred Marsch who located a long lost buddy through his Record ad . . . Seems this buddy was down in the country somewhere and was out in the vicinity of the two holer when he picked up a Record and lo and behold he immediately saw Doc's ad and thereupon learned where he was located . . . A hearty "Thank You" to the city engineering and street department for their repairs to Westgate-av, as per our note of last week . . . That was very fine fast action . . .

New Novena Series To Start Monday

On Monday, July 26, a new series in the perpetual novena to Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal will begin at St. Mary Magdalene Church, Parkside and S. Roys-avs. Conducting the series will be the Rev. Fr. Quentin Rinault, a passionist father from the Monastery of the Holy Cross in Cincinnati.

Since its inception the novena has continued in growth until at present ten services are held each Monday to accommodate the crowds attending. The Monday services begin with mass at 6:30; other exercises are at 10, 3 and 4 in the afternoon, and beginning at 5:15 at 45 minute intervals up to and including the 9 o'clock service. For the convenience of those attending the services, confessions are heard during and after each exercise.

Urbancrest Gains National Attention

Incorporation of the all-Negro Village of Urbancrest to the south of Columbus on the 3-C Highway has attracted nation-wide interest.

Last week a reporter for the New York Times telephoned Paul White, mayor of nearby Grove City, for full particulars on this unusual event.

A mass meeting at the Urbancrest School Friday is expected to result in the nomination of slates of candidates to be voted on at the November election.

"It's always fair weather" inside your Hamilton AUTOMATIC CLOTHES DRYER

● Whatever the weather, you always have clean, sweet, dry warmth, at fingertip touch in your Hamilton Automatic Clothes Dryer. It gives you fully automatic drying . . . the final freedom from washday work and worry . . . a complete divorce from the tiresome stoop and stretch of hanging out wet wash . . . the uncertainty of sun or shower . . . the risk of rewashing from airborne smoke and soot.

You just toss in your clothes, straight from wringer or spinner, flip the switch and, by the time your next washerload is ready, the first is done . . . ready for ironing, in just 15 to 25 minutes.

Let us demonstrate this newest of modern miracles TODAY. Come in and SEE the Hamilton for yourself.

Next Door to The Hilltop Record

With service in the optical business dating back to 1902, it's a pleasure to have been able to serve the Hilltop a great number of these years.

In October, 1913 I opened the first retail optical office on the Hilltop. Three years later I opened a downtown office but came back to the Hilltop 20 years ago.

Looking back . . . these years have been most pleasant ones and we anticipate serving you well for many years to come.

Three Are Hurt In Wednesday Crash

Three persons were hospitalized Wednesday morning following an accident on W. Broad-st opposite the Columbus State School grounds. Their car went out of control and struck a utility pole shortly before noon during a hard rain.

Treated at Mt. Carmel Hospital were Miss Beulah Di Jordan, 45, of 1238 W. Broad-st; Mrs. Hattie Steffen, 54, and her husband, George Steffen, 56, of 891 N. Fourth-st.

Miss Di Jordan received abrasions of the right knee; Mrs. Steffen received lacerations of the right eye and injuries to her nose, while Mr. Steffen was treated for injuries to his left knee.

"One A Penny!"

By BETTY BARCLAY

"Two a penny! Hot Cross Buns!" If you think we have been playing Rip Van Winkle and don't know that Hot Cross Bun season has been here and gone, you are wrong. That doesn't make us any less reluctant to put these delicious little buns out of mind until another Eastertime. Perhaps that is one reason they are so tempting — we never seem to get quite enough of them. Something should be done about it. So, let's talk about Grape-Nuts Currant Buns. They are delicious, too. The Grape-Nuts do something special for both the texture and the flavor. You will want to try them sometime soon. Chances are, the family will ask you to make them often. And, incidentally, any resemblance they may have to Hot Cross Buns is not coincidental.

● Grape-Nuts Currant Buns

2 cups milk, scalded
2 cakes compressed yeast
2 teaspoons salt
⅓ cup sugar
¾ teaspoon cinnamon
4 tablespoons melted shortening
½ cup currants or raisins
1 cup Grape-Nuts
4½ cups sifted flour

Cool milk to lukewarm; soften yeast in a small amount and add to remaining milk. Add salt, sugar, cinnamon, shortening, and currants, and mix well. Add Grape-Nuts and part of flour and beat thoroughly; add remaining flour and mix well. Turn out on well-floured board and knead lightly 3 or 4 minutes. Place dough in greased bowl, cover, and let rise in warm place (80° to 85°F.) until doubled in bulk. Punch down; grease surface lightly, cover, and place in refrigerator overnight, or until needed. Remove dough from refrigerator and punch down. Shape into buns, 2 inches in diameter. Place 1 inch apart on greased baking sheet, brush with melted butter, cover, and let rise in warm place until doubled in bulk. Bake in hot oven (400°F.) 15 to 20 minutes. Makes about 2 dozen buns.

Note: Buns may be shaped immediately after first punch down, then raised and baked.

THEY WERE MARRIED JULY 2—Rev. A. J. Wold performed the double-ring service in which Miss Barbara Ray Vlna became the bride of Mr. Robert H. Smith.

Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church was the scene of the marriage of Miss Barbara Ray Vlna to Mr. Robert H. Smith. The couple exchanged vows before the altar, decorated with greenery, white gladioli, delphinia and baby breath, on July 2, at 7:30 p. m. with Rev. A. J. Wold officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Vlna, 276 N. Ogden-av, and Mr. Smith is the son of Mrs. Lencra Smith, 45 N. Warren-av, and Mr. Howard D. Smith, 2447 W. Broad-st.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of white marquisette featuring a high neckline, with a sheer yoke and a wide cascade ruffle which swept into a bustle. The full skirt ended in a train, and her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a beaded tiara. She wore matching mitts and carried a white Bible topped with white rosebuds. Her rhinestone neck lace was a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Rose Byrum attended the bride as maid of honor, in orchid satin with matching mitts. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow carnations.

Best man for Mr. Smith was Mr. Eugene Garrison, and seating the guests were Mr. Paul McDonald and Mr. Starling Hutt.

A program of nuptial music preceded the ceremony with Miss Edith Pedrick at the organ, and Miss Marilyn Rings as soloist.

A reception for the immediate families was held following the ceremony, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Vlna chose a dress of navy blue with blue and white accessories for her daughter's wedding. She wore a corsage of white shattered carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a teal dress with black accessories and chose a corsage of rose, shattered carnations.

For their wedding trip to Minnawonga on Lake Erie, the bride changed to a gold dress with white and gold accessories. At her shoulder she wore her bridal corsage.

The former Miss Vlna is a graduate of West High School. Her husband is also a West High graduate and is now associated with the F. G. & A. Howald Co.

The couple now resides at 45 N. Warren-av.

Van and Storage Swamps Hanford

Pop Nader's Hilltop Van & Storage softball team pounded out 19 hits to swamp Hanford A. C. by a score of 13 to 2 Tuesday night. Grove on the mound for the Hilltoppers allowed but four scattered hits.

The line score follows:

Hilltop Van	060 130 3	13	19	2
Hanford A. C.	010 010 0	2	4	1

Grove and T. Arnold; Elder, Marshall (2) and Bosley.

On Sunday afternoon the Van & Storage nine won two games. In the first contest Grove pitched his mates to a 5 to 2 win over an American Legion team. In the nightcap, Bolin got credit for a 2 to 0 win over previously undefeated Plain City Cubs.

Playground Instructor Assigned At Westgate

Miss Jean Bourgeois was assigned to Westgate Park this week as a playground instructor to take the place of Mrs. Margaret Edwards, 785 S. Terrace-av, who resigned recently over a salary disagreement.

Miss Bourgeais will be in charge of craft work for the boys and girls each afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock.

The wading pool at Westgate Park has been repaired and is again in operation.

Pinball Feud Believed In Making, Police Say

What police termed the result of a pinball feud in Columbus was touched off Sunday morning when dynamite was exploded at the rear window of the Young Distributing Co., 1257 W. Broad-st.

The blast shattered windows in three adjacent homes and rocked the area around Princeton-av and W. Broad-st. The force of the blast was inward.

One window was broken and pictures were shaken from the wall of the home of Mrs. Jessie Lightowler, rear of 30 S. Princeton-av; two windows were broken at the home of Florence Miller, 20 S. Princeton-av, and window damage also was caused at the home of Mrs. Lucy Helpman and Mrs. Rosie Thompson, of 22 S. Princeton-av, and at the Midwest Food Market, located nearby in W. Broad-st.

Scrip Auctions Promise To Reveal New Era In Price Inflation

Going, going, GONE.

This will be a familiar climax to the offering of each individual piece of merchandise placed on the auction block at the Hilltop Bean Dinner at Westgate Park next Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Over $1000 worth of good merchandise will be put up for sale . . . including everything from sugar and coffee to garbage cans, step ladders, kitchen utensils, rugs, clothing and a hundred other assorted items. (See list below).

But all the real American currency you have can't buy a single stick of chewing gum at the auction cause it can be purchased only with Hilltop Scrip . . . now being given to customers of the Hilltop Business Association members with each purchase or payment on account.

During the past several weeks thousands of dollars of Hilltop Scrip has been given out by local merchants and hundreds of people will have handsful of scrip at the auction.

Prices Inflated

Just what will the items be sold for? Well, if you think we have inflation you ain't seen nothin' yet . . . cause with Hilltop Scrip the values will really be inflated. For example, a pound of coffee may be started on its way with a bid of $5 and it may actually be purchased at as much as $100.

How much merchandise you can buy with your scrip will depend on the activity of the crowd. If the bidding is lively the merchandise will go at high prices and won't last so long.

Best advice is to bid and bid fast . . . don't be afraid to spend your scrip. It didn't cost you anything and you'll get a lot of fun out of it by entering into the spirit of the occasion and spending your scrip money freely.

Several hundred items of merchandise will be placed on sale. There will be an auction in the afternoon starting at 3:30 at which time a certain amount of merchandise will be put up for sale. When this list of merchandise is all sold, the auction will be closed until again in the evening at 8 o'clock when the remainder of the merchandise is placed on the block.

The auctioneer will advise the crowd from time to time how much merchandise is left and the tempo of the bidding will probably be regulated accordingly. In any event when the final piece of merchandise is auctioned off, the sale will be closed and the Hilltop Scrip of 1948 will be worthless from that point on. Any scrip you hold after the last "Going, going, GONE!" is sounded will be of no value. So bid early and bid fast.

If you come away from the park with a lot of merchandise it is a sign you have done a lot of purchasing from members of the Hilltop Business Association. If you have just a little . . . then it was a lot of fun . . . if you don't get anything . . . well then go over to the bean tent and fill up on beans . . . ! ! !

Read over this list of merchandise and be prepared to bid. Even more items than these will be on hand . . . over $1000 worth!

Now the important thing to do is to purchase as much as you can and pay your bills with Hilltop merchants and ask for your scrip.

OFFICIAL GREETER — Official host to the thousands who are expected to attend Wednesday's fifth annual Hilltop Bean Dinner at Westgate Park is Joe Goodwin, president of the Hilltop Business Association, sponsors of the big picnic event.

Goodwin will open the big event with a brief address of welcome over the loud speaker at 1 p. m. He is owner of Goodwin's Pharmacy, 3772 Sullivant-av.

Injured In Crash

James Jackson, 23, of 215 N. Harris-av, was cut and bruised when the motorcycle he was riding was in collision with a car on Route 33 last week. Another rider on the same motorcycle, Robert O. Norris, 231 W. Weisheimer-rd, was also injured.

Both men were treated at Doctors Hospital.

Local Auctioneer—John Davis

Believed He Could Do Anything Any Other Man Could Do And Proved It

John Davis

"I always felt that I could do anything that any other man could do."

That's the philosophy that has motivated the life of John Davis, 583 S. Wayne-av. That's why he has at one time or another done just about everything from trading horses to the job that he will have at the Hilltop Bean Dinner next week when he conducts the Scrip Auction.

The auctioneering will come naturally to John next Wednesday for that was his principal livelihood for 27 years. He would probably still be following that game were it not for doctor's orders to give it up because of his health. Auctioneering is a strenous business. It takes a lot out of a fellow and John was working at it six days a week. That was too much, the doctor said.

At present Davis operates the Hilltop Riding Academy down on Eakin-rd and has a half interest in the Davis Riding Stable up along the Scioto River.

He got into the auctioneering business by necessity. It was in Terre Haute, Ind., where he was trading horses that he first tried his hand at it. John had a string of horses but he had traded himself out of all his cash reserve. He needed money so he got up on a piano box and started selling some of his horses.

He found he liked the business. His horses sold for a good price so he started working at the business of conducting public sales. He has sold everything imaginable from furniture to building lots, horses, cattle and now even the prizes to be purchased with the Scrip Money given out by Hilltop Business Association members.

At one time he conducted six auctions in various Ohio towns every week. He sold as high as $140,000 worth of cattle in a single day in an auction at Bucyrus. He has sold veal calves at the rate of four per minute, handling as many as 500 in a day. At one auction in Bucyrus he sold 648 head of horses in a single sale.

Not only does he sell rapidly but he buys almost as fast. Not so long ago he bought 100 horses from the Army with less than 10 minutes to look them over. He bought all 65 of the cavalry horses from Ohio State University in about the same length of time.

Davis has always been a lover of horses. More than 24 years ago he built the barn at what is now his Hilltop Riding Academy and started stocking horses. He has always owned at least three or four head for his own amusement or to buy and sell.

Among the several occupations at which he has tried his hand are the real estate and building businesses. He built about 150 houses in the Hilltop sector and at present has a subdivision ready to develop when building conditions become more favorable.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis live on S. Wayne-av, not far from the riding stables. They have one daughter, Mrs. Paul Lugger, 892 S. Eureka-av.

Moose Band To Play At Picnic

The Moose Band of Columbus Lodge 11 of the Loyal Order of Moose has been selected to play a concert at the Hilltop Bean Dinner Wednesday evening.

Organized three months ago the band is made up of 25 young men selected for their musical ability. Don Port, a well-known musician, directs the band and for color there are some capable baton twirlers in the person of the majorettes. The band will represent Ohio Moose lodges at the national convention to be held in Chicago Aug. 15-19.

The concert may be heard at the bandstand between 6 and 7 p. m.

Donn Eisele Enrolls At Naval Academy

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Eisele, 156 S. Algonquin-av, returned from Annapolis, Md., last week after seeing their son, Donn, sworn in as a midshipman at the United States Naval Academy on July 9.

Donn received his appointment to Annapolis before graduating from West High School in the June, 1948, class. He was active in athletics and music and rated in the upper portion of his class scholastically.

The Eiseles left Columbus July 5, visiting Gettysburg and the Washington Zoo enroute. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wells, former Columbus residents, at their home at Brentwood, Md., and later visited the George Washington Masonic Memorial and Christ Church at Alexandria, Va.

Donn's new address is:
Midn. Donn F. Eisele
3345 Bancroft Hall
U. S. Naval Academy
Annapolis, Md.

This amazing new General Electric Washer is so completely automatic that you'll hardly believe your washing can be done so easily—and so thoroughly.

Once you load the washer, add soap flakes or powder, set the controls, and start it, you don't need to return until the machine has automatically stopped.

Then look! The clothes have been washed snow-white, gently but thoroughly, the Activator* way. The clothes have been rinsed in filtered, circulating water that removes all dirt, lint, and soap film. And the clothes have been damp-dried . . . so thoroughly that many pieces are dry enough to iron!

THAT'S ALL-AUTOMATIC WASHING!

*TRADE-MARK REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.

Activator Action! G-E has the accurately designed Activator that is kind to clothes, but gets out the dirt. It does a thorough washing job on the dirtiest, heaviest work-clothes . . . but a gentle one on the finest of delicate fabrics.

Automatic Soap Dispenser! Nothing like it! No soap stains can spoil a G-E wash because this automatic soap dispenser completely dissolves soap flakes or powder before it enters the washbasket. Ask to see it.

Filtered, Circulating Water! The G-E All-Automatic washer filters all soak water, wash water, and rinse water. Lint, dirt, and soap film are skimmed away . . . gives you a clean, white wash.

Sealed-in Driving Mechanism! A FIVE-YEAR Protection Plan on the sealed-in driving mechanism. That's how sure we are that the heart of the washer will give long, faithful service.

Be sure to stop in and ask to see a demonstration of this All-Automatic Washer. Then you'll know what we mean by "automatic washing at its finest."

Salvation Army, West Park Unbeaten In West Church League Thus Far

Salvation Army and West Park Methodist remain the only undefeated teams in the West Church Softball League as the season nears its close. The days of reckoning for the two teams can not be far off, however, since they must play each other twice before the finale.

In the games played Monday night Salvation Army defeated Avondale EUB twice by scores of 4-2 and 5-4 in the No. 2 loop. West Park took a single game from Chicago Ave. C. of C. by a 5 to 2 margin while St. John took a 11 to 10 decision in a free-scoring affair over Hillcrest Baptist.

In the No. 1 league, Bureess EUB blanked Hoge Memorial 11 to 0 in the top half of a doubleheader and then went into a 3 to 3 deadlock that could not be broken before darkness settled unon the field. St. Aloysius tightened its hold on the No. 1 spot by taking a close 2 to 1 decision from Westgate EUB the challenger. In the other single game, Glenwood Methodist outscored Hilltop C of C to the tune of 9 to 2.

Bicycle Trip Is Planned July 24

A two-day bicycle trip to Newark and Granville July 24-25 has been arranged for youth hostelers of Columbus and vicinity by the Buckeye Trails District Council.

The group will start at dawn, meeting on the corner of Indianola and Oakland Park-avs at 4:30 a. m. for the ride to Denison University, where they will spend the night at one of central Ohio's six chartered hostels. Plans include a trip through the Heisey glass factory at Newark, and possibly the Denison University summer theater in the evening. Experienced leaders will accompany the group.

Motorcycle Races To Be Held On Sunday

The youngsters who dare sudden death reaching for the gold and glory that motorcycle racing hold forth to them, will go into action at Powell Speedway for the first time this season on next Sunday afternoon, July 25.

The Ohioans Motorcycle Club of Columbus is staging the four-star meet which has the official sanction of the American Motorcycle Association and which will present nine races in addition to the time trials which incidentally have been set up to 12 o'clock noon because of the heavy influx of entries.

Championships will be awarded in three divisions, novice, amateur and expert, and there'll be two preliminary heats of six laps each, in addition to the 10 lap championship final in each division.

The first race is scheduled for 2:30 o'clock promptly.

Reeves Tie 1st Five

In case some of you are wondering what became of your perspiring young reporter last week, it wasn't the heat that got him down. As far as bowling went last week it was a complete flop. The Monday night league didn't bowl since Monday was a holiday and the Wednesday night league didn't have its handicaps there, so no one knew who had won what games. Everything is ship shape now so I'll try to recap what happened last week along with this week's developments.

Ardle

The biggest development last week was the upset of the Friendly Five team by the second place team, Reeves Bros. Hardware.

The Reeves Bros. team swept a three-game series with the Friendly Five team to throw them into a deadlock for first place with 23 wins against 10 defeats. Reeves Bros. took the first game 811 to 791, the second 785-716 and the final 340-648.

The Rain Bowlers kept pace with the league leaders by winning three games from the 5th place Pin Spotters. They have won six in a row.

Individual honors went to C. E. Popsichel with 196 - 536 and Blanche Ramsey with 469. Team honors went to Rain Bowlers with 856-2390.

Standings

Friendly Five	23	10
Reeves Bros.	23	10
Rain Bowlers	20	13
Bryant Glazers	17	16
Mixups	14	19
Pin Spotters	13	21
State Hospital	12	21
Detrick's	7	26

The Bears of the St. John Lutheran League held a slim one game lead by virtue of their two-game victory over the Wonders while the second place Poodlers (who last week went into a tie with the Bears for first place by defeating them twice) were losing two to the Cubs.

Karl Schrade of the Wonders topped the men with 222-546 while Doris Davis paced the women with 198-488.

Team honors were captured by the Wonders with 922 and the Bears with 2647.

Standings

Bears	23	10
Poodlers	20	11
Hurricanes	17	13
No Gutters	16	14
Cubs	15	15
Wolves	14	16
Madhens	11	19
Wonders	9	21

The N-9 team in the Veterans' League cut the Collectors League lead to one game as they defeated the Collectors two games, taking the first 847-760 and the final 923-747. The Collectors managed to salvage the middle game 823-759.

McMahon of the N-9 team came through with one of the few 600 series to be rolled this summer. He put together games of 196-200 and 208 for a grand 604 series. His last game of 208 and Detich's 211 helped to take team honors of 923-2629.

Standings

Collectors	15	9
N-9-4	14	10
[illegible]	14	10
[illegible]	13	11
[illegible]	10	14
[illegible]	9	15

Hilltop All-Stars Drop 5-4 Game To Civic Center

By Bob Humphrey

The Hilltop All-Stars, composed of the outstanding softball stars of the Hilltop, lost a 5 to 4 decision to Civic Center, National VFW champion, last Saturday night, featuring a special four game program.

"Pop" Nader, manager of the All-Stars, used a total of 19 boys in the game.

In the first game on the card, the Capital School of Beauty girls team played a boys' team, made up of seven Franklin Post American Legion players and two others, to a five inning 4 to 4 tie. Several handicaps were placed against the boys before the start of the game. The boys were not permitted to bunt nor steal a base. The boys were forced to bat left-handed and were given only two outs and two strikes and had to get five balls to get a base on balls.

Raymond Scott Post won the American Legion District title, swamping Franklin Post, 12 to 0, in the second game. In the third game, the Capital School of Beauty girls blanked the Blue Limestone Park girls of Delaware, substituting for an Akron team, 5 to 0.

Lenox Gives 1 Hit

Jim Lenox, Hilltop's No. 1 pitcher, limited Civic Center to one hit until he retired at the end of the third inning. Duffy Bolin pitched the fourth inning for the Hilltoppers and Maurice Reese was on the mound the last three innings.

After scoring one run in the third inning, Civic Center won the game by sending four runners across the plate in a big fifth inning.

The Hilltop boys got off to a fast start, scoring three runs in the first inning on hits by Shorty Simms, Chuck Larkins, and Paul Schlosser, an error and a sacrifice fly.

The Hilltoppers scored another run in the fifth inning. Maurice Reese was safe on an error and counted when Taylor smacked a triple to right field.

The All-Stars got a total of six hits off two Civic Center pitchers, with Shorty Simms getting two and Chuck Larkins, Ben Henry, Paul Schlosser and Taylor one each.

Westgate Blanks Southwood Club

The Westgate Tennis Club blanked the Southwood Club by a score of 5-0 on the Westgate court Sunday afternoon. The scores were as follows:

Singles—Dick Slager defeated Howard Ziegler, 7-5 and 6-0; Roger Lindley bested Kelton Garwood, 6-0 and 6-1; Bill Sherker downed Charles Kramer, 6-2 and 6-1.

Doubles—John Hipple and Paul Walton outpointed Howard Ziegler and Mickie Ziegler, 6-3 and 6-3, while Jim Slager and Ray Keys defeated Charles Kramer and Joe Woolett, 10-8, 4-6 and 6-4.

Westgate will meet the Columbus Tennis Club on the Columbus courts next Sunday.

Red Birds To Open Home Stand Sat.

The Columbus Red Birds will entertain the four western clubs for their final visit of the championship season at Red Bird Stadium and also the three eastern teams of the American Association during their home stay which opens Saturday, July 24, and closes Thursday, Aug. 12.

Louisville will oppose the local club in a single game Saturday afternoon, a double header Sunday afternoon and a single game Monday night.

Indianapolis brings its league leaders to town Tuesday for four single night games in a series ending Friday night.

The Kansas City Blues lead the invasion of the western clubs on Saturday with a single afternoon game and conclude their stay at the W. Mound-st lot with a twin bill Sunday afternoon.

News of Rome
By Mrs. E. C. Sheets

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Thompson and son, Bob, have returned from northern Minnesota where they enjoyed a fishing trip vacation. Mrs. Thompson's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Laird, of Dayton, accompanied them. Although they had to leave some of their 'catch' with friends, they sent home their allowed quota which was in very good condtion upon arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sherrod and children Shirley, Bob and Kenny, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sheets, her sister, Sunday evening.

A very lovely bridal shower was given at the home of Mrs. Ralph Clements, who was assisted by Mrs. J. L. Coulter, for Mrs. Caito, (Dorothy Brooks). After well planned games, delicious refreshments were served. Those who attended the party were Mrs. Ball, Mrs. Butin, Mrs. Breckenridge, Mrs. Brooks Coulter, Mrs. Warner, Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Sheets, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Karnes, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Tope, Mrs. Willis, Mrs. Reibel, Mrs. Stormont, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Randall, Mrs. Eberhardt, Mrs. Geihl, Mrs. Terry, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Kidwell, Mrs. South and the bride, Mrs. Caito. Those who remembered the bride, but could not come were Mrs. Richert, Mrs. Thoma, Mrs. Unglaub, Mrs. Kimes and the bride's mother-in-law and aunt. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

The Good Little Cooks met at the home of Mrs. Fox, Fernhill-av. At this meeting there was a salad demonstration put on by Carol Clark and Betty Schrader, for the benefit of the parents who were present. Hazel Clark, Mrs. Schrader and Mrs. Godfrey Horst. At the next meeting, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Godfrey Horst, W. Broad-st, each member is to bring a salad, sandwich and a cold drink of their own make. The bake sale they had at Harrison's market netted them $12.00 Mrs. Yeater and Mrs. Fox are leaders and the members of the club are Betty Schrader, Carol Clark, Thelma Jewett, Doris Yeater, Virginia Rings, Marilyn Horst, Frances Schrader, Barbara Toy, and Sarah Irwin. The next meeting will be Aug. 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lappe, formerly of Rome, are happy grandparents. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lappe, who are located off the coast of South America, at Trinidad.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Broyles were the attendants at the wedding ceremony in Russell, Ky., of Miss Mary Webb, Columbus, and Mr. Ray Mathis, of Detroit.

Hicks Will Direct Band Concerts On Sunday, Wednesday

For the concerts by the Federation of Musicians Band next week, the leader will be a West Sider, Robert W. Hicks, of 593 S. Ogden-av. The concerts will be held two evenings, Sunday at 8 at Franklin Park and Wednesday at the same hour. Patti Cooper, long time West Side resident, will be the soprano soloist with a "Butterfly" aria and various songs.

Mr. Hicks, now teacher of music at Roosevelt Junior High School, was leader of the famous 223rd Army Ground Forces Band. Warrant Officer Hicks guided this band through its training at Camp Shelby, Miss., to an eventful year in Rome, Italy. He is now leader of the 37th Infantry Division Band, which is based at Ft. Hayes.

The Federation Band, which played last Sunday at Westgate Park, is doing two concerts a week in city parks throughout the summer.

Struck By Auto
Jack Hughes, 21, of 416 Stimmel-rd, was treated at Mt. Carmel Hospital early Sunday for bruises about the right leg and shoulder which he suffered when he was struck by an auto driven by Henry S. Naggiroc, 32 E. Beechwold-blvd, in the 1100 block of W. Broad-st, police said.

He was given first aid and taken to the hospital by Fire Department emergency squadmen.

Keeping Up With The Hilltop

On such an occasion as the Hilltop Bean Dinner we are all reminded of the community consciousness that has made the Hilltop one of the outstanding neighborhoods of the middle west.

An analysis of this spirit shows that it is nothing more than an elongation of the desire to serve the many firms that go to make up the business life of such a community.

And at such a time it is a pleasure to repeat our pledge to always keep abreast of the times in providing this community with the finest in funeral and ambulance service.

In your time of need you can depend on the Floyd Born Funeral Service.

BIBLE COMMENT
FOR JULY 25

Famous Friendships Typify Brotherhood Ideal at Its Best

EVERY school boy knows the story of Damon and Pythias, the two Greeks so loyal to each other in mutual affection that they have typified in the world's life and literature the deepest and strongest relationship between man and man.

They exemplified the words of Jesus, many years before they were uttered—"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." In that famous story, of course, the loyalty of Damon and Pythias for each other was the means of saving them both.

Pythias, condemned to die by Dionysius, obtained leave to visit his home and left Damon as hostage. But Pythias was delayed and returned barely in time to save Damon. But even a tyrant was not immune to such a show of affection, and Dionysius pardoned Pythias.

The outstanding example of such friendship in the Bible is the story of David and Jonathan. In this case the friendship was the more remarkable in view of the jealous hatred of David on the part of Saul, the King of Israel and Jonathan's father. The kindliest thought concerning Saul is that he had become mentally deranged, for in lucid and generous moments he abjured his vengeful feelings and his attempts to kill David to manifest some affection.

The situation might have put a severe strain on both friends. David was resentful toward Jonathan because of his father's hostility, and Jonathan took the part of his father. But their friendship had its roots in a fine integrity of character and withstood every test, until the day Jonathan died with his father in battle.

Such friendship is brotherhood at its best and typifies the relationship that would exist between all men. Despite our much talk of brotherhood the world is far from the attainment of that high ideal. Even in the most progressive nations we have a long way to go before all men recognise one another as brothers. But such an attainment would be little more than democracy at its best, and it is something toward which we must strive.

Burgess Lawn Fete To Be Held Friday

The annual lawn fete of the Alpha Class of Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church will be held at the church Friday evening from 6 to 10. Howard Bellinger is general chairman of arrangements.

Assisting him are Mrs. George Mincks, in charge of sandwiches and coffee; Mrs. Harold Freeland, cakes and ice cream; Harold Freeland, soft drinks; Mrs. Don Smith, fish pond, and Mrs. Russell Ryerson, cashier.

There will be hot dogs, candy bars, chewing gum, soft drinks, coffee, ice cream and cake. There will be accordion music throughout the evening.

Burgess Church To Entertain, Conference

Members of the Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church are busy making plans to entertain the Southeast Ohio Conference Aug. 24 to 27. It will be the second annual conference as the Evangelical United Brethren Church although the conference has been meeting for many years as the former United Brethren Church.

Rev. C. F. Lutz, pastor of the church, will serve as general chairman. He has appointed the following committees

Registration and homes — Mrs. Sterling Good, Mrs. Elmer Henderson and Mrs. Frank Waller.

Food — Mrs. Lillian Anderson and Mrs. Clarence Schofield.

Building arrangements—L. O. Cozad.

General arrangements — Ray Anderson, Mrs. C. F. Lutz and Elmer Henderson.

Music — Mrs. Edward Thomas and Mrs. Richard Grant.

Serving—Mrs. Lilian Batteiger, Mrs. Macie Spanable, Mrs. Ruth Kuder, Mrs. Elizabeth Carpenter and Mrs. Ruth Fuller.

Flowers—Mrs. Chester Hill.

The Missionary Guild will have charge of the refreshment stand.

400 Bible Students Get Certificates In Exercises July 11

On Sunday night, July 11, the Apostolic Gospel Church, 1074 W. Broad-st, was the gathering place for several hundred West Side children and their parents for the commencement exercises which brought to a close one of the largest Vacation Bible Schools conducted in this state.

This is the eighth year for this summer-time religious program at this church. This year, Mrs. A. W. Witherspoon, the wife of the pastor, was the principal. She was assisted by a staff of 60 teachers, secretaries, and helpers. The school was conducted each morning for the past three weeks.

Mrs. Witherspoon states that Vacation Bible School is conducted along interdenominational lines and attracts children from all the churches in the community. In addition, each year, numerous children attend who have no church connections and quite a few who have never been inside of any church in their lives.

The program for each day is well planned in advance to give each boy and girl something interesting to do. The Bible lessons are illustrated with slides and film strips. In the crafts department opportunity is given each child to make various articles according to his liking. The boys choose wood-working; the girls often make attractive pins, aprons, etc. The older class combined in building a map of the Bible lands showing the growth of the early church.

Approximately 400 children completed the required course this year and received their diplomas at the commencement program Sunday night.

Scout News

Fish Fry Is Planned

A fish fry and outdoor meeting of all Southwest District scouters scoutmasters, assistants, cubmasters and assistants, committeemen, commissioners and district officers is being planned for Aug. 11.

The place where this event is to be held will be announced at a later date. Planning of a program for the year will be the principal item on the agenda.

V. A. Barbee is making arrangements for the affair.

Troop 79

Seventeen members of Troop 79 went to Camp Lazarus Sunday for their week in camp together. They assembled at Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church and were transported to camp by autos.

Richard McFadden is the scoutmaster. His assistants are William Thomas and Dave Haines.

Two Are Injured In Motorcycle Crash

Walter Richardson, 24, of 57 S. Harris-av, received head and body injuries last week when his motorcycle was in collision with another motorcycle ridden by Robert Overfield, 20, of 1186 Oakwood-av.

Both men were taken to St Francis Hospital following the accident last Wednesday night on Scioto-blvd south of Mound-st. Police said the kick-stand of the cycle ridden by Richardson dropped down, causing him to lose control and swerve into Overfield's path.

TRANSIENTS ON INCREASE

"More men, drifting around the country, are applying for more overnight care," Colonel Susan Thom, head of the local Volunteers of America, 379 W. Broad-st, told a recent meeting of the organization's advisory board. "A six months review of the transient cases indicates an ever-increasing need for more paper, magazines and clothing," she added.

58 Get Diplomas In Bible School

The Wheatland Methodist Church Daily Vacation Bible School closed Sunday night, July 9, with a commencement exercise and display of work done. The total enrollment including staff and pupils was 66. Diplomas and report cards were awarded to 58.

The members of the graduating class were Freddie Brown, Ruth Robinson, Nannette Sanders, David McGill, Beverly Beason, Saron Beason, Barbara and Saundra Calloway, Carol and Martha Pack, LaVerne Goolsby, Alice, Robert, Kay and Victor Jackson, Arthur and George Slate, Cecelia Rutledge, Chloe and Dennis Wood La Baen and La French Ingram, Donna Jean Hairston, Patricia Carr, Wanda Cook, Ada Jean Beatty.

Thomas Tinsley, David Martin, Frances and Freida Williams, Laurence Stewart, JoAnne, Margaret and Harold Jordon, Patricia, JoAnn, Michael and Robert Todd, Della Gentry; Clarice Smith, Lowell Smith, Earl and Carlene Rose, Peggy Roberts, Robert Farl, Jo Anne Loone, Phillip Williams and Shirley Ann Moore.

The members of the staff were Elizabeth Shaw, dean; Rev. T. L. Tinsley, assistant dean; Mrs. Genava French, chairman of planning and purchasing; Jane Martin, Gertrude Beatty, Anna Mae Cooper, Clara Moorey, Louise Moore, Jean Nelson, Mrs. Jasper Beck, Joyce Goolsby, Dorothy Williams, Charles Ann Pruit, Beulah Cook, Rowita Shaw and Marion Goolsby.

To Entertain Hymn Sing

Franklin Heights Friends Church, 3552 Sullivant-av, will be host to the bi-weekly Hilltop Hymn Sing Sunday evening at 9 p. m.

Members of all churches and hymn-lovers in general are invited to attend the one-hour community sing.

Westgate Methodist Church Picnic To Be Held On Sunday

The Westgate Methodist Church picnic will be held at Shelter House No. 2 up along the Scioto River Sunday afternoon. Those attending are asked to meet at the church at 3 p. m. where transportation will be provided.

Persons planning to attend are asked to bring a covered dish and candy lotion as well as table service for their family. The Sunday School will provide ice cream, coffee and lemonade. There will be a program of recreation.

Harry Graham, the superintendent of the Sunday School, and Rev. Norman Schreiber, pastor of the church, are in charge of the picnic.

Hilltop To Honor Phaseolus Vulgaris L. (Beans To You) Here On July 28

EDITOR'S NOTE: On July 1, 1930, The Hilltop Record carried the following scientific description of the bean in connection with the publicity on the first Hilltop Bean Day. The treatise was written by Dr. John Wolfe, then editor of the Record and now a member of the faculty at Ohio State University.

Not long after C. Columbus, the mariner, plunked the Santa Maria into some inlet along the shores of San Salvador, some sailor, maybe it was the head guy himself, went out botanizing and come a-totin' in a specimen of Phaseolus vulgaris L.

To this un-named hero, the Hilltop Business Men's Association (now known as the Hilltop Business Association) may erect a monument somewhere in the vicinity of Westgate Park. At least about July 28, maybe they'll wish that HAD erected a monument instead of being responsible for the monumental task of cleaning up paper and tin plates, smeared with the juice of one, Phaseolus vulgaris L.

Well, anyway, if it hadn't been for this guy who collected Phaseolus vulgaris L., to the business men just would not have been able to have this big bean dinner they're planning. It might have had to be a pumpkin show, and that would have been awful.

For out of Phaseolus vulgaris L., came the common ordinary bean soup—as deadly a critter as any you can name. The soup bean, out of Phaseolus vulgaris L., is smaller than its cousin from Peru, South America, the lima bean—Phascolus lunatus macrocarpa Benth. But Phaseolus lunatus macrocarpa Benth, is also a bean packing the same terrific wallop, and being well charged with an abundance of nourishment.

The offspring of Phaseolus vulgaris L., were first mentioned in Europe in 1542 and ere an 100 years had elapsed, numerous varieties had been developed. During the past 100 years, a great deal of work has been done on the bean. Scientists have recognized certain features about the bean which needed development; other features seemed to be overly emphasized in the original edition.

Calvin N. Kenney developed a bean of high culinary quality which was stringless. Burpee produced a larger bean with a green pod, which was also straight, a factor of importance to shippers.

MONEY! MONEY! MONEY! It looks as if this group of local business men had struck it rich, judging irom the many smiles shown above. The money they are admiring isn't the genuine article, however. It's part of the scrip money that will be used to purchase scores of valuable prizes at the two big Scrip Auctions.

It's all a part of the build up for the Hilltop's fifth Bean Dinner to be held at Wesigate Park on July 28.

Bathing Beauties, Greased Pigs, Rain Have Highlighted Other Bean Dinners

Here's a run down on some of the highlights of the four previous Hilltop Bean Dinners.

The first Hilltop Bean Dinner was held on July 27, 1938, with an estimated 35,000 persons present. Approximately 2600 pounds of boiled beans were consumed in record time and the containers were emptied. It was decided then and there that more beans was a "must" for future affairs. As a result close to 4000 pounds of beans (1,000 pounds of dry beans) were prepared and served each year thereafter in spite of rain on at least two occasions.

George Painter, local real estate salesman (at that time owner of Painter's Market No. 2), was chairman of the first picnic. The West High School Band furnished music.

The next year with E. O. Melvin (retired hardware merchant) as chairman, the affair took on other attractions. In addition to a band concert, there was a greased pig, a bathing beauty contest, jitterbug contest and other special attractions, in addition to games and contests for young and old. Ella Marie Hulls won the beauty contest.

Dedicated To Sparks Family

The third annual affair, held on July 31, 1940, was dedicated to the Franklin Sparks Family (he of the Sparks-Kent Market) who had just previously won the Columbus typical family title. Charlie Kent (the other half of the Sparks-Kent partnership) headed the committee responsible for staging the Bean Dinner. The afternoon started with a parade to the park with hundreds of boys and girls participating. Bonnie Lear won the bathing beauty contest.

The fourth edition of the Bean Dinner was held on July 30, 1941, with Melvin serving a second time as chairman of the event. Rain interfered that year and it was necessary to hold many of the features of the afternoon on the next evening. Rain did not dampen the appetites of those who did attend during the afternoon for approximately 4,000 pounds of boiled beans were dished out before rain put a stop to the affair.

The second night saw equally bad weather with rain breaking up the event at an early hour but not before Ruth Price had been declared the bathing beauty of the Hilltop. A balloon ascension and double parachute jump had been billed for the occasion but was cancelled shortly before the picnic.

Hundreds of varieties have been developed, each for a particular virtue. Recently (1922) the U. S. Department of Agriculture has taken up the study of the bean, hoping by research to discover disease resistant strains. Outstanding achievement of the past century, however, has been the placing of a small bit of onion in the pot while baking the soup bean—out of Phaseolus vulgaris L.

(The fifth annual Hilltop Bean Dinner will be held at Westgate Park on July 28.)

Comfort—Not Style Is Keynote For Bean Dinner Attire

By Libby Downing

The Hilltop Bean Dinner is designed to provide a full day's entertainment to us Hilltoppers, so why not go along and really enjoy yourself?

For one, I don't relish the thought of tracking around a hot picnic ground all afternoon and evening in high heeled shoes and the "new look"! So, ladies and mothers, our suggestion is to dress yourselves and your children for a picnic, and to forget all fads and fashions for a few hours.

There will be ponies and joy rides for the children, and about the coolest and most practical outfit would be a pair of seersucker overalls or pair of jeans. These will protect them from any insects in the grass and also keep them from getting "dusty." Cool, comfortable, cotton T-shirts are nice for the kids too.

If your family is the sports type, there are always the tennis courts and baseball diamonds available at the park, and the first there first served.

A washable cotton play-suit or dress with plenty of shoulder action and a pair of sports shoes should provide the ladies with the necessary essentials for the outing.

As for the men, it would be entirely OK with everyone concerned, I'm sure, if not ONE necktie were seen in the Westgate Park area on the afternoon of July 28. A sports shirt and a pair of cool slacks are about the ideal outfit for male picnickers.

Of course in the evening the dance will be held, from 9 p. m. to 12 midnight. That gives most Hilltoppers plenty of time to get home for a shower and fresh clothes. If the day is still quite warm a fluffy cotton dress or cool peasant blouse and skirt would be practical for the dance. The teen-agers still prefer their beloved ballerina skirts with such clothes, and for the older girls open play shoes without stockings are very, very comfortable.

Well, ladies, shall we cooperate with the weatherman and let our locks down for the day? It's really lots of fun, and you don't have anything to worry about!

Republicans and Democrats Tie

In the calendar period 1880-1892 the Republican and Democratic parties won two presidential elections each, but in neither of these elections did the winning party poll a majority of the popular vote.

A Plurality of 600,000 Votes

In the presidential election of 1896 William McKinley, the Republican candidate, had a six hundred thousand plurality of votes over his democratic opponent, William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska.

Bean Dinner Idea Had Its Origin Back In Post Civil War Days In Southern Ohio

Eli Whitney gave the South the cotton gin, Watt gave the world the steam engine and Alexander Graham Bell the telephone but it was E. O. Melvin, retired hardware merchant now living at 107 S. Warren-av, who brought the idea of the Bean Dinner to the Hilltop.

E. O. Melvin

At least some of the "old timers" in the Hilltop Business Association are willing to confer upon him that honor. He headed the committee responsible for putting on the 1940 and 1941 Hilltop Bean Dinners and was again named chairman to plan the 1947 affair—later called off because of costs and scarcities.

The first Bean Dinner was probably held down in Vinton, Ohio, in the hills of Gallia County, a half century or more ago, according to information coming out of southern Ohio.

It seems that in the old soldiering days—as well as now—beans played a prominent part in the daily menu of the boys who tramped and tramped and tramped.

Whether the architectural structure of the bean was supposed to supply much needed energy or whether it just happened that beans were handy and easy to transport and prepare is a matter of conjecture. But it's a well-known fact that they did have beans.

Peace—But More Beans

Came the happy day when the soldiers stopped firing at each other and laid down their arms. Days moved into weeks and weeks into months, and the years passed.

The survivors of those hectic days finally began organizing into posts of the Grand Army of the Republic. They began meeting regularly. Someone pointed to a very depleted treasury—a treasury that needed no treasurer to handle.

Someone else advised "doing something about it." The argument was on. How to raise money to provide the posts with necessary funds for administrative purposes as well as entertainment was the big question before the gathering.

Then someone suggested—of all things—a bean dinner. They decided to adopt the idea. They also decided to charge a nominal sum of 25c per plate. (The charge included a cup of coffee.) The idea grew—and so did the treasury. Before long it was an annual affair down in Gallia County even though after a number of years the GAR, original sponsors of the plan, decided to cut themselves from the event.

Years and time marched on.

Finally the event itself had faded out.

Came 1938.

Beans Come To Hilltop

The members of the Hilltop Business Men's Association were gathering for one of their meetings. During a lull in the session E. O. Melvin jumped to his feet.

"Why not have something different? Something that everyone will enjoy. Something that won't cost them a cent. Why not have a bean dinner?"

The other members looked interested.

"Now back when I was a youngster," Ed began, "I used to hear of and sometimes attend what we folks down in Gallia County called a Bean Dinner. It was like this—"

And so long into the night a group of men grew more and more interested. L. E. Saunders seconded the idea and the ball—or rather the bean—had started to roll.

That first year—in 1938—some 35,000 people crushed around the bean stand where huge cans of boiled beans, done to a nice turn by the David Davies people, were being dished out as fast as weary arms could dig down—and down—and down.

Despite a clothes-drenching rain that came down in bucketsful, that first Bean Day Dinner and accompanying celebration was a big success. They came and they ate and they drank coffee and they stayed to dance. Everyone was enthusiastic. Everyone went home that night full of praise—and beans.

That was the start of what was to become another Hilltop tradition as deeply rooted as the Minstrel Show, which idea also came to the Hilltop from Gallia County via one L. E. (Lou) Saunders.

The idea was repeated the next year with even greater success. Bean Dinners were held again in 1940 and 1941 but then World War II put an end to the custom.

The idea was suggested again in 1946 but was turned down because of a shortage of beans growing out of the war years.

Bean Dinner Idea

Last year it was once almost set and then voted down by the board because of costs. This year it was decided to make a nominal charge for the beans and the committees were set up to work out the details.

The Bean Dinner is coming back again in Southern Ohio, according to Melvin, a frequent visitor to that area. He attended one in a small town last summer and says that others have been held or are being planned.

One difference between Bean Dinners ala Hilltop and the way its done in Southern Ohio is that down there they cook the beans right on the picnic grounds. According to Melvin, that adds to the community spirit of the thing.

It is more practical to have the beans cooked at one central location and then transported to the picnic grounds — especially when you have to prepare upward of 4,000 pounds of the cooked beans.

New Ironing Board Reduces Strain; Automatic Headlight Control On Way

Asphalt roofing placed under houses without basements has been found better protection against dampness than materials usually employed for that purpose. An adjustable ironing board will take the back-break out of your weekly ironing. A new electric eye device will dim headlights automatically. These are some of the new aids to better living.

"San Francisco, Calif., reports that a touch of your foot will adjust a newly developed ironing board to your most convenient ironing position. It has eight self-locking height adjustments varying from sitting to various standing heights. The ironing surface of the present model is made of wood, but the company expects to have an all-metal board on the market.

"News from Washington, D. C., is that the era of preparedness which the country is entering will have its effect on the amount of materials available for home building and for consumer durable goods requiring metals. Steel, copper, tin and lead are the metals in shortest supply in relation to needs—and aluminum is no longer plentiful.

"In addition to delaying the production of some civilian items, industrial mobilization and rearmament — on top of the international aid program—are pushing prices up, and some believe that price controls will have to be renewed before the year is out.

"Starting next year, babies born in the United States will have serial numbers stamped on their birth certificates. Later, the same numbers will be used for marriage and divorce papers, eventually for death certificates, too.

"Your kitchen is cooler, the experts say, when painted in light blues or greens. What is more, they claim, flies don't like blue and will tend to stay away.

"Advance for fall: Asphalt roofing laid on the ground under houses without basements is effective protection from dampness, a five-year study shows. It works better than gravel, slag or emulsified asphalt and is easier to put under houses already built.

"News from Borger, Tex. has it that synthetic rubber good enough for tire treads, and maybe better than natural rubber for this use, is ready for production.

"Reports from Lincoln, Nebr. claim that women don't eat enough protein to keep the hemoglobin of their blood at healthy levels, recent studies show, and seem to be generally less smart than men about eating. Low hemoglobin is now thought to result from too little protein, not from lack of iron.

"Panama City, Fla. reports that you may cook with tree fat someday. There's a new process to separate into rosins and vegetable oils the gop that's left over when woods are cooked up for paper pulp. It's not known yet whether the cost of making the oils edible can be made to justify itself.

"Boston, Mass. says that a new synthetic drug, called aminopterin, has been used with some success in treating the deadly blood disease, leukemia. It is no cure. But it has arrested the process of some acute cases of the disease in children. Exact dosages are still undetermined, however, and the drug has produced toxic effects in some patients.

"Des Moines, Iowa says that headlights will dim automatically when another car approaches if you use an electric eye device developed here. Even ordinary street lights cast enough light to keep the headlights on low beam, for city driving."

The Leading Cotton State

The state of Texas leads all other states in the Union in the production of cotton. It also holds first place inoutput of grain sorghum, onions, pecans and produces large quantities of many other agricultural products.

Our Early Oil Production

From the times of the discovery of oil in Pennsylvania in 1850 until the year 1901 the Middle Atlantic states were the main source of the production of crude petroleum in the United States.

Cool Summer Desserts

By BETTY BARCLAY

What could have more appeal than snow in the summertime! What more delicious cooling dessert could there be for a warm day than Apricot Snow! And it's almost as easy to make as sliding down a snow covered hill.

So here's a recipe you'll surely want to try. Note that it will serve ten people—a good idea for large families and for small families where it takes two helpings to keep them satisfied. The secret of success here lies in whipping the gelatin; for by doing this you get a light, airy, dessert that is sure to please. Apricot Snow, which is such a whipped gelatin, will hit the jackpot every time.

Another new way to serve flavored gelatin is in "flaked" form. Here the chilled gelatin is simply broken into flakes with a fork. Piled lightly in glasses and garnished with fruit, it will provide the festive new look that children love. It's just a matter of minutes to make up simple, sparkling gelatin treats such as these. And, if you use left-over fruit juices for part of the liquid called for in the recipe, you add to the flavor, color, and nourishment of this popular product, which with all its variations will keep you supplied with dessert ideas for months to come.

Apricot Snow

1 package lemon-flavored gelatin
1 cup hot water
1 cup canned apricot juice
1 cup chopped canned apricots
4 tablespoons sugar
2 egg whites, unbeaten

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add apricot juice. Chill. Combine apricots and sugar. When gelatin is slightly thickened, place in bowl of ice and water, add egg whites, and whip with rotary egg beater until fluffy and thick like whipped cream. Fold in apricot mixture. Turn into individual molds or pile lightly in sherbet glasses. Chill until firm. Serve with whipped cream or custard sauce, if desired. Makes 10 servings.

Cherry Flake Gelatin

1 package cherry-flavored gelatin
1 cup hot water
1 cup canned grapefruit juice
Canned grapefruit sections

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add grapefruit juice. Turn into shallow pan. Chill until firm. Break into flakes with fork. Pile lightly in sherbet glasses. Garnish with grapefruit sections. Makes 6 servings.

Famed Kentucky Hostess Reveals Family Recipe For Date Pudding

Cynthiana, Kentucky, has earned a Bluegrass reputation for good living, and Mrs. Harold Poindexter has made no small contribution to it. Of all the recipes which have made her famous for gracious entertaining, she likes the one for date pudding best.

Mrs. Poindexter's Date Pudding

1¼ cups all-purpose flour
¼ teaspoon baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup chopped pecans
1 pkg. dates
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 cup boiling water
¼ cup butter
1 cup sugar
1 egg

Start your oven at 300F or very slow before you do anything else. Sift flour and measure 1¼ cups into a bowl. Sift again with the baking powder and salt. Then mix nuts into flour mixture (if you haven't any pecans handy, you can use walnuts with great success). Cut up dates in small pieces with a pair of scissors. (Run the scissors under hot water occasionally to keep dates from sticking together.) Mix soda into dates, then pour the boiling water over them. Let dates stand while you go about the rest of the job.

Work or cream butter until it's soft and lightens in color somewhat. Then add the sugar, gradually, creaming as you go. Perfectly creamed butter and sugar should be very fluffy. Then beat in the egg very well.

Combine flour and butter mixtures and mix thoroughly. Finally stir in the dates. Pour into a greased 9-inch square pan and bake 1 hour. When done, let pudding cool in the pan on rack. Then turn out and cut into 9 or 12 squares. While pudding is baking, make white sugar sauce.

White Sugar Sauce. Mix up 2 cups sugar with 1 cup cold water and ½ teaspoon salt. Stir over low fire until sugar has dissolved. Let it come to a boil and cook, stirring occasionally, 5 minutes. Take off the stove and stir in 1 tablespoon of butter, 1 teaspoon vanilla extract and 1 jigger of sherry or bourbon whisky. Pour over date squares and serve with sweetened whipped cream.

Crowd Of 35,000 Attends First Bean Dinner Here In 1938

An estimated crowd of 35,000 persons attended the first Hilltop Bean Dinner held at Westgate Park in 1938. It was held on July 27, just one day earlier than this year's big picnic scheduled for July 28.

A shower of rain about 4 o'clock that afternoon failed to dampen the spirits of those who attended.

George Painter served as general chairman of the affair. Hundreds of pounds of beans, and 240 gallons of coffee were consumed to say nothing of the hot dogs, ice cream, pop, etc.

Tomatoes Fine As Fruit Or Salad; Here Are Three Ways To Cook Them

Tomatoes are at their peak now. You can eat them out of your hand with a dash of salt, or you can enjoy their luscious goodness in salads, in sandwiches and in these new ways which Alice Petersen describes:

Broiled Deviled Tomatoes

6 medium tomatoes
¾ teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
Dash cayenne
¼ cup bread crumbs
1 tablespoon butter or margarine

Cut each tomato in half, crosswise. Mix salt, pepper, cayenne and sprinkle over each tomato half. Cover with bread crumbs and dot with butter or margarine. Do not put them under the broiler yet. Now make up this tasty topping.

5 hard-cooked eggs
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons vinegar
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon sugar
¾ teaspoon prepared mustard
⅛ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
3 drops tabasco
1 raw egg

Put your eggs on to cook. It'll take 15 minutes in simmering water. When they're done, run them under cold water immediately to keep the yolks from turning black.

In the meantime, melt butter or margarine in a heavy saucepan over very low heat. Mix in everything except the raw egg and mix thoroughly. Add hard-cooked eggs chopped fine. Whip up the raw egg and mix in last of all. Continue cooking for a full 4 minutes over low heat, stirring constantly.

Now slide the tomatoes under the broiler, about 2 inches from unit or tip of flame. Allow them to cook for 5 minutes. Then top each tomato half with some of the deviled egg mixture. Sprinkle with chopped parsley to make it especially pretty. Six people will adore the flavor of this tasty recipe.

Sweet and Sour Tomatoes

1 teaspoon fat
1 clove garlic
4 large tomatoes
2 tablespoons salad oil
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 teaspoon minced parsley
1 teaspoon brown sugar

Heat fat (it can be bacon, shortening, butter or margarine or oil) in a skillet over fairly low heat along with split garlic clove for about 5 minutes. Take out the garlic. Cut tomatoes crosswise and place them cut side down in the hot fat. When brown, turn over each tomato and sprinkle mixture of oil, vinegar, parsley and brown sugar. Now cook on lower heat or simmer until skin puckers. If they threaten to burn, add a bit more oil and vinegar. Plenty for 4.

Baked Stuffed Tomatoes With Cheese Sauce

4 tomatoes
½ cup fine bread crumbs
1 can sardines
½ cup chopped stuffed olives
½ teaspoon salt
Few grains pepper
1 teaspoon basil

Start your oven at 325F or slow. Now cut a thin slice off stem end of tomato. Scoop out the pulp with a spoon and turn tomatoes upside down to drain. Mix up tomato pulp with all the other ingredients and fill the drained tomatoes with the mixture. Place tomatoes in a baking dish and pour about ¼ cup of water into bottom of dish. This helps to keep the tomatoes from bursting. Bake in the oven for 45 minutes.

While tomatoes are baking make up about a cup of white sauce, stir into it ½ of a teaspoon of dry mustard. When it's cooked, stir in ½ cup grated sharp cheese until melted. Don't cook any further. Pour this sauce over the baked tomatoes and serve to 4.

Some Vacation Safety Hints

Stop milk, newspaper and other deliveries. Ask a neighbor to keep advertising circulars off your porch.

Don't lower window shades. If you are to be gone three weeks or more, arrange to have your lawn mowed. Prowlers watch for such tip-offs.

Notify post office to hold mail, or arrange delivery to a neighbor.

Lock windows and doors. Remember the basement windows and coal chute.

Shut off the gas and water at main valves. Shut off electricity at master switch unless refrigerator or food locker is to be left on.

RED HEAD — Joan O'Hara, the red head songstress with "Uncle" Homer Meachum and his Buckeye Jamboree, will be heard at the Hilltop Bean Dinner.

If current must be left on, disconnect lamps and appliances at wall outlets. If refrigerator is disconnected, leave door open to prevent mold.

Inform police how long house will be vacant and where you can be reached in an emergency.

Service car thoroughly, giving particular attention to safety features such as lights, brakes, tires, steering, windshield wipers.

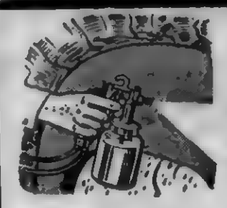
Carry a first aid kit and flashlight in glove compartment. Be sure you have all tire tools.

Speed kills—take it easy. Start a little earlier and don't try to cover too great a distance in a day.

Long drives at constant speed induce drowsiness. Vary your speed and stop occasionally to stretch your legs.

Be sure you understand driving techniques in different localities. For example, using the motor compression to assist braking is necessary in mountainous country. A good rule is to use the same gear to descend a grade as you used in climbing it.

Don't be impatient to make time. It's unsafe, and it's not restful driving.



Woman Suffrage Granted

The amendment to the United States Constitution which gave the right of franchise to the women of the country became effective on Aug. 26, 1920.

The continued increase of the octane rating of gasoline has made possible the development of high compression engines.

The bulldog is a cross of the old British mastiff and the large pug dog of S. E. Asia.

The state of Maryland packs more tomatoes than any other state in the Union.

WELCOME TO THE BEAN DINNER

Once again the progressive business firms of the Hilltop through their organization, the Hilltop Business Association, bid welcome to every resident of the community to the fifth annual Hilltop Bean Dinner to be held at Westgate Park Wednesday afternoon and evening.

The affair promises to be a red letter day for young people and adults. It is the high point of community activity for the summer months — a community-wide picnic such as you may recall in your home town especially if you came from the rural areas.

The bean dinner idea is not new although it may be a novelty in the larger cities. The HBA first experimented with the idea in 1938, found the public endorsed it heartily and went on to bigger and bigger bean dinners.

There's nothing lacking in old fashioned hospitality when business people and residents of the community get together for an afternoon and evening of fun and fellowship. It's one of those unique institutions that have made the Hilltop a fine place in which to live.

Beans

Soup beans, kidney beans, Lima beans, soyabeans, jelly beans . . . That's all we've been discussing around the office for the past two weeks. And all over the Hilltop Bean Dinner that you should know by now is to be held in Westgate Park next Wednesday afternoon and evening.

We've heard and read and dreamed about beans until (to coin a phrase) we can hardly look a bean in the face. If you think it's no problem, just try writing a whole special edition on the subject of beans. Libby Downing and I have racked our "beans" on the subject trying to think up original stories that might entertain dyed in the wool bean fans.

It's been interesting to discover how little is known by the average individual on the subject of beans. Most folks eat 'em, like 'em and ask for a second helping without knowing even so much as where they came from.

Did you know, for instance, that the common ordinary soup bean was supposed to have originated on this continent? It was taken back to Europe by some of the early explorers, possibly even Christopher Columbus himself. It became a great favorite over there. In fact history hasn't yet come up with any explanation of how they fed their armies before beans came on the scene. The veteran of any of the more recent wars can tell you that they couldn't have won without beans.

Nobody seems to be sure why beans became so popular (?) with the men under arms. There are two general theories on the subject. The first is that they were used because of their nutritive value. This can not be disputed since it's a well-known fact that the bean is rich in protein and other much needed energy ingredients. The other is that dry beans were so easy to handle by the mess sergeant They required no refrigeration could be kept for long period of time and were quite simple to prepare. There is a limit to how long they can be kept before bugs start to work on them. That point may not have been too carefully watched by some mess sergeants, however, since some pork is usually added anyway to sharpen up the flavor.

For years it was thought that beans were not fit to eat until they were thoroughly ripe. This meant dry beans—cooked for long hours before they were ready for the table.

Then some one got wise to the fact that they were better when eaten green, pods and all. Perhaps more green beans are consumed today than in the dried variety. American brain did much to cultivate the bean and make it conform to man's commercial needs. The scientist developed the tender pod, ideal for snap beans. He completely eliminated the string that the housewife used to spend long hours removing from the green variety. Thus far he hasn't figured out a way to use the leaves in a salad or cooked like spinach

Then there are the larger Lima beans or "butter" beans as we sometimes know them. They get their name from Lima, South America, where they are said to have originated Here, again, the horticulturist has developed dwarf varieties that require no poles, changed the size of the bean to suit its need but so far has not found any commercial value for the pod.

Yes, beans are an important part of our economy. Without them who would ever have heard of Boston? What would Johnny use as ammunition in his bean shooter and how could we have ever gotten out this special edition?

The city of Danville, Ill., is located in a coal mining district. It also has marble, zinc and iron works.

DDT Urged For Traffic Safety Here

The use of D.D.T. is urged by the Safety Council of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce to prevent traffic accidents.

This D.D.T. is not the famous bug killer — it means Defensive Driving in Traffic, and it's a potent poison for traffic accidents. It's the smart way to drive a motor vehicle, long practiced by the best professional bus and truck drivers but not common enough among average motorists.

Defensive Driving in Traffic means more than just obeying traffic laws, signs and signals and avoiding mistakes of judgment in your own driving. It also means being able to avoid accident situations caused by others.

The council says you are a defensive driver if you can answer "yes" to the following questions:

Although you have the right of way at an intersection, another car is coming fast along the cross street. Do you slow down and stop if necessary?

The driver ahead holds out his hand. Do you stay behind until you are sure of what he intends to do?

You are driving along a residential street and see children playing on the sidewalk. Do you slow down and keep a sharp eye on them?

You've had a couple of highballs at a party but feel fit as a fiddle. Do you ask someone else to drive?

You are approaching the crest of a hill. Do you slow down, keep well to the right and alert for the approaching speed demon who is trying to pass a truck on the other side of the hill?

The night is wet and dark. Do you cut your speed so you can stop in the distance your headlights illuminate,

The trick of defensive driving is to concentrate not only on what you are doing, but on what the "other fellow" is doing or plans to do.

The state of Massachusetts is replete with national landmarks of interest.

The game of poker originated in the west of England and was first known as Post-an-pair.

A Few Ways to Prepare Beans

A few of the many ways that beans can be fixed for the dinner table are listed below. While most of the recipes given are for baked beans, the process of boiling the beans is comparatively simple. Baked beans can be prepared in a multitude of ways.

Mrs. R. E. Cromer, 499 N. Harris-av, submitted this baked bean recipe:

Soak two pounds of beans over night. (I like dry limas.) Bring to boil in same water and cook till partially tender, then add one large onion (chopped). Keep adding water as needed.

½ pound bacon or salt pork
2 pounds Orleans molasses
½ c. brown sugar
1 c. catsup or chilli sauce
1 tb. salt

Boston Baked Beans

1 qt. navy beans
Cold water
½ lb. salt pork or less
1 tb. salt
1 tb. molasses or more
3 tb. sugar if desired
1 c. tomato or ½ c. catsup if desired

Pick over and wash the beans. Soak over night in cold water. Drain and cover with fresh water. Simmer until the skins begin to burst. Drain the beans, throwing the water outdoors—not in the sink because of the odor. Scald and scrape the rind of the pork. Place a one-fourth-inch slice of pork in the bottom of the bean pot. Cut through the rind of the remaining pork, making cuts one inch deep. Put the beans in the pot and bury the pork in them. Mix the seasoning with 1 c. boiling water and pour over the beans. Add enough more boiling water to cover them. Cover the bean pot; put into the oven and bake slowly 6 to 8 hours, uncovering for the last hour to allow the beans to brown. Add water as needed.

BAKED BROWN BEANS

Soak 1 lb. navy beans overnight, add salt and cook until tender. Add 1½ cups brown sugar, catsup to taste. Place bacon strips and rings of onions on top and bake for 2 hours.

Soak 3 cups beans over night. Then add 1 teaspoon soda and boil. When skin begins to crack, pour water off and add 3 tablespoons sugar or sirup, 3 tb. butter, and 3 teaspoons salt. Then cover beans with boiling water an inch above them, an bake until water is level with beans.

BOILED BEANS OR BEAN SOUP

Soak beans about 1 lb., overnight. Pour first water off, and add new clear water, add ½ teaspoon of soda and bring to boil. Again drain, add new water, a ham hock or bacon and 1 teaspoon of salt. With beans well covered, boil for 3 hours. Adding water from time to time will keep ingredients from burning and will make thick soup. Stir each 45 min. to keep beans from sticking in center of pan.

LIMA AND STRING BEANS AU GRATIN

Cut 1 pound string beans in half lengthwise, prepare 2 cups lima beans. Cook them separately in salted boiling water, until tender. Drain and place in alternate layers in a casserole. Melt 3 tablespoons butter, add 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, a dash Cayenne, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce and blend thoroughly. Add 1 cup heavy cream and stir constantly until thickened. Pour over the casserole of beans, lifting beans with a fork so that sauce is well distributed. Sprinkle with ½ cup Parmesan cheese and 1 tablespoon sifted bread crumbs. Dot with 3 tablespoons butter or margarine; place under broiler and brown on top.

BOSTON BAKED BEANS

Take 1 quart dry beans, soak in cold water over night. Drain and cook ½ pound fat pork until tender. Pour in casserole and add 2 tablespoons sugar, 2 tablespoons molasses, 1 tablespoon mustard and 1 teaspon salt. Cover top with strips of bacon, place in oven and bake slowly.

The origin of the scrip auction on the Hilltop is brought to light by some clippings of early issues of The Hilltop Record, now in possession of L. E. Saunders.

The auctioning of $1,000 worth of merchandise will be a highlight of the fifth annual Hilltop Bean Dinner at Westgate Park on July 28.

It was at the suggestion of Saunders and others that a delegation of local business men constituting the Business Advancement Committee of the Hilltop Business Men's Association paid a visit to Middleport in the spring of 1932. The group had made plans for the first scrip auction on the Hilltop to be held on April 18 of that year.

The delegation was headed by the late C. J. Kohn, then president of the HBMA, Ex-mayor Thomas, and Floyd Green. Others in the party were H. G. Deems, C. Richards, C. J. Rice, C. C. Hartley, Saunders, W. A. Harris, Paul Rausch, and Walter Reeves. Arrangements for the trip were made by Saunders, a former resident of Middleport.

Guests of Rotary

The group was entertained by the Business Men's Association and the Rotary Club of Middleport in the Presbyterian Church. Kohn and Green, who had recently been a candidate for mayor of Columbus, spoke at the meeting attended by 62 business men of the community.

The first Hilltop scrip auction was held on what was then a vacant lot immediately to the east of the Hilltop office of the Ohio National Bank. Then as now Hilltoppers took to the novel idea. Scrip had been issued for several weeks in full value for each purchase made. Bidding was enthusiastic with Green and Harris alternating as auctioneers.

Merchandise was bought at all prices. Here are a few samples of the prices paid (with scrip) for items sold:

Alarm clock, $100; bowl of gold fish, $85; shoulder hams, $100; brooms, $80; bucket of lard, $25; can of coffee, $20; necktie, $10; rag rug, $150; soap, $15; doll, $50; kitchen chair, $100; electric waffle iron, $250; suspenders, $28; hatchet, $50.

Jamboree Gang To Appear Twice At Bean Dinner

Highlighting the entertainment program for the Hilltop Bean Dinner will be the fun and music of the Buckeye Jamboree, starring "Uncle" Homer Meachum and his radio entertainers.

The Jamboree gang is regularly heard over WHIZ, Zanesville, from the Barn, located in Moxahala Park, every Saturday night.

Meachum is a veteran of radio, stage and screen, having been a pioneer of radio. He has been heard from coast to coast for years over both NBC and CBS.

Appearing with him will be Aunt Blanche and Little Buford in comedy skits; Slim Pinkerman, violinist; Joan O'Hura, songstress, and Lucky Joy, "master of the accordion."

Important Public Development

The Erie Canal was an important event in American early history. It is credited with being the greatest single factor in the development of the state of New York.

Irrigation has been used in arid and semi-arid countries since ancient times.

Latin Seafood and Chicken Casserole Is Easy Dish To Prepare; Delicious

Do you like to share your favorite foods with favorite friends? You will enjoy serving such an elegant casserole as Paella Valenciana. Although it contains many ingredients, it is not difficult to prepare.

"Paella is pronounced 'Pah-a-yah' and is of Spanish origin. There are a dozen variations on the basic theme of stewed chicken, rice and shell-fish. Green peas and pimiento are frequently included. Our recipe for Paella Valenciana is a guide which may be varied. Other seafood can be used with confidence in the result. We usually simmer the chicken a day in advance.

"Plan to have six or eight persons in for a Paella feast. Add a bowl of green salad, a loaf of French or Italian bread or white rolls. Finish with a platter of chilled fruit.

Paella Valenciana
(6-8 servings)

Step 1—Place chicken in large pan. (Stewing fowl or back and wing pieces.) Add 1½ quarts water, 1½ teaspoons salt, 6 peppercorns, and 1 onion, sliced. Simmer gently for 2 hours or until chicken is tender. Remove chicken. There should be about a quart of broth remaining.

Step 2—To bubbling chicken broth add 8 fresh shrimps, 8 scallops, 1 dozen clams (scrub), 4 mussels* (shells), 4 hard-shelled crabs (cleaned and quartered). Simmer 30 minutes.

Step 3—While seafood simmers, cook 2 cups rice by your favorite method.

Step 4 — Heat in frying pan 3 tablespoons olive or salad oil, ¼ cup chopped onion, and 1 clove garlic, chopped. Cook until browned. Stir in 2 cups cooked chicken, 3 Italian or spicy sausages, cut in pieces, and ½ cup cooked ham, chopped. Let meat brown. Turn into seafood mixture. Simmer a few minutes.

Step 5—Place cooked rice in large casserole* (warmed). Mix ¼ teaspoon saffron or few drops yellow vegetable coloring until rice is golden. Pour seafood, meat and remaining broth over the rice. With large spoon, mix as if you were tossing a salad. Serve at once.

"Here is a quick version of Paella which uses canned shrimp and canned soup.

Paella Americana
(4 servings)

Combine in saucepan 1 can condensed chicken-rice soup, 1 13 oz. jar clam broth or 1 cup water liquid from 8 oz. can of shrimp. Add 1 cup washed rice. Cover. Bring to boiling point. Turn heat low and steam 20-25 minutes.

Heat in frying-pan 2 tablespoons salad oil and 1 clove garlic, cut in two. Let brown. Remove and discarde garlic. Add ¼ cup sliced onion. Stir until browned. Remove, save. Add ¼ lb. sliced salami, cut in pieces. Stir until browned. Add shrimp from 5 oz. can. Let heat, stirring gently so as not to break shrimp.

Turn steamed rice into casserole or bowl. Place salami, shrimp and onions on top. Mix gently, garnish with pimiento. 1 cup cooked green peas may be mixed in at finish if desired.

Jellied Chicken Cranberry Salad

The meat from a 4-lb. cooked fowl
2¼ cups cranberries
1 cup sugar
¼ cup water
1½ envelopes (1½ tbsp.) unflavored gelatine
½ cup cold water
2 cups hot chicken stock
1 cup chopped celery
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon dry mustard
1 teaspoon onion juice
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 tablespoon chopped parsley

Cut up the cooked chicken meat in bite-size pieces, then proceed as follows: cook cranberries in sugar and ¼ cup water until the skins burst; soften gelatine in ½ cup of water and stir 1 teaspoon only of softened gelatine into cooked cranberries; dissolve remaining gelatine in the strained chicken stock and chill this mixture until it has begun to jell. Then stir in chicken, celery, salt, mustard, onion juice, lemon juice and parsley. Now oil a 2-quart mold (a fancy one if you have same) with salad oil. Pour half of the chicken mixture into the mold, then the cranberries and finally the remaining chicken mixture. Chill in refrigerator over night or at least 6 hours. Unmold on watercress or salad greens and serve with salad dressing. Enough for 6 to 8.

Tomatoes In Cream

6 medium onions
6 large tomatoes
Salt and pepper
1 tablespoon sugar
1 cup soft bread crumbs
3 tablespoons chopped parsley.
1 cup sweet cream

Start your oven at 300F, or very slow. Cut onions crosswise in thin slices and cook in boiling water about 3 minutes. Drain immediately. Now slice tomatoes and then grease a medium-sized baking dish. Put a layer of tomatoes in bottom of dish, sprinkle them with salt, pepper and half the sugar. Add a layer of onion, bread crumbs and parsley. Repeat until baking dish is full, pour on cream and sprinkle top with crushed cereal, crackers, toast or rusk that has been shaken up in a little melted butter. Bake 45 minutes and serve piping hot to 6 happy people.

Bean Feasts Date Back To Old Country; King Selected

By Libby Downing

The big Bean Dinner which will be held next week will be slightly varied from the Bean Feasts of old.

In old England, a long time ago, each year an employer would give his workers what was commonly known as a "bean feast." A special cake was baked for the occasion, with one bean placed inside. When the cake was cut, the person receiving the slice with the bean was hailed as the Bean King, and his reign lasted from Christmas until the Twelfth Night. The king's chief duty, presumably, was to perform magical ceremonies which would insure good weather for the ensuing months.

The United States, one of the most important field-bean producing countries in the world, produces an estimated 19,000,000 bushels of this product each year. And each one of us eats on an average of eight pounds of beans per annum. (The man who compiled these figures, however, didn't know about the Hilltop's Bean Dinner!)

In our country the most common type of bean is the kidney bean. To this family belong the navy, string and wax beans. In fact there are more than 150 varieties now in cultivation. In China and Japan the soybean provides the necessary protein in the people's diets. A sauce is made of the soybean and is eaten with each meal. The lima bean, as its name would indicate, was first grown in Peru, and since the lowly bean is so widely known and accepted it's easy to see why a person's lack of sense is expressed with the words, "he doesn't know beans."

If all the political delegates in the coming elections were suddenly to lose their voices (and this isn't wishful thinking) there would be nothing to fear, because all they'd need would be one black and one white bean. In ancient Greece it was a custom to vote by means of beans; the white meant "yes" and the black stood for "no."

The bean was the initial figure in a Roman ritual. After the father had washed his hands, he threw black beans over is head nine times in order to purify himself and his family.

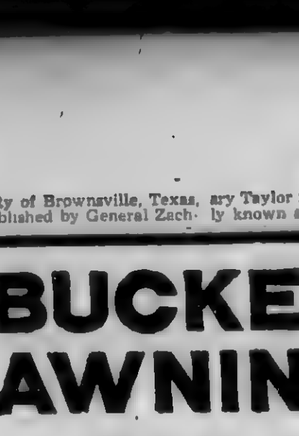
It's seldom that we stop to consider the little bean, but in most cases we don't consume the actual bean, only the seed. The string bean is the exception to the rule, because we eat the unripe pod.

The broad or Windsor-type bean dates back to prehistoric times, and its origin never has been found. But the hot climate in the U. S. confines most of its production to Canada and England. This is the bean which is famous for the legend of "Jack and the Beanstalk." It grows to a height of sometimes four feet and is distinguished by its bushlike appearance.

All beans are of the pulse family, meaning that they bear seeds. In poorer lands the soybean is grown for food as a substitute for meat, but in this country its main purpose is to restore nitrogen to the soil.

During the year 1946 an estimated 194,000 acres of lima and snap beans were harvested for fresh market use alone. This totals 300,000 tons of beans, and to get right down to the actual monetary value, means $46,435,000 worth of "just beans."

Creamed Chicken Mushroom Waffles



2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon granulated sugar
5 teaspoons baking powder
4 egg yolks
2 cups milk
2/3 cup melted shortening
4 egg whites
1½ cups coarsely cut-up cooked chicken

Preheat iron as manufacturer directs. Set control button to medium. Sift dry ingredients together. Combine beaten egg yolks, milk and shortening; add to dry ingredients. Then fold in stiffly beaten egg whites and the chopped chicken. Pour batter into center of iron. Close, cook until waffle is golden brown. Serve in quarters with your favorite creamed mushroom sauce. This recipe makes 8 large waffles or 12 servings.
